21 * [69] For [70] after that, [71] in the wiſdom of God; [72] the world [73] by wiſdom [74] knew not God, [75] it pleaſed God by the [59] fooliſhneſs of preaching [76] to ſave them that believe.

* Rom. 1. 21, 28. See Matth. 11. 25. Luke 10. 21.

[69] q. d. And the Reaſon why God held forth the Doctrine of Salvation in a way contrary to carnal Wiſdom, was hereby to puniſh Mens Impiety. ¶ [70] Since it came ſo to paſs, that—— ¶ [71] Through the wiſe Diſpoſal of Divine Providence. ¶ [72] Carnal Perſons, of a worldly Spirit, whether Jews or Gentiles; eſpecially Rulers and Grandees. ¶ [73] By thoſe Diſcoveries which he made, and Demonſtrations which he gave, of his infinite Wiſdom, in the Creation and Government of the World, Acts 17. 25–28. & 14. 17. Rom. 1. 20. and by his written Law, Revelations, and other Helps vouchſafed to the Jews; which were alſo Fruits and Inſtances of his infinite Wiſdom. ¶ [74] The Heathen were not brought to the true ſaving Knowledge of God, and the Jews did not diſcern and acknowledge God in the Miracles, Doctrine, and Sufferings of Chriſt. ¶ [75] He ſaw it meet to ordain another way for the bringing Men to Salvation. ¶ [76] To bring them to believe, and ſo to be ſaved.

Chap. 1. 4057.

22 [77] For the Jews [78] require a ſign, and the [79] Greeks ſeek after wiſdom:

[77] q. d. And it appears that all worldly Men count the Goſpel Fooliſhneſs; for both Jews and Gentiles do ſo. ¶ [78] Matt. 12. 38. & 16. 1. Luke 11. 16. John 2. 18. & 4. 48. Reject the Goſpel, becauſe not attended with Miracles ſuited to their Fancies, and ſuch as they expected. ¶ [79] The Gentiles, eſpecially the learned Grecians, expect that the Truth of this new Doctrine ſhould be proved by natural Reaſon, Principles of Philoſophy, Practice of Wiſe ones, or ſome ſuch thing, ſuited to their carnal Wiſdom; which becauſe they can't find, they reject it.

23 [81] But we preach Chriſt crucified, * unto the Jews [82] a ſtumbling-block, and unto the Greeks, [59] fooliſhneſs.

* Matt. 11. 6. Chap. 2. 14.

[81] q. d. But though we can't gratifie their Expectation, yet we go on in our way, and do openly publiſh and avow, that Chriſt by his Death has redeemed Believers from eternal Death, and purchaſt eternal Life for 'em. ¶ [82] John 6. 60, 66. An occaſion of Offence, by reaſon of his Meanneſs and Death, (whereas they look'd for a glorious and victorious Meſſiah, who ſhould reſcue them from their Enemies) and becauſe the Profeſſion of Chriſt was attended with Sufferings.

24 [83] But unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Chriſt, * the power of God, and [85] wiſdom of God.

* Rom. 1. 16.

[83] q. d. But they that are brought to believe, do certainly know and find by experience, that Chriſt is not ſuch a mean contemptible perſon as the Jews take him for, but he by whom God puts forth his Almighty Power for the ſaving of them. ¶ [85] Prov. 8. 12. Col. 2. 3. He by whom God does alſo manifeſt his infinite Wiſdom in bringing about our Salvation: and the preaching of whom, in the Goſpel, is not ſuch a piece of folly as the Greeks count it, but that which contains the glorious Method of the Salvation of Sinners, whereby God does manifeſt his infinite Wiſdom.

25 Becauſe the [86] fooliſhneſs of God is wiſer than men; and the [87] weakneſs of God is [88] ſtronger than men.

[86] q. d. Well! be it ſo; that the preaching of Chriſt crucified is counted Fooliſhneſs, yet this Fooliſhneſs will be found to contain more of true Wiſdom wrapt up in it, than all the wiſeſt Contrivances of all the Sons of Men; or, the loweſt expreſſions of God's Wiſdom in thoſe Actions and Diſpenſations, which are moſt contrary to the Judgment, Wiſdom, and Experience of carnal Perſons, are undertaken upon better Reaſons, than any Man's. ¶ [87] Thoſe weak means which God uſes to accompliſh his purpoſes by, 1 Kings 12. 70. or, the ſmalleſt effects of his Power. ¶ [88] More available than all humane Power, to bring about their deſigns.

26 [89] For ye ſee [90] your calling, brethren, how that * not many wiſe men [91] after the fleſh, not many mighty, not many noble [92] are called.

* John 7. 48.

[89] q. d. And hereby it appears, that the Fooliſhneſs of God is wiſer than Men, becauſe he makes uſe of ſuch weak, mean Inſtruments. ¶ [90] What Method he uſes, and what manner of Perſons he employs, to bring you to the knowledge of the Goſpel. ¶ [91] In outward Reſpects, and in the account of the World; ſuch as are endued with fleſhly Wiſdom. ¶ [92] Rather [are employed to call you.]

27 But * God hath [93] choſen the [94] fooliſh things of the world, [95] to confound the wiſe; and God hath [93] choſen the [96] weak things of the world, to [95] confound the things that are mighty;

* Matt. 11. 25. James 2. 5. See Pſal. 8. 2.

[93] Pick't out theſe kind of Perſons from among others, and fitted 'em for, and called 'em to, this Employment. ¶ [94] Acts 4. 13. Jam. 2. 5. Such Perſons as are of little eſteem in the World, for want of Learning, Parts, and ſuch other Accompliſhments as ſome have attain'd, and who are judged altogether unfit to teach others, being a company of poor Fiſher-men, and the like. ¶ [95] To non-plus, and put to ſilence the great Rabbies, and learned Doctors, who count themſelves wiſe, (Acts 13. 16. & 6. 9, 10. & 7. 54.) And ſometimes ſo to convince them, as that they are converted, Acts 6. 7. & 17. 34. ¶ [96] Ch. 2. 3. 1 Sam. 17. 49. Such Perſons as ſeemed never to be able to manage ſuch an Employment.

CHAP. II.

1 Paul preaching, though without excellency of speech, or of wisdom, yet 6 excelleth the wisdom of this world, and 14 the natural man's understanding.

* Chap. 1. 17.

1 AND I, brethren, when I came to you, * came not with [2] excellency of speech, or [3] of wisdom, declaring unto you the [4] testimony of God.

[1] q. d. Since this is God's way of calling and converting Persons, viz. to do it by such unlikely, contemptible Means, ch. 1. 26— therefore my manner of preaching the Gospel is answerable thereunto. Here he confirms by his own Example, what he had there delivered. ¶ [2] Ver. 4, 13. I used not a pompous and flourishing manner of Preaching, (as some of your Teachers do) thereby to gain Applause, and an Opinion of Excellency above others. ¶ [3] See on ch. 1. n. 55. I mingled not the Simplicity of the Gospel with humane Wisdom. ¶ [4] See on ch. 1. n. 25.

2 For I determined [5] not to know any thing among you, save Jesus Christ, and him crucified.

[5] John 17. 3. Gal. 6. 14. Phil. 3. 10. Not only to preach the Gospel sincerely, without any mixture of humane Wisdom, but chiefly to insist upon that part of it which seems most contemptible, and which humane Wisdom does most abhor, viz. concerning the Sufferings of Christ.

3 And [6] I was with you in weakness, and in [7] fear, and in much trembling.

[6] Acts 18. 3. & 20.-18, 19. 2 Cor. 10. 10. & 11. 39. & 12. 9. Gal. 4. 13. My Person was answerable to my Preaching, about which there was nothing Pompous, but every thing Mean; as Poverty, Disgrace, mean Clothing, &c. (as ch. 4. 10.-13.) that not so much my self, as my Doctrine might be esteemed. ¶ [7] With inward trouble of mind, (2 Cor. 11. 29. which many times caused outward trembling of Body) lest the Course of the Gospel should any ways be hindred, either by my bodily Infirmities, or Death, or by the Devil's Malice, or the like.

* 2 Pet. 1. 16. ‖ Or, perswasible.

4 And my speech, and my preaching * was not with ‖ enticing words [8] of man's wisdom, but in [9] demonstration of the Spirit, and [10] of power.

[8] Suggested to me by carnal Wisdom, (v. 13.) or humane Learning. ¶ [9] So as might most clearly demonstrate, that I spake by the Assistance of the Spirit. ¶ [10] Not in a dull, formal, lifeless, customary way; but so as might make it appear, that there was a mighty Power and Efficacy accompanying the Word, which might carry it home unto the Conscience, Luke 4.-32. Matt. 7. 29. Mark 1.-22. 1 Thess. 1. 5.

Chap. 2. 4057.

5 [11] That your faith should not † stand in the wisdom of men, but [12] in the power of God.

[11] That your Belief of the Gospel should not be thought to be obtained by humane Wisdom or Eloquence, and should not depend upon them. ¶ [12] Acts 16.-14. 2 Cor. 4. 7. & 12. 9. 1 Pet. 1. 5. Be ascribed only to his Power, influencing such weak Means.

* Phil. 3. 15.

6 Howbeit [13] we speak wisdom [14] among * them that are perfect: yet not the wisdom [15] of this world, nor [16] of the Princes of this world, [17] that come to nought.

[13] The Subject-matter of my Preaching is the most wise Contrivance and Counsel of God, concerning the Salvation of Man by Christ crucified. ¶ [14] q. d. And so it will be owned to be, though not by learned Philosophers, yet by humble, sincere Christians, (as the word is taken, Matt. 5. 48.) and such who have attained to some ripeness of Understanding in the Knowledge of the Gospel; as ch. 14.-20. Eph. 4. 13. Heb. 5. 14. ¶ [15] Ch. 1.-20. Which teaches how to manage our temporal Affairs, only in order to a comfortable Life here. ¶ [16] Maxims of State-Policy, which Statesmen count the only wisdom. ¶ [17] Who by all their Plots and Policies cannot secure themselves from Ruine, (whereas our wisdom conducts us to everlasting Happiness, v. 7.)

* Col. 1. 26. 2 Tim. 1. 9.

7 But we [18] speak the wisdom of God [19] in a mystery, even the [19] hidden wisdom, * which God [20] ordained before the world [21] unto our glory.

[18] Such as no Creature could make any Discovery of, (Eph. 3. 9, 10.) and particularly, which has been kept secret hitherto from the great Ones of the world, ver. 8. ¶ [19] Rom. 16. 25. Hidden formerly under holy Mysteries and Jewish Types; and but darkly spoken of by the Prophets, and altogether unknown to the Gentiles. ¶ [20] Purposed from everlasting to reveal in the Gospel, and by the saving Knowledge thereof to bring us to Glory, John 17. 3.

8 [22] Which none of the princes of this world knew: for [25] had they known it, they would not have crucified the [26] Lord of glory.

[22] Matt. 11. 25. John 7. 48. Acts 13. 27. Which way of attaining Glory few or none in comparison, of the Rulers either of Jews or Gentiles knew. ¶ [25] Luke 23. 34. John 8. 10. & 16. 3. Acts 3. 17. & 13. 27. 2 Cor. 3. 14. 1 Tim. 1.-13. Had they fully understood that this had been the only way to attain Happiness, viz. by Jesus of Nazareth. ¶ [26] Acts 7. 2. Christ, who is the glorious Head of his Church, and will communicate his Glory to his Members.

9 [27] But as it is written, [28] Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entred into the heart of [29] man, the [30] things which God hath [31] prepared for them that love him.

[27] q. d. But it's no wonder that they were ignorant hereof; for these Gospel-mysteries, concerning eternal Glory in Heaven, pass all Mens natural Understandings. ¶ [28] Ver. 14. Isa. 64. 4. 1 Pet. 1. 12. 1 Kings 10. 7. ¶ [29] Viz. A meer natural Man, ver. 14. ¶ [30] i. e. To perceive the things, viz. the Work of Redemption by Christ, and all those Priviledges we obtain by him. ¶ [31] Provided, and holds forth in the Gospel.

10 But God hath [32] revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit [33] searcheth all things, yea, the [34] deep things of God.

[32] Matt. 13. 11. & 16. 7. 2 Cor. 3. 18. 1 John 2. 27. Framed such Images and Representations of Spiritual things in our Hearts, as are not in the Hearts of any carnal Persons; whereby we are enabled to understand (by the Word) and believe all things necessary to Salvation: and to know the nature of it, and the way how to obtain it. ¶ [33] Knows, (v. 11.) and enables us to search and find out. ¶ [34] Even the most secret Counsels of God, and reveals so much thereof to us, as concerns us to know, John 1. 18. & 14. 7, 9.

11 For what man [35] knoweth the [36] things of a man, save the [37] spirit of man which is in him? even so the [38] things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of [39] God.

AND I, brethren, could not speak unto you, as unto [4] spiritual, but as unto [5] carnal, [6] even as unto babes in Christ.

2 [7] I have fed you with [8] milk, and not with [9] meat: for [10] hitherto ye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able.

4 For while one saith, [16] I am of Paul, and another, I am of Apollos, are ye not [5] carnal?

[16] See on ch. 1. 12. n. 45.

5 Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but [17] ministers by whom ye believed, even [18] as the Lord gave to every man?

11 For [39] other foundation can no man lay, than that is laid, which is [40] Jesus Christ.

[39] No Teacher can direct you any other way to Salvation, than by Faith in Christ, Acts 4. 12. ¶ [40] Esa. 28. 16. Matt. 16. 18. Eph. 2. 20.

12 Now if any man build upon this foundation, [41] gold, silver, precious stones, [42] wood, hay, stubble;

[41] 2 Tim. 1. 13. Preach pure and sound Doctrine, suitable to the Foundation. ¶ [42] Humane Institutions, or Errors of lesser moment, (which, though they differ from, and disfigure the Foundation, yet don't destroy it,) or corrupt Practices.

* Chap. 4. 5.

13 * Every man's [43] work shall be made [44] manifest. For the [45] day shall declare it, because it

† shall be revealed by [46] fire; and the fire shall try every man's work, of what sort it is.

[43] The Nature of his Doctrine, whether it be true or false, sound and solid, or corrupt and frothy. ¶ [44] Viz. both to the Teacher himself, and to others. ¶ [45] A narrow and strict search into the Nature of it; or, time will discover the unsoundness of it; though for a while it may pass for current. ¶ [46] Esa. 48. 10. 1 Pet. 1. 7. and 4. 12. the light of the Word (Acts 17. 11. Eph. 5. 13.) which is like Fire, Jer. 23. 29.

14 [47] If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive [48] a reward.

[47] If his Doctrine prove sound and true, and so of a lasting Nature. ¶ [48] The Approbation of his own Conscience, and of all sound Christians, and praise of God, (ch. 4. 5. Matt. 25. 21.) for the faithful discharge of his Office.

15 If any man's work shall be [49] burnt, he shall [50] suffer loss: but he himself shall [51] be saved; yet so [52] as by fire.

[49] Appear to be unprofitable and worthless (as things that are burnt.) ¶ [50] Lose all his Labour and Expectation, and the forementioned reward of Approbation and Commendation. ¶ [51] Escape punishment, (he being sincere, and holding firm to the Foundation.) ¶ [52] Not without much difficulty, nor without some loss, (as one that hardly scapes out of the Fire, but has his Cloaths burnt.)

16 [53] Know ye not that [54] ye are the [55] temple of God, and that the Spirit of God [56] dwelleth in you?

[53] q. d. And you should also take heed what Doctrine you deliver, lest you thereby defile, or destroy the Temple of God. ¶ [54] The Church, Eph. 2. 21. 1 Tim. 3. 15. ¶ [55] Ch. 6. 19. 2 Cor. 6. 16. Eph. 2. 21, 22. Heb. 3. 6. 1 Pet. 2. 5. Set apart from profane uses, and dedicated to his Service; among whom he manifests his gracious presence by his Spirit. ¶ [56] See on Rom. 8. 9. n. 45.

17 If any man ‖ [57] defile the temple of God, him shall God [58] destroy: for the temple of God is [59] holy, which temple ye are.

[57] Or, [destroy] i. e. If hereby it come to pass, that any of the Members of the Church, by reason of such frothy and unsound preaching, either come short of true Grace, or together with true Grace, be leavened with many Errors, and so come short of that degree of Grace he might else have attained, and so perish either in whole, or in part. ¶ [58] Punish with eternal Damnation, 2 Pet. 2. 1.-3. (and therefore take heed of this.) ¶ [59] Separated from all Pollution.

18 Let [60] no man [61] deceive himself: If any man among you [62] seemeth to be wise in this world, [64] let him become a fool, that he may [65] be [66] wise.

19 For the wisdom of this world is [67] foolishness with God: [68] for it is written, [69] He taketh the wise in their own craftiness.

[67] Is accounted so by God. ¶ [68] q. d. And it appears to be Folly, because it tends to their own ruin, as it is written. ¶ [69] Job 5. 13. He intangles and brings 'em to ruin, by those subtle Contrivances, whereby they thought to secure themselves.

20 And again, [70] The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the [71] wise, that they are [72] vain.

[70] Psal 94. 11. ¶ [71] The worldly Wise. ¶ [72] Psal. 2. 1. Unprofitable, and ineffectual to secure themselves against God.

21 Therefore let no man [73] glory in men: for [74] all things are yours.

[73] Set any Man up as his Oracle, and depend on him, as the Lord of his Faith, and glory in having such a one to be his Teacher, and that he is his Follower. ¶ [74] Rom. 8. 28. All the Officers of the Church, and Gifts bestowed on them, (yea and all Creatures) are for the use, benefit, and service of the Church in common, (and therefore you should not so set 'em up one against another.)

22 Whether [75] Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the [76] world, or [77] life, or [78] death, or [79] things present, or [80] things to come; all are [81] yours;

[75] Ver. 5. Even the Apostles themselves, (much more inferior Ministers.) ¶ [76] Which was made, and is preserved, that therein the Elect may work out their own Salvation, and when that work is perfected, the World shall be at an end. ¶ [77] The continuance of this Life, in order to a better. ¶ [78] All outward Calamities, and at last the separation of the Soul from the Body, is for your advantage; being a passage to eternal Happiness, Phil. 1. 21. ¶ [79] All present Providences. ¶ [80] All the Enjoyments of the World to come. ¶ [81] Conduce to your spiritual and eternal Advantage.

[82] Ch. 6. 19. Subject to him, and depending on him, (Matt. 23. 8, 10.) and therefore must glory in, and obey him only. ¶ [83] Viz. As Man and Mediator. ¶ [84] Chap. 11.-3. Heb. 1. 3. His obedient Son (Phil. 2. 8.) resigning up himself to his Will, (Matt. 26. 39. John 6. 38.) and seeking his Glory in all, (John 17. 4.) and so should we.

CHAP. IV.

1 How to account of ministers. 7 We have nothing, but we have received it. 9 The Apostles 15 are our fathers in Christ.

1 LET a man so account of us, as of the [2] ministers of Christ, and [3] stewards of the mysteries of God.

[1] Having warn'd them against an undue esteem of their own Pastors, (ch. 3.) he now shews how far they should esteem all the true Ministers of Christ. ¶ [2] 2 Cor. 4. 5. and 6. 4. Col. 1. 25. Tit. 1. 7. 1 Pet. 4. 10. Not Masters of their Faith, but those that are appointed to serve Christ in the work of the Ministry. ¶ [3] Matt. 24. 45. Tit. 1. 7. See there. Intrusted with the Keys of Discipline, (Isa. 22. 22. Matt. 16. 19.) and administration of the Word and Sacraments.

2 Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found [4] faithful.

[4] Luke 12. 42. Acting according to his Commission, and neither with-holding any Priviledge, or part of God's Will from the People; (Acts 20. 20, 27.) nor delivering his own Fancies, (2 Pet. 1. 16.) nor taking more Authority than God has given, Mark 10. 42. 1 Pet. 5. 3.

3 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be [5] judged of you, or of [6] man's † judg- † Gr. day.
ment: yea, [7] I judge not my own self.

[5] Slighted, (in comparison of your eloquent Teachers, 2 Cor. 10. 10.) ¶ [6] A Judgment passed by any men whatsoever, though in the most solemn manner. ¶ [7] Viz. Finally, Infallibly, Definitively.

4 For [8] I know nothing by my self, yet am I not hereby [9] justified: but he that [10] judgeth me is the Lord.

[8] 1 John 3. 20, 21. q. d. Though I am not conscious to my self of unfaithfulness, or negligence in the discharge of my Ministry, but have been diligent in doing my Duty in all respects, ch. 15.-10. Rom. 15.-19. 2 Cor. 11. 23.

5 Therefore [11] judge nothing before the time, until the Lord [12] come, who both will [13] bring to light the hidden things of darkneſs, and will make manifeſt the [14] counſels of the hearts: and then ſhall [15] every man have [16] praiſe of God.

Take not upon you to pronounce ſo poſitively and peremptorily, concerning mens Credit and Worth. ¶ [12] Viz. To Judgment. ¶ [13] Job 12. 22. ¶ [14] Mens purpoſes and ends in what they do, (which now are hidden.) ¶ [15] Viz. Who is Faithful, Sincere, and Praiſe-worthy. ¶ [16] Matt. 25. 34. Rom. 2.-29. Both Commendation, and Reward.

6 And [17] theſe things, brethren, I have in a figure transferred to my ſelf, and to Apollos, for your ſakes: that ye might learn [21] in us, [22] not to think of men above that which is written, [23] that no one of you be puffed up for one againſt another.

[17] q. d. What I ſpake (ch. 1. 12. & 3. 4.) concerning your Partiality in overvaluing ſome Miniſters, was not as if any of you had ſet up my ſelf or Apollos in ſuch a factious way, but only to teach and repreſent to you, under our Perſons, how you ought to carry your ſelves towards your Miniſters; and not to magnifie one, though it were my ſelf or Apollos, ſo as to undervalue and deſpiſe others. ¶ [21] By what is there ſaid concerning my ſelf, and him. ¶ [22] Not to ſet a higher rate and value upon any of your Teachers, or their Gifts and Abilities, than what is expreſſed, (ch. 3.6--8.) agreeable to Scripture, viz. That they are but Inſtruments in God's hand, and that all the Succeſs and Efficacy of their Labours depends upon his Bleſſing. ¶ [23] That you ſhould not value your ſelves, by reaſon of your Relation to, or Dependance upon one Teacher more than another, ſo as to magnifie one, and vilifie another.

7 For [24] who † maketh thee to differ from another? and what haſt thou that thou didſt not [25] receive? now if thou didſt receive it, why doſt thou [26] glory, as if thou hadſt [27] not received it?

[24] Rom. 9. 16. q. d. Who has ſo far advanc'd thee in point of Judgment, and Wiſdom, above all other Believers, as that you can by your own Authority ſet up any one Teacher above another? ¶ [25] John 3. 27. Rom. 12. 6. Jam. 1. 17. 1 Pet. 4. 10. viz. From God, who has given as much to others alſo. ¶ [26] Grow proud of it. ¶ [27] But hadſt attained this ſingular skill, by thy own induſtry; and that no one elſe had the like.

CHAP. V.

1 The incestuous person. 7 The old leaven must be purged out. 10 Heinous offenders are to be avoided.

IT is reported commonly that there is [1] fornication among you, and such fornication, as is [2] not so much as named amongst the Gentiles, that one should [4] have his fathers wife.

[1] That sort of uncleanness, call'd Incest; which is Marriage within degrees forbidden; (and therefore there's cause enough to use the Rod, (ch. 4. 21.) and little cause of boasting.) ¶ [2] Generally much condemned and detested, even by the more civilized Heathens. ¶ [4] Levit. 18. 8. Deut. 27. 20. [5] q. d. Notwithstanding which ye glory in your present Condition (ch. 4. 8, 10.) and make Ostentation of your spiritual Gifts, to the neglect of your Duty. ¶ [6] With open expressions of sorrow, proceeded to excommunicate the Offender, 2 Cor. 2.-1. and 12. 21.

3 For I verily as [7] absent in body, but present in [8] spirit, have ‖ [9] judged already, [10] as though I were present, concerning him that hath [11] so done this deed;

5 To [16] deliver such an one to Satan, [17] for the destruction of the flesh, that the Spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.

[16] 1 Tim. 1. 20. To cast him out of your Communion, v. 7. 13. (whereupon followed, in those times, terrors of Conscience, and bodily Pains or Diseases inflicted by Satan.) ¶ [17] That being touch'd with a sense of his Sin, he may truly repent of it, and it may be mortified in him.

6 Your [18] glorying is [19] not good: Know [20] ye not that [21] a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump?

[18] James 4.-16. viz. Of the flourishing state of your Church. ¶ [19] Very unseasonable, (your Church being defiled, by tolerating such misdemeanours, and thereby exposed to God's Judgments, and also in danger of infection by such an Example.) ¶ [20] Who brag so much of your Knowledge. ¶ [21] Gal. 5. 9. (See there n. 23.) This single Example, if tolerated, will infect others, and draw them to the like miscarriages.

7 [22] Purge out therefore the old leaven, that [24] ye may be a new lump, [25] as ye are unleavened.

[34] q. d. Yet I did not mean thereby to forbid you absolutely all society with Heathens, who are guilty of that, or the like heinous Sins. ¶ [35] You must shun all Company whatsoever, (because the Citizens of Corinth were generally such.)

11 But now [36] I have written unto you, not to [37] keep company, * if any man that is called a [38] brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an [39] idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner, with such an one, no not [40] to eat.

[36] I do now explain my mind more fully, that I meant it of Christians. ¶ [37] See n. 33. ¶ [38] 2 Thess. 3. 6. A Christian, and a Member of your Church. ¶ [39] Tainted with some dregs of Idolatry, (as they sometimes were, ch. 10. 20.) ¶ [40] To entertain any unnecessary familiarity with 'em, (which yet hinders not the Duties of natural and civil Relations.)

12 For [41] what have I to do to judge them also that are [42] without? [43] do not ye judge them that are within?

[41] q. d. When I wrote to you formerly not to company with Fornicators, (v. 9.) I could not mean it of Heathens, because it belongs not to me to do any thing which has the Nature of a Church-Censure or Punishment to those that are not Members of the Church. ¶ [42] Mark 4. 11. 1 Thess. 4. 12. 1 Tim. 3. 7. ¶ [43] q. d. You may see this by your own Practice, which is to deal only with those that are Members of your Church.

13 But them that are without, [44] God judgeth. Therefore * [45] put away from among your selves that wicked person.

* Deut. 13. 5. & 22. 21, 22, 24.

(Viz. The Officers, by passing Sentence, and the Members by shunning his Communion;) and for others, leave 'em to God's Judgment.

1 Go not to law with the brethren, 6 especially under infidels. 9 The unrighteous shall not inherit God's kingdom. 15 Our bodies are Christ's members.

5 I ſpeak to your ſhame. Is it ſo, that there is not a wiſe man amongſt you? no not one that ſhall be able to judge between his brethren?

6 But brother goeth to law with brother, and that before the unbelievers.

7 Now therefore there is utterly a [11] fault among you, becauſe ye [12] go to law one with another: [13] why do ye not rather take wrong? why do ye not rather ſuffer your ſelves to be defrauded?

35 And [80] this I speak [81] for your own profit; not that I may [82] cast a snare upon you, but for that which is [83] comely, and that you may [84] attend upon the Lord without [85] distraction.

[80] Concerning the Advantages of a single Life. ¶ [81] To shew you what is most advantagious for your Souls. ¶ [82] Bind you strictly to a single Life, which, if you be not able to observe, it may fill your minds with Scruples, which you may not be able to overcome. ¶ [83] Ch. 14 40. 37 Nevertheless, he that [93] standeth stedfast in his heart, having no [94] necessity, but [95] hath power over his own will, and hath so decreed in his heart, that he will keep his virgin, doeth well.

CHAP. VIII.

1 We must abstain from meats offered to idols, 8 and not abuse our liberty to offend our brethren, 11 but bridle our knowledge with charity.

NOW * as touching [1] things offered unto idols, we know that [2] we all have * knowledge. [*3] Knowledge puffeth up, but [5] charity edifieth.

Meats sacrificed (and so, consecrated) to Idols: part whereof was afterwards sold in the Market, (ch. 10. 25.) and used at private Tables, without any Relation to the Idol, (ch. 10. 27.) part was eaten in the Idols Temple, in honour of the Idol, v. 10. & ch. 10. 20, 21. Here he treats of it in this latter respect; and ch. 10. 25. in the former. ¶ [2] The generality (for some had not v. 7.) are well instructed in the nature of Christian Liberty concerning Meats, and in the nature of Idols, v. 4. ¶ [3] An imaginary Knowledge (v. 2.) usually makes men Self-conceited, and to despise their doubting, scrupulous Brethren. ¶ [5] A hearty love to God and our Brethren, joyn'd with Knowledge, endeavours to promote Knowledge and Holiness in others, and to avoid whatsoever may occasion their Sin.

2 And [7] if any man [8] think that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth [9] nothing yet [10] as he ought to know.

[7] Gal. 6. 3. 1 Tim. 1. 7. & 6. 3, 4. ¶ [9] Is proudly conceited of his Knowledge, as if he knew more than others, and withal is void of Charity. ¶ [9] Viz. To any good purpose. ¶ [10] For the right ends of Knowledge, viz. To make him humble in himself, and useful to others.

3 But if any man [11] love God, the same is [12] known of him.

Chap. 8. 4063.

4 As concerning therefore the eating of those [1] things that are offered in sacrifice unto idols, [2] we know that * [13] an idol is [14] nothing in the world, and that [15] there is none other God but one.

7 Howbeit there is not in [28] every man [29] that knowledge: for some [30] with conscience of the idol [31] unto this hour, eat it [32] as a thing offered unto an idol; and their conscience being [33] weak, is [34] defiled.

Become guilty of Sin, by eating it on such an account.

8 But [35] meat commendeth us not to God: for neither if we [37] eat, ‖ are we the [38] better; neither if we eat not, ‖ are we the worse.

‖ Or, have we the more. ‖ Or, have we the less.

[35] Rom 14. 17. Heb. 13. 9. The eating of any kind of Meat, (abstracting from Circumstances) renders us not the more acceptable to God. ¶ [37] Are present at these Feasts made by Idolaters, and eat of 'em. ¶ [38] More Holy.

[53] q. d. And therefore, for a Conclusion, I lay down this general Rule, That all things indifferent in their own Nature, are to be forborn in case of Scandal; yea, though they may have a great deal of Expediency, as ch. 9. 12, 15. ¶ [54] Rom. 14. 21. 1 The Jews sacraments, 6 are types of ours, 7 and their punishments 11 our examples. 21 We must not make the Lords table, the table of devils.

MOreover, brethren, [1] I would not that ye
* Numb. 9.18. Deut. 1. 33. Neh. 9.12, 19. * Josh. 4. 23. should be ignorant, how that * [2] all our fathers were [3] under the cloud, and * all [3] passed through the sea;

[1] q. d. I'd have you weigh well the case of the Jewish Church of old, wherein, as in a Glass, you may behold the condition of your own Church defiled with the same Sins, and exposed to the same Judgments. ¶ [2] As well bad as good; as well they that perisht, as they that were preserved, were the People of God before us, and interested in the same Covenant. ¶ [3] Exod. 13. 21. & 14. 22. Psal. 78. 13. Members of the visible Church, who did partake of the Sacraments, and the miraculous Pledges of God's Favour.

2 And were all [4] baptized unto Moses in the [5] cloud, and in the [6] sea;

[4] Exod. 14.-31. Ingaged to be subject to the Law of Moses, (as a Typical Mediatour) as we by Baptism are ingaged to profess and obey Christ. ¶ [5] Which rained upon 'em, Psal. 68. 9. ¶ [6] Which bedewed 'em in their Passage.

3 And did all eat the [7] same [8] spiritual meat;

[7] Viz. With us, for substance. ¶ [8] Exod. 16. 15, 35. Psal. 105.-40. That Meat which had a Spiritual signification, and represented Christ, (John 6. 32, &c.) viz. Manna.

4 And did all [9] drink the same spiritual drink: (For they drank of that [10] spiritual Rock that
‖ Or, went with them. Deut. 9. 21. Psal. 105. 41. ‖ [11] followed them: and that Rock [12] was Christ.)

[9] Exod. 17. 6. Numb. 20. 11. Psal. 78. 15. & 105. 41. ¶ [10] The Water that came out of that Rock, which had a Spiritual sense and meaning. ¶ [11] i. e. The Stream that came out of it, accompanied them, during their Passage through the Wilderness, Deut. 9. 21. Psal. 105. 41. ¶ [12] Viz. Figuratively and Sacramentally, i. e. A Sign and Type of Christ; who being smitten by his Father in his Death and Sufferings, pour'd forth Streams of Redemption, Grace, and Life, Esa. 53. 4, 5. John 4. 14. & 7. 37.

5 But with many of them God was [13] not well pleased: for they were [14] overthrown in the wilderness.

[13] Much displeased. ¶ [14] Numb. 14. 37. & 26. 64, 65. Jude -5. Heb. 3.-17, 18, 19.

† Gr. figures. 6 Now these [15] things were our † [16] examples, to the intent we should not [17] lust after evil things, as [18] they also lusted.

[15] Punishments. ¶ [16] Ver. 11. Figures to shew us what to expect (notwithstanding our profession of Christianity) if we do so too. ¶ [17] Cherish any sinful desires in our selves. ¶ [18] Numb. 11. 4, 5, 6. Psal. 78. 30. & 106. 14.

7 Neither be ye [19] idolaters, as were some of them; as it is written, [20] The people sat down to [21] eat and drink, and rose up to [22] play.

[19] By partaking of Idolatrous Feasts, made in the Honour of an Idol, (as some of 'em did, ch 8. 7.) ¶ [20] Exod. 32. 6. ¶ [21] To Feast on the Sacrifices they offered to the Calf. ¶ [22] To Dance and rejoyce in a Carnal manner.

8 Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and fell in one day [23] three and twenty thousand.

[23] Numb. 25. 9. Psal. 106. 28. viz. By the immediate hand of God; a thousand more being hang'd and slain, Numb. 25. 4, 5.

* Numb. 21.5. Psal. 78. 18, 56. & 95. 9. 9 Neither let us [24] tempt Christ, as * some of them also [25] tempted, and were [26] destroyed of serpents.

[24] Try his Patience (by our Provocations) how long it will last. ¶ [25] Exod. 17. 2, 9. viz. Christ, who led them, Exod. 23. 20, 21. Esa. 63. 9. ¶ [26] Numb. 21. 6.

10 Neither murmure ye, as some of them also [27] murmured, and were destroyed of the [28] destroyer.

[52] Ch. 8.-4. q. d. Yet I don't hereby make the Idol to have any thing of Divinity in it, so as to be able to alter God's Creatures, as to the substance of 'em. ¶ [53] Made either better or worse, or to differ from ordinary Meat by this being offered to Idols.

1 He reproveth them, because in holy assemblies, men prayed with their heads covered, 6 and women uncovered. 21 For profaning the Lord's supper. 23 The first institution thereof.

BE ye 1 followers of me, even as I also am of Christ.

1 Ch. 4. 16. See there, n. 63. q. d. For the reforming Abuses crept into your Church (and treated of Chap. 11, 12, 13, 14.) I shall offer nothing but what I have received from Christ, and therefore you ought to follow my counsel and direction, as I do Christ's.

2 Now I praise you, brethren, that you 2 remember me in all things, and 3 keep the ‖ ordinances, as I delivered them unto you.

2 Bear in mind all my Directions, (though you fail in many things in point of Practice.) ¶ 3 Observe the Rules for publick Worship, in most points.

3 4 But I would have you 5 know, that 6 the head of every man is Christ; and 9 the head of the woman, is the man; and * the head of 10 Christ, is 11 God.

*John 14. 28. Chap. 15. 27, 28. Phil. 2. 7, 8, 9.

4 q. d. Yet I must further inform you in some things, wherein you come short, or swerve from 'em. ¶ 5 Consider the Subordination of Persons, and behave your selves accordingly. ¶ 6 Eph. 1. 10. The immediate, supreme Governour of every one of the male Sex, is Christ, who, as man, has all the Excellency, Dignity and Authority of Mankind, especially of the male Sex, in himself, and from whom they derive it. ¶ 9 Eph. 5. 23. The male Sex is the immediate Governour of the Female, (as being more Noble and Excellent, both in regard of Endowments of Mind, and Abilities of Body.) ¶ 10 As Mediatour and Man. ¶ 11 Ch. 3.-23. The Father, from whom he derives all his Dignity, and Authority.

4 Every man 12 praying or propheſying, having his 13 head 14 covered, 15 dishonoureth his head.

12 Conversant in publick Worship, (the two principal parts whereof are Prayer, and Preaching) either, as a Speaker, or Hearer. ¶ 13 Together with his Face; as (2 Sam. 15. 30. with 19. 4.) ¶ 14 Either by long Hair, (v. 14.) or a Veil, after the manner of Women. ¶ 15 Disgraces his Head, by using such a Garb as is the badge of Subjection, and so renounces his Superiority, which is the Dignity of his Sex; or, disparages his Face, by hiding that, wherein the Dignity and Majesty of his Sex appears, and treating it as if it were not the seat of manly boldness, but of womanish shame-fac'dness, and weakness.

5 But every woman that prayeth, or 16 propheſieth 17 with her head uncover'd, 18 dishonoureth her head: for that is 19 even all one as if she were shaven.

16 Either by the immediate inspiration of the Spirit, (as Luke 2. 38. Acts 21. 9.) or joins with others therein. ¶ 17 Without any Veil over her Head and Face. ¶ 18 Despoils her Face of its natural modesty, (which is so highly ornamental to it.) (So it was counted among them then.) ¶ 19 Equally unseemly and reproachful to her.

6 For if the woman be not covered, 20 let her also be shorn: 21 but if it be * a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be covered.

*Numb. 5. 18. Deut. 22. 5.

20 An Irony, i. e. She may as well lay aside the natural covering of her Hair, as all artificial ones. ¶ 21 q. d. But you your selves count it disgraceful for a Woman to be without her natural covering; therefore so should you for the other too.

7 22 For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, forasmuch as he is the 23 image and 24 glory of God: but the woman is the [25] glory of the man.

[22] q. d. Since God would have the male Sex to be a kind of Representation of his Glory, Majesty, Power, &c. a man ought not, by hiding his Face (wherein these things are most conspicuous) to conceal the Glory of God shining in him. ¶ [23] Gen. 1. 26, 27. & 5. 1. & 9.-6. ¶ [24] Psal. 8. 6. ¶ [25] *Gen.*3.-16. A shadow of masculine Worth, (because, of all Creatures, she comes nearest to the male Sex in all Excellencies.)

8 For the man is not [26] of the woman: but the woman [27] of the man.

[25] Gen. 2. 21. viz. According to the Order of Creation. ¶ [27] Made of his Rib, and after his likeness.

9 Neither was the man created [28] for the woman: but the woman [29] for the man.

[28] To be subject to her, and serve her. ¶ [29] Gen. 2.-18.

10 [30] For this cause ought the woman to have ‖ [31] power on her head, because of the [32] angels.

[30] In regard of her inferiority upon all these accounts. ¶ [31] i. e. A Covering, in token that she is under the power of her Husband. ¶ [32] Who are present in the Assemblies of the Church, (signified by the Cherubs, Exod. 26. 1. 1 Kings 6. 29.) and therefore Women should behave themselves modestly, lest they grieve them.

11 [33] Nevertheless, neither [34] is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man [35] in the Lord.

[33] q. d. Yet let not the Man be proud of his Superiority, nor the Woman troubled at her Subjection, for there is a kind of equality in some respects, and many mutual obligations to engage to Love and Kindness. ¶ [34] They cannot subsist without the mutual help of each other in many cases. ¶ [35] By God's appointment, and according to that Order he has fix'd in the Creation.

12 For as the woman is [36] of the man, even so is the man also [37] by the woman: but [38] all things of God.

[36] Viz. In the Creation. ¶ [37] Propagated now by her concurrence; (and therefore let him not despise her, but honour and love her.) ¶ [38] Ch. 8. 6. Rom. 11. 36. Both the Dominion of the one, and the Subjection of the other are by God's appointment; and therefore they should acquiesce therein.

13 [39] Judge in your selves: is it [40] comely that a woman pray unto God [17] uncovered?

[39] *Ch.*10.-15. ¶ [40] Suitable to female modesty to be bare-fac'd in Divine Worship.

14 Doth not even [41] nature it self [42] teach you, that if a man [43] have long hair, it is [44] a shame unto him?

[41] The light of Nature, and the custome of all Nations. ¶ [42] Viz. That there should be a distinction between the Attire of Men and Women, and particularly, in the manner of wearing their Hair. ¶ [43] Or, [deck and attire himself in his Hair, after the manner of Women] by Curling, Plaiting, Binding it up, or the like. ¶ [44] Ch. 14.-35. Undecent, disgraceful, yea, ridiculous, as arguing Effeminacy, and an unmanly delicacy and softness of Mind, and tending to the confusion of Sexes, (like a Man's wearing Womens Apparel.)

15 But if a woman [45] have long hair, it is a [46] glory to her: for her hair is given her [47] for a ‖ covering.

‖ Or, veil.

[45] Or [attire and deck her self in her Hair.] after the manner afore-mentioned, n. 43. ¶ [46] An Ornament in the account, and according to the custome of most Nations. ¶ [47] For this end, to adorn, or cover her Head withal, in such an artificial manner.

* 1 Tim. 6. 4. 16 * But if any man [48] seem to be contentious,

* Chap. 14. 33. [49] we have no such custom, * neither the churches of God.

[48] Will not acquiesce in the Reasons alledged, but will still cavil against 'em. ¶ [49] This way of Womens being uncovered, is not used in any publick Assemblies here, nor in any of the Churches of God, (which is the Rule of Decency.)

17 Now in this that I [50] declare unto you, [51] I praise you not, that you [52] come together not [53] for the better, but [54] for the worse.

[50] Viz. Concerning your Abuses in the Lord's Supper. ¶ [51] I can't commend some in this respect, as I have done others, (v. 2.) for other things, but must discommend you for it. ¶ [52] Viz. To celebrate the Lord's Supper. ¶ [53] So as to gain any spiritual Advantage, by the increase of your Faith, &c. ¶ [54] To the prejudice of your Souls, (by nourishing Faction.)

18 For first of all, when ye come together in the [55] church, [56] I hear that there be ‖ [57] divisions among you; and I partly believe it.

20 When ye [62] come together therefore into one place, ‖ this is not to eat the Lord's supper.

21 For [63] in eating [64] every one taketh before other, his own supper: and [65] one is hungry, and [66] another is drunken.

[63] When you are about to partake of the Lord's Supper. ¶ [64] They that brought Provision with 'em, for the Love-Feasts, (See on Jude 12.) ate it alone by themselves, or with their own Party, and did not join all together in holy Concord, as they ought. ¶ [65] The poor get nothing among you. ¶ [66] The rich are filled with meat, and drink to excess.

22 What, [67] have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or [68] despise ye the church of God, and * [69] shame them that ‖ [70] have not? [71] What shall I say to you? [71] shall I praise you in this? I praise you not.

* Jam. 2. 6.

[67] q. d. If you eat only to assuage your hunger, you may do it at home: (v. 34.) these Feasts and Meetings were designed for another purpose. ¶ [68] q. d. You shew hereby that you slight the poorer sort, who are a part of the Church as well as your selves. ¶ [69] Viz. By excluding them out of your company for their Poverty, and making them fast while you feast. ¶ [70] Viz. Wherewithal to feast as well as you. ¶ [71] q. d. I know not how to reprove you sharply enough.

24 And when he had [74] given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat; [75] this is [76] my body, which is [77] broken [78] for you: [79] this do ‖ [80] in remembrance [81] of me.

‖ Or, shew ye.

[89] The Church of God in any Age. ¶ [90] Solemnly and openly avow your belief of Christ's Death and Faith in it, for Remission and Reconciliation, (and therefore it is a weighty business, and not to be abus'd, as you do.) ¶ [91] John 14. 2. Acts 1. 11.

CHAP. XII.

1 Spiritual gifts, 4 are divers, 7 yet all to profit withall. 12 As it is in the natural body, 27 ſo it ſhould be in the myſtical body of Chriſt.

NOW concerning [1] ſpiritual gifts, brethren, I would not have you [2] ignorant.

[1] Miraculous Gifts of the Holy Ghoſt, beſtowed on many in thoſe times, for the convincing of Infidels, and confirming Believers. [2] Jam. 1. 17. 1 Pet. 4. 10. Viz. Of their Author, Nature, Ends and Uſe.

2 ‖ Ye know * that ye were [4] Gentiles, [5] carried away unto theſe [6] dumb idols, even as ye were [7] led.

* Eph. 2. 11, 12. 1 Theſſ. 1. 9.

[3] Ch. 6. 11. See there n. 19. q. d. You may remember the time when you were deſtitute of all ſuch ſpiritual Gifts, (and therefore now you have 'em, you ſhould glorifie God with 'em.) [4] Idolatrous Heathens. [5] Drawn to ſerve. [6] Pſal. 115. 5. Hab. 2. 18. Who could not beſtow any ſuch Gifts upon you, but left you as they found you. [7] Matt. 15. 14. viz. By your Prieſts, or by any Diabolical Impoſture, or pretended Miracles.

3 [8] Wherefore I give you to underſtand, that no man [9] ſpeaking by the Spirit of God, [10] calleth Jeſus ‖ accurſed: and that no man can [11] ſay that Jeſus is the Lord, but [12] by the holy Ghoſt.

[8] q. d. Since it was ſo with you once, and 'tis otherwiſe now, this is a clear demonſtration of the Truth of Chriſtian Religion. [9] Mark 9. 39. Who is indued with theſe ſpiritual Gifts. [10] Can ſpeak blaſphemouſly, and irreverently of Chriſt, (as the Heathen Prieſts, and Unbelieving Jews did, who yet in ſome things might pretend to the Gifts of the Spirit) but on the contrary, cannot but own and worſhip him. [11] Can think and ſpeak reverently of him, make profeſſion of his Name, worſhip him aright, and heartily own his Divinity and Lordſhip (againſt which there was then the greateſt oppoſition made) ſo as to ſubject himſelf to his Government. [12] Matt. 16.-17. 2 Cor. 5. 3. By his guidance, and inſtinct.

Chap. 12. 4063.

4 Now * there are [13] diverſities of [14] gifts, but * the [15] ſame Spirit.

* Heb. 2. 4. * Eph. 4. 4.

[13] Both as to kind, and degree. [14] Ver. 8. Rom. 12. 6. 1 Pet. 4. 10. Abilities to perform the Duties of publick Functions in the Church, as v. 8--11. [15] Third Perſon, who beſtows 'em all, (and therefore they are not to be made matter of Diviſions.)

5 * And there are [13] differences of [16] adminiſtrations, but the ſame [17] Lord.

* Rom. 12. 6, 7, 8. Eph. 4. 11.

[16] Ver. 28. Eph. 4. 11. Offices or Functions in the Church, wherein theſe Gifts are exerciſed, (which are indeed but [Services] and therefore not fit fuel for Pride.) [17] Second Perſon, Chriſt, who as King of his Church, inſtituted them all, preſcribes the manner of executing 'em, and calls one to this kind of Miniſtry, another to that.

6 And there are [13] diverſities of [18] operations, but it is the ſame [19] God, which [20] worketh all in all.

[18] Ver.-9, 10. Miraculous Works. [19] Firſt Perſon; who is the fountain of the Deity, and of that Almighty Power whereby theſe Works are wrought. [20] Ch. 3.-7. Eph. 1.-23. Who bleſſes theſe Gifts and Offices, and makes 'em ſucceſsful in all his People.

7 But the [21] manifeſtation of the Spirit, is given to [22] every man to [23] profit withall.

[21] Ability to exerciſe ſome ſpiritual Gift, whereby the Spirit does manifeſt his Preſence with ſuch a one. [22] Viz. That has it. [23] Matt. 25. 14, 15. To edifie the Church withal, (and ſo only to be uſed; and not for Pride and Diviſions.)

8 For to one is given [24] by the Spirit, the [25] word of wiſdom; to another the [26] word of knowledge by the ſame Spirit;

[24] By the immediate aſſiſtance of the Spirit. [25] Chap. 9. 12. Ability to ſpeak prudently, by way of comfort, counſel, &c. in any matters of Duty, or Practice that tend to our eternal Happineſs. [26] Iſa. 50. 4. Matt. 13. 11. Ability to expound the word of God aright, and to manifeſt his Knowledge in the Myſteries of Religion.

9 To another [27] faith by the ſame Spirit; to another * the [28] gifts of healing by the ſame Spirit;

* Mark 16. 18. James 5. 14.

[27] Ch. 13.-2. Acts 14.-9. viz. Of Miracles; which is a firm perſwaſion that God will work ſuch an effect, above the courſe of Nature, according to my word, as Matt. 17. 20. [28] Particularly, power to heal all manner of bodily Diſeaſes, and Diſtempers in an extraordinary way, Mark 6. 13. Acts 3. 6. & 19. 11, 12. & 28. 8.

10 To another the working of [29] miracles; to another [30] prophecy; to another diſcerning [31] of ſpirits; to another * [32] divers kinds of tongues; to another the [33] interpretation of tongues.

* Acts 2. 4.

[29] Viz. The more unuſual, and wonderful, which cannot be wrought by any natural power, (as healing may) as caſting out Devils, puniſhing Hypocrites, (Acts 5. 5.) and Enemies of the Church, Acts 13. 11. [30] Ability to declare ſuch hidden things, the knowledge whereof might be uſeful to the Church; whether preſent, as mens thoughts, the true ſenſe of dark places of Scripture, Ability to expound the myſteries of Religion, (as ch. 14. 1, 3.) or future things, as Acts 11. 27, 28. & 21. 9--11. [31] 1 John 4. 1. Rev. 2.-2. What Spirit men are acted by, whether God's, or the Devil's. [32] Ability to ſpeak one, or more Languages which they never learnt. [33] Ch. 14.-13, 27. Ability to interpret into the Vulgar Tongue of the place, that which others delivered in an unknown Tongue; (which ſometimes he that ſpake it could not do.)

11 But [34] all theſe worketh that one and the ſelf-ſame Spirit, * dividing to every man ſeverally [35] as he will.

* 2 Cor. 10. 13.

[34] Ch. 7.-7. Rom. 12.-3. Eph. 4. 7. [35] Ver.-18. Matt. 20. 15. Heb. 2.-4. 1 John 3. 8.

12 For [36] as the body is one, and hath [37] many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: ſo alſo is [38] Chriſt.

[36] Cant. 6. 9. Rom. 12. 4, 5. Eph. 4. 4. [37] Viz. Of different Gifts, Dignity and Uſe. [38] Viz. Chriſt myſtical, i. e. The Church, wherein though the ſeveral Members have differing Gifts, yet they don't make ſeveral

Churches, but one Church, (and therefore they ſhould all uſe their Gifts for the good of the Body.)

13 For [39] by one Spirit are we [40] all [41] baptized into one body, * [42] whether we be Jews or † Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and * have been all made to [43] drink [44] into one Spirit.

[39] By the Power and Operation of the ſame Spirit. ¶ [40] Viz. That are true Members of the Church. ¶ [41] Eph. 5. 26. Regenerated, or new born, (ſignified by Baptiſm) and ſo made Members of the inviſible Church. ¶ [42] Gal. 3. 28. ¶ [43] To partake of the Lord's Supper. ¶ [44] That thereby we might further partake of the ſame Spirit.

14 For the body is not one member, but [45] many.

[45] To perform all ſorts of Offices belonging to the Body; ſo there muſt be different Gifts and Offices in the Church, which all conduce to the intireneſs, and advantage of the whole.

15 If the [46] foot ſhall ſay, Becauſe I am not the hand, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

[46] One of inferiour Gifts, or Place, muſt not account himſelf uſeleſs, and ſo forbear to employ his Gifts for the common good.

16 And if the ear ſhall ſay, Becauſe I am not the eye, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

17 [47] If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? if the whole were hearing, where were the ſmelling?

[47] So, if all had equal Gifts, though the moſt excellent, as Seeing and Hearing, what would become of the Church? and therefore there muſt be different Gifts and Offices, for different uſes, and each ought to employ his Gift according to the Nature of it, for the Service of the whole.

18 But now hath God ſet the members, every one of them in the body, as it hath pleaſed him.

19 And if they were all one member, where were the body?

20 But now are they many members, yet but [48] one body.

[48] For whoſe benefit each muſt contribute what he has.

21 And [49] the eye cannot ſay unto the hand, I have no need of thee: nor again, the head to the feet, I have no need of you.

[49] The knowing Chriſtians and they of greater Gifts, muſt not deſpiſe the Active and thoſe of meaner, as unprofitable, 1 Sam. 25. 32.

22 Nay much more, thoſe members of the body, which ſeem to be more [50] feeble, are [51] neceſſary.

[50] Such as the Organs of nouriſhment, and the Hands and Feet. ¶ [51] Viz. As well as thoſe of the Senſes, accounted more noble.

23 And thoſe members of the body, which we think to be [52] leſs honourable, upon theſe we ‖ beſtow [53] more abundant honour, and our uncomely parts have [54] more abundant comelineſs.

‖ Or, put on.

[52] As all the reſt beſides the Head and Face. ¶ [53] Jam. 2. 5. By decent clothing 'em. ¶ [54] By decent covering, (whereas the Head and Face are bare and naked.) So they of meaneſt Gifts in the Church, muſt have their defects covered, and a due reſpect, and value put upon 'em.

24 For our [55] comely parts have no need: but God hath tempered the body together, having [56] given more abundant honour to that part which lacked.

[55] Face and Hands. ¶ [56] Made the leſs noble parts of more frequent and evident uſefulneſs, than thoſe which are accounted more noble and excellent.

25 [57] That there ſhould be no ‖ ſchiſm in the body; but that the members ſhould have the [58] ſame care one for another.

[57] Leſt, if one Member ſhould ſerve for all uſes, it ſhould deſpiſe, and reject all the other as ſuperfluous. ¶ [58] Phil. 2. 20. A common mutual care among themſelves, each for others welfare.

[59] Heb. 13. 3. Rom. 12. 15. Gal. 6. 2.

26 And whether one member ſuffer, [59] all the members ſuffer with it: or one member be honoured, all the members rejoyce with it.

27 [60] Now [61] ye are the [62] body of Chriſt, and [63] members in particular.

30 Have all the gifts of healings? do all ſpeak with tongues? do all interpret?

Chap. 14. 4063.

6 [16] Rejoyceth not in iniquity, but rejoyceth ‖ [17] in the truth:

[16] 2 Sam. 24. 10. Pſal. 10. 3. / Rom. 1.-32. Is ſorry for the ſins of others, and hates to do 'em any wrong. ¶ [17] Exod. 18. 9. 2 John 4. When any one does well; and in doing all juſt Offices for him.

7 [18] Beareth all things, believeth [19] all things, [20] hopeth all things, endureth all things.

[18] Private Chriſtians muſt bear one with another in their failings and infirmities (Rom. 15. 1. Gal. 6. 2.) but none, eſpecially Governours, muſt bear with open, ſcandalous Sinners (Rev. 2. 2.) but ſeek to reclaim 'em, Lev. 19. 17. 1 Cor. 5. 4, 5, 7, 13. ¶ [19] All the good of others, which he has any ground for. ¶ [20] That they will amend hereafter, (though at preſent there be no ground to believe it.)

8 Charity [21] never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they ſhall fail; whether there be tongues, they ſhall ceaſe; whether there be [22] knowledge, it ſhall vaniſh away.

[21] Is never loſt by him that has it, but goes with us into another world, and is exerciſed there. ¶ [22] As us'd for the inſtruction of others, or that imperfect knowledge of Divine things which we have here, v. 10.

9 For we know in part, and we [23] propheſie in part.

10 But when [24] that which is perfect is come, then [25] that which is in part ſhall be done away.

11 [26] When I was a child, I [27] ſpake as a child, I underſtood as a child, I ‖ thought as a child: but when I became a man, [28] I put away childiſh things.

[26] q. d. Our Knowledge here is but like a Child's compar'd with a Man's; and accordingly we act. ¶ [27] Eſa. 28. 11. ¶ [28] Thoſe rude Conceptions we had of things then, is perfected by a riper Knowledge and Judgment; ſo will our Knowledge be, when we come to Heaven.

* Phil. 3. 12. † Gr. in a riddle. * 1 John 3. 2.

12 [29] For * now we ſee [30] through a glaſs, † [31] darkly; but then * [32] face to face: now I know in part; but then ſhall I [33] know even as alſo I am known.

[29] q. d. There's as much difference between our Knowledge here, and in Heaven, as between looking through a Perſpective-glaſs upon a thing a great way off, and covered with many Obſcurities; and looking upon it immediately, with the naked Eye, upon the naked Object, nigh at hand. ¶ [30] 2 Cor. 3. 18. & 5. 7. In the Creatures, and Ordinances. ¶ [31] The Object being wrapt up in much obſcurity, like truth in a Riddle. ¶ [32] The Covering being removed both from our Eye and the Object, ſo that we ſhall have as perfect a Knowledge as our underſtandings are capable of. ¶ [33] Certainly, clearly, immediately, 1 John 3. 2.

13 And [34] now [35] abideth faith, hope, charity, [36] theſe three; but the [37] greateſt of theſe is charity.

[34] In this World. ¶ [35] Viz. In the Hearts of Holy Perſons, and are of continual uſe in their lives. ¶ [36] As the Principal, and of moſt frequent uſe, of all ſaving Graces. ¶ [37] 1 Pet. 4. 8. viz. In reſpect of continuance and eminent uſe in Heaven, (where the principal employment of the Saints will be the exerciſe of Love;) whereas Faith and Hope are of more continual uſe here.

CHAP. XIV.

1 Propheſie is commended and preferred before ſpeaking with Tongues. 12 Both muſt be referred to edification. 34 Women muſt not ſpeak in the church.

* Numb. 11. 25, 29.

1 [1] FOllow after [2] charity, and deſire [3] ſpiritual gifts, * but [4] rather that ye may [5] propheſie.

[1] Uſe your utmoſt diligence to obtain, and increaſe. ¶ [2] See on ch. 13. n. 1. ¶ [3] Ch. 12. 31. See on ch. 12. n. 1. ¶ [4] As tending moſt to edification. ¶ [5] Rom. 12. 6. Be able to exerciſe the ordinary Miniſtry of the word for Edification, &c. v. 3.

* Acts 2. 4. & 10. 46.

2 For he that * ſpeaketh in [6] an unknown tongue, ſpeaketh not unto men, but unto God: for no man † underſtandeth him; howbeit [7] in the ſpirit he ſpeaketh [8] myſteries.

[6] A Language which few or none of the Company underſtand; meerly for oſtentation ſake. ¶ [7] By this Gift of the Spirit; See n. 29. ¶ [8] Such things as are full of Divine, and hidden Wiſdom.

Chap. 14. 4063.

3 But he that [5] propheſieth, ſpeaketh unto men to edification, and exhortation, and comfort.

4 He that ſpeaketh in [6] an unknown tongue, [9] edifieth himſelf; but he that [5] propheſieth, edifieth the church.

[9] Promotes only his own Holineſs.

5 I would that ye all ſpake with tongues, but rather that ye propheſied: for [10] greater is he that propheſieth, than he that ſpeaketh with tongues, except he [11] interpret, that the church may receive edifying.

[10] More ſerviceable to the Church, v. 12. ¶ [11] See n. 25.

* Ver. 26.

6 [12] Now brethren, if I come unto you ſpeaking with tongues, what ſhall I profit you, except I ſhall ſpeak to you either by * [13] revelation, or by [14] knowledge, or by [15] propheſying, or by [16] doctrine?

[12] q. d. I wonder if that which you ſo admire in others, would pleaſe you in me. ¶ [13] Acquainting you with ſomething that I have by particular Revelation. ¶ [14] Communicating my Knowledge to you in the deep Myſteries of Religion. ¶ [15] Interpreting the Scripture. ¶ [16] Teaching you ſomething that you are to believe or do, (which things can't be done meerly by ſpeaking with Tongues, except I interpret alſo.)

7 [17] And even things without life giving ſound, whether pipe or harp, except they give a diſtinction in the ‖ ſounds, how ſhall it be known what is piped or harped?

[17] Here he ſhews the unprofitableneſs of ſpeaking what is not underſtood, by two Compariſons.

8 For if the trumpet give an uncertain ſound, who ſhall prepare himſelf to the battel?

9 So likewiſe you, except ye utter by the tongue words † eaſie to be underſtood, how ſhall it be known what is ſpoken? for ye ſhall ſpeak [18] into the air.

[18] Unprofitably, and to no purpoſe, as ch. 9. 26.

10 There are, it may be, [19] ſo many kinds of voices in the world, and [20] none of them is without ſignification.

[19] Very many kinds of Languages. ¶ [20] The words that are uſed in 'em have a diſtinct ſignification, ſo that men of the ſame Language underſtand one another.

11 Therefore if I know not the [21] meaning of the voice, [22] I ſhall be unto him that ſpeaketh, a barbarian; and he that ſpeaketh ſhall be a barbarian unto me.

[21] The ſignification of the Language that another uſes. ¶ [22] We ſhall be unfit for Converſe one with another; ſo in this caſe, there can be no true Communion for Edification.

12 [23] Even ſo ye, for as much as ye are zealous of † ſpiritual gifts, [24] ſeek that ye may excel to the edifying of the church.

[23] q. d. As in all dealings between men, whether by muſical Inſtruments, (v. 7, 8.) or by Words, they indeavour to be underſtood by thoſe they deal with; ſo, much more ſhould you that exerciſe any publick Office in the Church. ¶ [24] Strive for the greateſt ſhare of thoſe Gifts whereby you may be moſt uſeful to the Church.

13 Wherefore let him that ſpeaketh in an unknown tongue, pray [25] that he may interpret.

[25] Ch. 12.-10. That God would give him the Gift alſo of expounding the ſame in the vulgar Tongue of the place, (which was a diſtinct Gift from the other, v. 26, 27. and ch. 12.-30.)

14 For if I pray in an unknown tongue [26] my ſpirit prayeth, but [27] my underſtanding is unfruitful.

[26] This extraordinary Gift of the Spirit, (as v. 12.) wherewith I am indowed, is exerciſed in this Prayer. ¶ [27] The Conceptions of my mind, uttered in that ſtrange Language, bring no benefit to the Church.

15 [28] What

Chap. 14. 4063.

15 [28] What is it then? I will pray [29] with the ſpirit, and I will pray [30] with the underſtanding alſo: * I will [31] ſing with the ſpirit, and I will [32] ſing with the underſtanding alſo.

* Eph. 5. 19. Col. 3. 16.

[28] q. d. I'le tell you then what's to be done in this caſe. ¶ [29] By the immediate gift, and extraordinary help of the Spirit in a ſtrange Tongue. ¶ [30] So as that my meaning may be underſtood by others alſo; (as v. 19.) and their underſtandings may go along with me, viz. By interpreting it into the vulgar Tongue. ¶ [31] Compoſe a Pſalm by this ſpecial Gift of the Spirit, v. 26. ¶ [32] Pſal. 47.-7.

16 Elſe when thou ſhalt [33] bleſs [29] with the ſpirit, how ſhall he that occupieth the room of the unlearned, [34] ſay Amen at thy giving of thanks, ſeeing he underſtandeth not what thou ſayeſt?

[33] Numb. 6. 23. Miniſter in Publick. ¶ [34] Deut. 27. 15. Neh. 5. 13. & 8. 6. Give an underſtanding Aſſent, and hearty Conſent, (which yet he ought to do.)

17 For thou verily giveſt thanks well, but the other is not edified.

18 I thank my God, I ſpeak with tongues more than you all.

19 Yet in the church I had rather ſpeak five words [35] with my underſtanding, that by my voice I might teach others alſo, than ten thouſand words in an unknown tongue.

20 Brethren * be not [35] children in underſtanding: howbeit [36] in malice be ye children, but [37] in underſtanding be † men.

* Pſal. 131. 2. Matt. 11. 25. † Gr. perfect, or of a ripe age. Chap. 2. 6.

[35] Eph. 4. 14. So weak as to prefer theſe gay things that make a fine ſhew (as the gift of Tongues does) afore things more uſeful and ſolid. ¶ [36] Rom. 16.-19. Be like them in Innocency and freedom from all manner of wickedneſs, Matt. 18. 3. ¶ [37] Phil. 3. 15. Labour for a ripe and ſolid Knowledge of Spiritual things.

21 In the [38] law it is written, With [39] men of other tongues and other lips, will [40] I ſpeak unto this people: and yet for all that will they not hear me, ſaith the Lord.

[38] Scriptures of the Old Teſtament, viz. Eſa. 28. 11. ¶ [39] Forreigners and Out-landiſh Enemies, (who ſpake a different Language from what the Jews were uſed to, Deut. 28. 49. Jer. 5. 15.) ¶ [40] Cauſe them to be ſpoken to by ſuch, as a puniſhment for their Infidelity.

22 [41] Wherefore [42] tongues are for a ſign, [44] not to them that believe, but [45] to them that believe not: but [46] propheſying ſerveth not for them that believe not, but for them which believe.

[41] q. d. Since this was formerly threatned by God, as a puniſhment, and even now is moſt proper for Unbelievers, therefore you ſhould not be ſo fond of it. ¶ [42] The bare ſpeaking with unknown Tongues in the Church without interpretation, is a teſtimony of God's anger ſometimes, (as in that place of Eſay) or, of his preſence with him that has that Gift. ¶ [44] Not ſo much to comfort or edifie the Faithful. ¶ [45] To convince Infidels of the Truth of what is delivered, who being profeſt Enemies of the Goſpel, ſtand in need of more than ordinary means for their conviction (and therefore to be uſed rather among them, than Believers.) ¶ [46] Preaching the Word, as a Church-Ordinance, is not deſign'd ſo much for the Converſion of Infidels, as the Edification of Believers; (for though it may be ſometimes extraordinarily Preach'd to Infidels, yet that differs much from the ordinary preaching of it in the Church.)

23 If therefore the whole church be come together into one place, and [48] all ſpeak [6] with tongues, and there come in thoſe that are unlearned, or [49] unbelievers, will they not ſay that ye are mad?

[48] Viz. That are endued with Gifts for publick employment. ¶ [49] Meer Infidels, (who are ſtrangers to theſe dealings of God with his Church.)

24 But if [48] all [46] propheſie, and there come in one that believeth not, or one unlearned, [50] he is convinced of all, [51] he is judged of all:

[50] i. e. The Word of God, in the Miniſtry of it by theſe Perſons, will find out his ſins, and convince him of 'em. ¶ [51] And alſo condemn him as guilty and liable to Eternal Miſery.

25 And thus are the [52] ſecrets of his heart made [53] manifeſt; and ſo falling down on his face, he will [54] worſhip God, and report * [55] that God is in you of a truth.

26 [56] How is it then, brethren? when ye come together, [57] every one of you hath a pſalm, * hath a [58] doctrine, hath [6] a tongue, hath a [59] revelation, hath an [25] interpretation. Let [60] all things be done to edifying.

* Chap. 12. & 9, 10. v. 6.

[56] q. d. I'le tell you in a word, what I mean by all this. See n. 28. ¶ [57] Some have one Gift, ſome another. ¶ [58] Some particular matter of Inſtruction or Conſolation. ¶ [59] Of ſome unknown, or future thing. ¶ [60] See n. 89. viz. In publick Aſſemblies.

27 If any man [61] ſpeak in an unknown tongue, let it be by [62] two or at the moſt by three, and that by courſe; and let one interpret.

[61] Have this Gift, and will uſe it, let it be uſed ſparingly, regularly, and profitably; (though this Gift was chiefly beſtow'd for the ſakes of Unbelievers, (v. 22.) yet he allows the publick uſe of it in the Church among Believers, to confirm thoſe that were yet wavering.) ¶ [62] By a few, that time be not ſpent unprofitably.

28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keep ſilence in the church; and let him ſpeak [63] to himſelf, and to God.

[63] Make uſe of his Gift between God and himſelf, in Prayer, Meditation, &c. v. 2.

29 Let the [64] prophets ſpeak [65] two or three, and let the [66] other judge.

[64] Ordinary Miniſters which exerciſe in the Vulgar Tongue. ¶ [65] Not ſpending too much time in theſe Religious Duties, ſince there are particular Callings to be attended. ¶ [66] Such as have extraordinary Gifts examine by the Rule of the Word what is ſo deliver'd.

30 If any thing be revealed to another that ſitteth by, let the firſt [68] hold his peace.

[68] Forbear, till the other has delivered his Revelation, and then go on again; (for theſe ſudden Revelations were to ſupply ſome defect in the ordinary Miniſter; and therefore to be uttered in that nick of time.)

31 For ye may all propheſie [69] one by one, that all may [70] learn, and all may be [70] comforted.

32 And the [71] ſpirits of the prophets are ſubject to the prophets.

[71] Theſe ſpiritual Gifts beſtowed on theſe Perſons, (as v. 12. See n. 26.) Or the Doctrines taught by 'em, (as 1 John 4. 1.) are to be ſubmitted to the Cenſure, Direction and Authority of thoſe that excel others in theſe Gifts, ver. 29.

37 [83] If

Chap. 15. 4063.

37 [83] If any man think himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things that I write unto you, are the [84] commandments of the Lord.

[83] 2 Cor. 10.-7. 1 John 4. 6. ¶ [84] Luke 10. 16. Taken out of the Word of God, as particulars out of those general Rules there laid down.

38 But if any man be [85] ignorant, [86] let him be ignorant.

[85] Will not be brought to a right understanding in these things by all that I have said, but is still contentious and unruly. ¶ [86] Be it at his own Peril: I'le trouble my self no further about him; and don't you regard him.

39 Wherefore brethren, [87] covet to prophesie, and [88] forbid not to speak with tongues.

[87] See ch. 12. 31. n. 73. ¶ [88] Be not much concerned for the getting the Gift of Tongues; but since God is pleased to bestow it, let it not be wholly laid aside as useless, but exercised according to the former Rules.

40 [89] Let all things be done decently, and in [91] order.

[89] Let all your chief Officers, whether endowed with extraordinary, or ordinary Gifts, in all their publick Administrations take care that all things be done in such a seemly manner, as the State, Sex, Age, Dignity, Gifts, and Office of every person requires, and is most agreeable to the Nature, and present Circumstances of the performance. ¶ [91] Col. 2. 5. [22] Viz. By all of us, and that upon such infallible grounds as are mentioned.

13 [23] But if there be no resurrection of the dead, [24] then is Christ not risen.

[23] Here he begins to prove the Resurrection of Believers. ¶ [24] (For if Christ, the Head, be risen, he will certainly raise his Members.)

14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our [25] preaching vain, and your faith is also vain.

[25] Wherein we propound Life eternal to you.

[26] Acts 2. 38. & 10. 39. & 20. 21. See there.

16 For if the dead rise not, then is not Christ raised.

17 And if Christ be not raised, [27] your faith is vain; ye are yet [28] in your sins.

[27] 'Tis to no purpose for you to lay hold on Christ by Faith for Pardon. ¶ [28] Under the guilt of sin, (from which you are acquitted only by his Resurrection, Rom. 4. 25.)

He shall present all the Elect (which are the principal matter of his Kingdom, and chief object of his Government) together, in a state of Perfection, 2 Cor. 4.-14. Eph. 5. 27. Or (3.) *Psal. 110. 1. Acts 2. 34. Heb. 1. 13. & 10. 13.

25 For he must [45] reign, * till he hath put all enemies under his feet.

*Rev. 20. 14.

26 * The last [46] enemy that shall be [47] destroyed, is [48] death.

[46] Evil or hindrance of the full happiness of the Saints. ¶ [47] Removed; (which shall be by Christ's raising all his Members to an immortal Life.) ¶ [48] Viz. Of the Body, Luke 20. 36. Rev. 21. 4.

*Matt. 28. 18. Heb. 2. 8.

27 For * [49] he hath put all things under his feet. [50] But when he saith all things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted which did put all things under him.

[49] Psal. 8. 6. God the Father. ¶ [50] q. d. We must not think that God the Father, by bestowing the Office of King on his Son, did divest himself of his Sovereign Empire; but he still remains Superiour to him, and therefore to him shall Christ deliver up the Kingdom.

28 And when all things shall be [51] subdued unto [52] him, then * shall the [53] Son also himself [54] be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God [55] may be all in all.

[51] Viz. Perfectly and fully, at the end of the World. ¶ [52] Christ. ¶ [53] Viz. As Mediatour. ¶ [54] More evidently and visibly manifest himself to be so, by resigning up his Power into his Fathers hands; which while he does so eminently exercise in the World, his subjection is not so evident. ¶ [55] May immediately in his own Person, in and by himself only, and not by a Deputy, or by means, communicate himself and all good to all the Saints.

29 [56] Else [57] what shall they do, which are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? why are they then baptized for the dead?

[56] If there be no Resurrection. ¶ [57] What shall they be the better (v. 32.) who are expos'd to grievous sufferings (as the word is taken, Matt. 20. 22. Luke 12. 50.) for professing and maintaining the Resurrection of some that are dead, viz. Christ and the Saints. Or thus, What shall they that are baptized be the better for that significant Ceremony of Rising again out of the Water, after they have been as it were buried in it; (Rom. 6. 4.) which is, a being Baptized for the dead, i. e. to give assurance that after they are dead they shall be raised again by the power of Christ. (This interpretation was suggested to me upon the consideration of those words, Rom. 6. which I submit to the judgment of the godly learned.)

30 And * why stand [58] we in [59] jeopardy every hour?

[58] Christians, and especially Apostles. ¶ [59] Rom. 8. 36. In continual danger of our Lives, (if there be no Resurrection, when we may be rewarded.)

Chap. 15. 4063.

31 I protest by ‖ * [60] your rejoycing which I have [61] in Christ Jesus our Lord, [62] I die daily.

‖ Some read our.

* 1 Thess. 2. 19.

[60] By that rejoycing which I have for you, that I have brought you to believe in Christ. ¶ [61] By the Communication of his Grace and Blessing upon my Labours. ¶ [62] Psal. 119. 109. Rom. 8. 36. 2 Cor. 4. 10, 11. I expose my self to Death, and do undergo many Crosses daily, 2 Cor. 11. 23.

* 2 Cor. 1. 8.

32 [63] If ‖ after the manner of men * I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantageth it me if the dead rise not? [65] Let us eat and drink, for to morrow we die.

[63] q. d. It had been a madness in me to have hazarded my Life so apparently, by contending with beastly persons, (as Men fight with Beasts) in hopes of a better Resurrection, if there be no Resurrection at all, and so no advantage could have redounded to me afterwards. ¶ [65] Esa. 22. 13. & 56. 12. Eccl. 11. 9. q. d. If there be no Resurrection, then we may freely, Epicure-like, indulge our selves in all sensual Delights, and shun Sufferings all we can.

[66] Ch. 6. 9. Gal. 6. 7. See there, n. 20. q. d. Don't think that you can entertain such rotten Principles, and yet keep your selves free from corrupt Practices. ¶ [67] Such rotten Principles bewraying themselves frequently and ordinarily in suitable, i. e. Profane, and Atheistical Discourse, will soon infect the Manners, and draw a Man to a loose, and profane Conversation, by rendring Sin familiar to the Soul, and so taking away that horror that should be at the very thoughts of it.

34 [68] Awake to righteousness, and [70] sin not; for [71] some have not the knowledge of God: I speak this to your [73] shame.

[68] Rom. 13. 11. Eph. 5. 14. Rouze up your selves from your ignorance, and that sottish Security that this Errour has brought you into, and apply your selves to a Holy Life, in order to an Eternal one. ¶ [70] Shake off Epicurism, Sensuality, and all Looseness. ¶ [71] They that are tainted with this Errour, have not sound and right Apprehensions of God's Nature and Power, (Matt. 22. 29.) and their Duty to him. ¶ [73] Ch. 6. 5. viz. That you should suffer such among you, or comply with 'em.

35 But some man will say, [74] How are the dead raised up? and [75] with what body do they come?

[74] John 3. 4. Matt. 22. 29. Ezek. 37. 3. How is it possible that a dead putrified Body should be revived again? ¶ [75] What! shall the same vile Bodies be restored again, which were but clogs before?

[76] Luke 24. 25. Void of Understanding, or else thou mightest have learnt something of the possibility hereof, by daily experience. ¶ [77] John 12. 24. q. d. It's as possible for dead Bodies to rise again, as for Corn that is corrupted and destroy'd, as to the shape and substance it had afore, to spring up again.

37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body [78] that shall be, but [79] bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain.

[78] Just as it comes up, with stalk, leaves, &c. ¶ [79] Thou sowest only a naked grain of Corn.

38 But God [80] giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed his own [81] body.

[80] Ch. 3. 7. Psal. 104. 14. Causes it to grow up in a more beautiful manner, adorned with a Stalk, Leaves, &c. as he was pleased to ordain at the beginning of the World. ¶ [81] So in the Resurrection, every one shall receive the same Body, for substance, which he laid down; though with more excellent Qualities.

39 [82] All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds.

[82] q. d. And as there are several kinds of Flesh, and one more excellent than another.

40 [83] There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another.

[83] And as there's a difference between the Beauty of Celestial, and Terrestrial Bodies.

41 [84] There

Chap. 15. 4063.

41 [84] There is one glory of the ſun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the ſtars; for one ſtar differeth from another ſtar in glory.

[84] And as Celeſtial Bodies differ among themſelves in brightneſs and luſtre.

[a] Dan. 12. 3. Matt. 13. 43. * It is [86] ſown in corruption, it is raiſed in [88] incorruption:

42 * [85] So alſo is the reſurrection of the dead.

[85] Such a difference there will be at the Reſurrection between the qualities of the Body then, and thoſe it had afore. ¶ [86] Laid, like Seed, in the Earth, ſubject to rottenneſs. ¶ [88] Free from all poſſibility of Decay, Change, or Suffering.

43 It is ſown in [89] diſhonour, it is raiſed in [90] glory: it is ſown in [91] weakneſs, it is raiſed in [92] power:

[89] Phil. 3. 21. A contemptible, loathſome Carcaſe. ¶ [90] A beautiful, ſhining, and glorious Body (Matt. 13. 43. Luke 20. 36. Phil. 3. 21.) adorn'd with all Heavenly, and Spiritual Qualities, or Gifts. ¶ [91] A frail, crazy Body, and when dead, not able ſo much as to defend it ſelf from worms. ¶ [92] Able (1.) to attend the Soul in the higheſt Operations, (which now it cannot, Dan. 8. 27.) (2.) To be continually exerciſed in the higheſt Imployments without wearineſs, Rev. 4. 8. (which now it cannot, Matt. 26.-41.) (3.) To bear the weight of Glory, (which now it cannot, v. 50.) (4.) To do whatſoever the Soul would have it. (5.) Above the reach of inward Infirmities, or outward Dangers.

44 It is ſown a [93] natural body, it is raiſed a [94] ſpiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a ſpiritual body.

[93] Which has nothing but what its Soul can beſtow upon it in a natural way. ¶ [94] Luke 20. 36. i. e. (1.) Of a more ſubtle, and refined Contexture. (2.) Endued with Spiritual Qualities, ſo as not to need Natural ſupports of Meat, Drink, &c. and ſuited to Spiritual Objects. (3.) Perfectly ſubject to the Spirit of God, without any Rebellious Inclinations. (4.) Immediately ſupported by the Spirit without any Corporal means. (5.) Which has an activity in it ſelf, and does moſt wonderfully contribute to the moſt lively, divine, and enlarged vital Operations of the Soul her ſelf. (6.) Exceeding nimble, moving ſuddenly whitherſoever it will. q. d. There is not only a Natural condition of Bodies here on Earth, which all men derive from Adam; but there is to be a Spiritual condition of the Bodies of the Elect, to which they ſhall be raiſed by Chriſt, the ſecond Adam, of whom the firſt Adam was a Type.

45 [95] And ſo it is written, [96] The firſt man Adam was [97] made a living ſoul, the [98] laſt Adam was made a [99] quickning ſpirit.

[95] q. d. And I can ſhew you by good Authority that there are ſuch different ſtates of the Body, and alſo from whence they do proceed. ¶ [95] Gen. 2. 7. Rom. 5.-14. The firſt Publick Perſon, and Head of the old Covenant. ¶ [97] His Lifeleſs Body was endued with a Soul, whereby he became a living Creature, and the fountain of natural Life to all his Poſterity. ¶ [98] Chriſt the ſecond Publick Perſon, and Head of the New Covenant. ¶ [99] Acts 3. 15. 2 Cor. 3. 17. Partaker of the Divine Nature, and endued with the Holy Spirit, whereby he becomes the Fountain of Heavenly Life to all his Members, Rom. 8. 10, 11. And as the Soul dwelling in Adam's Body, made him a living Soul, ſo Chriſt dwelling in us, (See on John 17. 23.) quickens and enlivens us, both here and hereafter.

46 [1] Howbeit that was not firſt which is ſpiritual, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is ſpiritual.

[1] q. d. It is God's appointment and method, that, though this Spiritual State of the Body be more excellent than the Natural; yet that we ſhould not preſently be endued with Spiritual Bodies, but that while we are in this World, we ſhould only have Natural Bodies: God's manner of proceeding in his Works, being to begin with what is imperfect, and ſo to proceed to what is more perfect.

[a] John 3. 13, 31. 47 The firſt man is of the earth, [2] earthy: the ſecond man is the Lord * [3] from heaven.

[2] Mortal and Corruptible, Gen. 3. 17. ¶ [3] Of a Heavenly Deſcent, and has a Divine, as well as a Humane Nature.

48 [4] As is the earthy, ſuch are they alſo that are earthy; and [5] as is the heavenly, ſuch are they alſo that are heavenly.

[4] i. e. Such a Body as Adam had, have all his Poſterity, while on Earth. ¶ [5] And ſuch a Body as Chriſt has now, ſhall the Saints have after the Reſurrection, Phil. 3. 21.

Chap. 15. 4063.

49 And [6] as we have born the image of the earthy, [7] we ſhall alſo bear the image of the heavenly.

[6] Gen. 5. 3. John 3. 31. As here we Men have derived from Adam a Body like his, viz. Mortal and Corruptible. ¶ [7] Rom. 8. 29. Phil. 3. 21. 1 John 3. 2. 2 Cor. 3.-18. So we Believers ſhall hereafter have a Body like Chriſt's, viz. Glorious and Immortal.

50 Now [8] this I ſay brethren, that * [9] fleſh and blood cannot [10] inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption. * John 3. 3, 5.

[8] See on ch. 1. 12. n. 43. i. e. This I offer to your Conſideration as a great and manifeſt Truth. ¶ [9] Our frail Corruptible Bodies. ¶ [10] Ch. 6. 13. Bear the Majeſty and Glory of Heaven: (and therefore our Bodies muſt be laid into the Earth, and there lay down that Frailty and Corruptibility, which they received from thence, afore they can be admitted into Heaven.)

51 Behold, I ſhew you a [11] myſtery; * We ſhall not all ſleep, but we ſhall all be [12] changed, * 1 Theſſ. 4. 15, 16, 17.

[11] A truth hitherto unknown, (and therefore the more heedfully to be regarded.) ¶ [12] Tranſlated from that Mortal and Corruptible Condition, we are now in, v. 53.

52 In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, [13] at the laſt trump (for the trumpet ſhall ſound and the dead ſhall be raiſed incorruptible, and [14] we ſhall be [12] changed.)

[13] Matt. 24. 31. 1 Theſſ. 4. 15. (See there,) at that mighty loud voice of God, (like a Trumpet) which ſhall be then uttered. ¶ [14] Believers then alive.

53 For [15] this corruptible [16] muſt [17] put on incorruption, and this mortal muſt put on immortality.

[15] This humane Nature which is corruptible. ¶ [16] (Becauſe otherwiſe we can't partake of Glory, v. 50.) ¶ [17] 2 Cor. 5. 2, 4. Phil. 3. 21. be indued with ſuch a State, as ſhall continue in perpetual vigour, not ſubject to any alteration.

54 So when this corruptible ſhall have put on incorruption, and this mortal ſhall have put on immortality, then ſhall be brought to paſs the ſaying that is written, * [18] Death is [19] ſwallowed up in victory. * Rev. 20. 14.

[18] Hoſ. 13. 14. Iſa. 25. 8. ¶ [19] Perfectly and finally deſtroyed, and vanquiſht in the godly; ſo that they may triumph over it, yea inſult upon it, and upbraid it, with its impotency, ſaying—

[20] Thou, O Death, when thou hadſt thruſt thy Sting into me, and ſlain me, and brought me into thy Priſon of the Grave, didſt ſeem to have obtained a full victory over me; but now that I am raiſed from the Grave, and endued with Eternal Life, thou haſt loſt thy Sting, and Victory too.

56 The [21] ſting of death is ſin; and [22] the ſtrength of ſin is the law.

[21] That which makes Death grievous and terrible to us is Sin. ¶ [22] Rom. 4. 15. & 5. 13. That which enables Sin to do us ſo much miſchief, is the Law, (in reſpect of its threats againſt it) q. d. Were it not for Sin, Death could have no Power over us, (as a Serpent could not wound nor kill without its Sting) and were it not for the Law, Sin would do us no hurt. If there were no Law, there would be no Sin; and if there were no Sin, there would be no Death.

57 [23] But thanks be to God, which giveth us * the victory, [24] through our Lord Jeſus Chriſt. * 1 John 5. 5.

[23] Rom. 7. 25. ¶ [24] Heb. 2. 14. In that by his Death, he has ſatisfied the Law, and taken its Curſe from us, (Gal. 3. 13.) and deſtroyed the Power of Sin in us, (Rom. 7. 25.) and by his Reſurrection, raiſes our Bodies at the laſt day, Rom. 8. 11.

58 [25] Therefore my beloved brethren, be ye [26] ſtedfaſt, [27] unmoveable, always [28] abounding in the work of the Lord, for as much as ye know [29] that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

[25] i. e. Seeing I have thus proved that there will be a Reſurrection of the Body, and ſo a time of Reward. ¶ [26] Firmly perſwaded of the Truth of the Goſpel, and particularly of this Doctrine of the Reſurrection. ¶ [27] Fixed againſt all outward Aſſaults. ¶ [28] 2 Pet. 1. 5–7. & 3. 18. ¶ [29] 2 Chron. 15.–7. Gal. 6. 9. Heb. 6. 10. Rev. 22. 12. That you ſhall be rewarded proportionably to your abundant work, at the Reſurrection, by Chriſt the giver of Glory.

II. CORINTHIANS.

The ARGUMENT.

IN this Epiſtle St. Paul I. Vindicates himſelf from ſeveral aſperſions and cavils of the falſe Apoſtles and Teachers; as (1.) for his not coming to 'em according to his promiſe, ch. 1. (2.) For his being too ſevere againſt the Inceſtuous perſon: whom he now recommends to their kindneſs, ch. 2. (3.) As if he were vain-glorious for aſcribing ſo much to his own Doctrine. (ch. 3.) Concerning which he ſhews the Excellency and Efficacy thereof, though attended with many troubles; under which he had preſent ſupport, and by which he ſhould have Eternal advantage: (ch. 4.) in hopes whereof he longed for his Change; and in order thereto, was diligent in performance of his duty, and urging Sinners to be reconcil'd to God; which God, on his part, had made way for by the Death of Chriſt, ch. 5. II. He earneſtly perſwades 'em to a preſent compliance with the tenders of mercy, and walking inoffenſively: for which he propounds his own Example; and warns 'em againſt Communion with Unbelievers and Idolaters, ch. 6. III. He declares his great Satisfaction and the Comfort he had in their readineſs to comply with him, and in their Affection to him, ch. 7. IV. He treats largely of Alms and Contributions, (ch. 8.) ſhowing the Benefit they ſhall reap thereby, ch. 9. CHAP. I.

3 The Apoſtle encourageth them againſt troubles, 13 and ſheweth the ſincerity of his preaching, 15 and excuſeth his not coming unto them.

PAul an [1] Apoſtle of Jeſus Chriſt by the [2] will of God, and [3] Timothy our brother, unto the church of God which is at Corinth, with all the [4] ſaints which are in all Achaia:

[1] See on Matt. 10. 2. ¶ [2] Gal. 1. 15. Acts 13. 2. ¶ [3] See on 1 Cor. 1. n. 6. ¶ [4] See on Eph. 1. 1.

[a] Gal. 1. 3. [b] See on Rom. 1. n. 29.

2 [a] [b] Grace be to you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jeſus Chriſt.

3 Bleſſed be God, [6] even the Father of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort;

[6] Rom. 15. 6. or, [the God and Father] as ch. 11. 31. Eph. 1. 3. 1 Pet. 1. 3. God is the Father of Chriſt. (1.) As God, becauſe he has his Nature from him, Col. 1. 15. & 2. 9. Heb. 1. 3. (2.) As Man, becauſe he is his Creator, Luke 1. 35. (3.) As Mediator, becauſe he appointed, and authorized him to, and qualified him for, that Office, Pſal. 40. 8. John 20. 17.

4 [7] Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we our ſelves are comforted of God.

[7] Ch. 7. 6. Beſtows Comfort on us the Apoſtles and Miniſters of Chriſt, for the ſake of others.

5 For as the ſufferings [8] of Chriſt [9] abound in us, ſo our conſolation alſo aboundeth by Chriſt.

[8] Col. 1. 24. Which we indure for his ſake, and which he counts his own, Acts 9. 4. ¶ [9] Ver. 8. ch. 4. 9. & 11. 3. Pſal. 34. 19.

6 And whether we be afflicted, * it is for your [10] conſolation and [11] ſalvation, which ‖ is [12] effectual in the enduring of the ſame ſufferings, which we alſo ſuffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for [13] your conſolation and ſalvation.

[10] Viz. When you ſee with what Chriſtian Courage and Patience we bear Afflictions. ¶ [11] By encouraging you to undergo the like, and ſo to obtain Salvation. ¶ [12] The proſpect or hope whereof, is of ſufficient force to inable you to indure the like Sufferings which we have done, if called thereto, ch. 4. 17, 18. Rom. 8. 18. ¶ [13] By fitting us the better to comfort (v. 4.) and encourage you in the way to Heaven.

7 And our hope of you is ſtedfaſt, knowing that as you are [14] partakers of the ſufferings, [15] ſo ſhall ye be alſo of the conſolation,

[14] By a Chriſtian Fellow-feeling, (Heb. 13. 3.) relieving them in their ſtraits, (Phil. 4. 14.) and enduring the like your ſelves. ¶ [15] Heb. 6. 10.

Chap. I. 4063.

8 For we would not, brethren, have you ignorant of * our trouble which came to us in Aſia, that we were preſſed [16] out of meaſure, above [17] ſtrength, inſomuch that we deſpaired even of life:

* Acts 19. 23. 1 Cor. 15. 32.

[16] Viz. According to the feeling of the Fleſh. ¶ [17] Viz. Of Nature.

‖ Or, anſwer. * Jer. 17. 5, 7.

9 But we had the ‖ ſentence of death in our ſelves, that we ſhould * not truſt in our ſelves but in God which raiſeth the dead.

10 Who [18] delivered us from [19] ſo great a death, and doth deliver: in whom we truſt that he will yet deliver us:

[18] 1 Sam. 17. 37. 2 Tim. 4. 17. ¶ [19] The utmoſt danger of Death, (as ch. 11. 23.)

* Chap. 4. 15.

11 You alſo [20] helping [21] together by prayer for us, that * for the [22] gift beſtowed upon us by the [23] means of many perſons, thanks may be given by many on our behalf.

[20] Acts 12. 5. Rom. 15. 30. Eph. 6. 19. Phil. 1. 19. Philem. 22. ¶ [21] Viz. With my ſelf, Rom. 15. 30. ¶ [22] Gracious deliverance. ¶ [23] Help of their Prayers.

* 1 Cor. 2. 4, 13.

12 [24] For our [25] rejoycing is this, [26] the teſtimony of our conſcience, that in [27] ſimplicity and godly [28] ſincerity, * not with [29] fleſhly wiſdom, but by the [30] grace of God, we have had our converſation in the world, and [31] more abundantly to you-wards.

[24] q. d. And I truſt I ſhall be delivered (v. 10.) and be further ſerviceable to you and the Church of God, becauſe my Conſcience tells me I have been faithful. ¶ [25] That which affords me comfort upon the review. ¶ [26] 2 Kings 20. 3. Acts 23. 1. & 24. 16. Gal. 6. 4. 2 Tim. 1. 3. Heb. 13. 18. ¶ [27] Pſal. 32. 2. John 1. 47. Freedom from double dealing, which comes from God, and carries the Soul to God again. ¶ [28] Freedom from the mixture of baſe and corrupt Ends. ¶ [29] Which ſeeks only to promote the intereſt of the Fleſh. ¶ [30] Aſſiſtance thereof. ¶ [31] Which has more evidently diſcovered it ſelf in my Converſe among you.

13 For we write none other [32] things unto you, [33] than what you read or [34] acknowledge, and I truſt you ſhall acknowledge even to the end.

[32] Viz. Concerning my Converſation. ¶ [33] Than what I have always declared my ſelf to be, in the Epiſtles I have ſent to you and other Churches. ¶ [34] Which you know in your ſelves, and cannot but own to be true.

Chap. 1. 4063.

14 As alſo you have acknowledged us [35] in part, * [36] that we are your rejoycing, even [37] as ye alſo are ours in the day of the Lord Jeſus.

* Chap. 5. 12.

[35] In ſome meaſure, or ſome of you. ¶ [36] That you took comfort in me, and my Miniſtry. ¶ [37] Phil. 2. 16. & 4. 1. 1 Theſſ. 2. 19, 20. 3 John 4. As I alſo rejoice and glory in you, (being ſo famous a Church, and enriched with ſo many ſpiritual Gifts) as the Maſter-piece of my Labours.

15 And in this [38] confidence I was [39] minded to come unto you before, that you might have [40] a ſecond ‖ benefit:

‖ Or, grace.

[38] Viz. Of this mutual affection to, and eſteem one of another. ¶ [39] 1 Cor. 16. 5. Rom. 1. 11. & 15. 29. ¶ [40] A further Confirmation and Edification in Gifts, and Graces, wherewith you were enrich'd by my firſt coming to you.

16 And to paſs by you into Macedonia, and * to come again out of Macedonia unto you, and of you to be brought on my way toward Judea.

17 When I therefore was thus minded, [41] did I uſe lightneſs? or the things that I purpoſe, do I purpoſe [42] according to the fleſh, that with me there ſhould be [43] yea, yea, and nay, nay?

[41] I was not inconſtant (as the falſe Apoſtles ſuggeſt) but ſerious and ſincere. ¶ [42] Merely upon carnal Conſiderations? (which may eaſily be altered) No, But according to the Conduct of the Spirit, Acts 16. 7, 9, 10. Gal. 2. 2. ¶ [43] i. e. Both ſaying and unſaying, or promiſing and not performing.

18 But as God is true, our ‖ [44] word toward you, was not [45] yea and nay.

[44] The Doctrine I preach'd to you. ¶ [45] Matt. 5. 37. Jam. 5. 12. Uncertain, (as the falſe Apoſtles concluded, that becauſe he kept not his word of coming to 'em, therefore nothing he ſaid was to be relied on.)

19 For the Son of God Jeſus Chriſt, who was preached among you, by us, even by me, and Silvanus, and Timothy, was not [46] yea, and nay, but [47] in him was yea.

[46] Changeable, and unconſtant, viz. In our Preaching of him; that is, Chriſt was taught by us, without any variation, or contradiction, but with a perfect Agreement, both among our ſelves, and in all parts of our Doctrine. ¶ [47] Heb. 13. 8. There was nothing but Conſtancy, and Conſonancy in our Doctrine concerning him.

20 For all the promiſes of God [48] in him are yea, and in him amen, [49] unto the glory of God by us.

[48] John 14. 6. By his Mediation they have all their Confirmation (Gal. 3. 17.) and unalterable Ratification to us, (becauſe he is the Surety and Head of the Covenant.) ¶ [49] As is declared by us, in our Miniſtry, to the Glory of God.

21 [50] Now he which [51] ſtabliſheth us with you, [52] in Chriſt, and hath [53] anointed us, is God:

[50] Ch. 5. 5. ¶ [51] Confirms both you, and us, in the Truth. ¶ [52] By ſtrength from Chriſt. ¶ [53] 1 John 2. 20, 27. Conſecrated us to this Office, and endued us with Gifts and Graces of the Holy Ghoſt, (ſignified by anointing of Kings, Prieſts, and Prophets under the Law.)

* 2 Tim. 2. 19. Rev. 2. 17.

22 Who * hath alſo [54] ſealed us, and given the [55] earneſt of the Spirit in our hearts.

[54] Not only imprinted his Image on us, and mark'd us for his own, by the work of Regeneration, but aſſured us of our Salvation, (as was uſual then, Eph. 1. 14. & 4. 30. Acts 9.-31. 2 Pet. 1.-8.) He is a Seal to warrant our preſent intereſt, an Earneſt to ſecure our future enjoyment. ¶ [55] Ch. 5. 5. The Perſon of the Spirit, (See on Rom. 8. 9. n. 45.) who is an Earneſt to aſſure us of the whole Mercy promiſed, Eph. 1. 14. (and therefore ſurely we are not to be accuſed of Lightneſs, or Vanity.)

* 1 Cor. 4. 21. Chap. 2. 3. & 12. 20.

23 Moreover, [56] I call God for a record [57] upon my ſoul, * that to [58] ſpare you I came not as yet unto Corinth.

[56] See on Rom. 1. 9. n. 40. ¶ [57] To puniſh me with Death, if I ſpeak not true. (He uſes this ſolemn Obteſtation, becauſe it was of great concernment to the Goſpel, that he ſhould not be accounted fickle in his word.) ¶ [58] Ch. 13.-2, 10. & 10. 6. 1 Cor. 4. 21. To give you time, afore my coming, to reform what is amiſs, that ſo I may not be obliged to uſe any ſeverity among you.

24 [59] Not for that we have [60] dominion over your faith, but are [61] helpers of your joy: [62] for by faith ye ſtand.

[59] Matt. 23. 8–12. 1 Pet. 5. 3. ¶ [60] Power to impoſe upon you in matters of your ſouls, as I pleaſe. ¶ [61] 1 Cor. 3. 5. Co-workers with Chriſt (ch. 6.-1.) to promote your Comfort, (by bringing you to a due ſenſe of your Faults, and to repentance for 'em.) ¶ [62] Rom. 11.-20. q. d. And this will be a means to ſtrengthen your Faith, by which alone you continue in the favour of God, and obtain a right and title to the Kingdom of Heaven.

Chap. 2. 4063.

CHAP. II.

1 The reaſon of his not coming unto them. 6 Of the excommunicate perſon. 12 Paul cometh to Troas: 13 from thence to Macedonia. 14 The ſucceſs of his preaching in every place.

BUT I determined this with my ſelf, that I would not come again to you [1] in heavineſs.

[1] So as to grieve any of you, (by the exerciſe of Diſcipline) but give you time to reform diſorders.

2 For if I make you ſorry, who is he then that maketh me glad, but the [2] ſame which is made ſorry by me?

[2] Viz. By his amendment.

3 And I wrote [3] this ſame unto you, [4] leſt when I came, I ſhould have [5] ſorrow from them, of whom I ought to rejoyce, having [6] confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all.

[3] About reforming what is amiſs, 1 Cor. 5. ¶ [4] Ch. 12. 21. ¶ [5] Occaſion to cenſure any, (which is grievous to me.) ¶ [6] Ch. 8.-22. Gal. 5. 10.

4 For out of much [7] affliction and anguiſh of heart, I wrote unto you with many [8] tears; not that ye ſhould be grieved, but that ye might know the [9] love which I have more abundantly unto you.

[7] Ch. 11. 28. viz. That I was forc'd by your Diſorders to uſe ſuch ſeverity. ¶ [8] Phil. 3. 18. ¶ [9] Lev. 19. 17. Viz. By my endeavours to free you from ſuch Diſorders.

5 But if any have cauſed [10] grief, [11] he hath not grieved me, but in part: that I may not [12] overcharge you all.

[10] Viz. By any miſcarriage, (as the inceſtuous Perſon has done.) ¶ [11] q. d. I am not the only Perſon grieved at it, (for you alſo are ſenſible of it; as appears by your readineſs to cenſure him for it.) ¶ [12] Viz. As if you did abet him in it, (which you have now cleared your ſelves from.)

6 [13] Sufficient to ſuch a man is this ‖ puniſhment, which was inflicted of [14] many.

[13] (Since he gives tokens of Repentance.) ¶ [14] The Governours of the Church, with the conſent of the Church alſo, 1 Cor. 5. 4, 5.

7 So that [15] contrariwiſe ye ought rather to [16] forgive him, and comfort him, leſt perhaps ſuch a one ſhould be ſwallowed up with overmuch ſorrow.

[15] Inſtead of proceeding further againſt him. ¶ [16] Releaſe him from the Cenſure, and receive him into favour again.

8 Wherefore I beſeech you, that ye would [17] confirm your love towards him.

[17] 1 Theſſ. 5. 14. Aſſure him of your love by receiving him into your publick Communion, and by all Offices of Kindneſs.

9 For to this end alſo did [18] I write, that I might know the proof of you, whether ye be obedient in all things.

[18] Viz. Both in my former Epiſtle, that you'd Cenſure him, and now that you'd releaſe him.

10 To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive alſo: for [19] if I forgave any thing, to whom I forgave it, [20] for your ſakes forgave I it, [21] in the ‖ perſon of Chriſt;

‖ Or, ſight.

[19] If heretofore (afore Church-Government was ſettled in your Church) I alone received any to Mercy. ¶ [20] To ſhew you an Example of Lenity, as well as Severity, (and not out of Ambition.) ¶ [21] Ch. 5. 20. In his name, (1 Cor. 5. 4. and in his ſtead, and by his Authority.)

11 Leſt Satan ſhould get an [22] advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his [23] devices.

[22] 1 Pet.

Chap. 3. 4063.

[21] 1 Pet. 5. 8. Either by driving any to deſpair (by too much Rigour;) or drawing any to profaneneſs, (by too much Lenity.) ¶ [23] Eph. 6.-11.

12 Furthermore, * when I came to [24] Troas to preach Chriſt's Goſpel, and [25] a door was opened unto me of the Lord,

*Acts 16. 8.

13 [26] I had no reſt in my ſpirit, becauſe I found not * Titus my brother: but taking my leave of [27] them, I went from thence into [28] Macedonia.

*See Ch. 7. 6.

[26] Ch. 7. 5. ¶ [27] The Church at Troas. ¶ [28] In hope to find him there, (and ſo he did; and underſtanding by him, the happy ſucceſs of his former Epiſtle, he bleſſes God for it, in the next Verſe.)

14 Now thanks be unto God which always cauſeth [29] us to [30] triumph [31] in Chriſt, and [32] maketh manifeſt the ſavour of his knowledge by us in every place.

[29] The Apoſtles. ¶ [30] Makes our Miniſtry ſucceſsful againſt all Oppoſition. ¶ [31] By his Aſſiſtance. ¶ [32] Spreads the knowledge of Chriſt, which is pleaſant and acceptable, (1 Tim. 1. 15.) like a ſweet perfume, Cant. 1. 3.

15 For [33] we are unto God a ſweet ſavour [34] of Chriſt, * in them that are [35] ſaved, and in them that [36] periſh.

*1 Cor. 1. 18.

[33] We are the Perſons that ſpread abroad the knowledge of Chriſt to the glory of God. ¶ [34] Luke 2. 34. ¶ [35] In that his Mercy is magnified towards them. ¶ [36] In that his Juſtice is manifeſted in them.

16 * To the one we are the [37] ſavour of [38] death [39] unto death; and to the other, the [40] ſavour of life [41] unto life: and * who is ſufficient for theſe things?

*Luke 2. 34. John 9. 39. 1 Pet. 2. 7, 8. *Chap. 3. 5, 6.

[37] Inſtruments (by accident) of their Deſtruction. ¶ [38] Matt. 13. 14. ¶ [39] And to aggravate their Condemnation, John 3. 19, 36. Matt. 11. 20-24. ¶ [40] The means to bring 'em to Life and Salvation, Rom. 1. 16. ¶ [41] And to increaſe it in 'em.

17 [42] For we are not as many, which ‖ [43] corrupt the word of God: but as [44] of ſincerity, but [45] as of God, in the ſight of God ſpeak we ‖ [31] in Chriſt.

‖ Or, deal deceitfully with. ‖ Or, of.

[42] q. d. And hence our Preaching comes to be ſo efficacious. ¶ [43] Ch. 4. 2. Mingle it with their own Inventions, or Paſſions, of Pride, Covetouſneſs, &c. or wreſt it according to mens pleaſures. ¶ [44] In the ſincerity of our Hearts. ¶ [45] By Authority from God, and taught by him.

CHAP. III.

1 The commendation of Paul's miniſtery. 6 A compariſon between the miniſters of the law and the goſpel.

DO [1] we begin again to commend our ſelves? or need we, as ſome others, epiſtles of commendation to you, or letters of commendation from you?

[1] Ch. 5. 12. & 10. 8. q. d. But I need not commend my ſelf for my fidelity and ſincerity, (ch. 2. 17.) and the efficacy of my Miniſtry, (ch. 2. 14.) for you are a real Teſtimony thereof, v. 2.

2 Ye are our [2] epiſtle [3] written in our hearts, [4] known and read of all men:

[2] 1 Cor. 9.-1, 2. viz. Of Commendation, (v. 1.) i. e. A real Commendation of my Miniſtry, and Demonſtration of its Efficacy. ¶ [3] For whom I have a hearty Affection. ¶ [4] Rom. 1. 8. Which all men may plainly diſcern.

3 [5] For as much as ye are manifeſtly declared to be the [6] epiſtle of Chriſt, [7] miniſtred by us, written not with ink, but with the ſpirit of the living God; not in [8] tables of ſtone, but * in [9] fleſhly tables of the heart.

*Pſal. 40. 8. Jer. 31. 33. Heb. 8. 10.

[5] q. d. It appears that you are our Epiſtle, in that it is evident that Chriſt has written his Law in your Hearts, by my Miniſtry, which was made effectual to this end by the Holy Ghoſt. ¶ [6] The Perſons on whom Chriſt has thus powerfully wrought. Here the Writer is God in Chriſt: the Pen the Miniſter: the Ink the Spirit: the Paper, or Tables, the Heart; and the Laws of God the Writing. ¶ [7] By the Means of my Miniſtry. ¶ [8] Exod. 24.-12. & 34. 1. ¶ [9] Ezek. 11.-19. In your Hearts, which are of Fleſh, that is, prepared to receive God's Law, Ezek. 36. 26.

Chap. 3. 4063.

4 And ſuch [10] truſt have we through Chriſt [11] to God-ward:

[10] Viz. That my Miniſtry will be further ſucceſsful among you. ¶ [11] To do that which may tend to his Glory, and be accepted by him.

5 Not that we are [12] ſufficient of our ſelves to think any thing as of our ſelves: but our ſufficiency is of God.

[12] Ch. 2.-16. Phil. 2. 13. John 15. 4, 5.

6 Who alſo hath made us able [13] miniſters of the * [14] new teſtament, not of the [15] letter, but [16] of the ſpirit: for the [17] letter killeth, but the [18] ſpirit ‖ giveth life.

* Matt. 26. 28. ‖ Or, quickneth.

[13] Ch. 5.-18. ¶ [14] Jer. 31. 31. The Covenant of Grace, as diſpenſt, or adminiſtred under the Goſpel, (which is called a Teſtament, or Will, becauſe confirmed by the Death of Chriſt the Author of it, Heb. 9. 16, 17.) ¶ [15] Rom. 2. 27, 29. & 7.-6. The Legal Diſpenſation, which conſiſted chiefly in a multitude of carnal Ordinances, (Heb. 9. 10. Eph. 2. 15.) and where they had the Letter of the Command, without Strength to Obey. Or, meerly to declare the Words, Matter, and Contents of the Goſpel. ¶ [16] Of the Goſpel, which is the Miniſtration of the Spirit, (v. 8. ſee there,) or, of the Life, Spirit and Power of the Goſpel. ¶ [17] The bare Declaration of the Letter, and Command of the Law, ſerves but to denounce, confirm, and aggravate Condemnation, Rom. 3. 20. & 4. 15. & 7. 9-11. And ſo does the bare Preaching of the Goſpel too, (by accident) (John 3. 19.) where it is not attended with Power. ¶ [18] Acts 16.-14. This preaching of the Goſpel thus accompanied with the Spirit, works Faith, and ſpiritual Life.

7 But if the [19] miniſtration of death * written and ingraven in [20] ſtones, was [21] glorious, * ſo that the children of Iſrael could not ſtedfaſtly behold the face of Moſes, for the [22] glory of his countenance, [23] which glory was to be done away;

* Deut. 10. 1, &c. * Exod. 34. 29, 30.

[19] The Promulgation and Diſpenſation of the Law, which did bind over to Death for every Tranſgreſſion. ¶ [20] i. e. As to the principal part of it, viz. The Ten Commandments. ¶ [21] Attended with ſo much outward Glory and Splendor, in the ſhining of Moſes's Face, High-Prieſts Garments, Furniture of the Tabernacle and Temple, &c. ¶ [22] Exod. 34. 30. (which was a Type of the Purity of the Law.) ¶ [23] q. d. Which Glory was to ceaſe; and the ceaſing thereof did ſignifie, that the Law, ſo glorioufly delivered, as to the rigour of its Sanction, and ſo far forth as given to the Jews, was to ceaſe.

8 How ſhall not the [24] miniſtration of the ſpirit be [25] rather glorious?

[24] The Miniſtry or Preaching of the Goſpel, whereby the Spirit, in his Gifts and Graces, is beſtow'd more plentifully, than formerly under the Law. ¶ [25] Attended with abundance of inward Glory, (in the plentiful Communication of the Gifts and Graces of the Spirit.)

9 For if the [26] miniſtration of condemnation be [27] glory, much more doth the [27] miniſtration of righteouſneſs [25] exceed in glory.

[26] The Miniſtry of the Law, which condemns men for the Tranſgreſſions of it. ¶ [27] Rom. 1. 17. & 3. 21. The Goſpel, which ſhews the way how to attain Righteouſneſs and Juſtification, viz. by Faith, which alſo it works in us. See on Rom. 1. 17. n. 66.

10 For even [28] that which was made glorious, had no glory [29] in this reſpect, by reaſon of the glory that excelleth.

[28] The Law, which in ſome reſpects is glorious. See n. 21. ¶ [29] In compariſon of the Goſpel, which has ſuch a tranſcendent Glory in it.

11 For if [30] that which is done away was glorious, much more [31] that which remaineth is glorious.

[30] The Law, and all the Moſaical Diſpenſation. ¶ [31] The Goſpel, which is to continue without any alteration.

12 [32] Seeing then that we have ſuch [33] hope, * [34] we uſe great ‖ plainneſs of ſpeech.

* Eph. 6. 19. ‖ Or, boldneſs.

[32] Viz. Upon theſe Grounds mentioned, ver. 5, &c. ¶ [33] Confidence of the Excellency, and glorious Succeſs of my Miniſtry, as v. 4. ¶ [34] I plainly declare the Myſteries of the Goſpel, though they be Scandal and Folly to carnal Reaſon.

CHAP. V.

1 That in hope of immortal glory, 9 and in expectance of it, and the general judgment, he laboureth to keep a good conſcience.

[a] Job 4. 19. Chap. 4. 7.

1 FOR we know, [2] that if * our [3] earthly houſe of this tabernacle were diſſolved, we have [4] a building of God, an houſe † not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

[1] q. d. And another reaſon why we are faithful in our Miniſtry, (ch. 4. 1, 2, 13.) and faint not under our Sufferings, (v. 16.) is, becauſe—— ¶ [2] i. e. That when, or, though it be ſo that—— ¶ [3] 2 Pet. 1. 13, 14. 2 [5] For [6] in this we [b] [7] grone earneſtly, deſiring to be cloathed upon with our houſe which is [7] from heaven:

[5] q. d. And we are aſſured of our intereſt in that ſtate, by thoſe earneſt deſires after it, which are wrought in us by the Holy Spirit, v. 5. ¶ [6] In reſpect of our Sufferings; or, while we are in this mortal ſtate. ¶ [7] Suitable to that place, viz. Glorious and Immortal.

Chap. 5. 4036.

3 [8] If ſo be that * being clothed, we ſhall not be found naked.

* Rev. 3. 18. & 16. 15.

[8] q. d. Which ſtate we ſhall partake of, if we are endued with the image of God, and robe of Holineſs (Matt. 22. 11. Rom. 13. 14. Rev. 12. 1. & 19.-14.) and not deſtitute thereof.

4 For we that are in this tabernacle do [c] grone, being [12] burdened: [13] not for that we would be uncloathed, but cloathed upon, [15] that mortality might be ſwallowed up of life.

[c] Rom. 8. 23. Earneſtly deſire that ſtate, and are grieved that we don't yet enjoy it. ¶ [12] Rom. 7. 24. viz. With Sin, and many other evils in this Life. ¶ [13] 1 Cor. 15. 51. Yet not ſo much out of wearineſs of this Life, or to part with our Bodies for ever, as to have this animal Life changed into a heavenly, and everlaſting one, 1 Cor. 15. 53. ¶ [15] That ſo this mortal ſtate may be perfectly taken away by an immortal one, both of Soul and Body, after the Reſurrection.

5 Now * he that hath [16] wrought us for the ſelf-ſame thing, is God: who alſo * hath given unto us the [17] earneſt of the Spirit.

6 Therefore we are always [18] confident, knowing, that whileſt we are at home in the body, we are [19] abſent from the Lord:

7 [20] (For we walk by [21] faith, not by [22] ſight.)

[20] As appears by this, in that—— ¶ [21] Heb. 2. 4. Rom. 8. 24, 25. 1 Cor. 13. 12. Only in a firm belief of this ſtate, and our intereſt in it. ¶ [22] In the preſent, full enjoyment thereof.

8 We are [18] confident, I ſay, and [23] willing rather to be abſent from the body, and to be preſent with the Lord.

[23] Phil. 1. 23.

9 Wherefore we ‖ labour, that [24] whether preſent or abſent, we may be [25] accepted of him.

‖ Or, endeavour.

[24] Whether we live, or dye. ¶ [25] Partake of his favour here, and be received to Glory by him hereafter.

I regard no man upon any Carnal account, (Gal. 5. 6. Col. 3. 11. James 2. 1.) but only upon Spiritual and Divine accounts, as he lives to Christ, and expresses his Love to him. ¶ [50] If any of us have conversed with Christ, after a Carnal, Natural manner, whilst he was on Earth, (as the false Apostles boast they did, and expect their Doctrine should be received upon that score; and undervalue me and my Ministry, for want thereof.) 6 Nevertheleſs, [15] God that comforteth thoſe that are caſt down, comforted us by the coming of Titus:

[15] Ch. 1. 3, 4. 1 Theſſ. 3. 6.

7 And not by his coming only, but by the conſolation wherewith he was comforted in you, when he told us, your [16] earneſt deſire, your [17] mourning, your [18] fervent mind toward me; ſo that I rejoyced the more.

9 Now I rejoyce, not that ye were made ſorry, but that ye ſorrowed to repentance: for ye were made ſorry ‖ after a godly manner, [20] that ye might receive damage by us in nothing.

‖ Or, according to God.

[20] So that you received—

10 For godly ſorrow worketh [21] repentance to ſalvation † not to be repented of: but the [22] ſorrow of the world worketh death.

[21] Such a Reformation, as is the way to Salvation. ¶ † Many have repented of their carnal Mirth, never any of their godly Sorrow. ¶ [22] Sorrow occaſioned by worldly Troubles, and carnal Conſiderations uſually increaſes ſin and miſery, and ſo tends to the ſhortning of Life (as in Achitophel, Judas, &c.) and brings eternal Death.

11 [24] For behold, this ſelf-ſame thing that ye ſorrowed after a godly ſort, what [25] carefulneſs it wrought in you, yea, what [26] clearing of your ſelves, yea, what [27] indignation, yea, what [28] fear, yea, what vehement [29] deſire, yea, what [30] zeal, yea, what [31] revenge: in all things ye have approved your ſelves to be clear in this matter.

[24] q. d. And it appears that your ſorrow was godly, by the excellent Fruits, and Effects thereof. ¶ [25] Viz. To amend what was amiſs. ¶ [26] Showing that you don't approve of that Fault. ¶ [27] Viz. Againſt the offender, and your ſelves, for your neglect. ¶ [28] Viz. Of Divine Vengeance, (if you ſhould perſiſt in that neglect) or, of Tranſgreſſing again. ¶ [29] Viz. To take away the Scandal, and give me and all good men ſatisfaction. ¶ [30] Viz. For the Glory of God, and to perform what I have commanded. ¶ [31] Viz. Againſt the Offender (by puniſhing) of him.

12 Wherefore though I wrote unto you, I did it [32] not for his cauſe that had done the wrong, nor for his cauſe that ſuffered wrong, but that our care [33] for you in the ſight of God might appear unto you.

[32] Not meerly to ſhow my Authority, to puniſh one, and right another. ¶ [33] To free your Church from Scandal.

13 [34] Therefore we were comforted [35] in your comfort: yea, and exceedingly the more joyed we for the joy of Titus, becauſe his ſpirit was refreſhed by you all.

[34] Viz. Since my care has been ſucceſful. ¶ [35] In this Reformation, (which is matter of Comfort both to you and me.)

14 For if I have boaſted any thing to him of you, I am not aſhamed: but [36] as we ſpake all things to you in truth, even ſo our boaſting which I made before Titus is found a truth.

1 He ſtirreth them up to contribute to the Saints, 16 and commended Titus and others, that were come to them purpoſely for this buſineſs.

MOreover brethren, we [1] do you to wit of the [2] grace of God beſtowed on the churches of Macedonia:

[1] Make known to you. ¶ [2] That charitable diſpoſition, (wrought in 'em by Grace.)

[11] Compleat this Contribution, (now upon this occaſion.)

7 Therefore as ye [12] abound in every thing, in faith, in [13] utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us, ſee that ye abound in this [2] grace alſo.

[22] According to your ability, (be it never ſo little.)

2 For I know the forwardneſs of your mind, for which I boaſt of you to them of Macedonia, that * [3] Achaia was [4] ready a year ago; and your zeal hath [5] provoked very many.

* Chap. 8. 10.

[3] You Chriſtians of that Province, (whereof Corinth was the chief City.) ¶ [4] Forward in making preparation. ¶ [5] 1 Theſſ. 1. 7, 8.

3 Yet have I ſent the brethren, leſt our boaſting of you ſhould be in [6] vain in this behalf; that, as I ſaid, ye may be ready:

[6] Viz. If you ſhould be unprepared, v. 4.

4 Leſt haply if they of Macedonia come with me, and find you unprepared, we (that we ſay not, you) ſhould be aſhamed in this ſame confident boaſting.

5 Therefore I thought it neceſſary to exhort the brethren, that they would go before unto you, and [7] make up beforehand your † bounty, ‖ whereof ye had notice before, that the ſame might be ready, as a matter of bounty, and not as of coveteouſneſs.

CHAP. X.

1 Paul's ſpiritual might and authority againſt all adverſaries, 7 as well when he is preſent, as abſent. 14 Not to reach beyond our compaſs.

NOW * I Paul my ſelf beſeech you, [1] by the [2] meekneſs and [3] gentleneſs of Chriſt, who ‖ in preſence am [4] baſe among you, but being abſent am [5] bold toward you.

* Rom. 12. 1. ‖ Or, in outward appearance.

[1] As you deſire to partake thereof; and whom I deſire to imitate therein. ¶ [2] Quietneſs, and backwardneſs to contend, Iſa. 42. 2. ¶ [3] Backwardneſs to puniſh offenders, or avenge himſelf, 1 Pet. 2. 23. ¶ [4] Ver. 10. 1 Cor. 2. 3, 4. Low ſpirited, and faint-hearted; (as the falſe Apoſtles miſconſtrue my mild and humble Carriage) not daring to execute thoſe Cenſures when preſent, which I threaten when abſent. ¶ [5] Ch. 13. 10. Imperious, (ſo they interpret my ſeverity by Letters.)

2 But I beſeech you, * that I may not be [6] bold when I am preſent, with that [7] confidence wherewith I think to be bold againſt ſome which ‖ think of us, as if we [8] walked according to the fleſh.

* 1 Cor. 4. 21. Chap. 13. 10. ‖ Or, reckon.

[6] Obliged to exerciſe that ſeverity. ¶ [7] Due reſolution. ¶ [8] Were acted only by humane Principles.

Chap. 10. 4036.

3 For though we [9] walk in the fleſh, we do not [10] war after the fleſh:

[9] Live a natural Life, ſubject to many Infirmities and Calamities, Gal. 4. 13. ¶ [10] 1 Tim. 1.-18. Manage my office in a weak manner, or with worldly power.

4 (For the [11] weapons of our warfare are not [12] carnal, but [13] mighty ‖ through God, to the pulling down of [14] ſtrong holds)

‖ Or, to God.

[11] The means we make uſe of in the diſcharge of our Office, viz. Zeal, Boldneſs, Courage, Church-Cenſures, &c. ¶ [12] Weak, and ſuch whereby the Intereſt of the Fleſh is like to be promoted. ¶ [13] Jer. 1. 10. Zech. 4. 6, 7. Eph. 6. 13. ¶ [14] Whatſoever is uſed to hinder, or defeat the power and courſe of the Goſpel in the Souls of Men.

‖ Or, reaſonings.

* 5 [15] Caſting down ‖ imaginations, and [16] every high thing that exalteth it ſelf againſt the knowledge of God, and [18] bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Chriſt:

[15] Not ſuffering the corrupt Reaſon of Man to be Judge in matters of Faith. ¶ [16] Proud conceits of their own Wiſdom and Ability which hinder the propagating of the Goſpel, and ſpreading the knowledge of Chriſt. ¶ [18] Reſtraining the wantonneſs of mens Wits, ſo as to bring 'em to ſtoop to, and acquieſce in the Doctrine of Chriſt.

6 And [19] having in readineſs to revenge all diſobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.

[19] Having ſuch power, (viz. my Apoſtolical rod, (1 Cor. 4. 21.) and Church-Cenſures) wherewith I am reſolved to puniſh obſtinate Offenders when you ſhall have declared your readineſs to obey my Authority.

7 Do ye [21] look on things after the outward appearance? [22] if any man [23] truſt to himſelf, that he is [24] Chriſts, let him of himſelf think this again, that as he is Chriſts, even ſo are we Chriſts.

[21] Judge of me, and my Authority, by my outward, humble, and mild behaviour among you, 1 Sam. 16. 7. John 7. 24. ¶ [22] 1 Cor. 14. 37. 1 John 4. 6. ¶ [23] Is confident in himſelf. ¶ [24] A Miniſter of Chriſt, guided by his Spirit.

8 [25] For though I ſhould boaſt ſomewhat more of our authority, (which the Lord hath given us [26] for edification, and not [27] for your deſtruction) I ſhould not be aſhamed:

[25] Ch. 12. 6. ¶ [26] Ch. 13.-10. To bring to repentance, (1 Cor. 5. 5.) and ſo to promote Holineſs. ¶ [27] To drive the ſinner to Deſpair, ch. 2. 6, 7. (by exceſſive ſeverity.)

9 [28] That I may not ſeem as if I would terrifie you by letters.

[28] q. d. But I will not mention my power, leſt I ſhould ſeem to fright you by my Letters, and yet not dare to uſe it, when preſent, (as my Adverſaries ſuggeſt.)

10 For his letters (†ſay they) are [29] weighty and [30] powerful, [31] but his bodily preſence is weak, and his ſpeech [32] contemptible.

[29] Stuft with Strength of Reaſon. ¶ [30] Full of vehement threats. ¶ [31] He is one of no preſence, and carries himſelf, as if he had no Power. ¶ [32] Ch. 11. 6. 1 Cor. 1. 17. & 2. 1. 1 Theſſ. 2. 4.

11 Let ſuch an one think this, that ſuch as we are in word by letters, when we are abſent, ſuch will we be alſo indeed, when we are preſent.

12 For we [33] dare not [34] make our ſelves of the number, or compare our ſelves with ſome that commend themſelves: but they [35] meaſuring themſelves by themſelves, and comparing themſelves amongſt themſelves, ‖ are not wiſe.

[33] Ch. 3. 1. & 5. 12. Prov. 27. 2. q. d. It is not for me to come nigh them, nor compare my ſelf with ſuch rare Creatures as they are, (ſpoken ironically to tax the vain brags of the falſe Apoſtles.) ¶ [34] Pretend to be one of their Society. ¶ [35] Job 12. 2. Luke 18. 11. Making their own Opinion of themſelves the only ſtandard whereby to judge of themſelves.

‖ Or, line.

[36] Aſſume the credit of other mens labours, (v. 15.) nor meddle with thoſe Converted by them. ¶ [37] My own bounds (for though the Commiſſion of the Apoſtles was unlimited, yet for Peace and Orders ſake, each Apoſtle was content to confine the exerciſe of his Power to thoſe Churches he had planted himſelf, (Rom. 15. 20.) Whereas the falſe Apoſtles ranged about where they liſted.) ¶ [38] 1 Cor. 12. 11. Eph. 4. 7. But I ſpeak only of what has been done by me in thoſe places, where, by God's Providence, I have preacht the Goſpel. ¶ [39] Among which I am ſure you of Corinth are of the number.

Chap. 11. 4036.

14 [40] For we ſtretch not our ſelves beyond our meaſure, as though we reached not unto you; for [41] we are come as far as to you alſo, in preaching the goſpel of Chriſt:

[40] q. d. And though I look upon you as my Charge, yet you can't pretend that I uſurp upon other mens rights. ¶ [41] I was the Perſon who founded your Church.

15 Not [36] boaſting of things without [37] our meaſure, that is, [42] of other mens labours: but having hope, when your faith [43] is increaſed, that [44] we ſhall be ‖ enlarged [45] by you according to [46] our rule abundantly,

‖ Or, magnified in you.

[42] Rom. 15. 20. ¶ [43] Re-eſtabliſh'd, (which was ſhaken by the falſe Apoſtles) and further confirmed. ¶ [44] The limits of my Miniſtry will be extended to other places beyond you, v. 16. (which has been hitherto hindred by your weakneſſes and defects.) ¶ [45] Through your means and countenance. ¶ [46] The Rule of my Calling, (to whom the Apoſtleſhip of the Gentiles was committed.)

16 To preach the goſpel in the regions beyond you, and [47] not to boaſt in another mans ‖ line of things made ready to our hand.

‖ Or, rule.

[47] Not to meddle with thoſe places where the Goſpel has been already preacht, Rom. 15. 20.

17 * [48] But he that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

* Iſaiah 65. 16.

[48] Jer. 9. 23, 24. 1 Cor. 1. 31. (See there.) q. d. And even where I have done any thing to glory of, I deſire the praiſe of all may be aſcribed to God in Chriſt.

18 For not he that [49] commendeth himſelf is [50] approved, but whom the Lord [51] commendeth.

[49] Prov. 27. 2. Owns as faithful, and upon whom he beſtows his Grace to do that which is Praiſe-worthy.

CHAP. XI.

1 Paul being inforced, entreth into a commendation of himſelf, and compariſon with the other Apoſtles.

WOuld to God you could bear with me a little in my [1] folly; [2] and indeed ‖ bear with me.

[1] Ver. 16. 23. and ch. 5. 13. and 12. 11. Self-commendation, (which has indeed a ſhow of Vanity, but is now neceſſary, (ch. 12. 11.) for the maintaining my Authority among you.) ¶ [2] And truly ſo you muſt do.

2 [3] For I am * jealous over you with godly jealouſie: for I have eſpouſed you to one husband, * [4] that I may preſent you * as a chaſt virgin to Chriſt.

* Gal. 4. 17, 18. * Col. 1. 28. * Lev. 21. 13.

[3] q. d. And the reaſon why I do it is, leſt you ſhould be miſled, (and ſo miſcarry) by the vilifying Speeches of the falſe Apoſtles concerning me, Job 1.-5. ¶ [4] q. d. And therefore I would fain keep you pure, and faithful, to preſent you free from any corrupt, erroneous Principles and Opinions.

3 But [5] I fear, leſt [6] by any means, as * the [7] ſerpent beguiled Eve through his [8] ſubtilty, ſo your minds ſhould be [9] corrupted from the ſimplicity that is in Chriſt.

[11] More excellent Gifts than those by my Ministry. ¶ [12] Gal. 1. 8. Holding forth better promises, and more glad tidings. ¶ [13] Own such a one, and submit to his Authority.

5 [14] For I suppose I was [15] not a whit behind the very chiefest apostles.

[14] q. d. But this I think neither you nor they will say, for—— ¶ [15] Ch. 12.-11. 1 Cor. 15. 10. Gal. 2. 6, 9.

[16] Ch. 10.-10. Accounted by these great Orators, one of a low stile: and be it so, that my Language is plain, and void of the flourishes of humane Art and Wit, 1 Cor. 2. 1. ¶ [17] Eph. 3. 4. ¶ [18] Ch. 4.-2. & 5.-11. & 12. 12. You have had sufficient Tryal of my Gifts what they are.

*1 Cor. 9. 6, 12.

7 [19] Have I committed an offence * in [20] abasing my self that you might be [21] exalted; because I have preached to you the gospel of God freely?

[19] q. d. And though this be charged on me as a fault, that I have not taken maintenance from you, as if thereby I slighted you. ¶ [20] Stooping to work with my own Hands, Acts 18. 3. (which some count a sordid carriage in me.) ¶ [21] The sooner drawn to imbrace the Gospel.

8 I robbed other Churches, taking [22] wages of them, to do you service.

9 And when I was present with you and wanted, I was [23] chargeable to no man: for that which was lacking to me, the [24] brethren which came from Macedonia, supplied: and in all things I have kept my self from being burdensom unto you, and so will I keep my self.

[23] 1 Thess. 2. 9. 2 Thess. 3, 8. ¶ [24] Phil. 4. 10, 15.

†Or, this boasting shall not be stopped in me.

11 Wherefore? because I love you not? [27] God knoweth.

*1 Cor. 9. 12.

12 [28] But what I do, that I will do, * that I may cut off [29] occasion from them which desire occasion, that wherein they [30] glory, they may be found [31] even as we.

[28] q. d. But the true reason why I do so, and resolve to continue the same course, is this, That—— ¶ [29] Viz. Of reproaching me, or boasting of themselves. ¶ [30] Viz. Of their Preaching freely; at least, sometimes, or some of 'em, or pretending so; for it may seem by v. 20. that they took maintenance; but perhaps it was secretly. ¶ [31] To have no advantage over me in this respect.

13 [32] For such are false apostles, [33] deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ.

[32] q. d. And if you'd know more particularly whom I mean, 'Tis—— ¶ [33] Phil. 3. 2. Who handle the word deceitfully, (ch. 2. 17.) and serve themselves under a pretence of serving Christ, Rom. 16. 18.

14 And no marvel; for Satan himself is [34] transformed into an angel of light.

[34] Takes upon him to be a good Angel, pretending kindness, and to do good.

15 Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the [35] ministers of righteousness; [36] whose end shall be according to their works.

[35] The Apostles of Christ, (whose business is to bring men to Righteousness: Acts 26. 18.) or, faithful and good Ministers. ¶ [36] Phil. 3. 19.

16 * I say again, Let no man think me a [37] fool; if otherwise, yet as a fool ‖ [38] receive me, that I may boast my self a little.

[37] Ver. 1. See there. ¶ [38] Hear me patiently without offence.

17 That which I [39] speak, I speak it not [40] after the Lord, but as it were [41] foolishly in this confidence of boasting.

[39] Viz. In this way of boasting. ¶ [40] 1 Cor. 7. 6. After the Example of Christ, and in such a way as seems worthy of him. ¶ [41] In imitation of the folly of my Adversaries, who confidently boast of themselves.

18 Seeing that many glory [42] after the flesh, I will glory also.

[44] q. d. You the Disciples of the false Apostles, being such wonderful Wise men, will, I hope, bear with this piece of folly in me, as well as you do in others.

20 For ye suffer if a [45] man bring you into [46] bondage, if a man [47] devour you, if a man [48] take of you, if a man [49] exalt himself, if a man [50] smite you on the face.

[45] Any of the false Apostles. ¶ [46] Viz. To the Jewish Ceremonies, Gal. 5.-1. CHAP. XII.

1 IT is not expedient for me doubtleſs to glory: † Gr. For I will come. † I will come to [2] viſions and [3] revelations of the Lord.

[1] q. d. It is not fitting, in ordinary caſes, to boaſt of ones Priviledges, as being apt to breed Pride, (v. 7.) and too high an eſteem by others, (v.-6.) yet as the caſe ſtands it's neceſſary, (v. 11.) and therefore I'll mention one thing more, viz. A viſion. ¶ [2] Declarations of God's will by certain Images, and Repreſentations, to the Eyes, or fancy. See on Acts 10. 10. ¶ [3] A Repreſentation of things to the underſtanding immediately, without ſuch a ſenſible manner of conveyance.

4049. 2 I knew a man [4] in Chriſt, above fourteen years ago (whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth) ſuch an one * caught up to the third heaven. * Acts 22. 17.

[4] A Chriſtian, viz. my ſelf.

3 And I knew ſuch a man (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth)

4 How that he was caught up into paradiſe, and heard unſpeakable words, which it is not ‖ Or, poſſible. ‖ lawful for a man to utter.

* Chap. 11. 30. 5 [5] Of ſuch an one will I glory: * yet of [6] my ſelf I will not glory, but in [7] mine infirmities.

[5] q. d. I was then as another man; and therefore I may boaſt of that which befell me then. ¶ [6] Viz. According to my preſent Capacity, and the condition I am now in. ¶ [7] Ver.-9, 10. ch. 11. 30. See there, n. 75. Sufferings for Chriſt, v. 10.

* Chap. 10. 8. & 11. 16. 6 For * though I would deſire to glory, I ſhall not be a fool; for I will ſay the truth: but now I forbear, leſt any man ſhould think of me [8] above that which he ſeeth me to be, or that he heareth of me:

[8] 1 Cor. 3. 5. Better than what my conſtant, and ordinary behaviour may challenge.

7 And leſt I ſhould be [9] exalted above meaſure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a [10] thorn in the fleſh, [11] the meſſenger of Satan to buffet me, leſt I ſhould be exalted above meaſure.

[9] 2 Chron. 32. 25. ¶ [10] Ezek. 28. 24. Some racking pain in his Body; or, terrors of Conſcience; or rather, ſome violent Temptation: for (1.) the next words ſeem moſt applicable to that. (2.) It is not ſo likely that he'd have been ſo earneſt (v. 8.) againſt a bare bodily affliction. (3.) God's Grace is eſpecially manifeſted in ſupporting the caſe. ¶ [11] A means which the Devil, by God's permiſſion, made uſe of to afflict me.

* Deut. 3. 23.-27. 8 * For this thing I beſought the Lord [12] thrice, that it might depart from me:

[12] Divers times.

9 And he ſaid unto me, [13] My grace is [14] ſufficient for thee: for my ſtrength is [15] made perfect in weakneſs. Moſt gladly therefore will I rather glory [7] in my infirmities, that the power of Chriſt may [17] reſt upon me.

[13] 1 Cor. 10. 13. viz. In thee. ¶ [14] Viz. To uphold thee, (though I don't ſee fit to remove it yet. ¶ [15] Iſa. 40. 29, 30. 10 Therefore I [18] take pleaſure in [7] infirmities, in reproaches, in neceſſities, in perſecutions, in diſtreſſes for Chriſts ſake: for when I am [19] weak then am I [20] ſtrong.

[18] Jam. 1. 2. ¶ [19] Suffer moſt in my Fleſh, and am moſt deſpiſeable in the eye of the World. ¶ [20] Moſt ſupported in my Spirit, and couragious in the work of Chriſt.

11 [21] I am become * a fool in glorying, ye have [22] compelled me: for I ought to have been commended of you: for [23] in nothing am I behind the very chiefeſt apoſtles, though * I be [24] nothing. * Chap. 11. 1. * 1 Cor. 4. 9. & 15. 8, 9. Epheſ. 3. 8.

[21] q. d. You ſee how I have taken upon me the guiſe of a Fool, or vain Perſon, in this commending my ſelf. ¶ [22] Viz. By harkning to the falſe Apoſtles, and their Suggeſtions againſt me, and not vindicating me your ſelves. ¶ [23] Ch. 11. 5. 1 Cor. 15. 10. Gal. 2. 6, 9. 12 * Truly the [25] ſigns of an apoſtle were wrought among you [26] in all patience, in [27] ſigns and [28] wonders, and [29] mighty deeds. * Chap. 4. 2. & 6. 4. & 11. 6.

13 For what is it wherein ye were [30] inferiour to other churches, except it be that I my ſelf was not [31] burdenſome to you? [32] forgive me this wrong.

[30] In any Gift, or Priviledge. ¶ [31] Ch. 11. 8, 9. ¶ [32] q. d. If it be a wrong, I know you'll eaſily pardon it. (A pleaſant Irony.)

14 Behold, [33] the third time I am [34] ready to come to you; and I will not be burdenſome to you; for I ſeek not [35] yours, but you: for the children [36] ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the [37] children.

[33] Ch. 13. 1. 16 [40] But be it ſo, I did not burden you: nevertheleſs being [41] crafty, I caught you with guile.

[40] q. d. True, may ſome ſay, Thou receivedſt nothing thy ſelf, but yet thou haſt craftily imploy'd others that did it, and ſo haſt over-reach'd us. ¶ [41] Prov. 11.-30.

[39] q. d. I wiſh you may partake of the Grace of Chriſt, moſt eminently manifeſted in his procuring Grace for us, redeeming us from Hell, reconciling us to God the Father, publiſhing Grace to us, and being a publick Treaſury of Grace for us, John 1. 16, 17. Col. 1. 19. Eph. 1. 22, 23. ¶ [40] And of the Love of the Father, which was the firſt Spring and Source of our Recovery, and which he ſhewed by ordaining the End, and us to the End, viz. Life and Happineſs; and by beſtowing on us the Means that may bring to this end, viz. his Son, Spirit, and Word. ¶ [41] And of the Communion or Communication of the Holy Ghoſt, who applies and communicates to us all that good which the Father has purpoſed to us, and all that Grace which the Son has purchas'd for us, and ſo gives us Fellowſhip with himſelf, and with the Father and the Son. (Not but that there is Grace in the Father and Holy Ghoſt, and Love in the Son, &c. But in the Oeconomy of the bleſſed Trinity Grace is moſt eminently aſcribed to the Son, Love to the Father, and Communication to the Holy Ghoſt, for the reaſons forementioned.) Or more briefly thus, I wiſh you may partake of all thoſe benefits which Chriſt of his free Grace, and favour has purchas'd; the Father out of his Love has purpos'd; and the Holy Ghoſt does apply, communicate to, and beſtow upon the Elect.

GALATIANS.

The ARGUMENT.

IN this Epiſtle St. Paul arms and antidotes the Galatians againſt certain Errors, into which they had been led by the falſe Apoſtles, who (the better to gain credit to their Doctrine) undervalued Paul as if he were no true Apoſtle. This therefore he firſt proves, and that his Doctrine was divine; from which therefore they ought not to be removed, (ch. 1.) and that the chiefeſt Apoſtles agreed with him in it; and particularly in the Doctrine of Juſtification by faith in Chriſt, and not by the works of the Law, (ch. 2.) and this Doctrine he proves at large by divers Arguments, (ch. 3.) and that the Law, as a Covenant of Works, is abrogated to Believers, and that they are freed from it, (ch. 4.) which Chriſtian Liberty they ſhould maintain, and not ſuffer themſelves to be brought under the yoke of the Ceremonial Law, but caſting off the works of the Fleſh, ſhould walk in the Spirit, ch. 5. Then he exhorts 'em to Meekneſs, Compaſſion, Liberality to their Teachers, Conſtancy in good, ſhowing the Neceſſity and Benefit of Regeneration; and ſo concludes, ch. 6.

Chap. 2. 4061.

17 Neither went I up to Jerusalem, [16] to them which were apostles before me; but I went into Arabia, and returned again unto Damascus.

[16] To be instructed by, or receive Commission from, them.

[17] Acts 9. 26. ‖ Or, I returned.

18 Then [17] after three years ‖ I went up to Jerusalem, to see Peter, and abode with him fifteen days.

19 But other of the Apostles saw I none, save James the Lords [18] brother.

[18] Kinsman, (as Mark 6. 3.)

20 Now the things which I write unto you, behold, [19] before God, I lie not.

[19] See on Rom. 9. 1. 2. 40.

21 Afterwards I came into the regions of Syria and Cilicia:

22 And was unknown by face unto the churches

[20] In other places of Judea besides Jerusalem. ¶ [21] John 15. 2. 1 Thess. 1. 1. (see there) and 2. 14. make profession of his Name, and are united to him by the Presence, Gifts, and Graces of the Spirit.

23 But they had heard only, That he which persecuted us in times past, now preacheth the [22] faith which once he destroyed.

24 And they [23] glorified God [24] in me.

CHAP. II.

1 He sheweth when he went again to Jerusalem, and why. 14 Of justification by faith, and not by works. 20 They that are so justified, live not in sin.

4055. THEN fourteen years [1] after, I went up again to Jerusalem, with Barnabas, and took Titus with me also.

[1] Acts 15. 2. viz. Either from his first Conversion; or from that time mention'd, ch. 1. 18.

2 And I went up by [2] revelation, and [3] communicated unto them that gospel which I preach

‖ Or, severally. among the Gentiles, but ‖ [4] privately [5] to them which were of reputation, [6] lest by any means I should [7] run, or had run in vain.

[2] Acts 13. 2. & 19. 21. as Acts 16. 9, 10. & 18. 9. & 22. 17, 18. & 23. 11. ¶ [3] Acquainted 'em with my Doctrine, that they might give their approbation, (as they did, v. 9.) ¶ [4] That I might more freely declare it to them, and they might more freely declare their consent. ¶ [5] The Apostles that were there, viz. Peter, James, and John, (v. 9.) who, though in power were but equal with the other Apostles, (1 Cor. 9. 5.) yet for age, gravity and other respects were generally more esteemed than the rest. ¶ [6] q. d. And this I did lest my Ministry should be rendred unsuccessful, by this false suggestion, that we did not agree together. ¶ [7] 1 Cor. 9. 26. Phil. 2. 16.

3 [8] But neither Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised:

[8] 1 Cor. 9. 21. q. d. And it appears that they approved both of my Doctrine and Practice in laying aside the Jewish Ceremonies among the Gentiles, in that they never urged the circumcising of Titus, afore they associated with him, though the false Brethren pressed it. See on Acts 16. 3.

[9] 2 Cor. 11. 26. 4 [9] And that because of * [10] false brethren [11] unawares brought in, who [12] came in privily to spie

[13] Chap. 3. 25. & 5. 1, 13. out our * liberty, which we have in Christ Jesus, [14] that they might bring us into bondage:

[9] q. d. And thus it was carried by us to prevent the hardning of some in their error. ¶ [10] Jews, who profest the Christian Religion, yet urged the observation of the Ceremonial Law as necessary to Salvation, (Acts 15. 1.) and so were real enemies to the Gospel. ¶ [11] Made members of the Church of Jerusalem, (upon their great pretences of Piety) without due consideration, and trial. ¶ [12] Privately conveyed themselves to that meeting that I had with the other Apostles to observe whether I would stand to the defence of that liberty from the Ceremonial Law, before the Apostles, which I preacht among the Gentiles. ¶ [14] That in case I had not maintain'd our liberty, they might thence take occasion to bring back the Christian Gentiles, and whole Church under the yoke of the Ceremonial Law, Acts 15. 10.

5 To whom we [17] gave place by subjection, no not for an hour; that * the [19] truth of the gospel might continue with [20] you.

* Ver. 14.

[17] Yielded not a whit to them in allowing the Ceremonies so much as once. ¶ [19] The purity of the Doctrine of the Gospel. ¶ [20] And other Churches.

6 But of these, who [21] seemed to be somewhat (whatsoever they [22] were, [23] it maketh no matter to me: * [24] God accepteth no man's person) for

* Acts 10. 34. they who seemed to be somewhat, [25] in conference added nothing to me.

[21] Were most esteemed among the Apostles, and boasted of by my adversaries, as my Superiors. ¶ [22] Viz. In respect of any personal Prerogatives, as, having seen Christ in the Flesh, being Apostles afore me, &c. ¶ [23] q. d. I am as good an Apostle as they for all that. ¶ [24] See on Rom. 2. 11. ¶ [25] Said nothing but what I knew afore.

7 But [26] contrariwise, * when they saw that

* Acts 13. 46. 1 Tim. 2. 7. 2 Tim. 1. 11. the [27] gospel of the uncircumcision was [28] committed unto me, as [29] the gospel of the circumcision was unto Peter;

* Acts 9. 15. & 13. 2. & 22. 21. Chap. 1. 16.

[30] The same Lord Jesus, who accompanied the Ministry of Peter with the powerful operations of the Spirit, to the discharge of his Office to the Jews. ¶ [32] Viz. To assist, and succeed.

9 And when James, Cephas, and John, who [33] seemed to be * pillars, perceived the [34] grace that

* Matt. 16. 18. Eph. 2. 20. Rev. 21. 14. was given unto me, they [35] gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship; that we should go unto the heathen, and they unto the circumcision.

[33] Were commonly, and deservedly, reputed. ¶ [34] See on Rom. 1. 5. n. 21. ¶ [35] Own'd us as their Fellow-Apostles, and maintainers of the same Truths, and agreed with us in dividing our charge.

10 Only they would that we should [36] remember the poor; the same which I also was [37] forward to do.

[36] Acts 11. 30. & 24. 17. make some collection for the poor Jews turn'd Christians, Rom. 15. 26. (who were sadly wasted, and spoiled by their own Country-men, 1 Thess. 2. 14. Heb. 10. 34.) ¶ [37] 1 Cor. 16. 1, 2. 2 Cor. 8. 1, &c. & 9. 1, &c.

11 But when Peter was come to Antioch, I [38] withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed.

12 For before that [39] certain came from James, he did [40] eat with the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrew, and separated himself, fearing them which were of the circumcision.

[39] Some Christian Jews of Jerusalem, (tenacious of the Ceremonial Law.) ¶ [40] Acts 10. 28. & 11. 3. viz. of any kind of meat; and convers't freely with.

13 And the [41] other Jews dissembled likewise with him; insomuch that Barnabas also was carried away with their dissimulation.

14 But when I saw that they walked not uprightly, according to the [43] truth of the gospel, I said unto Peter [44] before them all, * If thou, being a Jew,

* Acts 10. 28. livest [45] after the manner of Gentiles, and not [46] as do the Jews, [47] why compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews?

[43] True Doctrine of the Gospel, concerning freedom from the Ceremonial Law. [44] 1 Tim. 5. 20. ¶ [45] Without regard to the Ceremonial Law. ¶ [46] In the observation of it. ¶ [47] Why dost thou endeavour now to draw the Christian Gentiles, by thy example, to the observation of it?

Chap. 3. 4055.

15 We who are * Jews be nature, and not [48] sinners of the Gentiles,

* Acts 15. 10, 11.

16 * [49] Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the Law, but by the [50] faith of [51] Jesus Christ, [52] even we have believed in Jesus Christ; that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: [53] for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified.

See there, n. 91. ¶ [51] Fixed on him, required, and wrought by him. ¶ [52] Thereupon we Jews are fain to take this course, that we may be justified. (How much more then ought the Gentiles so to do, who can less plead works than we?) ¶ [53] See on Rom. 3. 20. q. d. For so saith the Spirit of God in Scripture, viz. Psal. 143. 2.

17 [54] But if while we seek to be justified by Christ, we our selves also are found * sinners, is therefore Christ the minister of sin? God forbid.

* 1 John 3. 8, 9.

[54] q. d. Though Christ justifie such as are transgressors of the Law, yet it does not follow, as some say, that he is a countenancer of Sin.

18 For [55] if I build again the things which I destroyed, I make my self a transgressour.

[55] q. d. If my Doctrine do befriend sin, (which I have always hitherto preach't down) I should be unfaithful in my place, (which I'd be loath to be: and therefore it implies no such thing.)

19 For I [56] through the law am [57] dead to the law, [58] that I might live unto God.

[56] Through a better understanding of its Spirituality, and the perfection it requires, and of God's design in it, (which is, (not to justifie, but) to convince of sin, (Rom. 3. 20.) and to send to Christ, ch. 3. 24. Rom. 10. 4.) ¶ [57] Rom. 6. 11, 14. & 7. 4, 6. & 8. 2. & 14. 7, &c. 2 Cor. 5. 15. 1 Thess. 5. 10. 1 Pet. 4. 2. taken off from expecting justification and life by it, Phil. 3. 9. 20 [59] I am crucified with Christ: Nevertheless I live: yet [60] not I, but [61] Christ liveth in me: and [62] the life which I now live in the flesh, I live † by the faith of the Son of God, * who loved me, and [63] gave himself for me.

CHAP. III.

1 He asketh what moved them to leave the faith, and hang on the law. 6 They that believe are justified, 9 and blessed with Abraham.

* Chap. 5. 7.

O [1] Foolish Galatians, * who hath [2] bewitched you, that you should not [3] obey the truth, [5] before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you?

[1] Judging falsly of things. ¶ [2] Deluded your understandings. ¶ [3] Continue in the belief of, but make defection from the Doctrine of Justification by Faith, and not by works of the Law, ch. 2. 16. ¶ [5] Who have been so fully, and clearly informed of the nature, and design of Christ's Sufferings, as if all had been transacted in your sight.

Chap. 3. 4055.

2 This only would I learn of you, Received ye * the [6] Spirit [7] by the works of the Law, or [8] by the hearing of faith?

* Acts 2. 38. & 8. 15. & 15. 8. Eph. 1. 13.

[6] His extraordinary Gifts and Graces, v. 5. ¶ [7] By the Doctrine of the necessity of the works of the Law for Justification, (but this cannot be, because this Doctrine was not first preacht to you.) ¶ [8] Rom. 10. 16. By receiving, and obeying that Doctrine, that teaches Justification by Faith in Christ.

3 Are ye so [1] foolish? having [9] begun in the Spirit, [10] are ye now made perfect by the flesh?

[9] Entred upon your profession of Christianity with such notable Gifts of the Spirit. ¶ [10] Do you now think it necessary to the making you compleat Christians, and perfecting your Justification, and attaining Salvation, to take in the fleshly Doctrine of Justification by Works, and the carnal Ceremonies (Heb. 9. 10.) of the Law?

4 [11] Have ye suffered ‖ so many things [12] in vain? [13] if it be yet in vain.

[11] q. d. If you renounce this Doctrine, then all you have suffered upon the account thereof will do you no good. ¶ [12] Ezek. 18. 24. 2 John 8. ¶ [13] q. d. But I hope you will not renounce it, and so lose all.

5 [14] He therefore that [15] ministreth to you the Spirit, and [16] worketh miracles among you, doeth he it [7] by the works of the law, or [8] by the hearing of faith?

[14] God. ¶ [15] Is continually giving out additional supplies of Grace by his Spirit. ¶ [16] Bestows the extraordinary gifts of the Spirit upon you.

6 [17] Even as * Abraham believed [18] God, and [19] it was ‖ accounted to him for righteousness.

* Gen. 15. 6. Jam. 2. 23. ‖ Or, imputed.

[17] q. d. And it appears further that this Doctrine is true, because Abraham was so justified, (and therefore so must we.) ¶ [18] [19] See on Rom. 4. 3. n. 8, 9.

7 Know ye therefore, that they which are [20] of faith, the same are the [21] children of Abraham.

[20] Of the number of those that seek for Justification by Faith, and live in the exercise thereof. (as v. 9, 10.) ¶ [21] John 8.-39. Rom. 4. 12-16. & 9.-8. His spiritual Seed, who walking in his steps, do inherit the blessing he enjoy'd, of Justification by Faith, ch. 4. 28.

8 And * the [22] scripture foreseeing that God would justifie the heathen through faith, preached [23] before the [24] gospel unto Abraham, saying, * [25] In thee shall [26] all nations be [27] blessed.

* See Rom. 9. 17. Ver. 22. * Eccl. 44. 21. Acts 3. 25.

[22] The Spirit of God, (speaking in Scripture.) ¶ [23] Formerly, viz. in the time of the Old Testament. ¶ [24] The glad tidings of Justification and Salvation, by Faith in Christ, called, [the Covenant] (Acts 3. 25.) i. e. the sum of it. ¶ [25] Gen. 12. 3. i. e. In thy Seed, (as Gen. 22. 18. & 26.-4.) viz. Christ, (v.-16.) i. e. By Faith in him. ¶ [26] Gentiles, as well as Jews. ¶ [27] Psal. 32. 2. Obtain Justification and all other blessings.

9 So then they which be [20] of faith, are [27] blessed [28] with faithful Abraham.

[28] As he was.

10 For as many as are [29] of the works of the law, are [30] under the curse: for it is written, [30] Cursed is [31] every one that [32] continueth not in [33] all things which are written in the book of the law to do them.

'John 15. 22. Rom. 4. 15. & 5. 20. & 7. 8. 1 Tim. 1. 9. 'John 1. 17. Acts 7. 38. 1 Tim. 2. 5.
19 Wherefore then ſerveth the law? * It was [80] added [81] becauſe of tranſgreſſions, [82] till the ſeed ſhould come, to whom the promiſe was made; and it was [83] ordained by angels in the [84] hand * of a mediatour.

[80] Annexed, by way of ſubſerviency, to the Promiſe, or Covenant of Grace, to make it more effectual. ¶ [81] To diſcover, and condemn for ſin, (Rom. 3. 19, 20. & 5. 20. & 7. 13.) and ſo to render God's Grace the more deſirable, (Rom. 5. 20, 21.) as alſo, to repreſent, (though obſcurely) the way, and means whereby Sin might be expiated. ¶ [82] Till the ſpiritual Seed of Abram, both Jews and Gentiles, ſhould be gather'd into one Body, or Church, after Chriſt's Incarnation, (and then the Law or old Covenant ſhould ceaſe. ¶ [83] Proclaimed by Angels, Acts 7. 53. Heb. 2. 2.) or among Angels, (Deut. 33. 2) or, the Tables of the Law were given by Angels to Moſes. ¶ [84] Deliver'd to, and entruſted with, Moſes, as a repreſentative, Typical or National Mediator to that People, Deut. 5. 5. (which ſhews the Law was publiſht in mercy: for a Mediator is for Peace, not for Revenge, primarily.)

20 Now a mediatour is not a mediatour [85] of one; but God is [86] one.

[85] Of parties that are agreed, and between whom there's no difference. (But it implies a breach between God and Man; which the Law was given to convince men of.) ¶ [86] Mal. 3. 6. i. e. God in ſending this Mediator does declare, that he is at peace, and unity with mankind again, if they'l accept of reconcilement.

21 Is the [87] law then [88] againſt the promiſes of God? God forbid: [89] for if there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteouſneſs ſhould have been by the law.

[87] Which requires perfect Obedience, and condemns for every failing. ¶ [88] Contrary to the Covenant of Grace that promiſes pardon. ¶ [89] q. d. The deſign of the Law was not to give Juſtification and Life, (for then it had been againſt the Promiſe; but, by convincing men of ſin, to drive 'em to Chriſt, (v. 22.) whereby it becomes ſubordinate to the Promiſe.

22 But [90] the ſcripture hath [91] concluded all under ſin, that the [92] promiſe by faith of Jeſus Chriſt might be given to them that [94] believe.

[90] The Law, or the Spirit of God in Scripture, as n. 22. ¶ [91] Rom. 3. 9, 23. & 11. 32. (See there n. 30.) Diſcover'd, and declar'd, all men, by Nature ſince the Fall, to be guilty of ſin and in a ſtate of damnation. ¶ [92] The thing promiſed, viz. Righteouſneſs, Pardon, Life, which we partake of by Faith. ¶ [94] John 3. 16. (and not to thoſe that ſeek to be juſtified by their Works.)

23 But before [95] faith came, [96] we were kept [97] under the law, [98] ſhut up unto the faith, which ſhould afterwards be [1] revealed.

[95] The Goſpel-ſtate, wherein is the full manifeſtation of the Doctrine of Faith. ¶ [96] The Nation of the Jews. ¶ [97] Under that Diſpenſation. ¶ [98] Detain'd at preſent under the ſenſe of ſin, and fear of wrath, (Rom. 8. 15.) That we might afterwards be brought more readily to believe in Chriſt, and ſo be juſtified, v. 24. ¶ [1] Viz. More clearly and fully, (which before was but darkly manifeſted.)

24 Wherefore * the law was [2] our [3] ſchoolmaſter to bring us unto Chriſt, that we might be juſtified by [4] faith.
* Rom. 10. 4.

[2] Of us Jews, (who were under it, v. 23.) ¶ [3] The moral Law, by diſcovering ſin, and the curſe, did drive to Chriſt for pardon; the ceremonial Law, by many ſenſible and ceremonious pollutions, and outward purifications, taught us our ſpiritual defilement by ſin, and cleanſing by the bloud of Chriſt; who therefore was to be ſought unto for that end. ¶ [4] See on Rom. 3. 28. n. 91.

25 But after that [95] faith is come, we are no longer [5] under a ſchoolmaſter.

[5] Under that legal Diſpenſation.

20 I desire to be present with you now, and to [54] change my voice, for ‖ I stand in doubt of you.

‖ Or, I am perplexed for you.

[54] So to order the matter, as that (if it be possible) I may have occasion to rejoice with you, instead of complaining, and reproving.

21 [55] Tell me, ye that desire [56] to be under the law, [57] do ye not hear the law?

[55] Here he comes further to clear the Doctrine of Justification by Faith, and of the abolishing of the legal dispensation, by the History of Abram's Family, where this was prefigur'd: the plain import whereof is this, That as in Abram's Family there were two Mothers, and two sorts of Issue, and they were differently dealt withal: So in the Church, there are two sorts of Professors, some that seek Justification by the works of the Law, and these are in a servile, miserable, and curs'd condition, and shall at last be cast out from the presence of God, and society of the Saints: others that seek Justification by Faith in Christ alone: and these are free Sons of the Family of God, and blessed, and shall at last certainly obtain the inheritance of life eternal. ¶ [56] To subject your selves to the Mosaical dispensation, and seek to be justified by the works thereof. ¶ [57] q. d. Pray consider what is recorded in the Law concerning Abram's Family, and thereby you'll see what to judge of your own act.

22 For it is [58] written, that Abraham had [59] two sons; * [60] the one by [61] a bond-maid, * [62] the other by a [63] free-woman.

[58] Gen. 16. 15. & 21. 1, 2. ¶ [59] Viz. Who were especially design'd by God to prefigure this matter, (for he had more Sons by Keturah, Gen. 25. 2.) ¶ [60] Viz. Ishmael. ¶ [61] Or, Servant, viz. Hagar. ¶ [62] Viz. Isaac. ¶ [63] Viz. Sarah; (who was always a Mistress, and never a Servant.)

* Gen. 16. 15. * Gen. 21. 2. Heb. 11. 11.

23 But he who was of the bond-woman, * was born [64] after the flesh: but he of the free-woman was [65] by promise.

* Rom. 9. 7, 8.

[64] According to the ordinary course of nature, and by the meer, and sole efficacy thereof. ¶ [65] By virtue of the promise made to Abram, Gen. 17. 16. (when his Mother was naturally past conception.)

24 Which things are an [66] allegory; for [67] these are the two ‖ covenants; the one from mount † Sinai, which [68] gendreth to bondage, [69] which is Agar.

‖ Or, testaments. † Gr. Sina.

[66] i. e. Such a kind of Speech wherein, besides the literal, historical sense of the words, God intended that they should shadow forth the state of his Church in the following particulars. ¶ [67] i. e. These two Women signifie, and represent both the old Covenant, or legal dispensation by Moses, (Heb. 8. 7.) and the new Covenant, or Covenant of Grace, under the new administration, by Christ, (Heb. 8. 8.) that is, the Law and the Gospel. ¶ [68] Begets Children to Bondage, that is, they who adhered to this Covenant, were not thereby freed from their bondage to Sin, Satan, and God's wrath, (ch. 3. 10.) and were of a servile, mercenary disposition, doing what they did in God's Service, not from love, but slavish fear, (Rom. 8. 15.) and thinking to merit heaven by their works. ¶ [69] i. e. And this Covenant was prefigur'd by Agar the bondwoman.

25 For [70] this Agar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and ‖ answereth to [71] Jerusalem which now is, and is in [72] bondage with [73] her children.

[70] i. e. Mount Sinai is called Agar by the Arabians, and so the Covenant made there is fitly resembled by Agar. ¶ [71] The present State of the Jewish Church. ¶ [72] Acts 15. 10. In a servile condition. See n. 68. ¶ [73] All the members of, and adherents to, that Church-state.

26 But [74] Jerusalem which is [75] above, [76] is free, [77] which is the mother of us all.

[74] The true Church, consisting of those who adhere to the new Covenant, (typified by Jerusalem in its best times.) ¶ [75] Isa. 2. 2. Heb. 12. 22. Rev. 3. 12. & 21. 2, 10. Whose original is from Heaven, and whose members have their conversation there, Phil. 3. 20. ¶ [76] John 8. 36. viz. From the bondage of sin, (Rom. 6. 18.) the curse of the Law, (Rom. 8. 1.) and the yoke of the legal dispensation, (Eph. 2. 15.) and may be justified without the works of the Law.

¶ [77] Psal. 87. 4. And all sincere Believers, whether Jews or Gentiles are members of it, being both begotten to, and nourisht in, the Faith, by the word dispensed there.

Chap. 5. 4055.

27 For it is written, [78] Rejoyce thou [79] barren that beareſt not; [80] break forth and cry, thou that travaileſt not: for [81] the desolate [82] hath many more children than she which hath an husband.

[78] Isa. 54. 1. ¶ [79] The Christian Church, seeking Salvation by Christ alone, (which at present, hast but a few Converts, comparatively.) ¶ [80] Viz. Into singing, (as it is in Esay) that is, Rejoyce abundantly. ¶ [81] The Christian Church, (which was once in a forlorn condition,) ¶ [82] Matt. 8. 11, 12. Shall have in due time more Converts and Members, than the Jewish Church, (which enjoy'd God's presence, favour, and protection, in the Prophet's time, when this was utter'd by him.)

28 [84] Now [85] we, brethren, as Isaac was, are the [86] children of promise.

[84] Here he applies this allegory. ¶ [85] I my self, and all true Believers, who seek Justification and Salvation by Christ alone. ¶ [86] Rom. 9. 8. See there, n. 29. Persons to whom the promised Inheritance belongs, being Abram's spiritual, though not natural, Seed, Rom. 4. 16.

29 But as then he that was born [64] after the flesh, [87] persecuted him that was born [88] after the Spirit, [89] even so it is now.

[87] Job 19. 28. viz. By bitter mocking, Gen. 21. 9. ¶ [88] By the spiritual operation of the Spirit, above the strength of nature. ¶ [89] q. d. So the false Apostles, and such as adhere to the Jewish Synagogue, persecute the true Members of the Christian Church, (and therefore let us be comforted, since 'tis no more than befell God's People formerly.)

30 Nevertheless, what saith * the scripture? [90] Cast out the bond-woman and her son: for the son of the bond-woman shall not be heir with the son of the free-woman.

* Chap. 3. 8. 22.

[90] Gen. 21. 10. John 18. 35. q. d. As Hagar and Ishmael were cast out of Abram's Family, so shall the Jewish Synagogue, and all that adhere to the Doctrine of Justification by Works, be cast out of the true Church, and from having any part in the Kingdom of Heaven.

31 So then, brethren, [85] we are not [91] children of the bond-woman, but of [92] the free.

[91] Members of that Society prefigur'd by Hagar, and so in danger of the former sentence. ¶ [92] Members of that Church prefigur'd by Sarah, and so have a right to the heavenly Inheritance; and so let us continue.

8 [21] This perswasion cometh not of him that [22] calleth you.

[21] viz. Of seeking Justification and Salvation by the Law. ¶ [22] Ch. 1. 6. See there n. 11. viz. To the enjoyment of Gospel-priviledges, (but from the Devil.)

9 [23] A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump.

[23] 1 Cor. 5.-6. See there n. 21. A little false Doctrine (Matt. 16. 12.) may soon corrupt the judgment in other points: and a small number of scandalous, or seduced persons, (1 Cor. 5.-6.) may soon infect the whole Church, (and therefore beware of it, and them.)

10 I have [24] confidence in you [13] through the Lord, that you will be [25] none otherwise minded: but
* Chap. 1. 7. * he that [26] troubleth you, shall [27] bear his judgment, whosoever he be.

[24] 2 Cor. 2.-3. & 8. 22. ¶ [25] Reclaimed from your error, and be of the same opinion which I now declare to be the truth. ¶ [26] Disquiets your Consciences, with false and strange Doctrine, and disturbs the peace of the Church. ¶ [27] Suffer, and be censur'd for it.

11 And I, brethren, if I yet [28] preach circum-
* 1 Cor. 15. 30. cision, * why do I yet [29] suffer persecution? [30] then is the offence of the cross ceased.

[28] Maintain it as the onely way to Salvation, and urge it upon the believing Gentiles, (as it seems the false Apostles did suggest, because he circumcised Timothy, Act. 16. 3.) ¶ [29] Ch. 6.-12. viz. by the Jews, as one apostatized from their Religion. ¶ [30] 1 Cor. 1. 23. then the Jews need not take such exceptions at my preaching Salvation by Christ crucified, (for that Doctrine most offended 'em, because by it, Circumcision, and the whole frame of the legal administration, was laid aside.)

* Jos. 7. 25. 1 Cor. 5. 13.

12 ✝ ✝ I would they were even cut off which trouble you.

[31] q. d. It were very fit, were it seasonable, that they that thus seduce you, should be Excommunicated.

13 For, brethren, ye have been called unto
* 2 Pet. 2. 19. Jude 4. [32] liberty; [33] only * use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but [34] by love serve one another.

[32] 1 Cor. 8. 9. & 9. 19. 1 Pet. 2. 16. i. e. Take heed of running into the other extream, so as to nourish any corruption, either in your selves, or others, 1 Cor. 8. 9. ¶ [33] Use your liberty so as may best manifest your love to your Neighbour, (by seeking his edification, or at least, doing nothing contrary thereto, Rom. 14. 13, 15.)

* Matt. 7. 12. Jam. 2. 8. * Lev. 19. 18.

14 For * [35] all the law is fulfilled [36] in one word, even in this; * [37] Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thy self.

[35] Rom. 13. 8. Viz. which prescribes the duty of man to man; and which you pretend so much respect to. ¶ [36] By the observation of this one command. ¶ [37] See on Matth. 22. 39.

15 But if ye [38] bite and [39] devour one another, take heed [40] that ye be not consumed one of another.

[38] Use strifes, backbirings, railings, reproaches. ¶ [39] Seek to undo. ¶ [40] That your Divisions don't end in the total ruine of your Church.

86 [41] This I say then, * [42] Walk in the Spirit and ‖ ye shall not fulfil the [44] lust of the flesh.

[41] q. d. I know what I say: I speak not at random; but have well weighed the matter: or, I enjoin you, (as Rom. 12. 3.) See on 1 Cor. 1. 12. n. 43. ¶ [42] Rom. 8. 1. Order your actions according to the inclinations of the new nature, and give up your selves to the conduct of the Spirit, and you shall be kept, for the most part, from a compliance with your corrupt inclinations and affections, so that they shall not so easily be consented to, nor so often break out into shameful acts. ¶ [44] Rom. 13. 14. 1 Joh. 2. 16.

17 For * the [45] flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and [47] the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other; so that ye cannot [49] do the things that ye would.

[45] The unrenewed part, has contrary inclinations to, and opposes what we have a mind to do, according to the direction of the Spirit. ¶ [47] The renewed part, stirs up motions, and desires in the Saints, contrary to those of the flesh, and inclines 'em to desire, and endeavour the utter destruction of it. ¶ [49] Rom. 7. 19. Fully and freely accomplish what you would do, either way.

18 But * if ye be [50] led by the Spirit, ye are

EPHESIANS.

The ARGUMENT.

IN this Epistle St. Paul (after his Salutation) describes in a lofty style the deep mysteries of Election and Predestination, together with the several Benefits flowing from it; which he prays they may be experimentally acquainted with, ch. 1. And this he illustrates by shewing the misery of a natural, and happiness of a Converted condition, into which we are brought by Christ through the Spirit, ch. 2. Then he sets forth the dignity of his Office in respect of the Gentiles; which was to call and bring 'em into the Communion of the Church by the saving knowledge of Christ, which was so great a mystery that the Angels themselves admire at it: and then he prays again for 'em, ch. 3. After these Doctrinal points he exhorts 'em to the exercise of several Graces and performance of several Duties both Personal and Relative (ch. 4, & 5, & 6. 1-9.) and to arm themselves for their spiritual warfare, and so concludes, ch. 6, 10, &c.

Election (v. 4.) do's chiefly respect the term [from which,] i. e. all others past by; but Predestination more eminently notes out the ultimate state [unto which] we are ordain'd: Election having singled us out from all others, and decreed us a representative Being in Christ, as Members in a head, Predestination then further imports a second act of ordaining us to a glorious well-being in Him, as the End God means to bring us to. ¶ [29] Rom. 8. 23. That in due time we should be brought, by effectual Calling, to be his adopted Children, or Children-in-law, and so have a right to the heavenly inheritance, and partake of all the priviledges of Children. ¶ [30] By virtue of our relation to him. ¶ [31] Psal. 4. 3. & 135. 4. Isa. 43. 21. i. e. (1.) * Chap. 4. 15. Col. 1. 18. * Chap. 1. 23.

23 For the husband is the [70] head of the wife, even [71] as * Chriſt is the [72] head of the church: and he is [73] the Saviour of * the body.

[70] 1 Cor. 11. 3. In regard of preeminence of Sex, (1 Pet. 3. 7.) 24 Therefore as the [74] church is ſubject unto Chriſt, ſo let the wives be to their own husbands * in [75] every thing.

* Tit. 2. 9.

[74] All that are truly regenerate. ¶ [75] Viz. Which is lawful, as Col. 3. 20.

25 [76] Husbands, love your wives, even as Chriſt alſo loved the church, and [77] gave himſelf [78] for it:

[76] Ver. 28. Col. 3. 19. 1 Pet. 3. 7. Prov. 5. 19. ¶ [77] See on Gal. 1. 4. ¶ [78] Chriſt had a ſpecial reſpect to his Church in his ſufferings; and therefore died not equally for all.

* Cant. 4. 7.

27 That he might [82] preſent it to himſelf [83] a glorious church, * [84] not having ſpot or wrinkle, or any ſuch thing; but that it ſhould be [85] holy, and without blemiſh.

[82] Tit. 2. 14. Perfectly unite it to himſelf, (in the world to come.) ¶ [83] Ch. 4. 7. Perfectly holy, and happy, and pleaſing in his eye. ¶ [84] Fully free from the ſmalleſt remainders of ſin and miſery. ¶ [85] Ch. 1.-4. Col. 1. 22.

28 So ought men to love their wives, [86] as their own bodies: he that loveth his wife, loveth himſelf.

[86] As being now made one with him, (v. 31.) and ſo he is to love her with the ſame ſincerity, and ardency of affection as himſelf.

29 For no man ever yet hated his own fleſh; but nouriſheth and [87] cheriſheth it, even as the Lord the church:

[87] Uſes it tenderly, and takes care to ſupply it with all things fitting.

* 1 Cor. 6. 15. & 12. 27.

[88] Or, [Out of] i. e. All that Grace and Glory, which the Church has, is from Chriſt, (as the Woman was taken out of the Man, Gen. 2. 23.) ch. 2. 10. 1 Cor. 1. 30. and ſhe has the ſame Graces, and Glory that Chriſt has, John 1.-16. & 17. 22.

31 * [89] For this cauſe ſhall a man leave his father and mother, and ſhall be joyned unto his wife, and they * two [90] ſhall be one fleſh.

[91] q. d. Theſe words (v. 31.) contain a hidden ſenſe in 'em, and relate, not only to the Union that is between Man and Wife, but eſpecially between Chriſt and his Church; whereof Adam's Marriage was but a Type.

33 [92] Nevertheleſs, let every one of you in particular ſo love his wife [93] even as himſelf; and the wife ſee that ſhe [94] reverence her husband.

[92] q. d. Yet thoſe words have a literal ſenſe too, whereby they hold forth the Duties of Man and Wife. ¶ [93] Seeing ſhe is now a piece of himſelf, v. 28. ¶ [94] Eſth. 1.-20. Have a high eſteem of him, and manifeſt it by her whole carriage to him.

5 For your [12] fellowship in the gospel, [13] from the first day until now;

[12] That you have join'd with us in embracing the Gospel, and so have fellowship also with all true Christians. ¶ [13] And that you have persevered in the profession thereof from the time that you first embrac't it.

12 [33] But I would ye should understand, brethren, that the things which happened unto me, have fallen out rather unto the furtherance of the gospel:

[33] q. d. Be not discouraged at my sufferings, but observe and consider this for your encouragement.

14 And many of the brethren in the Lord waxing confident [36] by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.

[36] By my courage, and constancy in my sufferings.

15 Some indeed preach Christ even of [37] envy and [38] strife; and some also of [39] good will.

[37] Envying me that esteem, and reputation I have in the Church, and seeking to gain it to themselves. ¶ [38] Striving to draw people off from approving me to applaud themselves. ¶ [39] Viz. Which they shew'd to me in defending, and seconding what I had taught afore.

Chap. 1. 4068.

16 The one preach Christ of contention, not sincerely, supposing to add [40] affliction to my bonds:

[40] To cause inward grief of Spirit to me, together with my outward troubles.

17 But the other of love, knowing that I am set [41] for the defence of the gospel.

[41] To maintain it against opposition, (and therefore they'l assist me in this, which is my great work.)

18 [42] What then? notwithstanding every way, [43] whether in pretence, or [44] in truth, Christ is preached; and I therein do rejoyce; yea, and will [45] rejoyce.

[42] q.d. Shall this trouble either you or me? No, in no wise. ¶ [43] Whether they preach Christ for some base ends, yet pretending to do it out of zeal to the Glory of God, and for the propagation of the Gospel. ¶ [44] Matt. 22. 16. ¶ [45] Shall have cause so to do in regard of the good issue it will have.

19 For I know that [46] this shall turn [47] to my salvation [48] through your prayer, and the [49] supply of * the Spirit of Jesus Christ,

[46] The trouble I meet withall from these kind of Teachers. ¶ [47] To the furtherance of it. ¶ [48] 2 Cor. 1. 11. ¶ [49] His assistance and guidance, to make a good use of this trouble.

20 [50] According to my earnest expectation, and my hope, [51] that * in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that [52] with all boldness, as always, so now also Christ shall be [53] magnified in my body, [55] whether it be by life or by death.

* Rom. 5. 5.

[50] q.d. And this is that which all along I have earnestly expected, and hoped for. ¶ [51] 2 Tim. 1. 12. That I shall not be in the least ashamed to own any truth of Christ. ¶ [52] By my stout maintaining the truth. ¶ [53] His honour advanc'd, and his interest promoted by what I can either do, or suffer in my Body. ¶ [55] And that whether I live to preach the Gospel, or dye in defence of it.

21 For to [56] me to live [57] is Christ, and [58] to die is gain.

[56] I have no life but from Christ, and while I live, my business is to serve, and enjoy Christ. ¶ [57] Col. 3. 4. ¶ [58] If I dye a Martyr in his cause, his Glory will be advanced also, and his Interest promoted, (v. 14.) and so I shall gain the fuller enjoyment of him, v. 23. The business of my life is to do his Work; and when Death comes, I shall receive my Wages.

22 But if I live in the flesh, this is [59] the fruit of my labour: yet what I shall choose, I wot not.

[59] That which I shall use my utmost endeavours to bring about, viz. To glorifie, and serve him, by the conversion of Souls.

2 Tim. 4. 6.

23 For * I am in a strait betwixt two, having [60] a desire to [61] depart, and to be [62] with Christ; which is [63] far better:

24 Nevertheless, to abide in the flesh, is [64] more needful for you.

Chap. 2. 24.

25 And * having [65] this confidence, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all, for your furtherance and joy [66] of faith:

[65] Viz. That it will be for your advantage. ¶ [66] Arising from your believing in Christ, (1 Pet. 1. 8.) and which will be proportionably increased by your being further confirmed in the faith.

Col. 1. 10. 1 Thess. 2. 12. & 4. 1.

27 [69] Only * let your conversation be [70] as it becometh the gospel of Christ: that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that ye stand fast in [71] one spirit, with [72] one mind, * striving together [73] for the faith of the Gospel;

1 He exhorteth to unity and humility, 12 and to a careful proceeding in the way of salvation.

1 IF there be [2] therefore any consolation in Christ, [3] if any comfort of love, [4] if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any [5] bowels and mercies;

[1] q.d. If you have ever found by my Ministry, or expect to find, any of those comforts that are in Christ. ¶ [2] q.d. Since both you, and I, are in a suffering condition, (ch. 1. 30.) let us comfort one another by a holy concord. ¶ [3] If ever you found any sweetness in the love of God or Christ, or the Brethren, or have received any comfort by my love to you, or desire that I should have any comfort by your love to me. ¶ [4] If ever you have been partakers of the Graces of the Spirit, and enjoy'd Communion with him, and would not lose it in whole, or in part. ¶ [5] Any pity or compassion in you towards me, now a prisoner for Christ.

7 * [20] But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him [21] the form * of a servant, and * was made [22] in the ‖ likeness of men:

[20] Isa. 53. 3. Mark 9.-12. Yet he emptied himself of that Divine Glory and Majesty, by hiding it in the vail of his flesh. ¶ [21] Matt. 20. 28. Luke 22.-27. John 13. 14. Rom. 15. 8. [38] q. d. Since Christ has given us an example of Obedience, Self-denial, and Humility, and was thereupon so advanc'd, let this encourage us to do the like. ¶ [39] That so it may appear that love to Christ and your own Souls, sways more with you than any other respect. ¶ [40] Give not way to sloth and security, but be diligent in the use of all means conducing to your Salvation; and busie not your selves about such trifles as cause Divisions. ¶ [41] Psal. 2. 11. Isa. 66.-2. 2 Cor. 7. 15. Heb. 4. 1. 13 [42] For it is [43] God which worketh [44] in you, both to [45] will and to [46] do of [47] his good pleasure.

[42] q. d. And let this consideration quicken you to do your utmost, because your labour shall not be in vain, but God's Grace is ready to assist you therein, and shall powerfully co-oporate with you, Rom. 6. 13, 14. ¶ [43] 2 Cor. 3. 5. Heb. 13. 21. 20 For I have no man ‖ like-minded, who will [66] naturally care for your state.

[66] Who has such a solicitous care for the welfare of your Church, and Salvation of your Souls, as Parents have for their Children.

* Isaiah 53.11. Jer. 9. 23, 24. John 17. 3. Col. 2. 2.

[28] I do so still, as well as formerly, when I was first converted. ¶ [29] All these outward priviledges. ¶ [30] 1 Cor. 2. 2. In comparison of that admirable priviledge of having an interest in him, by a knowledge attended with Faith, and suitable affections, as John 17. 8. ¶ [31] Don't repent of what I have done, but am still of the same mind. ¶ [32] Partake of his benefits.

9 And [33] be found in him, [34] not having mine [35] own righteousness * which is [36] of the law, but [37] which is through the faith of Christ, [38] the righteousness which is of God [39] by faith:

* Rom. 10. 5.

[33] That it may appear, at the day of Judgment, that I am in him. ¶ [34] Not to stand or fall according to my own legal performances. ¶ [35] Rom. 3. 20. & 10. 3. (See there.) Gal. 2. 16. That way of obtaining righteousness, which is of my own choosing, (and not of God's appointing,) as the condition of Justification and Life, and which I attain unto by the strength of my own natural Abilities. ¶ [36] Not a Christian, but a Jewish, Pharisaical righteousness, consisting in an outward conformity to the Law. See on Rom. 3. 28. n. 92. ¶ [37] Which I become possest of by believing in Christ. ¶ [38] See on Rom. 1. 16. n. 66. ¶ [39] See on Rom. 3. 22. n. 66.

10 That I may [40] know him, and the [41] power of his resurrection, and [42] the fellowship of his sufferings, being made [43] conformable unto his death;

[40] Viz. Experimentally. ¶ [41] Rom. 4.-25. That I may feel vertue flowing from his Resurrection, to free me from, and enable me to rise more and more from under the dominion of sin, to further degrees of holiness. See on Rom. 6. 4. n. 10. ¶ [42] Rom. 8. 17. 2 Cor. 4. 10, 11. 2 Tim. 2. 11, 12. 1 Pet. 4. 13. That I may find that I have fellowship with him in his death, (as the next words interpret it.) ¶ [43] Rom. 6. 5, 6. viz. By mortifying of corruption, and a patient bearing of sufferings for him.

11 [44] If by any means I might attain unto the resurrection of the dead:

[44] q. d. I care not what I undergo now, so that I may attain to such a state of Grace and Holiness as we shall enjoy at the Resurrection.

12 Not as though I had already * attained, either were already * perfect: but I [45] follow after, if that I may [46] apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Jesus.

* 1 Tim. 6. 12. * Heb. 12. 23.

[45] I pursue, with great desire and diligence. ¶ [46] Obtain that prize, (which I hope assuredly to do,) for the obtaining whereof I was laid hold on by Christ (when I was running on to destruction) and converted, and brought into the way of Salvation.

13 Brethren, I count not my self to have [48] apprehended: but [49] this one thing I do, * [50] forgetting those things which are behind, and * [51] reaching forth unto those things which are [52] before,

* Psal. 45. 10. * Heb 6. 1.

[48] Attained such a state of perfection. ¶ [49] Psal. 27. 4. Luke 10. 42. I make this my chief business. ¶ [50] Not so much considering what I have already done, as what I have yet further to do. ¶ [51] Straining and stretching as hard as I can. ¶ [52] Luke 9. 62. That measure of holiness which I have not yet attain'd.

14 [53] I press toward the mark [54] for the prize of * the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

* Heb. 3. 1.

[53] 1 Cor. 9. 24. I strive with all my might (in spite of all difficulties in the way) to get the Goal. ¶ [54] That I may may win the prize of Eternal Glory which shall be given to them to whom God vouchsafes that high favour of calling them effectually through the merits of Christ, and to partake of his benefits, Eph. 1. 4, 5.

15 Let us [57] therefore, as many as be [58] perfect, be [59] thus minded: and if [60] in any thing ye be otherwise minded, [62] God shall reveal [63] even this unto you.

[57] Being sensible of our defects, and imperfections. ¶ [58] 1 Cor. 2. 6. Eph. 4. 13. Have attain'd to a greater measure of knowledge, and grace than others. ¶ [59] Viz. To be still striving after further perfection; whatsoever progress we have made already. ¶ [60] In any of these particulars foremention'd you be of a different judgment from me, being (misled through weakness of Faith, and unaffected ignorance) with error, so as still to maintain a necessity of legal righteousness, or to think you have Grace enough. ¶ [62] There is some ground to hope, that God (who has brought you to the knowledge of the Gospel, and reveal'd other things to you already, and will lead his people into all necessary truth) will in due time reclaim you from your error in these things. ¶ [63] As well as other things.

16 [64] Nevertheless, [65] whereto we have already attained, let us [66] walk by the same rule, let us [67] mind the same thing.

[64] q. d. Yet notwithstanding this diversity of judgment in some things. ¶ [65] So far forth as we have already made any progress towards perfection, (v. 12.) and are agreed in Judgment concerning any duty, to be answerable to the Rule of the Word. ¶ [66] Let us act accordingly, and agree also in the practise of it, still keeping close to the Rule of the Word. ¶ [67] Ch. 2. 2. Rom. 12. 16. Be intent upon the performing of it.

* 1 Thess. 1. 6. 17 Brethren, * [68] be followers together of me, and [69] mark them which walk so, as ye have [70] us for an ensample.

[68] 1 Cor. 4. 16. See there. ¶ [69] Observe their way, and walk in it. ¶ [70] 1 Pet. 5. 3. See there. My self, and the other Apostles of Christ.

18 (For [71] many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the [72] enemies of the cross of Christ:

[71] The false Apostles, (whose example therefore is not to be follow'd.) ¶ [72] Who (pressing the observation of the Law of Moses as necessary to Salvation, besides Faith in Christ) do thereby really oppose and undermine the very power, and merit of Christ's Passion, (Gal. 5. 2.) and seek to avoid persecution, Gal. 6. 12.

[73] 2 Cor. 11.-15. ¶ [74] Rom. 16. 18. Who mind nothing but the satisfaction of their fleshly Appetites. ¶ [75] Who boast of the multitude of those they have drawn into their error, (which is a thing they ought rather to be asham'd of.) ¶ [76] Rom. 8. 5. Value, affect and pursue carnal enjoyments altogether.

* Eph. 2. 6. 20 [77] For * our [78] conversation is in heaven, from whence also [79] we look for the saviour the Lord Jesus Christ:

[77] q. d. You ought to follow our example, (v. 17.) because—— ¶ [78] 2 Cor. 4. 18. Prov. 15. 24. Our hearts and affections are set upon heavenly things, (Colos. 3. 1.) our thoughts and words are employ'd about 'em; and all our actions tend that way. ¶ [79] 1 Cor. 1.-7. 1 Thess. 1. 10. Tit. 2. 13.

21 Who shall change our [80] vile body, that it may be fashioned [81] like unto his glorious body, * 1 Cor. 15. 26, 27. [82] according to the working whereby he is able * even to [83] subdue all things unto himself.

2 I beseech [7] Euodias, and beseech [7] Syntyche, that they [8] be of the same mind [9] in the Lord.

[7] Two eminent Women, between whom there was some misunderstanding. ¶ [8] Agree together. ¶ [9] According as Christ requires his members to do.

3 And I intreat thee also, [10] true yoke-fellow, help those women which * [11] laboured with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and with other my fellow-labourers, * [12] whose names are in the book of life. * Chap. 1. 27. * Exod. 32. 32.

[10] Faithful. ¶ [11] Either by instructing of youth, and other Women, privately, (Tit. 2. 3.) or, by a courageous enduring of troubles, and afflictions for the Gospel. ¶ [12] Psal. 69. 29. Dan. 12.-1. Luke 10.-20. Rev. 3. 5. & 13. 8. & 20. 12. & 21.-27. Whom I judge to be truly gracious persons, and who shall partake of eternal Life.

4 * [13] Rejoyce in the Lord [14] alway: and again I say, rejoyce. * 1 Thess. 5. 16.

[13] See on ch. 3. 1. ¶ [14] A believer has always ground of rejoycing in Christ, though not in the world, nor in himself.

5 Let your [15] moderation be known unto all men. * [16] The Lord is at hand. * 2 Pet. 3. 8, 9.

[15] Mildness in your dealings with all; rather remitting something of your right, than exacting your utmost due. ¶ [16] Heb. 10.-25. James 5.-8. Death is not far off, and then we must give an account.

6 * [17] Be careful for nothing: but [18] in every thing by [19] prayer and [20] supplication with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known unto God. * Psal. 55. 22. Prov. 16. 3.

[17] Matt. 6. 25. (See there.) 1 Pet. 5. 7. Viz. With a distrustful, distracting care, (but with a provident care we may.) ¶ [18] Upon all occasions. ¶ [19] Petition for mercies wanting. ¶ [20] Against Judgments, and acknowledging our desert of 'em.

7 And [21] the peace of God [22] which passeth all understanding, shall [23] keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

[21] John 14. 27. Rom. 5. 1. Quietness of spirit, arising from a sense of your reconciliation with God, wrought by his Spirit. ¶ [22] Which none can sufficiently value, nor know the full worth of. ¶ [23] Secure you from immoderate care, and inordinate affections to outward things.

8 Finally, brethren, [24] whatsoever things are true, [25] whatsoever things are ‖honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are [26] pure, whatsoever things are [27] lovely, whatsoever things are [28] of good report, [29] if there be any vertue, and if there be any praise, [30] think on these things. ‖ Or, venerable.

[24] Whereinsoever you find your Heathen Neighbours speaking the truth, and dealing candidly and sincerely. ¶ [25] Rom. 12.-17. & 13. 12. 2 Cor. 8. 21. Wherein soever they manifest gravity, as in apparel, words, or deeds. ¶ [26] Free from any defilement of sin. ¶ [27] Which may render you amiable, and acceptable to others. ¶ [28] Which may make you well spoken of. ¶ [29] If you can observe any thing in them, which is justly esteemed an act of vertue, or deserving praise. ¶ [30] So consider and remember, as to practice 'em.

9 Those things which ye have both learned and received, and heard and seen in me, [31] do: and * the [32] God of peace shall be with you. * 2 Cor. 13. 11.

[31] James 1. 22. ¶ [32] Rom. 15. 33. See there.

10 But I rejoyce [33] in the Lord greatly, that now at the last * your care of me ‖ hath [34] flourished again, wherein ye were also [35] careful, but ye lacked opportunity. * 2 Cor. 11. 9. ‖ Or, is revived.

[33] With a spiritual joy, wrought in me by Christ. ¶ [34] Been revived, after a seeming decay, and neglect of me. ¶ [35] Viz. Before this late instance of your Charity.

11 [36] Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be [37] content.

[36] q. d. I'd

Chap. 4. 4068.

[35] q. d. I'd not have you think, that my rejoycing is only upon this ground, becauſe now my wants are ſupplied. ¶ [37] Gen. 28. 20. Job 1. 21. Matt. 6. 31, &c. 1 Tim. 6. 8. Heb. 13. 5.

12 [38] I know both how to be [39] abaſed, and I know how to [40] abound: every where, and in all things I am inſtructed, both [41] to be full and to be [41] hungry, both to abound and to ſuffer need.

[38] I can, through the Grace of God, exerciſe ſuch Graces as theſe different conditions call for. ¶ [39] 1 Cor. 4. 11. 2 Cor. 11. 27. To ſuffer diſgrace. ¶ [40] To bear abundance of worldly applauſe. ¶ [41] To avoid the temptations, and perform the duties, both of a plentiful, and a ſcanty condition.

13 I can do [42] all things through Chriſt which ſtrengthneth me.

[42] Perform all the duties of theſe ſeveral caſes and conditions.

14 [43] Notwithſtanding, ye have well done, that
[a] Chap. 1. 7. * ye did [44] communicate with my affliction.

[43] q. d. Though I was not dejected by my wants, yet your ſupply is acceptable to me. ¶ [44] 2 Cor. 1. 7. Heb. 13. 3. Had a fellow-feeling of my ſufferings, and bore your ſhare of 'em, by ſupplying my neceſſities which I was in upon that account.

15 Now ye Philippians know alſo, that [45] in the beginning of the goſpel, when I departed from [b] 2 Cor. 11. 8, 9. Macedonia, * no church [46] communicated with me, as concerning giving and receiving, but ye only.

[45] At my firſt preaching the Goſpel among you. ¶ [46] Did bear any ſhare of my ſufferings, by contributing to my relief.

16 For even in Theſſalonica, ye ſent once and again unto my neceſſity.

17 [47] Not becauſe I deſire a gift: but I deſire
[c] Rom. 15. 28. Tit. 3. 14. * fruit that may abound to your account.

[47] q. d. Yet I'd not have you think that I commend your liberality merely out of reſpect to my ſelf; but I do it chiefly out of reſpect to your ſelves; that you may do that which may turn to your everlaſting advantage.

Chap. 4. 4068.

18 But ‖ [48] I have all, and [49] abound: I am full, having received of Epaphroditus the things which were ſent from you, an [50] odour of a ſweet ſmell, * [51] a ſacrifice acceptable, well-pleaſing to God.

‖ Or, I have received all.

* 2 Cor. 9. 12.

[48] I have ſufficient. ¶ [49] Yea more than ſufficient for my preſent ſtate. ¶ [50] A ſervice wherewith God is delighted. ¶ [51] Heb. 13. 16.

19 But [52] my God * ſhall [53] ſupply all your need, according to his [54] riches in glory, by Chriſt Jeſus.

* Pſal. 23. 1.

[52] Whoſe Embaſſador I am. ¶ [53] 2 Cor. 9. 8. Recompence you even in this life, as there's need, Pſal. 41. 1--3. ¶ [54] Eph. 3. 16. Rich and glorious Grace.

20 Now unto God and our Father † be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

21 [55] Salute every ſaint in Chriſt Jeſus. The [56] brethren which are with me greet you.

The ARGUMENT.

SAint Paul being informed by Epaphras (who founded this Church, ch. 1. 7, 8.) of ſome tares ſown among 'em, partly by ſome converted from Judaiſm, who urged the Ceremonial Law as neceſſary to Salvation, and partly by ſome converted from Gentiliſm, who from the Principles of abuſed Philoſophy urged the worſhipping of Angels, and other ſuperſtitious Rites, ſends 'em this Epiſtle, (which agrees in many paſſages with that to the Epheſians*) wherein he briefly propounds the chief points of the Goſpel; eſpecially concerning the Excellency of the Perſon, Office and Benefits of Chriſt, in whom alone all Perfection is to be found, which therefore they ſhould continue ſtedfaſt in,* ch. 1. Then he warns 'em againſt the forementioned Errors, ch. 2. and ſtirs 'em up to the practiſe of Holineſs in general, and the ſpecial Duties of Chriſtianity; and ſo concludes, ch. 3. & 4.

The ARGUMENT.

IN this Epiſtle St. Paul (1.) Bleſſes God for the Eminency and Exemplarineſs of their Graces, which was the fruit of his Miniſtry among 'em, ch. 1. (2.) He declares at large his Miniſterial carriage among 'em, and the great ſucceſs thereof notwithſtanding their grievous perſecutions, ſo that he gloried in 'em, ch. 2. (3.) He ſhows his great Affection to 'em, ch. 3. (4.) He exhorts 'em to Chaſtity, Juſtice in their Dealings, Diligence in their Callings, Moderation in their mourning for the dead, (ch. 4.) Watchfulneſs for Chriſt's coming, a high eſteem of their Teachers, heaping up ſeveral other Precepts of Chriſtian Duties, and ſo concludes with a Prayer for their Growth and Perſeverance in Sanctification, ch. 5.

This Epiſtle is ſuppoſed to be the firſt that Paul wrote to any Church.

Chap. 1. 4068.

CHAP. I.

PAUL, [1] and * [2] Silvanus, and [2] Timothy; unto the church of the Theſſalonians, which is [3] in God the Father, and [3] in the Lord Jeſus Chriſt: * [4] Grace be unto you, and [5] peace [6] from God our Father, and the [7] Lord Jeſus Chriſt.

(See there) owning and worſhipping the true God (and thereby diſtinguiſh'd from Heathens) and Chriſt (and thereby diſtinguiſh'd from Jews:) and alſo in union and communion with God and Chriſt, 1 John 1. 3. ¶ [4-7] See on Rom. 1. 7.

2 * [8] We give thanks to God [9] always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers,

[8] See on Rom. 1. 8. ¶ [9] In every Prayer, Phil. 1. 4.

3 Remembring without ceaſing your * [10] work of Faith, and [11] labour of love, and patience [12] of hope in our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, [13] in the ſight of God and our Father:

[10] John 6. 27. Gal. 5.-6. All that obedience and holineſs which proceeds from your ſound belief of the Goſpel. ¶ [11] Heb. 6. 10. That pains you have taken in the exerciſe of love to the Saints, flowing from your love to Chriſt. ¶ [12] Proceeding from your hope in Chriſt. ¶ [13] All which is done by you ſincerely, as in the ſight of God.

4 [14] Knowing, brethren ‖ beloved, your election of God.

[14] 2 Theſſ. 2. 13. Being firmly perſwaded (upon your hearty imbracing the Goſpel, v. 5.) that many of you are elected.

5 For [16] our Goſpel [17] came not unto you in word only, but alſo [18] in power, and [19] in the Holy Ghoſt, and [20] in much aſſurance; as ye know [21] what manner of men we were among you [22] for your ſake.

[15] See on Rom. 2.-16. ¶ [17] 1 Cor. 4. 20. It was not only delivered in a formal manner, and reach'd only to your outward ears. ¶ [18] Ch. 2. 1. Rom. 1. 16. 1 Cor. 2.-4. Heb. 4. 12. In ſuch a lively, powerful manner, as did work effectually upon your hearts. ¶ [19] Confirmed by ſigns and miracles, wrought by the aſſiſtance of the Holy Ghoſt. ¶ [20] Whereby was begotten in you an aſſured perſwaſion of the Truth of what was delivered to you. ¶ [21] After what manner we behaved our ſelves, and what our endeavours were. ¶ [22] 1 Cor. 9. 19. 2 Cor. 12. 14. To gain you to Chriſt.

6 And * ye became [23] followers of us, and [24] of the Lord, having received the word [25] in much affliction, * [26] with joy of the holy Ghoſt:

Chap. 2. 4068.

7 So that ye were [27] enſamples to all that believe in Macedonia and Achaia.

[27] 2 Cor. 9. 2.

8 For [28] from you ſounded out the word of the Lord, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but alſo in every place your faith to God-ward is [30] ſpread abroad, ſo that we need not to ſpeak any thing.

[28] By the report of your embracing the Goſpel, and by means of your commerce with other Countries, the Goſpel is propagated, not only to neighbour-places, but in many Countries farther off. ¶ [30] Rom. 1. 8. Grown famous.

9 For [31] they themſelves ſhew of us, what manner of entring in we had unto you, and how ye [33] turned to God from Idols, to ſerve the living and true God,

[31] The faithful far and near are able to give an account of the ſucceſs of our Miniſtry among you, and what entertainment it found with you. ¶ [33] 1 Cor. 12. 2.

4 But as we were [9] allowed of God to be put in truſt with the goſpel, even ſo we [10] ſpeak, not as [11] pleaſing men, but God, which tryeth our hearts.

1 He sheweth Christ's second coming to judgment, 16 and giveth divers precepts, 23 and so concludes.

BUT of [1] the times and the seasons, brethren, ye have [2] no need that I write unto you.

[1] The particular time of Christ's coming. ¶ [2] Matt. 24. 3. Acts 1. 7. No occasion to know it particularly, since the general knowledge thereof is sufficient to make you watchful.

II. THESSALONIANS.

The ARGUMENT.

IN this Epiſtle St. Paul endeavours to confirm the Theſſalonians in the Doctrine of Faith and Practiſe of Piety, both againſt Perſecutors and Seducers: and that (1) by comforting 'em under their preſent ſad ſufferings, ch. 1. (2.) by rectifying a miſtake (occaſion'd by a paſſage in his former Letter) concerning the coming of Chriſt; before which there muſt be a grand Apoſtaſie under Antichriſt; whoſe Riſe, powerful Seduction and Ruin he deſcribes; and comforts the Theſſalonians againſt the terror thereof, ch. 2. Then he exhorts 'em to ſeveral Duties, warns 'em againſt Idleneſs and buſy-bodies, and ſo concludes, ch. 3.

CHAP. I.

1 Timothy is put in mind of the charge which was given unto him by Paul. 5 The end of the law. 11 Paul's calling to be an apoſtle.

* Acts 9. 15.

1 PAul an [2] Apoſtle of [3] Jeſus Chriſt, [4] * by the commandment of God [5] our Saviour, and Lord Jeſus Chriſt, which is [6] our hope;

2 Unto * Timothy, my [7] own ſon [8] in the faith: * [9] Grace, [10] mercy, and [11] peace [12] from God our Father, and [13] Jeſus Chriſt our Lord.

Who truly reſembles me, and has been aſſiſting to me in the Work of the Goſpel, (Phil. 2. 19, 22.) and been confirmed in the Faith by my means. ¶ [8] In the profeſſion and practice of the ſame Faith. ¶ [9] [11] See on Rom. 1. 7. ¶ [10] 2 Tim. 1. 2. Tit. 1. 4. 2 John 3. [14] Viz. Than what I delivered, ch. 6. 3.

* Chap. 6. 4.

4 Neither give heed to [15] fables, and [16] endleſs genealogies, * which [17] miniſter queſtions, rather than [18] godly edifying, [19] which is in faith, ſo do.

[15] Ch. 4. 7. & 6. 20. 2 Tim. 2. 16, 23. Tit. 3. 9. Jewiſh ſtories, Tit. 1. 14. (ſuch as the Talmud is ſtuft with.) ¶ [16] Queſtions about their Genealogies, which can never be decided. 5 [20] Now the [21] end of the commandment is charity [22] out of a pure heart, and of a [23] good conſcience, and of [24] faith unfeigned:

[20] q. d. And ſuch things as tend to ſtrife, as theſe Fables do, ſhould be avoided, becauſe that is contrary to the Commandment. ¶ [21] Rom. 13. 8. Gal. 5. 14. Flowing from a heart free from by-ends, and corrupt affections. ¶ [23] Which does not accuſe for doing any wrong to any, Acts 24. 16. ¶ [24] Flowing alſo from a real belief of the Truth of the Word of God, which injoyns it. There muſt be a renewed Heart as the Fountain, a well-informed Conſcience as our Guide, and Faith unfeigned as our great Encouragement; and ſo all Acts of Charity are accepted by God as a piece of Obedience done to him.

CHAP. III.

1 How bishops and deacons, and their wives should be qualified, 14 and to what end S. Paul wrote to Timothy of these things.

THis is [1] a true saying, If a [2] man desire the office of [3] a Bishop, he desireth [4] a good work.

[1] See on ch. 1. 15. ¶ [2] Viz. Qualified, as is after expressed. ¶ [3] Tit. 1. 7. Over-seer of the Church, or Flock of Christ, (Acts 20. 28.) who is to teach and rule them. ¶ [4] An honourable imployment.

2 [5] A Bishop then must be blameless, [6] the husband of one wife, [7] vigilant, [8] sober, ‖ [9] of good behaviour, [10] given to hospitality, [11] apt to teach;

‖ Or, modest.

[5] Tit. 1. 7. Lev. 21. 21. ¶ [6] Tit. 1. 6. Neither having two Wives at once, nor that has put away his Wife without good cause, and married another (both which things were very ordinary, both among the Jews and Heathens.) ¶ [7] Intent upon his duty, ready to resist tentations, and careful to preserve his charge from seduction. ¶ [8] That bridles his passions and affections, and is moderate in the pursuit, and use of carnal delights. ¶ [9] That carries himself as becomes him in his place. ¶ [10] See on Rom. 12. 13. ¶ [11] 2 Tim. 2. 24. That having a good measure of knowledge, is able to express himself readily and suitably to the occasion.

3 ‖ [12] Not given to wine, [13] no striker, [14] not greedy of [15] filthy lucre, but [16] patient, not a [17] brawler, not covetous;

That insists not upon the extremity of his right, but is ready to yield for peace sake. ¶ [17] Tit. 3. 2. Quarrelsome, contentious.

5 (For if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the Church of God?)

6 Not ‖ a † novice, lest being lifted up with pride, [18] he fall into the condemnation of the devil.

† Numb. 4. 3. ¶ [18] Become guilty of that sin for which the Devil was condemned.

* 1 Cor. 5. 12.

7 Moreover, he must have a [19] good report * of them which are without, lest he fall into reproach, and the snare of the [20] devil.

[19] 1 Sam. 2. 24. Acts 6. 3. ¶ [20] By being tempted either to hate, or to revenge himself on those that speak evil of him, or to return to his former Paganism again, or some such unlawful practice.

8 Likewise must the [21] deacons be [22] grave, not [23] double tongued, [12] not given to much wine, [14] not greedy of [15] filthy lucre,

[21] See on Phil. 1. 1. ¶ [22] Of a seemly carriage in their whole conversation. ¶ [23] Dissembling and speaking one thing in one company, and another in another.

[24] Ch. 1. 19. Maintaining truth of Doctrine, and soundness of Faith by sincerity of Heart, and integrity of Life.

10 And let these also first be proved; then let them use the office of a deacon, being found blameless.

11 [25] Even so must their wives be grave, not slanderers, [8] sober, [26] faithful in all things.

[25] Or [The Women in like manner] i. e. Such Women as have any Office in the Church, ch. 5. 9. Rom. 16. 1. ¶ [26] Trusty in all that is committed to 'em.

12 Let the deacons be the [6] husbands of one wife, ruling their children, and their own houses well.

Chap. 4. 4068.

13 For they that have ‖ used the office of a deacon [27] well, purchase to themselves [28] a good degree, and [29] great boldness in the faith, which is in Christ Jesus.

‖ Or, ministred.

[27] Rom. 12. 8. ¶ [28] Matt. 25. 21. Much respect. ¶ [29] 2 Cor. 1. 12. An open and undaunted profession of the truth, free from that fear of reproach and sneaking humour, that attends a loose life.

14 These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly:

15 But if I tarry long [30] that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thy self in the house of God, which is the Church [31] of the living God, the [32] pillar and ‖ [33] ground of the truth.

‖ Or, stay.

[30] Matt. 24. 41. & 13. 52. i. e. I write these things unto thee, that, in case I come not suddenly, thou mayest know how to discharge thy Office well. ¶ [31] Where he is worshipt, and manifests his special presence. ¶ [32] To hold forth the Mind of Christ (as a Pillar does a Proclamation) that all may take notice of it. ¶ [33] To sustain and keep it from sinking.

16 [34] And without controversie, [35] great is the mystery of godliness: * God was † [36] manifest in the flesh, * [37] justified in the Spirit, * seen of [39] Angels, preached unto the [40] Gentiles, believed on in the world, * [41] received up into glory.

* 1 John 1. 2. † Gr. manifested. * Rom. 1. 4. 1 Pet. 3. 18. * Matt. 28. 2. Mark 16. 5. Luke 24. 4. John 20. 12. Eph. 3. 10. 1 Pet. 1. 12. * Luke 24. 51. Acts 1. 9.

[34] Here he shews the nature of that truth, which is to be found only in the Church; that it is not only some petty, inconsiderable truth, but of highest and greatest consequence. ¶ [35] The Christian Faith and Doctrine of the Gospel, with the several branches thereof, is such a secret as could never be found out by any humane industry, and passes all humane understanding to comprehend it. See on Matt. 13. 11. ¶ [36] John 1. 14. ¶ [37] Declared to be acquitted from the guilt of sin, which he took upon him, and from the sentence of Death following thereupon, and from all the evils he underwent, by his quickning and resurrection through the power of his Godhead, 2 Cor. 13. 4. ¶ [39] Who cleave to him by Vision, (as Men do by Faith,) and with infinite joy look upon him as their Head, in whom they see more of God, than they had done in Heaven before. ¶ [40] Eph. 3. 3, 6. ¶ [41] Mark 16. 19.

CHAP. IV.

He foretelleth that in the latter times there shall be a departure from the faith.

NOW the Spirit * speaketh [1] expressly, that in * [2] the latter times [3] some shall [4] depart from the [5] faith, giving heed to [6] seducing spirits, and [7] doctrines of Devils;

1 Rules to be observed in reproving. 3 Of widows. 17 Of elders.

1 REbuke not an elder, but intreat him as [1] a Father, and the younger men as brethren;

[1] Though there be cause for a Reproof, yet chide not an elderly person severely, and fiercely. ¶ [3] Lev. 19. 32. With respect, and meekness.

2 The elder women as mothers, the younger as sisters, with all [4] purity.

[4] Freedom from every thing in word or deed that has the least shadow of lightness, or wantonness.

3 [5] Honour widows * that are widows [6] indeed.

[*]Ver. 5, 16.

|| Or, kindness. * See Gen. 45. 10, 11. Matt. 15. 4. Eph. 6. 1, 2.

[*]1 Cor. 7. 32.

[11] Has no body else to rely upon. ¶ [12] Luke 2.-37. Devotes her self wholly to the service of God.

6 But she that [13] liveth || in pleasure, is [14] dead while she liveth.

9 Let not a widow be || taken [19] into the number, under threescore years old; having been the wife of [20] one man,

15 For [29] some are already turned aside after Satan.

[29] Some of these young Widows have already forsaken the Christian Faith and become Adversaries to it, and so would be glad of an occasion to reproach it.

16 If any man or woman that believeth have widows, let them relieve them, and let not the Church be charged; that it may relieve them that are widows [6] indeed.

* Rom. 12. 8. 1 Cor. 9. 10, 14.

II. TIMOTHY.

The ARGUMENT.

THis Epiſtle is much of the ſame import with the former, viz. to encourage and exhort Timothy to Faithfulneſs in his Miniſtry; to Stedfaſtneſs in the Faith, and to Diligence in his Work, ch. 1. & 2. Then he foretells perillous times, and therefore adviſes him to prepare for Hardſhip and Sufferings, propounding his own Example, ch. 3. gives him a ſolemn charge concerning Diligence in his Duty; ſhews the nearneſs of his own End, how it far'd with him at his firſt appearance before Nero; and ſo concludes, ch. 4.

PHILE-

PHILEMON.

The ARGUMENT.

ONesimus, Philemon's servant, having run away from his Master, and stole something from him, coming to Rome was there converted by Paul, who took a great liking to him, and made some use of him, yet would not detain him without his Master's consent, but sends him back to him with this Letter of Recommendation, penn'd in a most rhetorical strain, and bedeck't with all the Flowers of Rhetoric to move Philemon to receive him again, and consider him not in the capacity of a Servant, but a Brother.

Chap. 1. 4068.

CHAP. I.

Paul rejoyceth to hear of the faith and love of Philemon.

PAUL *[1] a prisoner of Jesus Christ, and Timothy our brother, unto Philemon our dearly beloved, and fellow-labourer,

2 And to our beloved Apphia, and * Archippus our [2] fellow-souldier, and to the Church [3] in thy house:

3 [4] Grace to you, and [5] peace from [6] God our Father, and [7] the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 *[8] I thank my God, making mention of thee always in my prayers,

5 [9] Hearing of thy love and faith, which thou hast toward the Lord Jesus, and toward all saints;

6 That the [10] communication of thy faith may become [11] effectual by the acknowledging of every good thing, which is in you [12] in Christ Jesus.

[10] Phil. 4.-15. Heb. 13. 16. Thy Bounty to others proceeding from thy Faith. ¶ [11] An effectual means to induce others to own and acknowledge those good things which are in thee, and thy Family. ¶ [12] By his Grace and Bounty.

7 For we have [13] great joy and consolation in [14] thy love, because the bowels of the saints are [15] refresh'd by thee, brother.

[13] 2 Cor. 7. 4, 13. 1 Thess. 3. 7. ¶ [14] This manifestation of it. ¶ [15] 1 Cor. 16. 18. 2 Tim. 1. 16.

8 Wherefore, though I might be much [16] bold [17] in Christ, to enjoyn thee that which is convenient, [16] 1 Thess. 2. 6. ¶ [17] By virtue of that authority he has given me.

9 Yet [18] for loves sake I rather beseech thee, being such a one as Paul the aged, and now also a prisoner of Jesus Christ.

[18] To demonstrate my great love to thee.

10 [19] I beseech thee for my son, [20] Onesimus, * whom I have begotten in my bonds:

[19] Viz. To receive him again, v. 12. ¶ [20] Col. 4. 9.

11 Which in time past [21] was to thee unprofitable, but [22] now profitable to thee and to me:

[21] Had wronged thee. ¶ [22] Who for the time to come will approve himself useful and serviceable to thee, as he has been to me.

12 Whom I have sent again: thou therefore [23] receive him that is mine own bowels.

13 Whom I would have retained with me, * that [24] in thy stead he might have ministred unto me in the bonds of the Gospel.

Chap. 1. 4068.

14 But without thy mind would I do nothing; that [25] thy benefit should not be as it were [26] of necessity, but [27] willingly.

[25] That good turn thou wouldst have done me, in lending me his service. ¶ [26] 2 Cor. 9. 7. ¶ [27] 1 Chron. 28. 9.

15 [28] For perhaps he therefore departed for a season, that thou shouldest receive him for ever;

[28] q. d. And as for his leaving thee, doubtless God's design therein was, that he might be converted by my ministry, and so rendred so useful to thee, that thou mightest be willing to keep him as long as he lives, Exod. 21.-6.

16 Not now [29] as a servant, but above a servant, a brother beloved, specially to me, but [30] how much more unto thee, both [31] in the flesh, and [32] in the Lord?

[29] Viz. Only. ¶ [30] As being to be constantly serviceable to thee. ¶ [31] In respect of that bodily service he may do thee. ¶ [32] As he is a Believer.

17 If thou count me therefore a [33] partner, receive him as my self.

[33] Jam. 2.-5. Thy Friend and Companion in the Faith.

18 If he hath wronged thee, or oweth thee ought, put that on mine account:

19 I Paul have written it with mine own hand, I will repay it: albeit I do not say to thee how thou owest unto me even [34] thine own self besides.

[34] Thy eternal welfare: (as being converted by me.)

20 Yea brother, let me [35] have joy of thee in the Lord: refresh my bowels [36] in the Lord.

[35] Obtain this kindness from thee, for the Lord's sake, which will much rejoyce me. ¶ [36] In a matter so agreeable to the will of Christ.

21 Having [37] confidence in thy obedience, I wrote unto thee, knowing that thou wilt also [38] do more than I say.

[37] 2 Cor. 7. 16. ¶ [38] Shew him more kindness than I express.

22 But withall prepare me also a lodging: for I trust that through [39] your prayers I shall be [40] given unto you.

23 There salute thee * Epaphras, my fellow-prisoner in Christ Jesus;

HEBREWS.

The ARGUMENT.

THAT St. Paul wrote an Epiſtle to the Hebrews is certain from that paſſage of Peter, 2 Pet. 3. 15. which can be no other than this Epiſtle, as appears, both becauſe the matter for which St. Peter quotes the ſaying of Paul to 'em is found in this Epiſtle, viz. ch. 3. 7, 8. & 10, 36, 37. and alſo by divers other paſſages which are produc't: neither are the exceptions againſt this opinion of any moment, but ſuch as do admit of an eaſy ſolution.

The Scope of it is this, The believing, or Chriſtian Hebrews ſuffered under two great evils, one Inward, the other Outward; the former was a great error, in joyning Chriſt and Moſes; the obſervation of the Ceremonial Law, together with the profeſſion of the Chriſtian Faith: the latter was their grievous Perſecution from their own Countreymen for turning Chriſtians, whereupon many of 'em were in great danger of Apoſtaſy. Now the Apoſtle here adminiſters ſuitable remedies againſt both theſe evils: againſt the former he ſhows the Preheminence and Pre-excellency of Chriſt above Moſes, and that the Ceremonial Law of Moſes was to give way to the Law of Chriſt, as Stars and Candles do at the Preſence of the Sun. In handling of theſe things he ſhows the tranſcendent excellency of Chriſt's Perſon and Office, both in reſpect of his Deity, ch. 1. and Humanity, ch. 2. and that as a Prophet he exceeds Moſes, ch. 3, & 4. 1–14. as a Prieſt he excels Aaron, ch. 4. 14–16. and as a King and Prieſt he excels Melchiſedec, ch. 5, & 6, & 7. and further ſhows the excellency of Chriſt's Prieſthood above that of Aaron, ch. 8, & 9, & 10. 1–18. Againſt the latter their Perſecution, he endeavours to fortifie 'em by laying down ſeveral motives to, and Grounds of Perſeverance in the Faith and Truth, taken from the danger of Apoſtaſy, ch. 10. 26, &c. the efficacy of Faith to ſupport under troubles, ch. 11. the benefits of Affliction, ch. 12. 1–17. the excellency of the New Teſtament above the Old. v. 18–29. After which he exhorts 'em to ſeveral Duties which much adorn a Chriſtian Profeſſion, concluding with a Prayer that they might be able to perform 'em. ch. 13.

CHAP. III.

1 Chriſt is more worthy than Moſes, 7 therefore we are the more bounden to believe on him.

*Rom. 15. 8. 1 WHerefore, [2] holy brethren, partakers of the [3] heavenly [4] calling, [5] conſider * the [6] Apoſtle and [7] high prieſt [8] of our profeſſion, Chriſt Jeſus:

3 [13] For this man was counted worthy of more glory than Moſes, in as much as * [14] he who hath builded [15] the houſe, hath more honour than [16] the houſe.

* Zech. 6. 12. Matt. 16. 18.

[13] q. d. You muſt conſider him (v. 1.) becauſe he was more excellent than Moſes. ¶ [14] The Maſter of the Houſe or Family, who by his own authority, and for his own uſe has built the Houſe. ¶ [15] The Church in all ages and places. ¶ [16] The whole or any part of it, (and therefore Chriſt, who is the Head of the Church, is greater than Moſes, who was but a Member of it.)

4 For every houſe is builded by ſome [17] man, [18] but * he that built all things is God.

* Eph. 2. 10.

[17] So Moſes, as one of this Houſe, i. e. a Member of the Church, muſt be built and made a Member, not by himſelf, but by another. ¶ [18] q. d. But Chriſt has built his Church, and all that belong to it, and thereby ſhewed himſelf to be God.

5 And Moſes verily was [11] faithful in all his houſe as a ſervant, [19] for a teſtimony of thoſe things which were to be ſpoken after;

[19] And thereby gave witneſs to what God would afterwards more fully reveal in the Goſpel.

6 But Chriſt as [20] a ſon over his [21] own houſe: * [22] whoſe houſe [23] are [24] we, * [25] if we hold faſt the [26] confidence, and [27] the rejoycing of the hope firm [28] unto the end.

7 Wherefore, [29] as the holy Ghoſt ſaith, [31] To day if ye will [32] hear his voice,

[29] This relates to v. 12. [Wherefore take heed.] ¶ [30] i. e. Rebel not againſt Chriſt as the Iſraelites did. ¶ [31] Pſal. 95.-7-11. In this preſent ſeaſon of Grace, while you enjoy the means of Grace. ¶ [32] Underſtand, believe and obey the word of God and Chriſt, the Goſpel.

8 [34] Harden not your hearts, [35] as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderneſs:

[34] Zach. 7. 11, 12. Reject not the counſel of God in his Word, and by his Spirit, but ſuffer it to enter into your hearts, ſo as to believe and obey it. ¶ [35] As the Iſraelites did in that time, when by their frequent diſobedience, and unbelief, they provok'd him againſt them, Exod. 17. 2, 7. Numb. 14. 22. & 20. 13.

9 When your fathers [36] tempted me, [37] proved me, and ſaw my [38] works forty years:

[36] Queſtioning my preſence (Exod. 17. 7.) diſtruſting my power (Pſal. 78. 18--20.) or promiſes; or deſpiſing ordinary means, and deſiring extraordinary. ¶ [37] Had experimental proof of my power, providence, &c. ¶ [38] Wonders both of Judgment and Mercy.

10 Wherefore I was [39] grieved with that generation, and ſaid, They do [41] alway [42] err in their hearts, and they have not [43] known my ways,

[39] Highly diſpleaſed with the generality of this People. ¶ [41] Notwithſtanding all that I have done for, and before them. ¶ [42] Depart from my ways through ſtubbornneſs, and perverſeneſs of will. ¶ [43] Minded nor conſider'd my dealings with 'em, and thoſe ways wherein I'd have 'em to walk.

chiefly that peaceable settled Church-state, which they enjoyed there.

12 [47] Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any [48] of you [49] an evil heart of unbelief, [50] in departing from the [51] living God.

[47] See v. 29. q. d. Since Christ is the Head of the Church, take heed you be not turn'd aside from that obedience, which he requires. ¶ [48] Viz. As there was in your fore-fathers of old. ¶ [49] Such a wicked frame of heart, as to be under the power of unbelief. ¶ [50] So as to cast off the profession of your faith in Christ, and obedience to him, and to return to Judaism again, for fear of persecution. ¶ [51] Christ, who is able to punish you for it, and that to all eternity.

13 But exhort one another [52] daily [53] while it is called, [54] To day; lest any of you be hardened through the [55] deceitfulness of sin.

[52] In every proper season, and on all fit occasions. ¶ [53] While the season does continue. ¶ [54] Psal. 32. 6. ¶ [55] Eph. 4.-22.

14 [56] For we [57] are made partakers of Christ; [58] if we hold the [60] beginning of our confidence stedfast unto the end;

[56] q. d. Take heed of Apostasie, and be careful to persevere, because all your interest in Christ depends hereupon. ¶ [57] It will appear that we are partakers of all those benefits, and priviledges, which Christ has purchas'd. ¶ [58] V.-6. ¶ [60] That same resolution of spirit for Christ, which we had at our first conversion.

15 [61] While it is said, [31] To day if ye will [32] hear [33] his voice, [34] harden not your hearts, [35] as in the provocation.

[61] q. d. This caution (v.-7, 8.) belongs not only to your Ancestors, but to you also; and therefore so long as you hear his voice, be sure to listen to it.

16 [62] For some when they had heard, [63] did provoke, howbeit [64] not all that came out of Egypt by Moses.

[67] Viz. That promise that God made 'em of entring into Canaan; (and thereupon they would not go up to possess it, Numb. 13. 30, 31. & 14. 4.)

19 So we see that they could not enter in, because [68] of unbelief.

[68] Deut. 1.-32. (So Unbelievers shall not enter into heaven: and therefore let us take warning, by their example, to avoid it.)

CHAP. IV.

1 The Christians rest is attained by faith. 12 The power of God's word. 14 By our high Priest Jesus, 16 we may go boldly to the throne of grace.

LET [1] us therefore fear, lest a promise being [2] left us of entring into his [3] rest, any of you should [4] seem to [5] come short of it.

[1] Christian Hebrews. ¶ [2] Proposed to us by God now under the Gospel. ¶ [3] That spiritual rest, which Believers have in and by Christ, in the grace and worship of the Gospel; which consists (1.) in peace with God by justification, Acts 13. 32, 33, 38, 39. (2.) In freedom from a servile bondage frame of spirit in the worship of God, Rom. 8. 15. Gal. 4. 6. (3.) In a freedom from the yoke of Mosaical institutions. (4.) In that Gospel-worship, wherein we injoy liberty of spirit, and strength, and assistance from God. ¶ [4] Have the least appearance of any such thing. ¶ [5] Ch. 12, 15. Matt. 25.-10. Miss of it (by neglecting the means to obtain it.)

‖ Or, because they were not united by faith to.

2 For unto us was the [6] gospel † preached, as well as unto them: but [7] the word preached did not profit them, [9] ‖ not being [8] mixed with faith in them that heard it.

[6] The promise made of entring into his rest (which is good news,) and therefore as it was their duty to seek after it, so it is ours. ¶ [7] That promise declared unto them. ¶ [8] Deut. 1. 32. So firmly believed as to become a principle of obedience in them.

Chap. 4. 4068.

3 [9] For we which have [10] believed [11] do enter into [3] rest; [12] as he said, * As I have sworn in my [13] wrath [14] if they shall enter into my rest: [15] although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.

* Psal. 95. 11.

[9] q. d. It appears that we now a days have a promise of rest, as well as they had, because some do partake of it. ¶ [10] Viz. In Christ and this promise of rest, and have been diligent in the use of the means to obtain it. ¶ [11] Are at present made partakers of it. ¶ [12] q. d. For since it is expressly said, that unbelief hinders, therefore it must follow by the rule of contraries, that Believers shall partake thereof. ¶ [13] Supply [so it fell out.] ¶ [14] i. e. They shall never enter (ch. 3. 11.) viz. by reason of their unbelief, ch. 3. 18. ¶ [15] q. d. And though 'tis true, there was a rest at the beginning of the world (when God had perfected all that he design'd in the creation of the world) which man then entred into, and whereof the seventh-day-sabbath was a sign, pledge and memorial, (yet this is not that which David speaks of (in the words before quoted) for that was past long since: whereas this yet remains to be entred into. Here he begins to answer such objections, as his former assertion, concerning the entrance of Believers into God's rest, might seem to be liable to.

4 For he spake in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise, * [16] And God did rest the seventh day from all his works.

* Exod. 31. 17.

[16] Gen. 2. 2. In this quotation he includes the sense of the whole context; namely, that upon, and because of the rest of God on the seventh day, he sanctified and blessed that day to be a day of rest to them that worship him, and a pledge of entring into rest with him: so that it is, q. d. From the beginning of the world, there was a work of God, and a rest insuing thereon, and an entrance proposed unto men into that Rest; and a day of rest, as a pledge thereof given to them.

5 [17] And in this place again, If they shall enter into my rest.

[17] q. d. And then besides that Rest mentioned at the beginning of the world, he speaks of another in the Psalm under consideration, v. 11. (which was above three thousand years after the former,) which they might then enter into; which was the rest of Canaan. The Apostle here proves, that after the original rest at the creation, there was a second promised, and proposed to the people of God, viz. in Canaan, but yet neither was that it which is chiefly aimed at in this place of the Psalm, (v.-7.) but a third that yet remains for them, and was now proposed unto them, and that under the same promises and threatnings with the former.

6 [18] Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therein, and they to whom ‖ it was [19] first [20] preached, entred not in because of unbelief,

‖ Or, the gospel.

[18] q. d. From what has been spoken it's evident, that besides the Rest of God from the foundation of the world, and a seventh-day-sabbath, as a pledge thereof, there is another Rest, which some persons must enter into, namely the Rest of God and his worship in the land of Canaan. ¶ [19] Viz. Before it was offered to them, whom Joshua brought into Canaan. ¶ [20] Publisht and tendred by Moses in the Wilderness.

7 [21] Again, [22] he limiteth a certain day, saying [23] in David, * To day, [24] after so long a time; as it is said, To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

* Psal. 95. 7. Chap. 3. 7.

[21] q. d. And further, besides the two times of Rest aforementioned, viz. of the Creation, and of Canaan, he speaks afterwards of another. ¶ [22] The Holy Ghost determins, and appoints another determinate time or season of Rest, (in correspondence to those aforemention'd, whose season was now past.) ¶ [23] In the Psalm pen'd by him. ¶ [24] q. d. After they had entred into the rest of Canaan, and possest it for about five hundred years, yet he calls upon 'em to seek after another Rest; therefore there's another besides that of Canaan.

8 [25] For if ‖ Jesus had given them rest, then would he not afterward have spoken of another day.

‖ That is, Joshua.

[25] q. d. If that rest, which they obtain'd under the conduct of Joshua (who brought them into Canaan) had been all which was intended by God for 'em, this latter exhortation by David had been needless.

9 [26] There

9 [26] There remaineth [27] therefore [28] a ‖reſt to the people of God.

[26] q.d. And whereas there was no new reſt for the people to enter into in the days of David, and the Pſalm wherein theſe words are recorded is acknowledged to be prophetical of the days of the Meſſia, it unavoidably follows, that there is ſuch a Reſt, and a day of Reſt remaining. ¶ [27] i.e. Since neither of the two former Reſts are intended by David. ¶ [28] Acts 15. 10. Rev. 21. 4. A ſpiritual Reſt in God, which includes (1.) keeping a ſpiritual ſabbath, or entring into ſpiritual Reſt, by believing in Chriſt, Matt. 11.-28. (2.) keeping the Chriſtian ſabbath in commemoration of God's Reſt from the work of Redemption, and as a token and pledge of our Reſt in him by Faith.

10 [29] For [30] he that is entred into his reſt, he alſo hath [31] ceaſed from his own works, as God did from his.

[29] q.d. It appears that there is a Reſt ſtill remaining, becauſe there's a new work (the work of Redemption) which Chriſt (who is God) reſted from, (as God did of old from the work of creation) whereupon this new Reſt is founded. ¶ [30] The Lord Jeſus Chriſt the builder of the Church, and Author of the new Creation. ¶ [31] Rom. 6. 7. Finiſht the work of Redemption, and all that he did and ſuffered on that account, John 19. 30. See there.

11 [32] Let us labour [33] therefore to enter into that reſt, leſt any man [34] fall after the ſame example of ‖ unbelief.

‖ Or, diſobedience.

[32] Matt. 11.-12. Luke 13. 24. Let us ſincerely believe and obey the Goſpel, whereby we ſhall find reſt. ¶ [33] Since the Iſraelites were ſo ſeverely puniſht for their unbelief. ¶ [34] Periſh by reaſon of ſuch unbelief, as they gave example of.

12 [35] For the [37] word of God is * [38] quick, and [39] powerful, and * ſharper than any two-edged ſword, piercing even [40] to the dividing aſunder of ſoul and ſpirit, and of the [41] joynts and [42] marrow, and [43] is a diſcerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

*1 Cor. 10. 4, 5.

CHAP. V.

1 The authority and honour of Chriſt's prieſthood. 11 Negligence in the knowledge thereof is reproved.

1 FOR every high prieſt [2] taken from among men, is ordained [3] for men [4] in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both [5] gifts and ſacrifices for ſins:

[1] Ch. 8. 3. q.d. It appears that Chriſt is a High-prieſt (ch. 4. 14.) becauſe all the eſſential parts of that Office are found in him. ¶ [2] Set apart for that Office from other men, Exod. 28. 1. ¶ [3] For their benefit. ¶ [4] Ch. 2. 17. Not only ſuch as ſin through meer ignorance of their duty, but likewiſe through want of heed and conſideration. ¶ [8] Who, upon any other account, have fallen into ſin, (ſo that all ſins and ſinners are here underſtood.) ¶ [9] Attended with infirmities, both natural and ſpiritual in all he does.

1 Chriſt is a Prieſt after the order of Melchiſedec:

[a] Gen. 14. 18, &c.

1 FOR this * Melchiſedec king of [2] Salem, prieſt of the moſt high God, who met Abraham returning from the ſlaughter of the kings, and [3] bleſſed him.

[1] q. d. It will plainly appear, that Chriſt was ſuch a Prieſt, if you conſider who this Melchiſedec was, how repreſented in Scripture, and what is affirmed of him. ¶ [2] Suppos'd to be Jeruſalem. ¶ [3] Viz. In God's name, as his extraordinary Miniſter.

2 To whom alſo Abraham [4] gave a tenth part of [5] all: [6] firſt being by interpretation [7] king of [8] righteouſneſs, and after that alſo king of Salem, which is [7] king of [9] peace;

[4] Or [diſtributed] to him as his right in Teſtimony of homage to him, as the High-prieſt of God, and type of Chriſt. ¶ [5] Viz. The ſpoils, v. 4. as a token, in particular that he own'd his Victory and Succeſs to be from God. ¶ [6] So Chriſt firſt gives Righteouſneſs, and then Peace, as the fruit thereof, Iſa. 32. 17. ¶ [7] Lord and Beſtower. ¶ [8] Jer. 23.–6. ¶ [9] Iſa. 9.–6. Eph. 2. 24.

3 [10] Without father, [10] without mother, † without [11] deſcent, [12] having neither beginning of days, nor [13] end of life; but [14] made like unto the Son of God, abideth a [15] prieſt continually.

[10] i. e. Without any mention of his Parents, Pedigree, &c. in that account which is given of him by Moſes, Gen. 14. 18. (this being purpoſely conceal'd, that he might be the more perfect Type and emblem of Chriſt, who was without any progenitors, or predeceſſors in his Office, and alſo without Mother, as God; and without Father, as Man.) ¶ [11] Viz. From the Tribe of Levi (as v. 6.) ſo Chriſt derived not his Pedigree from Aaron, or any other, that ever was a Prieſt in the World. ¶ [12] No mention made in the Story of him, of the beginning of his Prieſthood, and perſonal adminiſtration of his Office; to repreſent the eternity of Chriſt as the Son of God. ¶ [13] So Chriſt died not as High-prieſt: (for his death being not the death of the whole perſon, but of his humane Nature only, no interruption of his Office enſued thereon: for though the perſon of the Son of God died, yet he died not in his whole perſon.) ¶ [14] So deſcribed by Moſes, as that he might be an exact pattern of Chriſt. ¶ [15] i. e. There is no mention of the end of the Prieſthood of his Order, nor of his own perſonal adminiſtration of his Office by death, and ſo he ſtands in the Story as a kind of immortal Prieſt, without any ſucceſſor mention'd. And this is that which the Apoſtle chiefly deſign'd to confirm from hence, viz. That there was in the Scripture before the inſtitution of the Aaronical Prieſthood, a repreſentation of an eternal, unchangeable one, to be inſtituted in the Church, viz. That of Chriſt.

4 Now conſider how great this man was, * unto whom even the [16] patriarch [17] Abraham [18] gave the tenth of the [5] ſpoils.

* Gen. 14. 20.

[16] See on Acts 2. 29. ¶ [17] From whom the Aaronical Prieſthood ſprung. ¶ [18] Viz. Not only as an honorary reſpect, but as a religious Office, and neceſſary duty. See n. 4.

5 And verily they that are of the ſons of Levi, who receive the office of the prieſthood, have a [19] commandment to take tithes of the people [20] according to the law, that is, of their brethren, though they come out of the loyns of Abraham:

[19] Numb. 18. 21, 26. Deut. 18. 1. Joſh. 14. 4. A particular warrant, and direction, enabling 'em ſo to do. ¶ [20] According as the matter or manner of tything was determin'd by the Law.

[21] From that people, that come out of the loyns of Abraham. ¶ † Or, [tithed] (as Levi did the people, v. 5.) i. e. Took tithes, not as a Gift, but as his Right and Due for a Moral or Evangelical Work, Bleſſing, (for we read of nothing Ceremonial about Melchiſedec.) ¶ [22] Gal. 3. 16. With whom God had made the covenant of Grace, as with the Father of all the bleſſed Seed.

7 And without all contradiction, [23] the leſs is bleſſed of the better.

[23] i. e. When a man does in God's name and ſtead, and by his authority declare and pronounce another to be bleſſed, he that gives the bleſſing is, in that reſpect, greater than he that receives it.

8 And [24] here men that die receive tithes: but [25] there he receiveth them, [26] of whom it is witneſſed that he liveth.

[24] In the Levitical Prieſthood. ¶ [25] In that caſe of Melchiſedec. ¶ [26] Of whom the Scripture ſpeaks only of his living, and in ſuch a way, as if he lived for ever. See n. 15.

9 And as I may ſo ſay, [27] Levi alſo who receiveth tithes, payed tithes in [28] Abraham.

[27] That Tribe that proceeded from him. ¶ [28] Who was a publick perſon, and did this as a repreſentative of his whole Poſterity.

10 For he was yet in the loyns of his father when Melchiſedec met him.

11 [29] If therefore [30] perfection were by the Levitical prieſthood, [31] (for under it the people received the law) what further need was there that [34] another prieſt ſhould riſe after the order of Melchiſedec, and not be called after the order of Aaron?

Chap. 7. 4068.

[29] Ver. 19. Gal. 2. 21. q. d. Since by what has been ſaid it appears from Scripture, that another Prieſthood ſhould ariſe after Aaron's, of another order, hence it follows that perfection could not be attain'd by that. ¶ [30] The perfect ſtate of the Church in this world. ¶ [31] q. d. It appears that perfection is not by the Levitical Prieſthood, becauſe together with it, the Church was brought under the power, authority and obligation of the whole law of Moſes, ſo far as it was the rule of worſhip and obedience. ¶ [34] Of another ſtock or order.

12 [35] For the prieſthood being changed, there is made [36] of neceſſity a [37] change alſo of the law:

[35] q. d. Since there is ſuch a near relation between the Prieſthood and the Law; therefore the one being changed, the other muſt be chang'd alſo. Here he ſhews the utter ceſſation of the Law, as a rule of worſhip. ¶ [36] Becauſe the whole adminiſtration of the Law, as the rule of worſhip, depended abſolutely on the Aaronical prieſthood. ¶ [37] Ver. 18. Eph. 2. 15. Col. 2. 14.

13 [38] For he [39] of whom theſe things are ſpoken, pertaineth to another tribe, of which no man gave attendance at the altar.

[38] q. d. But it appears that the Prieſthood is changed, becauſe Chriſt was of another Tribe. Here he applies the whole precedent diſcourſe to the perſon of Chriſt. ¶ [39] Who is chiefly aimed at in all that is ſpoken of Melchiſedec.

* Matt. 1. 3.

14 For it is evident that * our Lord ſprang out [40] of Juda; of which tribe Moſes [41] ſpake nothing concerning prieſthood.

[40] Iſa. 11. 1. Luke 3.-33. Rev. 5. 5. ¶ [41] Negative arguments from Scripture in matters of worſhip, are ſound and ſtrong.

15 And [42] it is yet far more evident: for that [43] after the ſimilitude of Melchiſedec there ariſeth [44] another prieſt,

[42] q. d. It is a more undeniable argument to prove the ceſſation of the Levitical Prieſthood, from this conſideration, that another Prieſt was to ariſe after the ſimilitude of Melchiſedec, than meerly from this, that our Lord ſprang, &c. ¶ [43] In thoſe particulars, v. 3. ¶ [44] One of another Tribe from Aaron.

16 Who is made, not [45] after the law of a carnal commandment, but [46] after the power of an [47] endleſs life.

[45] Ch. 9. 10, 13. Eph. 2. 15. Col. 2. 14. With ſuch carnal rites, and outward ſolemnities, as the Law preſcribed for thoſe Prieſts; which reacht no further than to the purifying of the fleſh. ¶ [46] Through the vertue and efficacy of that eternal life, wherewith he is endued, whereby both his humane nature is preſerved always in the diſcharge of his Office, and he is enabled to work out eternal Life for us. ¶ [47] Rev. 1. 18.

17 [48] For he teſtifieth, Thou art a prieſt [49] for ever [50] after the order of Melchiſedec.

[48] q. d. It appears that Chriſt's Prieſthood is of eternal efficacy by that ſpeech of the Holy Ghoſt, Pſal. 110. 4. ¶ [49] Ver.-25. ¶ [50] See on ch. 5. 10.

18 [51] For there is verily a diſanulling of the [52] commandment going [53] before, for the [54] weakneſs and [54] unprofitableneſs thereof.

[51] q. d. Now the ſetting up of a new Prieſthood is by conſequence the pulling down of the old one, together with the law which eſtabliſht it; which was neceſſary in regard of its weakneſs— ¶ [52] The whole body and frame of the Moſaical inſtitution. ¶ [53] Viz. Before the coming of Chriſt, and introduction of the Goſpel. ¶ [54] Ch. 10. 1. Rom. 8. 3. Gal. 4.-9. Viz. To make any thing perfect, (v. 19.) and in compariſon of the new Prieſthood.

* Rom. 8. 3. Gal. 2. 16. ‖ Or, but it was the bringing in.

19 For * [55] the law made nothing perfect; ‖ [57] but the bringing in of a [58] better hope [59] did; [60] by the which we [61] draw nigh unto God.

[55] Acts 13. 39. The legal diſpenſation, or the whole frame of Moſaical Ordinances, as it was the Covenant which God made with the people in Horeb, could not by its ſtricteſt obſervances, fully take away the guilt of ſin, as to its future and eternal puniſhment, nor give ſtrength to obey its commands. ¶ [57] q. d. Yet God left not his Church without all hope of being made perfect. ¶ [58] i. e. Chriſt, and his Prieſthood, and the promiſes of the Goſpel depending thereon, which give hope to loſt ſinners of recovering communion with God, and afford ſolid grounds to expect the full pardon of their ſins, and eternal Life. ¶ [59] Viz. Bring the Church into that ſtate of perfection, which was deſign'd to it. ¶ [60] Viz. Prieſthood and hope. ¶ [61] Eph 2. 18. Have free acceſs into his preſence.

20 [62] And in as much and not without [63] an oath he was made prieſt, Chap. 7. 4068.

[62] Here is another argument from the words of the Pſalmiſt, to prove the ſetting up of a new Prieſthood, and the removing of the old. ¶ [63] Which argues the weightineſs of the matter, and the eternal continuance of Chriſt's Prieſthood.

21 (For thoſe Prieſts were made ‖ without an oath: but this [64] with an oath, by him that ſaid unto him, * The Lord ſware, and will not repent, Thou art a prieſt for ever, after the order of Melchiſedec.)

* Pſal. 110. 4.

[64] i. e. His call and conſecration was confirmed by the moſt ſolemn and unchangeable decree.

22 [65] By ſo much was Jeſus made a [66] ſurety of a [67] better [68] Teſtament.

[65] Ch. 8. 6. q. d. By how much the Prieſthood of Chriſt was better than the former, by ſo much the Covenant he was to be ſurety of, was better alſo. ¶ [66] i. e. One who has undertaken on our behalf to ſatisfie God's juſtice for our ſins, and make attonement for 'em, and to enable us to perform the conditions of the Covenant, and thereupon to aſſure us of God's love and favour. ¶ [67] Viz. Than that made with the Jews, in regard of (1.) Ordinances. (2.) Commands. (3.) Promiſes. (4.) Mediator. (5.) The clear manifeſtation of the good things bequeathed. ¶ [68] Covenant between God and us.

23 And they truly were [69] many prieſts, becauſe they were not ſuffered to continue by reaſon of death:

[69] Viz. One after another.

24 But this man, becauſe he continueth [70] ever, hath an ‖ [71] unchangeable prieſthood.

[70] John 12. 34. Rom. 6. 9. Rev. 1. 18. (For he continued to be a Prieſt even in his death.) ¶ [71] That paſſes not from one to another.

25 Wherefore he is able alſo to [72] ſave them ‖ [73] to the uttermoſt, that [74] come unto God [75] by him, ſeeing he ever liveth to make [76] interceſſion for them.

[72] To deliver from ſin and wrath, and to bring into a ſtate of preſent Grace, and a right to future bleſſedneſs, and to the enjoyment of it in due time. ¶ [73] In reſpect of all that is to be done about it. ¶ [74] John 14. 6. Believe in God and worſhip him. ¶ [75] In his way, with affiance in his merit, and faith in his perſon. ¶ [76] Ch. 9. 24., Rom. 8. 34. See there. 1 John 2. 1.

26 [77] For [78] ſuch an high prieſt [79] became us, who is [80] holy, [81] harmleſs, [82] undefiled, [83] ſeparate from ſinners, and made higher than the [84] heavens;

[77] q. d. It appears that our High-prieſt is ſuch a one as has been deſcribed, and able to ſave, becauſe— ¶ [78] Ch. 4. 14, 15. & 9. 24. ¶ [79] Was neceſſary in order to our ſalvation. ¶ [80] Viz. In his nature. ¶ [81] Free from all actual ſin in his Life. ¶ [82] That contracted no defilement from others: (and therefore need not intermit his ſervice, as the legal Prieſts were feign to do ſometimes till their purification.) ¶ [83] Diſtinguiſht from them in the perfect holineſs of his nature and life. ¶ [84] Eph. 4. 10. & 2. 21.

27 Who needeth not [85] daily, as thoſe high prieſts to offer up ſacrifice, firſt for his [86] own ſins, and then for the peoples: for [87] this he did [88] once when he offered up himſelf.

[85] As oft as occaſion required, Lev. 4. 3. & 9. 7. & 16. 6. ¶ [86] See on ch. 5. 3. ¶ [87] Viz. Offering for the ſins of the people. ¶ [88] Ch. 9. 12, 28. & 10.-10. Rom. 6. 10. 1 Pet. 3. 18.

28 For the law maketh * men high prieſts which have [89] infirmity; but [90] the word of the oath which was [91] ſince the law, maketh the Son, who is [92] † conſecrated for evermore.

* Chap. 2. 10. & 5. 9.

† Gr. perfected.

[89] Both ſins and weakneſſes of nature. ¶ [90] The will and promiſe of God declared in and by his Oath. ¶ [91] Declared by David, Pſal. 110. ¶ [92] Abſolutely freed from all ſuch infirmities as the other prieſts had.

Chap. 8. 4068.

CHAP. VIII.

NOW of the things which we have spoken, this is the sum: [1] We have such an high priest, who is [2] set [3] on the right hand of the throne [4] of the Majesty in the heavens;

[1] The Christian Church. ¶ [2] [3] See on ch. 1. 3. n. 16,17. ¶ [4] Of God (ch. 10. 12.) who displays his Glory in the Heavens.

2 [5] A minister ‖ of the [6] sanctuary, and of the [7] true tabernacle, which the [8] Lord pitched, and not man.

[5] Who being gone into Heaven, (ver. 1.) does now minister, or execute the remainder of his Office there, in his humane nature, by representing the merit of his sacrifice, (as the High-priest brought the blood into the most holy place once a year, Exod. 30. 10. Lev. 16. 15.) ¶ [6] Heaven, (ch. 9. 24.) the place of God's glorious presence: (typified by the Holy of Holies; where were the Mercy-seat and Ark, the symbols of God's presence with the Church of the Jews.) ¶ [7] His humane nature (of which the old Tabernacle was a type) wherein God dwells, and not only by shadows, (as in the old Tabernacle) but really, substantially, and personally. Christ was in his own Person, and what he did therein, to answer all those types of Priest, Sacrifice, Altar, Tabernacle, and what belonged thereto: he was the body and substance of 'em all: No one of 'em was able to represent the fulness of grace that was in him, and therefore there were many of 'em ordain'd for this end: and those of divers sorts. ¶ [8] Ch. 9. 11. The Holy Ghost prepared (ch. 10. 5.) and formed miraculously, Matt. 1.-20. Luke 1. 35.

3 [9] For every high priest is ordained to offer [10] gifts and sacrifices: wherefore * it is of necessity that this man have somewhat also to [11] offer.

* Eph. 5. 2.

[9] q. d. And it appears that Christ is a Minister, or Priest of the true Tabernacle, because he offers sacrifice, which none but the Priests might do. ¶ [10] See on ch. 5. 1. ¶ [11] Viz. In sacrifice to God, (and that was his whole humane nature, Soul and Body.)

4 [12] For if he were [13] on earth, he should not be a priest, [14] seeing that ‖ there are priests that offer gifts according to the law:

‖ Or, they are priests.

[12] q. d. And it appears further, that Christ was a minister of the heavenly Sanctuary also, and executes his Office in Heaven, because he did it not on Earth (for though his Priesthood were begun on Earth, by offering the sacrifice of himself, yet the continuance, and consummation of all is in Heaven, by his making intercession there.) ¶ [13] To have executed his whole Office of High-priesthood here on Earth. ¶ [14] i. e. Because there was a Priesthood settled on Earth already, and there could not be two Orders of Priesthood upon Earth together.

5 [15] Who serve unto the example and shadow [16] of heavenly things, as Moses was [17] admonished of God, when he was about to make the tabernacle. For [18] see (saith he) that thou make all things according to the pattern shewed to thee in the mount.

[15] Whose whole ministry was only about such things as had but a resemblance, and obscure representation of heavenly things, ch. 10. 1. Col. 2. 17. ¶ [16] Gospel-mysteries, viz. Christ himself with all that he did, undertook, and suffered, and still continues to do, ch. 9. 23. ¶ [17] Instructed in the Mysteries of the Gospel, concerning the Incarnation, Satisfaction, and Sufferings of Christ on Earth, and his Intercession in Heaven, and a Model given him of the Tabernacle, and all things belonging to it (whereby these Gospel-mysteries were represented) with a charge to make every thing answerable thereto. ¶ [18] Exod. 25. 40. Acts 7. 44.

6 [19] But [20] now hath [21] he obtained a [22] more excellent ministry, by how much also he is the mediator of a [23] better ‖ covenant, which was established upon [24] better promises.

‖ Or, testament.

[19] Here he passes from the Excellency of Christ's Priesthood above that of the Law, to the Excellency of the new Covenant above the old. ¶ [20] Under the Gospel. ¶ [21] Christ our High-priest. ¶ [22] 2 Cor. 3. 6. Viz. Than that which served only to a shadow of heavenly things. ¶ [23] Ch. 7. 22. See there, n. 67. ¶ [24] More spiritual, clear, and extensive.

Chap. 8. 4068.

7 [25] For if that first covenant had been [26] faultless, then should no [27] place have been sought for the second.

[25] q. d. It appears that this new Covenant is better than the old, because it is brought in the room of the former. ¶ [26] Ch. 7. 11. Rom. 8. 3. Gal. 3. 21. Every way sufficient and compleat to sanctifie the Church. ¶ [27] No way made; no occasion, (for God never alters things but for the better.)

8 [28] For finding fault [29] with them, he saith, [30] Behold, the [31] days come, (saith the Lord) when I will make a † new covenant with the [32] house of Israel and with the [32] house of Judah:

[28] q. d. It appears that that first Covenant was not faultless, because when God speaks of making a new Covenant, he does it by way of complaint, and finding fault with the former. ¶ [29] The people for breaking that Covenant, (which proceeded from the imperfection of the Covenant it self, that it could not afford sufficient help to make 'em obedient.) ¶ [30] Jer. 31. 31, 34. q. d. Because the Covenant they were under before, did not reform 'em, but that notwithstanding it, they were rebellious still, therefore behold---- ¶ [31] Viz. Of the Gospel. ¶ † Not in regard of the Substance, but manner of Dispensation, (1.) Being ratified afresh by the blood, and actual sufferings of Christ. (2.) Being freed from those Rites and Ceremonies wherewith it was formerly administred. (3.) Containing a more full and clear Revelation of the Mysteries of Religion, 2 Tim. 1.-10. (4.) Attended with a larger measure of the Gifts and Graces of the Spirit, Joel 2. 28. (5.) Propounded and extended to all, Matt. 28. 19. (6.) Never to wax old, or be abolished; as to this new Edition of it, ver. 13. ¶ [32] Whole Church of God, both Jews and Gentiles.

9 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers, in the day when I [33] took them by the hand to lead them out of the Land of Egypt, [34] because they [35] continued not in my covenant and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

[33] Manifested my infinite Condescention, and Almighty Power in their deliverance. ¶ [34] Or [which Covenant of mine they continued not in.] ¶ [35] Did not abide by the terms of it.

10 For [36] this is the covenant that I will make with the [32] house of Israel [37] after those days, saith, the Lord, †† I will † [38] put my laws into their mind, and [39] write them ‖ in their hearts: and * I will be to them a [40] God, and they shall be [41] to me a people.

† Gr. give. ‖ Or, upon. * Zech. 8. 8.

[36] Ch. 10. 16. ¶ [37] When the old Testament dispensation draws to an end, ¶ †† 2 Cor. 3. 3. ¶ [38] Give 'em the saving knowledge of my Will. An allusion to the putting the Tables of the Law into the Ark. ¶ [39] Effectually incline their hearts to yield obedience thereto. An allusion to the writing of the Law in the two Tables. ¶ [40] An All-sufficient Preserver, and Rewarder, and that in a more peculiar way, than under the first Covenant. ¶ [41] Owned by me, making profession of me, and living in obedience to me.

11 And * they shall [42] not teach every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for [43] all shall know me from the least to the greatest.

* John 6. 45.

[42] 1 John 2. 27. Not need any more to teach each other, that knowledge of God and the Messia, which was wrapt up in types and shadows: (for these things then will be made plain to the understanding of all Believers.) ¶ [43] Comparatively to what did before, i. e. very many shall attain to a more distinct and clear understanding of the Nature of God as reveal'd in Christ, and of their duty to him, than under the old Covenant.

12 [45] For I will be [46] merciful to their unrighteousness, and [47] their sins and their iniquities will I remember [48] no more.

[45] i. e. And then, thereupon (as Luke 7. 47.) they being thus sanctified and enlightened. ¶ [46] Matt. 9. 2. ¶ [47] Rom. 11. 27. ¶ [48] Viz. So as to punish 'em.

13 In that he saith, a new covenant, he hath [49] made the first old. Now that which decayeth and waxeth [50] old, is ready to vanish away.

[49] Thereby manifested, or made it appear to be old: (and therefore in due time shall be removed.) ¶ [50] Out of date; of no further use.

CHAP. IX.

‖ Or, ceremonies.

1 THen verily the firſt covenant had alſo ‖ [2] ordinances of divine ſervice, and a [3] worldly ſanctuary.

[1] Here he compares the old and new Covenant, in reſpect of the Services and Sacrifices, wherewith the one, and the other were confirmed. ¶ [2] Several Laws, Directions, Rites, and Inſtitutions, or Conſtitutions in the Worſhip of God, by the obſervation whereof they obtain'd a Ceremonial juſtification. ¶ [3] A Tabernacle made on Earth, and of Earthly materials.

* Exod. 40. * Exod. 26. 35. * Exod. 25. 30. Lev. 24. 5, 6. ‖ Or, Holy.

2 For there was a tabernacle made, * the [4] firſt [5] wherein was the [6] Candleſtick, and the [7] Table and * the [8] Shew-bread; which is called ‖ the Sanctuary.

[4] Viz. Room or part of the Tabernacle. ¶ [5] Theſe words [wherein was the Candleſtick, and the Table, and the Shew-bread] may be read in a Parentheſis. ¶ [6] Which repreſented the fulneſs of Light that is in Chriſt, and which by him is communicated to the whole Church, John 1. 4. ¶ [7] Noting the Communion of Saints with Chriſt, Luke 22. 30. ¶ [8] Noting that Chriſt is the bread of Life, and food of our Souls, (John 6. 32, 35.) who appears before God for us continually.

3 And after the [9] ſecond vail, [10] the Tabernacle which is called the holieſt of all:

[9] Exod. 26. 33, 36. Which divided the holy place from the moſt holy (as the firſt vail did the holy place from the Courts) and this was a type of Chriſt's Fleſh, whereby there's an entrance into Heaven for us, ch. 10. 20. ¶ [10] The inner room thereof; a type of Heaven, ch. 8. 2.

* Exod. 25. 10. & 26. 33. * Exod. 25. 21.

4 Which [11] had the [12] Golden Cenſer, and * the [13] Ark of the [14] covenant overlaid round about with Gold, [15] wherein was the [16] Golden pot that had [17] Manna, and Aaron's [18] rod that [19] budded, and * the Tables [20] of the covenant;

[11] Viz. For uſe (not in reſpect of its ſituation:) the principal uſe thereof being deſign'd unto the ſervice of the moſt holy place; as appears, Exod. 30. 6. for whenſoever the High-prieſt entred into the moſt holy place, he was to bring incenſe with him, taken in a Cenſer, from the golden Altar. ¶ [12] Rather [the golden Altar] becauſe elſe that is not mention'd; which yet was one of the moſt glorious, and moſt ſignificant Veſſels of the Sanctuary; as being a type of Chriſt, who by his mediation and interceſſion, gives efficacy to the Prayers of all Believers. ¶ [13] A type of Chriſt, who came to fulfil the Law, Matt. 5. 17. ¶ [14] Becauſe the Tables of the Covenant were kept in it, Exod. 34.-28. ¶ [15] 1 Kings 8. 9. i. e. Either joyning to it, as the golden Pot and Aaron's Rod did; or in it as the two Tables were. ¶ [16] Exod. 16. 34. Noting the Purity of God's Ordinances, wherein Chriſt and the precious things pertaining to him are kept together. ¶ [17] A type of Chriſt the bread of Life, John 6. 32, 33. Rev. 2. 17. ¶ [18] Numb. 17. 10. A dry ſtick; to note that Chriſt came from a ſtock, which was but like a withered branch, Iſa. 11. 1. ¶ [19] So Chriſt was manifeſted to be the promis'd Meſſia, notwithſtanding his meanneſs. ¶ [20] Deut. 10. 5. 1 Kings 8. 9. 2 Chron. 5. 10. 6 Now when theſe things were thus [26] ordained, the prieſts went [27] always into the [4] firſt Tabernacle, [28] accompliſhing the ſervice of God.

7 But into the ſecond [29] went the high prieſt [30] alone [31] once every year, [32] not without blood, which he offered for himſelf, and for the [33] errours of the people.

[29] To note, both Chriſt's entrance into Heaven (v. 24.) and our entrance, by him, unto the Throne of Grace, ch. 10. 19, 20. ¶ [30] To note Chriſt's appearing alone before God for us; and that but once, ver. 12. ¶ [31] Ver. 25. Exod. 30. 10. On one day only, viz. The day of Expiation, Lev. 16. 2. 3 [11] But in those [12] sacrifices there is a [13] remembrance again made of sins every year.

[11] q. d. But it was not so with them, as appears by the yearly repetition of them, wherein there was a continual remembrance made of sin, as of that which was not yet fully expiated. ¶ [12] Viz. On the day of expiation. ¶ [13] Lev. 16. 21. St. JAMES.

The ARGUMENT.

THE Apoſtle James obſerving a great degeneracy among Profeſſors both in reſpect of Faith and Manners, and an anſwerable growth of libertine Doctrines, as about God's being the Author of ſin, the ſufficiency of empty Faith and naked Profeſſion without Practiſe, &c. writes this Epiſtle to countermine theſe Errors, as alſo to comfort the believing Jews againſt the violence of the Perſecutions they underwent, and to awaken 'em out of their ſtupid ſecurity, Judgment being then at the very door. It is full fraught with excellent inſtructions, viz. how to bear Afflictions, to hear the Word, to mortifie vile Affections, to bridle the tongue, to ſhun Covetouſneſs, to ſubmit to God, to own Providence, how to behave our ſelves in time of approaching miſery, particularly in ſickneſs, and towards thoſe that err.

The [1] general Epiſtle of JAMES.

[1] Not written to any particular Church (as Paul's Epiſtles were) but to all Jewiſh Converts in general.

4 But [12] let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be [13] perfect and entire, wanting [14] nothing.

[12] Let it be improv'd to the higheſt degree of perfection (1.) by compoſing the heart to a ſweet, and humble frame under your ſufferings. (2.) bleſſing God for 'em. * Exod. 20. 13, 14.

12 [27] So ſpeak ye, and ſo do, as they that ſhall be judged by [28] the law of [29] liberty.

[27] So behave your ſelves without reſpect of perſons, either in words or deeds, that you may have an intereſt in Goſpel-priviledges, and be judged upon Goſpel-terms. ¶ [28] [29] See on ch. 1. 25. The Goſpel, whereby we are freed from the rigour of the Law, and conſequently ſhall be more ſeverely puniſht if we abuſe this grace, to unmercifulneſs (which he ſpeaks of in the next words) Heb. 2. 2, 3. & 10. 28, 29.

13 For he ſhall have [30] judgment without mercy, that hath ſhewed [31] no mercy; and * [32] mercy ‖ rejoyceth againſt judgment.

* 1 John 4. 17, 18.
‖ Or, glorieth

[30] Matt. 6. 15. & 18. 35. & 25. 41, 42. Luke 16.-25. ¶ [31] Viz. To his poor brethren (but all his kindneſs is confin'd to the rich.) ¶ [32] Where mercy dwells in a man it Enables him to rejoyce, and bear up his heart againſt the fear of condemnation, Matt. 5. 7. & 25. 35.

14 [34] What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man ſay he hath [35] faith, and have [36] not works? can [37] faith ſave him?

[34] Here he further preſſes works of mercy, by ſhewing the neceſſity of 'em to juſtification and ſalvation. The believing Jews being taught by Paul, not to ſeek juſtification or righteouſneſs by the works of the Law, thereupon ſome took occaſion to maintain, that a bare belief of, or aſſent to the truths of the Goſpel, was ſufficient for juſtification: therefore as Paul had proved, that we muſt be juſtified by faith only, without the works of the Law, (Rom. 3. 20--28.) So James here proves, that that faith by which we are juſtified, is ſuch a faith as is attended with works of new obedience. ¶ [35] A bare belief of, or aſſent to the truths of the Goſpel, v. 19. ſuch as that John 12. 42. and Acts 8. 13. ¶ [36] Ch. 1. 33. Matt. 7. 26. ¶ [37] Such a faith without works.

16 And * one of you ſay unto them, Depart in peace, be you warmed, and filled: notwithſtanding ye give them not thoſe things which are needful to the body; what doth it [39] profit?

* 1 John 3. 18.

[39] q. d. As good, charitable words only, without charitable deeds will not relieve a perſon in want, will do him little or no good, even ſo--

17 [40] Even ſo faith, if it hath not works, is † Gr. by it ſelf. [41] dead being † alone.

[40] 1 Cor. 13. 3. So a bare belief of the Goſpel (in oppoſition to Jewiſh or Heatheniſh errors,) which is not accompanied with Goſpel-obedience is but a dead faith, and will not profit him that has it. ¶ [41] Unable to convey ſpiritual life (which true faith does, Gal. 2. 20.) and to intitle to eternal life, and ſave, v. 14.

18 Yea, [42] a man may ſay, Thou haſt [43] faith, and I have [44] works: [45] ſhew me thy faith ‖ without thy works, and I will [46] ſhew thee my faith by my [47] works.

[42] Some true Believers may argue thus with ſuch a boaſting hypocrite. ¶ [43] Viz. Without works. ¶ [44] The fruits of my faith. ¶ [45] q. d. Prove to me by any good argument, if thou canſt, that thy workleſs faith is ſincere. ¶ [46] Prove the ſincerity of my belief of the Goſpel, and reſolution of obedience. ¶ [47] Matt. 7. 17. By the actual performance of what is required.

20 But wilt thou [49] know, O [50] vain man, that faith without works is [51] dead?

[49] See it proved to thee. ¶ [50] Who vainly boaſteſt and flattereſt thy ſelf with a conceit of faith, when as thou art deſtitute of the truth of it.

21 Was not Abraham [51] our father [52] juſtified by [53] works, when he had [54] offered Iſaac his ſon upon the [55] Altar?

[51] The father of all the faithful, and the great pattern of juſtification: ſo that all his ſpiritual ſeed are juſtified in the ſame way as he was, Rom. 4. 11. ¶ [52] Proved himſelf to be in a juſtified eſtate (Gen. 22.-12.) and accordingly owned by God for a righteous perſon. ¶ [53] By his obedience to God's command, (which was an act of faith too, Heb. 11. 17.) as well as by his believing God's promiſe. ¶ [54] See on Heb. 11. 17. ¶ [55] Gen. 22.-9.

II. PETER.

The ARGUMENT.

IN this second Epistle St. Peter puts the believing Jews in remembrance of some weighty Truths of the Gospel formerly delivered to 'em, the Certainty whereof he now further confirms, ch. 1. Warns 'em against Seducers, shewing both the greatness both of their Sin and Punishment, ch. 2. Assures 'em of the Certainty of Christ's coming to Judgment, though some scoff at it, and that therefore they should prepare for it by holiness of life, ch. 3.

[15] Or, [By whom] viz. him that hath called us. ¶ [16] Promises about exceeding great things, viz. Pardon and Life, (begun in Sanctification, and perfected in Glory,) with all the Blessings and Privileges that come between. ¶ [17] Of greatest value; and deserving our utmost esteem; being so suitable to our necessities and desires. ¶ [18] That by the consideration of these great and glorious things promised, you may be prevailed with to renounce the World, and forsake your former Lusts, and become new Creatures. ¶ [19] John 3. 6. Eph. 4. 23. Col. 3. 10. 8 For if these things be in you, and abound, [30] they make you, that ye shall neither be † barren, * nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

[30] q. d. Hereby it will appear that your knowledge of Christ, and the Gospel, has a mighty influence upon you, by engaging you to the performance of all duties both to God, your neighbour, and selves.

9 But he that lacketh [32] these things, is [33] blind, and cannot see [34] far off, and [35] hath forgotten that he was purged from his old sins.

[37] That you may not lack these things, but be fruitful in all grace. ¶ [38] Viz. By the exercise and increase of the forementioned Graces. ¶ [39] Both evident unto others, and also that you may thereby be assured in your own Souls, that you are such as are effectually called and chosen. ¶ [40] Exercise the forementioned Graces. ¶ [41] Come short of that Glory you are called and chosen to.

11 [42] For so an entrance shall be ministred unto you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

[42] Exercising these graces, and making your calling sure thereby, you shall have a lively sense, and assurance of your title to heaven, and free admission into it, and a large portion of eternal glory there.

12 [44] Wherefore I will not be negligent to put you always [45] in remembrance of these things, though ye [46] know them, and be established in [47] the present truth.

[58] I my self, with James and John. ¶ [59] Hallowed for the present, by the extraordinary manifestation of God's glorious presence, (as Exod. 3. 5.)

19 We have also a [60] more sure word of [61] prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye [62] take heed, as unto * [63] a light [64] that shineth in a dark place, * until [65] the day dawn, and * the day star arise in your hearts:

* John 5. 35. * Rev. 2. 28. & 22. 16.

[60] Viz. Than that voice from heaven, or any particular revelation: (not in it self, but to us; as being less subject to be mistaken.) ¶ [61] The prophecies of the Old Testament concerning the Messia (which have all been accomplisht in Christ, and which cannot be counterfeited, and to which all may have recourse for satisfaction.) ¶ [62] Acts 17. 11. ¶ [63] Psal. 19. 9. & 119. 105. 2 Cor. 4. 6. ¶ [64] Serving to conduct and guide you, while you are in this world: (which is full of ignorance and error, 1 Cor. 13. 12.) ¶ [65] Till you come to heaven, where you shall be fully enlightened with heavenly knowledge, 1 Cor. 13.–12.

* Rom. 12. 6.

20 [66] Knowing this first, that * no prophesie of the scripture is of any private interpretation.

[66] Considering and observing this especially, as a principal, fundamental truth, that no revelation of the Will of God, recorded in Scripture, is the conception, composure, or inditement of mens own Brains, or the suggestion of their own spirits; and accordingly no mans private natural understanding will enable him to understand it: (1 Cor. 2. 14.) but only that Spirit that wrote it.

* 1 Pet. 1. 11. ‖ Or, at any time.

21 For * the [69] prophesie came not ‖ in old time [70] by the will of man: but [71] holy men of God spake as they were moved by the holy Ghost.

[69] 2 Tim. 3. 16. ¶ [70] According to their own pleasure: they did not prophesie when they pleased (2 Kings 4.–27. Amos 7. 14.) nor what they pleased, Numb. 23. 12, 20, 26. ¶ [71] The Penmen of Scripture wrote every word which they delivered, as they were inspired, instructed, and enabled, beyond their own abilities, 2 Tim. 3. 16. 2 Sam. 21. 29. Being born up (as the word signifies) by an extraordinary impulse, so that they could not err.

CHAP. II.

1 He foretelleth them of false teachers, 10 and fully describeth their manners.

1 BUT there were false prophets also among [2] the people, even as * there shall be false teachers [3] among you, who [4] privily shall bring in damnable [5] heresies, even [6] denying [7] the Lord that * [8] bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction.

* 2 Tim. 3. 1, 5. Jude 18. * Heb. 10. 29.

* q. d. There were not only true prophets, whose writings we must give heed to (ch. 1. 19.) but also false, who were to be shunn'd (Deut. 13. 1–3.) and so must false teachers now. ¶ [2] The Church of the Jews. ¶ [3] Matt. 24. 11. Acts 20. 30. 1 Cor. 11. 19. 1 Tim. 4. 1. ¶ [4] Under pretence of new light and rare notions. ¶ [5] See on 1 Cor. 11. 19. ¶ [6] Jude 4. Partly by their works (Tit. 1. 16.) but chiefly by some false doctrine, which they teach. ¶ [7] Both God the Father, and Christ, Jude 4. ¶ [8] Deut. 32. 6. Paid a price for all; by vertue whereof wicked men also are at his disposal.

18 For when they [69] speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure, [70] through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonness, [71] those that * were ‖ clean escaped from them who live in error:

* Acts 2. 40. ‖ Or, for a little or, a while as some read.

[82] Prov. 26. 11. Their natures are never changed, neither were they inwardly renewed and cleansed.

CHAP. III.

11 An exhortation to godliness.

THIS second epistle, beloved, I now write unto you; in both which * I stir up your [1] pure minds by way of [2] remembrance:

* Chap. 1. 13.

[1] Sincere. ¶ [2] See on Rom. 15. 15.

2 That ye may be [3] mindful of the [4] words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and of the commandment of us the apostles of the Lord and Saviour:

[3] Ch. 1. 19. ¶ [4] Viz. That there should be mockers, Jude 18.

3 [5] Knowing this first, that there shall come in the [6] last days [7] scoffers, walking after their own lusts,

[5] Considering this in the first place: (and arming your selves against it.) ¶ [6] 1 Tim. 4. 1. 2 Tim. 3. 1. Jude 18. Viz. Of the Jewish-state. ¶ [7] Isa. 5. 19.

4 And saying, * [8] Where is the promise of his [9] coming? for since the fathers [11] fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the [12] creation.

* Isaiah 5. 19.

[8] Jer. 17. 15. Ezek. 12. 22. Mal. 2.-17. What's become of that coming of Christ you so threatned us with? ¶ [9] Viz. To judgment upon the Nation. ¶ [11] Were seized by death: (which you call sleep; And if so, sure it's high time for 'em to awake.) ¶ [12] q. d. And so they are like to do still, for ought we see, without any such change as you talk of.

5 [13] For this they willingly are [14] ignorant of, that * [15] by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth † standing [16] out of the water, and in the water.

* Gen. 1. 6, 9. † Gr. consisting.

[13] q. d. 'Tis meerly from gross, affected ignorance, that they reason, or argue after this manner. ¶ [14] Psal. 28. 5. ¶ [15] Psal. 33. 6. (and therefore, as he made 'em at first by his Almighty power, so he can easily destroy 'em again, if he please.) ¶ [16] Psal. 24. 2. & 136. 6. Partly above water, and partly under, (so that God has disposed of things as he pleases.)

6 [17] Whereby the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished.

[17] By which heavens and earth thus framed, and which did both contribute their waters to this inundation, (Gen. 7. 11.) the beauty of the earth was destroy'd, Gen. 7. 10, 21. (and therefore all things have not continued as they were at first; as these scoffers affirm.)

7 But the [19] heavens and the [19] earth which [20] are now, by the same [21] word are kept in store, reserved unto [22] fire against the day of judgment, and [23] perdition of ungodly men.

[19] The whole frame of this sublunary world. ¶ [20] Viz. In the same state and condition, which they have been in, ever since the flood. ¶ [21] Power and Pleasure of God. ¶ [22] 2 Thess. 1. 8. Then to be destroy'd by fire, so far forth as the old world was by water: (Not as to its substance, but only as to the form and qualities thereof, Psal. 102. 26. Isa. 34. 4. & 51. 6. & 65. 17. Heb. 1. 11.) ¶ [23] Matt. 13. 40. & 25. 41.

8 But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that [24] one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.

Chap. 3. 4069.

[24] Pſal. 90. 4. q. d. And though it may ſeem long to us e're Chriſt come to Judgment, yet he does not meaſure time as we do.

* Hab. 2. 3. Heb. 10. 37.

9 * The Lord is not [25] ſlack concerning his [26] promiſe, [27] (as ſome men count ſlackneſs) but is long-ſuffering to us-ward, [28] not willing that any ſhould periſh, but that [29] all ſhould come to repentance.

[25] Never delays his promiſe, beyond the appointed time. ¶ [26] Viz. To deliver his people, and puniſh the wicked. ¶ [27] Matt. 24. 48. As ſome are apt to think, when he does not perform his promiſe according to their expectation. ¶ [28] Iſa. 30. 18. Ezek. 18. 32. & 33. 11. ¶ [29] See on 1 Tim. 2. 4.

* Rev. 3. 3. & 16. 15. * John 14. 12. Rom. 8. 20. Rev. 20. 11. & 21. 1.

10 But * the day of the Lord will come as a [30] thief in the night; in the which * the Heavens ſhall [31] paſs away with a great noiſe, and the elements ſhall melt with fervent heat, [32] the earth alſo and the [33] works that are therein ſhall be burnt up:

[30] See on 1 Theſſ. 5. 2. ¶ [31] Pſal. 102. 26. Iſa. 51. 6. Matt. 24. 44. ¶ [32] Whatſoever in, and about the earth, has been infected, and defil'd with man's ſin. ¶ [33] All proud Palaces, and all ſuch monuments of men's vainglory, ambition, curioſity, and the like, ſhall then be deſtroy'd, and no remainders of them left.

11 Seeing then that all theſe things ſhall be diſſolved, what manner of perſons ought ye to be in all [34] holy converſation and godlineſs,

[34] Matt. 24. 42. Luke 21. 34, 36. (That ſo you may partake of the enjoyments of the world to come, when all the enjoyments of this world are at an end.)

12 [35] Looking for, and ‖ [36] haſtning unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire ſhall be diſſolved, and the elements ſhall melt with fervent heat?

[35] Tit. 2. 13. Aſſuredly expecting. ¶ [36] Earneſtly deſiring.

13 [37] Nevertheleſs we, according to his [38] promiſe, look for [39] new heavens, and a [39] new earth, [40] wherein dwelleth righteouſneſs.

[37] q. d. Though this world ſuffer ſuch a mighty change, being ſo depraved by ſin, yet before that— ¶ [38] Iſa. 65. 17. & 66. 22. Rev. 21. 1. ¶ [39] Heb. 2. 5. Such a ſtate of the Church here upon earth, wherein there ſhall be a wonderful reformation of all affairs, both Eccleſiaſtical and Civil. ¶ [40] Wherein holineſs and righteouſneſs ſhall take place in an eminent manner, and abound among all ſorts of perſons.

14 Wherefore, beloved, ſeeing that ye look for ſuch things, be diligent that ye may be found of him [41] in peace, [42] without ſpot, and [42] blameleſs:

15 And account that the [43] long-ſuffering of our Lord is ſalvation; even as our beloved brother Paul alſo, according to the [45] wiſdom given unto him, hath written unto you;

[43] His delay in coming to judgment, and his patience towards ſinners in the mean while, is intended by him as a means to bring you to repentance, (Rom. 2. 4.) and ſo to ſalvation. ¶ [45] That admirable, and divine inſight, and underſtanding which he has in the myſteries of the Goſpel, which appears in all his Epiſtles, but eſpecially in that to the Hebrews.

[46] Viz. Of the end of the world; of Chriſt's coming to judgment; Patient waiting for that time, &c. ¶ [47] Among which things treated of by him. ¶ [48] (Yet other things, and all things neceſſary to ſalvation, are clearly propounded, Deut. 29. 29. & 30. 11. Pſal. 19. 8. & 119. 105. Prov. 6. 23. 2 Pet. 1. 19.) ¶ [49] Thoroughly, and fully comprehended. ¶ [50] Unſkilful in the Scriptures, Heb. 5. 13. ¶ [51] Unſetled, and uncertain in their apprehenſions, and perſwaſions about theſe things. ¶ [52] Put falſe gloſſes and ſenſes upon them, and draw unſound conſequences from them. ¶ [53] (Inſtead of being the means of their ſalvation; as they were intended.)

17 Ye therefore, beloved, ſeeing ye know [54] theſe things before, [55] beware, leſt ye alſo being led away with the errour of the wicked, fall from your [56] own ſtedfaſtneſs.

[54] The danger of miſunderſtanding, and miſtaking the Scriptures, (and ſo being ſeduced and perverted thereby.) ¶ [55] Mark 13. 23. ¶ [56] That ſetledneſs in the faith, which you have hitherto maintained.

18 [57] But [58] grow in grace, and in the [59] knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jeſus Chriſt: [60] To him be glory both now and for ever. Amen.

[57] q. d. To prevent which falling away. ¶ [58] Ch. 1. 5. Eph. 4. 13. Matt. 13. 23. 2 Theſſ. 1. 3. Uſe the means appointed thereunto, 1 Pet. 2. 2. ¶ [59] Col. 1. 10. ¶ [60] See on Rom. 16. 27.

I. JOHN.

I. JOHN.

The ARGUMENT.

SAint John begins this Epiſtle after ſomething a like manner as he doth his Goſpel, viz. with a Deſcription of the Perſon of Chriſt both in reſpect of his Divinity and Humanity (both which were impugned by certain Hereticks, whom he calls Antichriſtians, and would arm 'em againſt) that they may preſs after more intimate communion with him, which can be attain'd only in a way of Holineſs, ch. 1. among other particulars whereof he much inculcates that of brotherly love, (himſelf being the beloved Diſciple.)

CHAP. I.

1 He deſcribeth the perſon of Chriſt, in whom is eternal life, 3 by a communion with God: To which muſt joyn holineſs of life.

[2] THAT which was from the beginning, [3] which we have heard, [4] which we have
*John 1. 14. *John 20. 27. ſeen with our eyes, * which we have [5] looked upon, and * our hands have [6] handled [7] of the word of life;

[2] Prov. 8. 22. John 1. 1. So much of that Perſon, who in reſpect of his Godhead was eternal. ¶ [3] That Doctrine of his, which we his Apoſtles have heard. ¶ [4] 2 Pet. 1.-16. So much of that Perſon, and thoſe miracles, which we have ſeen. ¶ [5] Heedfully viewed and obſerved. ¶ [6] Whoſe body and fleſh we have handled alſo, both before and after his Reſurrection, to prevent all poſſibility of miſtaking, or being impos'd upon, Matt. 14. 31. Luke 24. 39. John 13. 5. & 20. 27. ¶ [7] John 1. 4. & 14. 6. Of him who is the eternal word of the Father; who has life in himſelf, and communicates both natural and ſpiritual life to others.

2 (For [8] the life was [9] manifeſted, and we have ſeen it, and bear witneſs, and ſhew unto you [10] that eternal life which was [11] with the Father, and was [9] manifeſted unto us)

[8] The eternal Son of God, who is that eternal life which was with the Father. ¶ [9] Viz. In the fleſh, 1 Tim. 3. 16. ¶ [10] Chriſt, who lives himſelf for ever, and is the author of eternal life to us, John 10. 28. Heb. 5. 9. ¶ [11] John 1. 1, 2. In his boſome; of the ſame Nature and Eſſence with himſelf; and was with him from all Eternity.

13 I write unto you, [40] fathers, becauſe ye have [41] known him that is from the beginning. I write unto you, [42] young men, becauſe ye have [43] overcome the wicked one. I write unto you, [44] little children, becauſe ye have [45] known the Father.

[40] 1 Cor. 14.-20. Old men, and ancient, experienc't Chriſtians. Here he diſtinguiſhes the little Children, (v. 1, 12.) into three ſorts, according to their age, and meaſure of grace. ¶ [41] q. d. As old men commonly glory in their knowledge and experience, and love to be talking of former things, ſo you have attain'd to a greater meaſure of acquaintance and communion with God, (who is the Ancient of days, Dan. 7. 9.) and Chriſt (who is from the beginning, ch. 1. 1.) and therefore you ſhould more diligently keep his Commandments, (v. 3, 4.) and this particularly, of loving one another. ¶ [42] Who are in the flower and prime of your age, and are ſtrong in grace, v. 14. ¶ [43] As you are fit for, and commonly delight in, feats of War, ſo you have manifeſted your Spiritual ſtrength in your conflict with, and conqueſt of the Devil, and his Seconds, the World and Fleſh; and therefore take heed you be not hereafter foil'd by them. ¶ [44] Young in years, and raw in the knowledge of Chriſt. ¶ [45] As Children in the firſt place learn to know their Parents, ſo you have attain'd to ſome ſaving knowledge of God, and therefore you muſt be careful to behave your ſelves as Children towards him, by love, obedience, &c.

14 [46] I have written unto you, fathers, becauſe ye have known him that is from the beginning. I have written unto you, young men, becauſe ye are [47] ſtrong, and the word of God [48] abideth in you, and ye have overcome the wicked one.

Chap. 3. 4073.

8 * He that [29] committeth sin, is [30] of the devil; for the devil [31] sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might [32] destroy the works of the devil.

* Matt. 13. 38.

[29] Viz. Wilfully, habitually, delightfully, making a trade of it, and giving himself up to a course of sin. ¶ [30] A Child of the Devil (v. 10.) like him (John 8. 44.) acted and ruled by him, Eph. 2. 2. ¶ [31] He was the first that sinned, and still continues in it, and draws others to it. ¶ [32] Ver. 5. Matt. 12. 29. Luke 10. 18. John 12. 31. & 16. 11. Col. 2. 15. Take away both the power, guilt, and punishment of sin: (and therefore you should not live in it.)

9 Whosoever is [33] born of God, doth not [34] commit sin; for his [35] seed remaineth in him: and he [36] cannot sin, because he is [37] born of God.

[33] See on ch. 2. 29. ¶ [34] Ch. 5. 18. 1 King. 14. 8. viz. As wicked men do, who are not born of God, i. e. (1.) He does not allow himself in it in his Judgment, (Rom. 7. 15.) but his constant settled purpose and resolution is, not to sin, Rom. 7. 16. (2.) He does not yield full consent to it with his Will, but even when he does it he would not do it, (Rom. 7. 16–19.) and 'tis against his inclination. Rom. 7. 23. and consequently, (3.) He does not delight in it, but is grieved for it, and complains of it, Rom. 7. 24. (4.) He does not continue in it, but repents of it and returns from it. (5.) He does not sin the sin unto death, ch. 5. 18. ¶ [35] 1 Pet. 1. 23. John 3. 5, 6. The root of the matter, (Job 19. 28.) the new or divine nature, (2 Pet. 1. 4.) i. e. the principle or habit of grace, and holiness in the heart. ¶ [36] In the manner aforesaid, not deliberately, freely, delightfully, impenitently. ¶ [37] Endued by God with such a principle, as will not suffer him to do so.

10 [38] In this the children of God are manifest, and the [39] children of the devil: Whosoever [40] doth not righteousness is not of God, neither he that [42] loveth not his brother.

[38] q. d. And by this it will evidently appear to all, whose Children we are. ¶ [39] John 8. 44. Acts 13. 10. ¶ [40] Lives not a holy life is not God's Child, but the Devils. ¶ [41] Ch. 4. 8.

13 Marvel not, my brethren, if [3] the world [50] hate you.

[50] Prov. 29–27. John 15. 18, 19. & 17. 14. (And therefore you should so much the more love one another.)

14 [51] We know that we have passed from [52] death unto life, because we love the brethren: he that loveth not his brother, abideth [53] in death.

[51] Ch. 2. 10. & 5. 13. This is an evidence from whence we may assuredly gather. ¶ [52] From a state of sin, wherein we are liable to eternal death, to a state of grace, which is the beginning of life everlasting, v. 15. ¶ [53] Ch. 2. 9, 11. In a state of sin and death.

16 Hereby perceive we the [56] love of God, because he [57] laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the [58] brethren.

6 This is he [14] that came by water and bloud, even Jesus Christ; [15] not by water only, but by [16] water and [16] bloud: [17] and it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth.

[14] Was incarnate, and manifested himself to be the Son of God, the promised Messia, by fulfilling those types and ceremonies of the Law, which were performed by Water and Blood: the former whereof (noting cleansing from sin) he fulfilled, by cleansing us by his Spirit (signified by Water, John 7. 38, 39.) from the corruption of nature and defilement of sin, and so restoring the Image of God in us (Ezek. 36. 25, 27. Eph. 5. 25, 26. Tit. 2. 14. & 3. 5.) and also from the power of sin, Acts 3.-28. Heb. 9. 14. 1 Pet. 2. 24. and this is done in sanctification. The latter (which prefigured the expiation of our sins) he fulfill'd by shedding his blood to make satisfaction for our sins, and to merit for us freedom from the guilt and punishment of them (Rom. 5. 9. Gal. 3. 13. Eph. 1. 7.) and to restore us to the favour of God again: and this is done in Justification. A lively emblem and representation of both which, was the flowing of Water and Blood out of his side on the Cross: (mentioned only by John) John 19. 34, 35. ¶ [15] To note, that one of these benefits cannot be had without the other. ¶ [16] Acts 5. 31. Both must go together: because it will not avail us to be enabled to avoid sin and live holily for the time to come, except satisfaction be made for the sins of the time past. ¶ [17] q. d. And besides these two former evidences of his being the Son of God, the Spirit also witnesses the same, both in heaven (v. 7.) and on earth, v. 8.

7 [18] For there are [19] three that bear record in heaven; the [20] Father, the [21] Word, and the [22] holy Ghost: and these three are [23] one.

REVE-

REVELATION.

The ARGUMENT.

THis Book is the last of all the Books of Scripture, wherewith the whole Canon of Scripture is closed and sealed up: it's thus plac't, not because it's of least worth, dignity or value, (for the last or hindermost place in an Army is the second in Dignity) but because written last in Time, viz. about Anno Domini 95, as most Authors both ancient and modern agree. It's written in the Form of an Epistle, ch. 1. 4.

The Argument or Subject matter of it is expresst by the Spirit of God himself to be ἃ δεῖ γενέσθαι ἐν τάχει, things which must shortly come to pass, or, which will be shortly a doing, (ver. 1.) i. e. things Future, viz. chiefly, (not wholly excluding things Past and Present, as appears by ver. 19.) Hence it's called, a Prophecy, ver. 3. the Scope whereof is to give a general account and prospect of the Church, (chiefly at least, if not only, ver. 20.) from the Rise of the Gospel to the End of the World: and if any of 'em look towards the affairs of the Empire, 'tis but obliquely and at second rebound, (I think) as the Church was contained within the bounds thereof, or as they of the Empire were punish't for their Opposition to, and Persecution of the Church. And inasmuch as the Prophecies of this Book speak of the Church as it stood in relation to the Roman Empire, (as govern'd by Heathen or Christian Cesars, or Popes) and was contained within the bounds thereof; therefore they do primarily and especially concern the European Churches.

The whole Book consists of three parts. (1.) A Preface, ch. 1. 1–8. (2.) The Body or Visionary part, ch. 1. 9, &c. to ch. 22. 10. (3.) The Conclusion, ch. 22. 10–21.

The Visions are either

- Mixt, i. e. which have both a Literal or Historical, and also a Mystical or Prophetical sense; as the Vision of the seven Churches, and the Epistles to them, Ch. I, II, III.
- purely Prophetical: which are either
  - Principal, viz. the
    - Seals, Ch. VI.
    - Trumpets, Ch. VIII, IX.
    - Vials, Ch. XVI.
  - Additional: either
    - Preparatory to the
      - Vision of the seven Churches, Ch. I.
      - Seals, Ch. IV, V.
      - Trumpets, Ch. VII.
      - Vials, Ch. XV.
    - Explicatory of the
      - Seals, Ch. XII. 1–12.
      - Trumpets, Ch. XI. 1–14. & XII. 13–17. & XIII, XIV. 1–13. & XVII.
      - Vials, Ch. XI. 15–19. & XIV. 14–20. XVIII, XIX, XX.
    - Consolatory, Ch. VII. & X. & XI. 11, 12, 13. & Ch. XII. 14, 16. & Ch. XIV. 1–8. 13–20.

That I make the Vision of the seven Churches to have not only a Literal, but Prophetical sense: See some Reasons for it in the Preface, and in the Notes on ch. 1. n. 2. The Principal Visions purely Prophetical are three. (1.) The Vision of the Seals, which shows the Reign and Ruin of the Dragon, i. e. Heathen Powers of the Roman Empire. (2.) Of the Trumpets, which shows the Degeneracy of the greatest part of Christendom into Pagano-christianism, by the Rise, Growth and Reign of the Beast, or Antichrist. (3.) Of the Vials, which shows the gradual Declension and final Destruction of the Beast, and the Rise and Happiness of the Church in the time of the fifth Monarchy, by proportionable degrees. The Explicatory Visions show events more fully and clearly than the Principal: The Principal show what is done, these the Manner how, Instruments by which, and other Circumstances relating to 'em.

The Revelations of S. JOHN the [1] Divine.

[1] He was the same that was the Evangelist, and Apostle; but was so called (1.) for his plain declaring the Divinity of Christ, (2.) because he was so full of divine Revelations.

THE [2] revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave unto him, to [3] shew unto his [4] servants things which must shortly [6] come to pass; and he sent and signified it by his [7] angel unto his [8] servant [9] John:

[2] The discovery of divine things concerning the State of the Church in after-ages, (which before was hidden in the Counsel of God.) This Chapter contains a general Preface to the whole Book; and also, a glorious Description of Christ, preparatory to the Vision of the seven Churches: Which stately Frontispiece, and magnificent Porch, was not erected (surely) to lead meerly into a private building, for the use only, or chiefly, of those particular Churches, but (like the lofty Porch afore Solomon's Temple) was, doubtless, design'd for an entrance into a Fabrick which was intended, principally for the use of the whole Catholick Church, by giving a prospect of its affairs from first to last. ¶ [3] Ch. 22. 6. ¶ [4] Psal. 25. 14. & 119. 125. Dan. 12. 10. CHAP. II.

What is to be written to the Angels of the Churches of 1 Epheſus, 8 Smyrna, 12 Pergamos, 18 Thyatira: and what is worthy praiſe or diſpraiſe.

UNto the [1] Angel of the Church of [2] Epheſus, write, Theſe things ſaith he that [3] holdeth the ſeven ſtars in his right hand, who [4] walketh in the midſt of the ſeven golden candleſticks;

[1] See on ch. 1. 20. (To be Communicated to all the Members of the Church.) ¶ [2] This repreſents the firſt State of the Goſpel-Church, (when Chriſtians were full of fervent [Deſire] after the things of God,) beginning in the times of the Apoſtles, and ending about A. D. 63. ¶ [3] Ch. 1. 16. (See there.) Supports, ſupplies, protects his Miniſters from the beginning to the end. ¶ [4] Ch. 1. 13. Lev. 26. 12. Matt. 28. 20.

2 [5] I know thy works, and thy labour, and thy [6] patience, and how thou [7] canſt not bear them which are evil: and thou haſt [9] try'd them which ſay they are Apoſtles, and are not; and haſt found them liars:

[5] Ver. 9, 13, 19. & 3. 1. I obſerve exactly, ſo as to reward, or puniſh, as the caſe requires. The Miniſters are commended for what is good, or blamed for what is amiſs in their reſpective Churches, becauſe it depends much upon them, and they muſt be accountable, Heb. 13. 17. ¶ [6] In bearing perſecution, and oppoſition. ¶ [7] John 2. 15, 17. Suffer 'em to go uncenſur'd, but proceedeſt againſt 'em by Diſcipline, (which was ſtrictly exerciſed in thoſe Primitive times) who are Scandalous in Life, or Doctrine. ¶ [9] 1 John 4. 1.

3 And haſt [10] born, and haſt [6] patience, and for my names ſake haſt [11] laboured, and haſt [12] not fainted.

[10] Indur'd the contradiction of falſe Apoſtles. ¶ [11] Viz. In teaching the ſound, and trying the unſound. ¶ [12] Gal. 6. 9. 2 Theſſ. 3. 13.

Chap. 2. 4093.

4 Nevertheleſs, I have ſomewhat againſt thee, becauſe thou haſt [13] left thy firſt love.

[13] Jer. 2. 2. Gal. 5. 7. 2 Tim. 4. 10. Abated of that vigor, and fervency of Spirit in thy love to God and the brethren, which was in thee at firſt.

5 [14] Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the firſt works, or elſe I will come unto thee quickly, and will [15] remove thy candleſtick out of his place, except thou repent.

[14] Ch. 3. 3. ¶ [15] Jer. 7. 12. Matt. 21. 43. Bring ſuch a judgment as ſhall unſettle thee, and toſs thee about, (as it came to paſs in the ten Perſecutions.) The Golden Candleſtick is one of the Moveables in God's Houſe.

6 But [16] this thou haſt, that thou hateſt the deeds of the [17] Nicolaitanes, [18] which I alſo hate.

[16] Chriſt will paſs by nothing that is praiſe-worthy in his people. ¶ [17] Some that taught, that Fornication, and Adultery were no ſins; and did eat things ſacrificed to Idols, ver. 14, 15. The Church now hated theſe, and was a pure Virgin, free from ſpiritual Fornication, and human Inventions. ¶ [18] Ver.-15.

7 [19] He that hath an [20] ear, let him [20] hear what the Spirit ſaith unto the Churches, To him that [21] overcometh will I give * to [22] eat of * the tree of life, which is in the midſt of the paradiſe of God.

* Chap. 22. 2, 14.
* Gen. 2. 9.

[19] Ver. 11, 17, 29. and ch. 3, 6, 13, 22. & 13. 9. Matt. 11. 15. & 13. 9. This ſentence being uſually annext by Chriſt to his Parables, implies that theſe Epiſtles have a hidden, Myſtical ſenſe, as well as a Literal. ¶ [20] An enlightned underſtanding to conceive theſe Myſteries, let him apply himſelf to the ſearch thereof, and attend to the Counſel here given. ¶ [21] Fights againſt temptations as long as he lives, and overcomes the trials he meets with and keeps himſelf free from the corruptions of the times. ¶ [22] Partake of Chriſt, and his benefits, (ch. 22. 2.) and eternal life, Gen. 3.-22.

8 And unto the Angel of the Church in [23] Smyrna, write, Theſe things ſaith * the [24] firſt and the [24] laſt, which [25] was dead, and is [25] alive:

* Chap. 1. 8, 17, 18.

[23] This repreſents the ſtate of the Church under [Bitter] affliction, and perſecution by Heathens; till Conſtantine. ¶ [24] Ch. 1. 8, 11, 17. I, who was Firſt in the Field to begin this War, and will be Laſt there, to aſſiſt my friends, and diſcomfit my enemies. ¶ [25] See on ch 1. 18.

9 * I [5] know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art * [26] rich) and I know the [27] blaſphemy of * them which [28] ſay they are Jews, and are not, but are the ſynagogue of Satan.

* Ver. 2.
* Luke 12. 21.
* Rom. 2. 28, 29. & 9. 6.

[26] Viz. In my eſteem; being furniſht with Promiſes, Priviledges, and Graces, Jam. 2. 5. ¶ [27] Hypocriſie, (which is a real reproach to Chriſt.) ¶ [28] Call themſelves Chriſtians, yet deny the Faith upon Perſecution.

10 Fear none of theſe things which thou ſhalt ſuffer: behold, the [29] devil ſhall caſt ſome of you into [30] priſon, that [31] ye may be tryed; and ye ſhall [32] have tribulation [32] ten days: [33] be thou faithful unto death, [33] and I will give thee [34] a crown of life.

[29] Viz. By his Inſtruments, the Heathen Emperors. ¶ [30] This includes all ſorts of Perſecution. ¶ [31] Your patience, conſtancy, &c. may be apparent to all. ¶ [32] Be exerciſed with grievous troubles for a ſet time; and particularly, with ten ſeveral Perſecutions. ¶ [33] Continue ſtedfaſt in the truth though thou dieſt for it, and till thou dieſt; undergo Martyrdom patiently till Conſtantine, and then, by his obtaining the Crown, you ſhall be ſecure. ¶ [34] 1 Cor. 9.-25. 2 Tim. 2. 5. & 4. 7, 8. Jam. 1. 12.

11 * [19] He that hath an [20] ear, let him [20] hear what the Spirit ſaith unto the Churches, He that [21] overcometh, [35] ſhall not be hurt of * the ſecond death.

* Ver. 7. Chap. 13. 9.
* Chap. 20. 14. & 21. 8.

[35] Shall eſcape Eternal death, (though not Temporal.)

12 And to the Angel of the Church in [36] Pergamos, write, Theſe things ſaith he, which hath the [37] ſharp ſword with two edges:

[36] This

Chap. 2. 4093.

[56] This represents the Church in a state of [Exaltation,] and outward prosperity, under Constantine, &c. But afterwards when she did Apostatize, yet still there was a pure Church under the power of Rome; who is represented also by Pergamus, for her [Haughtiness, and Pride.] ¶ [57] Ch. 1. 16 With this weapon of the Word, the faithful followers of Christ in this succession defended themselves from Anti-christian corruptions, and assaulted their enemies.

13 [58] I know thy works, and where thou dwellest, even [59] where Satan's seat is: And thou [60] holdest fast my [61] name, and hast not denied my faith, even in those days wherein [62] Antipas was my faithful martyr, who was [63] slain among you, [64] where Satan dwelleth.

[58] This relates to those times when Anti-christ was gotten into the Throne, whose power is derived from the Devil, (ch. 13.-2.) and under whose Jurisdiction the true Church dwelt. ¶ [59] Heb. 10. 23. ¶ [60] The Doctrine of the Gospel, (whereby Christ is made known.) ¶ [61] Such persons as swim [against all] the stream, and set themselves [against the Pope:] particularly, the Waldenses, and Albigenses. ¶ [62] Ch. 11.-7. & 17. 6. ¶ [63] In that Church, which is a cruel adversary to all my true members.

14 But I have a few things against thee, because thou [64] hast there them that hold the doctrine of Balaam, who [65] taught Balac to cast a stumbling-block before the children of Israel, to [66] eat things sacrificed unto Idols and to commit fornication.

[64] Ezek. 44. 7. Some of you, though in your judgments you condemn the corruptions of the Church of Rome, yet you hold communion with her, and partake in her Idolatrous Eucharist, and comply too much with her. ¶ [65] Num. 25. 2, 3. & 31. 16. So they by their Doctrine, and example, draw others to adhere to her communion. ¶ [66] Num. 25. 1–3. To commit Idolatry, (by communicating in the Roman, Idolatrous Mass.)

15 So hast thou also them that [67] hold the doctrine of the Nicolaitanes, which thing I hate.

[67] Are guilty of fleshly lusts, and maintain the lawfulness thereof.

16 Repent, or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will fight against [68] them with the [69] sword of my mouth.

[68] Those corrupt members. ¶ [69] Ch. 1. 16. & 11. 5. & 19. 15. Isa. 4.-11. & 49. 2. 2 Thess. 2. 8. The Word is the great Engine, wherewith Christ did fight against, wound and overcome all Anti-christian powers.

17 [70] He that hath [71] an ear, let him [71] hear what the spirit saith unto the Churches, [72] To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the [73] hidden manna, and will give him a [74] white stone, and in the stone a [75] new name written, which [76] no man knoweth, saving he that receiveth it.

[73] Christ, and those Comforts which flow from him; which are excellent, secure, and rare. ¶ [74] Compleat Victory, and full and publick Absolution. ¶ [75] Ch. 3.-12. Eminent Honor following thereon. ¶ [76] 1 Cor. 2. 9. No by-stander.

18 And unto the angel of the Church in [77] Thyatira, write, These things saith the Son of God, who hath his [78] eyes like unto a flame of fire and his [79] feet are like fine brass;

[77] This represents the state of the true Church under the Church of Rome; who is so called at that time, either for her [Effeminacy] in worshipping the Virgin Mary; or for their frequent [Burning] alive the true professors of the Gospel. ¶ [78] See on ch. 1. 14. To see through all the pretences they have for their Idolatrous practices. ¶ [79] See on ch. 1. 15.

19 [80] I know thy works, and charity, and service, and faith, and thy patience, and thy works; and [81] the last to be more than the first.

[81] Matt. 13.23. Psal. 92. 13.

20 Notwithstanding, I have a few things against thee, because thou [82] sufferest that Woman * [83] Jezabel, which [84] calleth her self a propheteſs, to teach and to seduce my [85] servants * to commit [86] fornication, and * [87] to eat things sacrificed unto Idols.

[83] Ch. 17. 1. 1 Kings 16. 31. The Popish Hierarchy. ¶ [84] Pretend divine inspiration, and infallibility. ¶ [85] Such as make publick profession of my name. ¶ [86] Idolatry.

[86] Rom. 2. 4,5. 2 Pet. 3.-9.

21 And I gave her * [87] space to repent of her fornication, and she repented not.

22 Behold I will [88] cast her into a [89] bed, and [90] them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds.

[88] Ch. 17. 16. ¶ [89] A languishing condition, (by diminishing her glory, and strength; by the pouring out of the Vials, ch. 16.) ¶ [90] Ch. 18. 4.

Chap. 3. 4093.

23 And I will kill her [91] children with death; and all the Churches shall know that * I am he which [92] searcheth the reins and hearts: and * [93] I will give unto every one of you according to your works.

* 1 Sam. 16.7. 1 Chron. 28.9. & 29. 17. Psal. 7. 9. Jer. 11. 20. & 17. 10. Acts 1. 24. Rom. 8. 27.

[91] 2 Sam. 12. 14. 2 Kings 9. 22. & 10. 6. Her emissaries, and maintainers, ch. 16. 4–6. ¶ [92] See on Acts 1. 24. Can see through their fair pretences into their foul designs, and purposes. ¶ [93] Ch. 13. 10. See on Rom. 2. 6.

* Rom. 2. 6. & 14. 12. 2 Cor. 5. 10. Gal. 6. 5. chap. 20. 12.

24 But unto [94] you I say, and unto [95] the rest in Thyatira, As many as have not [96] this doctrine, and which have not [97] known the depths of Satan, [98] as they speak, I will put upon you [99] none other burden;

[94] The Pastors of my true Church. ¶ [95] Private members under your charge. ¶ [96] The Idolatrous Doctrine, and faith of the Romish Church. ¶ [97] Experimented, or approved the Mysteries of Infallibility, Transubstantiation, &c. Which proceed from Satan, and tend to nothing but Luciferian Pride, Superstition, Idolatry, &c. ¶ [98] Which they call depths, and mysteries; but if they are depths, they are depths of Satan. ¶ [99] Not such a multitude of ceremonies; as they will.

25 But [100] that which ye have already, [101] hold fast till I [102] come.

[100] The Rule of the Word ¶ [101] Ch. 3. 3, 11. 2 John 8. ¶ [102] Viz. In judgment against them, and for your deliverance.

27 * (And he shall [107] rule them with a rod of iron: [108] as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers) even as I received of my Father.

CHAP. III.

1 The Angel of the Church of Sardis is reproved. 10 Of Philadelphia, approved. 15 Of Laodicea rebuked. 20 Christ standeth at the door and knocketh.

AND unto the Angel of the Church in [1] Sardis, write, These things saith he that hath the [2] seven Spirits of God, and the [3] seven stars; [4] I know thy works, that thou hast a [5] name that thou livest, and art [6] dead.

[1] This represents the Protestant, reformed Churches. ¶ [2] Ch. 1. 4. See there; the fulness of the Spirit (John 1.-14, 16. & 3.-34.) and so has in readiness to bestow all needful grace. ¶ [3] Ch. 1. 16. & 2. 1. Governs the Pastors of his Church, and orders all its affairs as he pleases, (and therefore as he did at first form it under Paganism, and root out that (in the Ephesian state; where this title is used;) so he can renew it under Anti-Christianism, and root out that.) ¶ [4] Ch. 2. 2. See there. ¶ [5] 2 Tim. 3. 5. A more than ordinary repute for thy zeal, Orthodoxy, &c. ¶ [6] Viz. In comparison of what thou oughtest to be, and art thought to be: and this notes the great formality, and want of the power of godliness that abounds among Protestants.

2 Be [7] watchful, and [8] ſtrengthen the [9] things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works [10] perfect before God.

[7] Viz. Againſt error, ſuperſtition, and popery, and more lively both in publick, and private duties. ¶ [8] Viz. By a diligent uſe of the means. ¶ [9] Any purity of Doctrine, and livelineſs in practice, which is almoſt ſmother'd under a load of ceremonies. ¶ [10] Sincere, lively, and thriving.

3 [11] Remember therefore [12] how thou haſt [13] received, and heard, and [14] hold faſt, and [15] repent. * If therefore thou ſhalt not [7] watch, I will [16] come on thee [17] as a thief, and thou ſhalt not know what hour I will come upon thee.

[11] Ch. 2. 5. Let a freſh, and lively ſenſe of thoſe Goſpel-truths thou haſt been acquainted with ſince the Reformation, be reviv'd in thee, and have an anſwerable influence on thy practice. ¶ [12] With what frame of Spirit; how readily, and zealouſly. ¶ [13] Imbrac'd the true Apoſtolick Doctrine. ¶ [14] Ver. 11. & ch. 2. 25. Keep cloſe to the Rule of the Word, 1 Tim. 1. 19. ¶ [15] Viz. Of your inconſtancy, and inclinableneſs to return to Popery again. ¶ [16] Ch. 16. 15. In joy, and comfort, Eccl. 8. 9. (being conformed to me, Matt. 17. 2.) ¶ [23] Viz. Comparatively; and fit for it.

5 [24] He that [25] overcometh, the ſame ſhall be [26] clothed in white raiment, and [27] I will not blot out his name out of [28] the book of life, but * I will [29] confeſs his name before my Father, and before his Angels.

6 He that hath an [30] ear, let him [30] hear what the Spirit ſaith unto the Churches.

* See on ch. 2. 7.

7 And to the Angel of the Church in [31] Philadelphia, write, Theſe things ſaith he that is [32] holy, he that is [33] true, * he that hath the [34] key of David, he that [35] openeth, and no man ſhutteth, and [36] ſhutteth, and no man openeth:

9 Behold, I will make them of the [42] ſynagogue of Satan (which [43] ſay they are Jews, and are not, but do [44] lie) behold * I will make them to [45] come and [46] worſhip before thy feet, and to [47] know that I have loved thee.

[42] Ch. 2.-9. The Anti-chriſtian, Popiſh party: (ſo called, becauſe of their abominable lies, bloody murders, and Luciferian pride.) ¶ [43] Call themſelves Chriſtians, and Catholicks. ¶ [44] Falſly take upon them the profeſſion of Chriſt. ¶ [45] Being either truly converted, or ſo far convinc'd, as to joyn themſelves to the true Church. ¶ [46] Submit to thee, and imbrace the Ordinances of Worſhip. ¶ [47] Plainly diſcern by the great ſpreading of the Goſpel, and the power of godlineſs, how far I prefer thy integrity, ſimplicity, meekneſs, and purity, before all their impoſtures, perſecutions, pride, and ſuperſtitious, idolatrous practices.

10 Becauſe thou haſt [48] kept the [49] word of my patience, * I alſo will [50] keep thee from the [51] hour of temptation, which ſhall come upon [52] all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth.

11 [53] Behold, * [54] I come [55] quickly: * [54] hold that faſt which thou haſt, that no man [56] take thy Crown.

12 [24] Him that [25] overcometh, will I make [57] a pillar in the temple of my God, and he ſhall [58] go no more out: and * [59] I will write upon him the name of my God, and the [60] name of the City of my God, which is * [61] new Jeruſalem, which [62] cometh down out of heaven from my God: and [63] I will write upon him my new name.

[57] 1 Kings 7. 15. Shall then become a glorious Church, even the new Jeruſalem. ¶ [61] Ch. 21. 2. ¶ [62] Is of a divine Original. ¶ [63] Ch. 22.-4. 2 John ſeeth the throne of God, about which are four and twenty elders: 10 who lay down their crowns and worſhip him that ſate upon the throne.

1 After this, I looked, and behold, 2 a door was opened 3 in heaven: and the 4 firſt voice which I heard, was as it were of a 5 trumpet talking with me; which ſaid, 6 Come up hither, and I will ſhew thee 7 things which muſt be hereafter.

CHAP. VII.

1 The ſervants of God ſealed. 4 The number of the tribes that were ſealed. 9 An infinite number before the throne clad in white robes.

1 AND after theſe things, I ſaw four [2] Angels [3] ſtanding on the [4] four corners of the earth, [5] holding the [6] four winds of the earth, that the wind ſhould not [7] blow on the [8] earth, nor on the [9] ſea, nor on any [10] tree.

[1] This Chapter contains a Viſion Preparatory to the Viſion of the Trumpets, (ch. 8. & 9.) which foreſhewing a ſad calamity to befall the Viſible Church by Errors, and eſpecially, by the Defection under Anti-chriſt, thereupon Chriſt here ſhews his peculiar care of his Elect during that time, by ſealing and ſecuring them from that danger, v. 1–8. and likewiſe the certainty of the Churches delivery from that tryal, (by the Vials, ch. 16.) v. 9–17. And this Viſion relates to that time when the Church had reſt from open Perſecution. ¶ [2] Good Angels, Miniſtring here for the Elect. ¶ [3] Ready to obſerve, and obey Chriſt's Orders. ¶ [4] In every place where this judgment was a coming. ¶ [5] Reſtraining this judgment from preſent Execution., v. 3. ¶ [6] Dan. 7. 2. All ſorts of falſe Doctrins, (Eph. 4. 14. Jude 12.) eſpecially, Antichriſtianiſm; and Contentions. ¶ [7] Viz. For a certain ſeaſon. ¶ [8] The common ſort of profeſſors of the loweſt Rank. ¶ [9] The Clergy, or ſtate Eccleſiaſtical. ¶ [10] Profeſſors of the higher rank. No ſooner was the Church freed from open perſecution (under the ſixth Seal) but the Devil raiſes errors of all ſorts (ch. 12. 15.) and that with great violence, whereby many carnal, unſetled, conceited Profeſſors are carried away; which yet for a time were reſtrained by God's power.

2 And I ſaw another [11] angel aſcending from the [12] eaſt, having the [13] ſeal of the living God: and he cried with [14] a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to [15] hurt the [8] earth and the [9] ſea,

[11] Chriſt. ¶ [12] Bringing light, and comfort, (by the reſtraint of this Judgment) or, to ſhew, that he is the Prince of his Church, Ezek. 44. 2, 3. ¶ [13] Authority to beſtow the Spirit, and make the Word effectual. ¶ [14] Noting his Authority over thoſe Angels, and care of his Church, and the Imminency of the danger. ¶ [15] To execute judgment, (not to reſtrain it, as ſome underſtand it.)

[1]Chap. 6. 6. 3 Saying, * [16] hurt not the [8] Earth, neither the [9] ſea, nor the [10] trees, till [17] we have [18] ſealed the [19] ſervants of our God in their [20] foreheads.

[16] Ch. 9. 4. Forbear to execute this judgment. ¶ [17] Chriſt makes uſe of his Miniſters in this Work. ¶ [18] Ezek. 9. 4. Begun that work in them, whereby they ſhall be ſecured, and which ſhall be carried on ſucceſſively from age to age, during this defection. This Seal is (1.) the Blood of Chriſt applied by faith, Exod. 12. 13. (2.) The Spirit of God dwelling in his People, 2 Cor. 1. 22. Eph. 1. 13. & 4. 30. (3.) Holineſs of life, Exod. 28. 38. ¶ [19] Such as adhere to Chriſt againſt Antichriſt. ¶ [20] To inable them to make an open profeſſion of the truth.

4 And I heard the number of them which were ſealed: and there were ſealed an [21] hundred and forty and four thouſand, [22] of all the tribes of the children of Iſrael.

[21] Ch. 14. 1. Gen. 15. 5. Iſa. 4. 20. A conſiderable number were ſecured; though the defection was very general. ¶ [22] Of the pure Goſpel-Church, or Apoſtolick Chriſtians; who are the Spiritual ſeed of Abraham, and true Children of God.

5 Of the tribe of [23] Judah were ſealed twelve thouſand. Of the tribe of Reuben were ſealed twelve thouſand. Of the tribe of Gad were ſealed twelve thouſand.

[23] He is firſt named, to ſhew, that relation to Chriſt (who was of this Tribe) is the chief priviledge.

6 Of the tribe of Aſer were ſealed twelve thouſand. Of the tribe of Napthalim were ſealed twelve thouſand. Of the tribe of Manaſſes were ſealed twelve thouſand.

7 Of the tribe of Simeon were ſealed twelve thouſand. Of the tribe of Levi were ſealed twelve thouſand. Of the tribe of Iſſachar were ſealed twelve thouſand.

8 Of the tribe of Zebulon were ſealed twelve thouſand. Of the tribe of Joſeph were ſealed twelve thouſand. Of the tribe of [24] Benjamin were ſealed twelve thouſand.

Chap. 7. 4093.

[24] Dan and Ephraim are not mentioned, becauſe they were Ring-leaders to, and Harbourers of Idolatry, Judg. 7. 1 Kings 12. 28–30. Hoſ. 4. 17.

9 After this I beheld, and lo, a [25] great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, [26] ſtood before the throne, and before the Lamb, cloathed with [27] white robes, and [28] palmes in their hands;

[25] Ch. 11. 15. & 15, 1, 2. Dan. 7. 14. The true Church, after the begun fall of Antichriſt, in a flouriſhing condition, in reſpect of Increaſe, Liberty, and Extent. ¶ [26] Publickly ſerving, owning, and acknowledging God and Chriſt the Author of their Liberty. ¶ [27] Ch. 3. 5, 18. & 6. 11. & 7. 14. In token of their purity and freedom from Antichriſtian defilements. ¶ [28] To note their victory over Antichriſt.

10 And cried with a [29] loud voice, ſaying, * [30] Salvation to our God which [31] ſitteth upon the throne, and unto the [32] Lamb.

* Hoſ. 13. 4.

[29] Heartily and publickly. ¶ [30] Pſal. 3. 8. Iſa. 43. 11. Jer. 3. 23. We aſcribe the glory of our deliverance and happineſs to him. ¶ [31] Rules in his Church. ¶ [32] As the meritorious procuring cauſe of it; (and not our own merits, &c. as was uſed to be ſaid under Antichriſt) by becoming a ſacrifice for us, John 1. 29.

11 And all the [33] angels ſtood [34] round about the throne, and about the [35] elders, and the [35] four beaſts, and fell before the throne on their faces, and worſhipped God,

[33] They approve of, and concur with (v. 12.) the redeemed Church in their praiſe; as delighting in the proſperity thereof. ¶ [34] Ch. 5. 11. ¶ [35] Pſal. 34. 7.

12 Saying, [36] Amen: [36] Bleſſing, and glory, and wiſdom, and thankſgiving, and honour, and power, and might be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen.

[36] Ch. 5. 12. & 19. 1. Matt. 6. 13. They not only aſſent to what was ſaid by others (v. 10.) but add much more of their own, according to their greater meaſure of knowledge, and love to God; and heap up words to ſhew, that even Angels themſelves want words to expreſs the Glory that is due to God.

13 And one of the elders anſwered, ſaying unto me, [37] What are theſe which are arrayed in white robes? and [38] whence came they?

[37] He puts this queſtion to him, to excite him to enquire the more diligently into theſe things. ¶ [38] How came the true Apoſtolick Church in theſe days to be ſo proſperous, ſucceſful, and victorious?

14 And I ſaid unto him, Sir, thou knoweſt. And he ſaid unto me, Theſe are they which came out of [39] great tribulation, and have * [40] waſhed their robes, and made them [41] white in the [42] bloud of the Lamb.

* Heb. 9. 14. chap. 1. 6. See Zech. 3. 3, 4, 5.

[39] Antichriſtian tyranny and perſecution, ch. 13. 7. ¶ [40] Iſa. 1. 18. 1 John 1. 7. Obtain pardon of their ſins and are brought into this happy condition. ¶ [41] See n. 27. ch. 1. 5. See there. ¶ [42] By betaking themſelves to Chriſt's merits and ſatisfaction alone.

15 [43] Therefore are they [44] before the throne of God, and [45] ſerve him day and night in his temple: and he that ſitteth on his throne ſhall * [46] dwell among them.

* Iſaiah 4. 5, 6

[43] Viz. Becauſe they made uſe of Chriſt's blood. ¶ [44] Admitted into God's preſence (in the ordinances.) ¶ [45] Have conſtant fellowſhip with him therein. ¶ [46] Ch. 21. 3. Continue his preſence manifeſtly with 'em: (without any ſuch interruption as was afore, under Antichriſt.)

16 They ſhall [47] hunger no more, neither [47] thirſt any more, neither ſhall the [48] ſun light on them, nor any [48] heat.

[47] Iſa. 49. 10. There ſhall be no ſuch defect of Ordinances as under Antichriſt. ¶ [48] Pſal. 121. 6. Matt. 13. 6, 21. Nor any ſuch ſcorching afflictions, or perſecutions.

17 For the Lamb which is in the [49] midſt of the throne, * ſhall [50] feed them, and ſhall [50] lead them unto living [51] fountains of waters: and God ſhall [52] wipe away all tears from their eyes.

* John 10. 11.

CHAP. VII.

1 The ſervants of God ſealed. 4 The number of the tribes that were ſealed. 9 An infinite number before the throne clad in white robes.

1 AND after theſe things, I ſaw four [2] Angels [3] ſtanding on the [4] four corners of the earth, [5] holding the [6] four winds of the earth, that the wind ſhould not [7] blow on the [8] earth, nor on the [9] ſea, nor on any [10] tree.

[1] This Chapter contains a Viſion Preparatory to the Viſion of the Trumpets, (ch. 8. & 9.) which foreſhewing a ſad calamity to befall the Viſible Church by Errors, and eſpecially, by the Defection under Anti-chriſt, thereupon Chriſt here ſhews his peculiar care of his Elect during that time, by ſealing and ſecuring them from that danger, v. 1–8. and likewiſe the certainty of the Churches delivery from that tryal, (by the Vials, ch. 16.) v. 9–17. And this Viſion relates to that time when the Church had reſt from open Perſecution. ¶ [2] Good Angels, Miniſtring here for the Elect. ¶ [3] Ready to obſerve, and obey Chriſt's Orders. ¶ [4] In every place where this judgment was a coming. ¶ [5] Reſtraining this judgment from preſent Execution., v. 3. ¶ [6] Dan. 7. 2. All ſorts of falſe Doctrins, (Eph. 4. 14. Jude 12.) eſpecially, Antichriſtianiſm; and Contentions. ¶ [7] Viz. For a certain ſeaſon. ¶ [8] The common ſort of profeſſors of the loweſt Rank. ¶ [9] The Clergy, or ſtate Eccleſiaſtical. ¶ [10] Profeſſors of the higher rank. No ſooner was the Church freed from open perſecution (under the ſixth Seal) but the Devil raiſes errors of all ſorts (ch. 12. 15.) and that with great violence, whereby many carnal, unſetled, conceited Profeſſors are carried away; which yet for a time were reſtrained by God's power.

2 And I ſaw another [11] angel aſcending from the [12] eaſt, having the [13] ſeal of the living God: and he cried with [14] a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to [15] hurt the [8] earth and the [9] ſea,

[11] Chriſt. ¶ [12] Bringing light, and comfort, (by the reſtraint of this Judgment) or, to ſhew, that he is the Prince of his Church, Ezek. 44. 2, 3. ¶ [13] Authority to beſtow the Spirit, and make the Word effectual. ¶ [14] Noting his Authority over thoſe Angels, and care of his Church, and the Imminency of the danger. ¶ [15] To execute judgment, (not to reſtrain it, as ſome underſtand it.)

[1]Chap. 6. 6. 3 Saying, * [16] hurt not the [8] Earth, neither the [9] ſea, nor the [10] trees, till [17] we have [18] ſealed the [19] ſervants of our God in their [20] foreheads.

[16] Ch. 9. 4. Forbear to execute this judgment. ¶ [17] Chriſt makes uſe of his Miniſters in this Work. ¶ [18] Ezek. 9. 4. Begun that work in them, whereby they ſhall be ſecured, and which ſhall be carried on ſucceſſively from age to age, during this defection. This Seal is (1.) the Blood of Chriſt applied by faith, Exod. 12. 13. (2.) The Spirit of God dwelling in his People, 2 Cor. 1. 22. Eph. 1.–13. & 4. 30. (3.) Holineſs of life, Exod. 28. 38. ¶ [19] Such as adhere to Chriſt againſt Antichriſt. ¶ [20] To inable them to make an open profeſſion of the truth.

4 And I heard the number of them which were ſealed: and there were ſealed an [21] hundred and forty and four thouſand, [22] of all the tribes of the children of Iſrael.

[21] Ch. 14. 1. Gen. 15. 5. Iſa. 4. 20. A conſiderable number were ſecured; though the defection was very general. ¶ [22] Of the pure Goſpel-Church, or Apoſtolick Chriſtians; who are the Spiritual ſeed of Abraham, and true Children of God.

5 Of the tribe of [23] Judah were ſealed twelve thouſand. Of the tribe of Reuben were ſealed twelve thouſand. Of the tribe of Gad were ſealed twelve thouſand.

[23] He is firſt named, to ſhew, that relation to Chriſt (who was of this Tribe) is the chief priviledge.

6 Of the tribe of Aſer were ſealed twelve thouſand. Of the tribe of Napthalim were ſealed twelve thouſand. Of the tribe of Manaſſes were ſealed twelve thouſand.

7 Of the tribe of Simeon were ſealed twelve thouſand. Of the tribe of Levi were ſealed twelve thouſand. Of the tribe of Iſſachar were ſealed twelve thouſand.

8 Of the tribe of Zebulon were ſealed twelve thouſand. Of the tribe of Joſeph were ſealed twelve thouſand. Of the tribe of [24] Benjamin were ſealed twelve thouſand. Chap. 7. 4093.

[24] Dan and Ephraim are not mentioned, becauſe they were Ring-leaders to, and Harbourers of Idolatry, Judg. 7. 1 Kings 12. 28–30. Hoſ. 4. 17.

9 After this I beheld, and lo, a [25] great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, [26] ſtood before the throne, and before the Lamb, cloathed with [27] white robes, and [28] palmes in their hands;

[25] Ch. 11. 15. & 15, 1, 2. Dan. 7. 14. The true Church, after the begun fall of Antichriſt, in a flouriſhing condition, in reſpect of Increaſe, Liberty, and Extent. ¶ [26] Publickly ſerving, owning, and acknowledging God and Chriſt the Author of their Liberty. ¶ [27] Ch. 3. 5, 18. & 6. 11. & 7. 14. In token of their purity and freedom from Antichriſtian defilements. ¶ [28] To note their victory over Antichriſt.

10 And cried with a [29] loud voice, ſaying, * [30] Salvation to our God which [31] ſitteth upon the * Hoſ. 13. 4. throne, and unto the [32] Lamb.

[29] Heartily and publickly. ¶ [30] Pſal. 3. 8. Iſa. 43.–11, Jer. 3.–23. We aſcribe the glory of our deliverance and happineſs to him. ¶ [31] Rules in his Church. ¶ [32] As the meritorious procuring cauſe of it; (and not our own merits, &c. as was uſed to be ſaid under Antichriſt) by becoming a ſacrifice for us, John 1. 29.

11 And all the [33] angels ſtood [34] round about the throne, and about the [35] elders, and the [35] four beaſts, and fell before the throne on their faces, and worſhipped God,

[33] They approve of, and concur with (v. 12.) the redeemed Church in their praiſe; as delighting in the proſperity thereof. ¶ [34] Ch. 5. 11. ¶ [35] Pſal. 34. 7.

12 Saying, [33] Amen: [36] Bleſſing, and glory, and wiſdom, and thankſgiving, and honour, and power, and might be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen.

[36] Ch. 5. 12. & 19. 1. Matt. 6. 13. They not only aſſent to what was ſaid by others (v. 10.) but add much more of their own, according to their greater meaſure of knowledge, and love to God; and heap up words to ſhew, that even Angels themſelves want words to expreſs the Glory that is due to God.

13 And one of the elders anſwered, ſaying unto me, [37] What are theſe which are arrayed in white robes? and [38] whence came they?

[37] He puts this queſtion to him, to excite him to enquire the more diligently into theſe things. ¶ [38] How came the true Apoſtolick Church in theſe days to be ſo proſperous, ſucceſful, and victorious?

14 And I ſaid unto him, Sir, thou knoweſt. And he ſaid unto me, Theſe are they which came out of [39] great tribulation, and have * [40] waſhed * Heb. 9. 14. their robes, and made them [41] white in the [42] bloud chap. 1. 6. of the Lamb. See Zech. 3. 3, 4, 5.

[39] Antichriſtian tyranny and perſecution, ch. 13. 7. ¶ [40] Iſa. 1. 18. 1 John 1. 7. Obtain pardon of their ſins and are brought into this happy condition. ¶ [41] See n. 27. ch. 1. 5. See there. ¶ [42] By betaking themſelves to Chriſt's merits and ſatisfaction alone.

15 [43] Therefore are they [44] before the throne of God, and [45] ſerve him day and night in his temple: and he that ſitteth on his throne ſhall * [46] dwell a- * Iſaiah 4. 5, 6 mong them.

[43] Viz. Becauſe they made uſe of Chriſt's blood. ¶ [44] Admitted into God's preſence (in the ordinances.) ¶ [45] Have conſtant fellowſhip with him therein. ¶ [46] Ch. 21. 3. Continue his preſence manifeſtly with 'em: (without any ſuch interruption as was afore, under Antichriſt.)

16 They ſhall [47] hunger no more, neither [47] thirſt any more, neither ſhall the [48] ſun light on them, nor any [48] heat.

[47] Iſa. 49. 10. There ſhall be no ſuch defect of Ordinances as under Antichriſt. ¶ [48] Pſal. 121. 6. Matt. 13. 6, 21. Nor any ſuch ſcorching afflictions, or perſecutions.

17 For the Lamb which is in the [49] midſt of the throne, * ſhall [50] feed them, and ſhall [50] lead them * John 10. 11. unto living [51] fountains of waters: and God ſhall [52] wipe away all tears from their eyes.

CHAP. VIII.

1 At the opening of the ſeventh ſeal, 2 ſeven trumpets are given to ſeven angels. 3 And to another much incenſe to offer with prayers of the ſaints.

[1] AND when he had opened the ſeventh ſeal, there was [2] ſilence in heaven about the ſpace of half an hour.

[1] Here begins the Viſion of the Trumpets, (or ſecond Period of the Church) which ſhew the Riſe and Growth of Antichriſt, and the Churches defection under him, by ſeveral ſteps. (1.) Hereticks (chiefly, Arius) undermine fundamental Truths. (2.) The Devil corrupts Church-Government, by inflaming Church-men with pride, and contention about it. (3.) Then many Miniſters, and ſome eminent ones, as Pelagius, are infected with the Doctrine of Free-will, Juſtification by Works, Merit, Purgatory, &c. (4.) The Scripture it ſelf is darkned by Traditions brought inſtead of it, and Religion is much decay'd by Ignorance, Will-worſhip, and Ceremonies, inſtead of Divine Inſtitutions. And then (5.) Out of this darkneſs, Antichriſt ſtarts up, and appears in his colours, who had been working under ground all along the former Trumpets. Whereupon (6.) follows Mahomet, as the world's ſcourge for theſe ſins; till the Vials make a turn. ¶ [2] Peace in the Church, (in the beginning of Conſtantine's Reign) for a little while.

2 And I ſaw the ſeven [3] angels which [4] ſtood before God; and to them were given ſeven [5] trumpets.

[3] Inſtruments eſpecially deſign'd by God for this ſervice. ¶ [4] Ready to execute his commands. ¶ [5] To ſound an alarm, and give warning to his People of approaching Judgment, and to muſter up Evils againſt the wicked.

3 And [6] another Angel came and [7] ſtood at the altar, having a [8] golden cenſer; and there was given unto him [9] much incenſe, that he ſhould [10] offer it with * the prayers of all ſaints upon the [11] golden altar, which was before the throne.

‖ Or, add it to the prayers.

* Chap. 5. 8.

[6] Chriſt. ¶ [7] Interceding for his People, for pardon of their ſins, and rendring their prayers available for their preſervation from the ſtorm approaching. ¶ [8] Noting his Office of Mediator. ¶ [9] Abundant Merits. ¶ [10] Or [add it to the prayers.] ¶ [11] His Godhead.

4 And * the [12] ſmoke of the incenſe which came with the prayers of the ſaints, [13] aſcended up before God, [14] out of the angels hand.

* Pſal. 141. 2.

[12] The vertue, and actual application of his Merits. ¶ [13] Acts 10. 4. Procured acceptation. ¶ [14] As preſented by him.

5 And the [6] angel took the [8] cenſer, and [15] filled it with [15] fire of the altar, and [15] caſt it ‖ into the [16] earth: and * there were [17] voices, and [17] thundrings, and [17] lightnings, and an [18] earthquake.

‖ Or, upon.

* Chap. 16. 18.

[15] Ezek. 10. 2. Luke 12. 49. So order'd it by his Providence that there ſhould be contentions about his Mediatorſhip, and other matters of Religion. ¶ [16] The viſible Church grown earthly. ¶ [17] Ch. 4. 5. Such manifeſtations of God, as ſhould bring ſwift, and terrible Judgments, Pſal. 18. 13. Jer. 25. 30. ¶ [18] A great change of Affairs.

6 And the ſeven angels which had the ſeven trumpets, prepared themſelves to ſound.

7 The firſt angel ſounded, and there followed [19] hail and [20] fire [21] mingled with blood, and they were [22] caſt upon the [22] earth: and the [23] third part of trees was burnt up, and all [24] green graſs was [25] burnt up.

[19] Exod. 9. 24. Pſal. 18. 13. Falſe Doctrine, and Hereſie; particularly Arianiſm. As true Doctrine is ſignified by Rain (Deut. 32. 2.) and by Water (Iſa. 12. 3. & 55. 1.) ſo falſe Doctrine is ſignified by Hail, becauſe (1.) the Spirit of God (compar'd alſo to Water, Zech. 14. 8. John 4. 10, 14. & 7. 38, 39.) is departed from it. (2.) It proceeds from coldneſs in the practice of Religion. (3.) It is hurtful to the Souls of men, as Hail is to Corn, and Fruit. The plague of this Trumpet is the corruption, and decay of Religion in men's hearts, and lives. ¶ [20] Contention, and zeal for their corrupt opinions. ¶ [21] Cauſing perſecution of thoſe that oppoſe them. ¶ [22] Had a great influence upon Profeſſors, to make 'em degenerate into a looſe, carnal, worldly converſation. ¶ [23] A conſiderable number of eminent Profeſſors were infected therewith; ſo that the purity of their Faith, and Love was deſtroy'd. ¶ [24] The loweſt rank of Chriſtians, or common ſort of Profeſſors.

8 And the ſecond angel ſounded, and as it were a [27] great mountain [28] burning with fire was caſt into the [29] ſea; and the [30] third part of the ſea became blood:

[27] A Spirit of Pride, and Ambition. ¶ [28] Jer. 51. 25. Filling them with quarrels, and contentions about Precedency. ¶ [29] The ſtate Eccleſiaſtical, or Clergy-men, (now grown turbulent, and unquiet.) ¶ [30] A conſiderable number of the Clergy became perſecutive, and bloody-minded.

9 And the [30] third part of the [32] creatures which were in the ſea, and had [33] life, [34] died; and the third part of the [35] ſhips were [36] deſtroyed.

[32] The inferior Clergy. ¶ [33] Any appearance of Religion. ¶ [34] Loſt all ſavour of Religion. ¶ [35] Ch. 18. 19. Church-men of higher rank; as Biſhops, &c. Iſa. 2. 16. compar'd with, v. 12. ¶ [36] Undone by pride, and ſelf-ſeeking.

10 And the third angel ſounded, and there fell a [37] great ſtar [38] from heaven, [39] burning as it were a lamp, and it fell upon the third part of the [40] rivers, and upon the [40] fountains of waters:

[37] Iſa. 14. 12. Some eminent Church-man, particularly, Pelagius. ¶ [38] The purity of the Goſpel. ¶ [39] Flaming with great heat of Spirit, and making a great ſhew, but not having much reality. ¶ [40] The truths of the Goſpel, and the way of conveying them, by the Ordinances, were much corrupted.

11 And the name of the ſtar is calld [41] Wormwood: and the third part of the [40] waters became [41] wormwood; and many men [42] died of the waters, becauſe they were made bitter.

[41] Deut. 29. 15. Heb. 12. 15. Becauſe it imbitters, and corrupts the ſweet truths of the Goſpel. ¶ [42] Viz. Spiritually, becauſe theſe Doctrines, thus corrupted, could not prove effectual for the begetting Spiritual Life.

12 And the fourth angel ſounded, and the third part of the [43] ſun was ſmitten, and the third part of the [43] moon, and the third part of the [43] ſtars; ſo as the third part of them was darkened, and the day ſhone not for a third part of it, and the night likewiſe.

[43] Iſa. 13. 10. Ezek. 32. 7. Light of all ſorts, both of Doctrine, Worſhip, and a holy Life, grown dim, and much decay'd, by humane Traditions, Ceremonies, and other Superſtitions.

13 And I beheld, and heard an angel [44] flying [45] through the midſt of heaven, [46] ſaying with a loud voice, Wo, wo, wo, to the [47] inhabiters of the earth, by reaſon of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels which are yet to ſound.

[44] Noting, a ſpeedy, and earneſt endeavour. ¶ [45] Ch. 14. 16. In the open view of the Church; ſo as to be ſeen, and heard of all; and yet out of the reach of danger, or humane oppoſition. ¶ [46] Warning the People of God to prepare for the following Judgments. ¶ [47] The Members of the viſible, degenerate Church.

CHAP. IX.

1 The fifth angel ſounding, a ſtar falleth from heaven, to whom is given the key of the bottomleſs pit. 2 He openeth the pit, and locuſts come forth.

AND the fifth angel ſounded, and I ſaw a [1] ſtar fall from heaven unto the earth: and to him was [4] given the [5] key of * the bottomleſs pit.

* Luke 8. 31. Chap. 17. 8.

[1] 1 Tim. 4. 1, 2. An eminent Church-man: the Biſhop of Rome, fall from being a Member of the true Church, and from heavenly Doctrine, and Converſation, to worldly Deſigns, Grandeur, Converſation, and Religion. ¶ [4] Viz. By the Dragon, (ch. 13. 2.) the Devil, (God permitting it.) ¶ [5] Power to advance the intereſt of Hell in the deſtruction of Souls, and to exerciſe ſuch an authority, as is not derived from, or allowed by Chriſt.

2 And he [6] opened the bottomleſs pit, and there aroſe a [7] ſmoke out of the pit, [8] as the ſmoke of of a great furnace; and the [9] sun and the [9] air were [10] darkened, by reason of the smoke of the pit.

[6] Used all his endeavours to promote that interest, and to bring men into such a condition as that they shall fall into destruction. ¶ [7] Idolatrous, and superstitious Doctrines and Practices. ¶ [8] Many errors one upon the back of another. ¶ [9] The light, and purity of the Doctrine of Christ. ¶ [10] This darkning was brought about, by forbidding the Scriptures to be read by the common people, performing their Worship in an unknown Tongue, crying up Ignorance as the mother of Devotion, parting Christ's Mediatory Office between him, and Saints, and Angels, &c.

3 And there came out of the [7] smoke [11] locusts [12] upon the earth; and unto them was [13] given power, as the [14] scorpions of the earth have power.

[11] Their multitude of religious Orders (as they call them) of Monks, Friars, &c. ¶ [12] Swarming in this Antichristian Church, and living after a carnal manner. ¶ [13] Viz. By the Pope, their King, v. 11. (who creates, and confirms these Orders.) ¶ [14] To instill poisonous Doctrines, and so wound Souls to death.

* Chap. 6. 6. 4 And it was [15] commanded them, * that they should [16] not hurt the [17] grass of the earth, neither any [17] green thing, neither any [17] tree; but only those men which have not * the [18] seal of God in their foreheads.

* See Exod. 12. 23. Ezek. 9. 4.

[15] Viz. By God's over-ruling Providence. ¶ [16] Ch. 7. 3. Matt. 24. 24. Isa. 3. 10. ¶ [17] Such as have any spiritual Life in them; whether of the lower, or higher sort. ¶ [18] Ch. 7. 3, 4. See there.

5 And to them it was given that they should not [19] kill [20] them, but that they should be [21] tormented [22] five months: and their torment was [23] as the torment of a scorpion, when he striketh a man.

[19] Viz. With bodily death. ¶ [20] The unsealed ones; their own Creatures, and Vassals. ¶ [21] Viz. Spiritually, with uncomfortable Doctrines. ¶ [22] A considerable time. ¶ [23] A dangerous, vexing torment.

* Isa. 2. 19. Chap. 6. 16. 6 And in those days * shall men [24] seek [25] death, and shall not [26] find it; and shall desire to die, and [27] death shall flee from them.

[24] Job 3. 21. & 7. 15. Jer. 8. 3. viz. By reason of their anxiety of Spirit, proceeding from their disquieting Doctrines. ¶ [25] Something to give them ease. ¶ [26] Nothing of all their trumpery can relieve them. ¶ [27] Their hope of relief shall be taken away by fear of Purgatory.

7 And the shapes of the locusts were like unto [28] horses prepared unto battel; and on their heads were as it were [29] crowns [30] like gold, and their [31] faces were as the faces of men.

[28] Joel 2. 4. with ch. 1. 4, 6. Jer. 5. 8. Stout and speedy in prosecuting any Antichristian designs; and used by the Pope as his Malitia, or instruments therein. ¶ [29] Noting, their outward grandeur, usurped authority, and reverence among the multitude. ¶ [30] Their authority was but counterfeit. ¶ [31] Eph. 4. 14. Plausible pretences, and seeming courtesie.

8 And they had [32] hair as the hair of women, and their [33] teeth were as the teeth of lions.

[32] Noting, their effeminateness, lusts, wantonness, and alluring others to spiritual Fornication. ¶ [33] Joel 1. 6. Mic. 3. 5. Noting, their cunning cruelty and rapine, in devouring Estates, and destroying Souls and Bodies.

9 And they had [34] breast-plates, as it were breast-plates of iron; and the sound of their [35] wings was as the sound of chariots, of many horses running to battel.

[34] Ch. 17. 13. Great Priviledges, (whereby they were secured from the secular Power.) ¶ [35] The prosecution of their designs is with much noise, and terror to opposers, by their Excommunications, Purgatory, &c.

10 And they had [36] tails like unto scorpions, and there were [37] stings in their tails: and their power was to hurt men [22] five months.

[36] Insinuating ways to spread their errors, Isa. 9. 15. ¶ [37] Their fair speeches prove destructive in the end.

11 And they had a [38] king over them, which is the [39] angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is [40] Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name ‖ [40] Apollyon.

[38] The Pope, now arrived at his height, gotten into the Throne, and become the seventh Head of the Beast, (who lives in Royal state, and exercises absolute authority over all the Clergy.) ¶ [39] One eminently employ'd for the interest of the Kingdom of darkness. ¶ [40] A most horrible destroyer of the Church, both of Jews, and Greeks, and shall at last be destroy'd himself, by both.

12 [41] One wo is past, and behold there come [42] two woes more hereafter. * Chap. 8. 13.

13 And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a voice from the four [43] horns of the golden altar, which is before God,

[43] The power of Christ, (in answer to the prayers of his People,) who orders these Judgments.

14 Saying to the sixth angel which had the trumpet; [44] Loose the [45] four angels which are [46] bound in the great River [47] Euphrates.

[44] Set them at liberty from that Providential restraint they now lie under. ¶ [45] The instruments employ'd by God in this work; particularly the four Turkish Tetrarchs, or sorts of Turks. ¶ [46] Restrain'd from breaking in upon the Empire, and the Church in it ¶ [47] Near unto which the four chief Governors of the Turks had their residence.

15 And the four angels were loosed, which were [48] prepared ‖ for an [49] hour, and a [49] day, and [49] a month, and [49] a year, for to slay the [15] third part of men. ‖ Or, at.

[48] Ready to embrace the opportunity. ¶ [49] Upon all occasions, whether sooner, or later, shorter or longer.

2 Antichriſt being the moſt dangerous enemy of the Church, and yet coming under a diſguiſe, that he might be the better diſcern'd, he is in this Chapter deſcrib'd under a twofold ſhape, which repreſents him in his double capacity, (1) As the Head of the whole Roman Empire, aſſociated into one Body again under him, (being otherwiſe, in reſpect of civil Dominion, divided into many parts;) and ſo he has ten crowned Horns. And thus he is the ſeventh Head of the Beaſt, ver. 1–10. (2.) As the more immediate, and particular Head of the Roman Church, and Hierarchy, v. 11–18. And this Chapter chiefly relates to him after his publick appearing. ¶ 2 For the more commodious proſpect of the Riſe, and ſhape of this Beaſt. ¶ 3 The whole Body of the Roman Empire, (after its embracing Chriſtianity, and ſo ceaſing to be a Beaſt for a while, under the Chriſtian Emperors, the ſeventh King,) became a Beaſt again, i. e. an idolatrous, perſecuting State, under the government, and influence of the Papacy (as its eighth King, or ſeventh and laſt Head) in whom alone the ſeveral Horns, (now Crown'd) are united, and become members of this Beaſt again, owning the Pope for their Head. ¶ 4 Making uſe of the troubleſome ſtate of affairs in the Empire to ſet up himſelf. ¶ 5 Forms of Supream Government ſucceſſively one after another, ch. 17. 10. ¶ 6 Kingdoms, having dependance upon the Papacy in matters of Religion, and owning the Pope as Head of the Church. ¶ 7 Having Soveraign Power in themſelves, in Civil matters, (though ſubject to the Beaſt in Eccleſiaſtical.) ¶ 8 This laſt eſpecially, (where was the Original of that Idolatry that overſpread the Empire.) ¶ 9 A maintainer of Idolatry.

2 And the beaſt which I ſaw was like unto a 10 leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a 11 bear, and his mouth, as the 12 mouth of a lion: and the 13 dragon 14 gave him his 15 power, and his 16 ſeat, and great 17 authority.

This may relate particularly to the Waldenſes, and Bohemians.

2 And I heard a [7] voice from [8] heaven, [9] as the voice of many waters, and [10] as the voice of a great thunder: and I heard a [11] voice of harpers harping with their harps,

CHAP. XVI.

2 The Angels pour out of their Vials full of wrath, 6 The plagues that follow thereupon. 15 Christ cometh as a thief.

1 AND I heard a [2] great voice [3] out of the temple, saying to the seven [4] Angels, [5] Go your ways and pour out the Vials of the wrath of God upon the [6] earth.

[1] This Chapter gives the Vision of the Vials; (which contain the third Period of Church-affairs) shewing Antichrist's ruin by several steps or degrees; answerable to the degrees by which he rose under the Trumpets: so that what he got by the one, he loses proportionably by the other: and what Plague comes on the Church by each particular Trumpet, the contrary good comes by each Vial. ¶ [2] A powerful Call and Command. ¶ [3] From the Presence of God. ¶ [4] See on ch. 15. 1. ¶ [5] Jer. 48. 10. Ezek. 9. 5, 6. ¶ [6] The Antichristian Church and State.

2 And the first went and poured out his vial upon the [7] earth; and there fell a [8] noisom and grievous [8] sore upon the men which [9] had the mark of the beast, and upon them which [10] worshipped his image.

[7] The fundamental Doctrines of Popery, viz. the Pope's Supremacy, Infallibility, &c. (which by the first Reformers were discovered to be unsound.) ¶ [8] Exod. 9. 9. Envy and rage in themselves, and contempt from others. ¶ [9] Ch. 13.-16. See there. ¶ [10] See ch. 13. 15. n. 82.

3 And the second Angel poured out his vial upon the [11] sea; and it became [12] as the blood of a dead man: and [13] every living soul died in the sea.

[11] The Popish Religion and way of Worship: (which was now discovered to be deadly.) ¶ [12] Exod. 7.-20. Not able to convey any spiritual life. ¶ [13] They that had no other life, but what was bred and fed in that Religion, perisht eternally.

4 And the third Angel poured out his vial upon the [14] rivers and [14] fountains of waters; and they [15] became blood.

[14] The Popish Seminaries, Priests, and Emissaries: (that carry their Religion up and down.) ¶ [15] Were punisht with death.

5 And I heard the [16] Angel of the waters say, * Chap. 11.17. Thou art [17] righteous, O Lord, * which [18] art, and [19] wast, and [20] shalt be, because thou hast judged thus:

[15] The Instruments of this Plague on these Waters. ¶ [17] Ch. 15. 3. & 19. 2. Viz. In this punishment inflicted on them: (and therefore they are not Martyrs that suffer by it.) ¶ [18] Ch. 1. 4. See there. Dost now fulfil thy Promises and Threats. ¶ [19] Wast wont to execute such Judgments formerly. ¶ [20] Shall go on to do further execution on them.

[22] Glorified Saints in Heaven. ¶ [23] So it ought to be.

8 And the fourth Angel poured out his vial upon [24] the sun; and power was given unto him to [25] scorch men with [26] fire.

[24] Isa. 5. 30. The Emperour; or other Princes: (to make them withdraw from the Pope,) or the Doctrines and Canons of the Church: (discovered to be erroneous.) ¶ [25] Vex. ¶ [26] Envy.

10 And the fifth Angel poured out his vial upon the [31] seat of the beast: and his kingdom was [32] full of darkness, and they [33] gnawed their tongues for pain,

[31] The Church of Rome in its entire frame: (which is hereby shattered to pieces.) ¶ [32] Ch. 18. 23. Much confusion among them. ¶ [33] They were almost distracted at the decay of their grandeur.

11 And blasphemed the God of heaven, because of their [34] pains and their sores, and repented not of their [35] deeds.

12 And the sixth Angel poured out his vial upon the great river [36] Euphrates; and * the [37] water thereof was dried up, that the [38] way of the [39] kings of the east might be [40] prepared. * See Jer. 51. 32.

18 And cryed when they ſaw the [37] ſmoke of her burning, ſaying, [62] What city is like unto this great city?

[62] Ch. 13. 4. q. d. There was never any Church like it for ſplendor, pomp, and power.

19 And they [63] caſt duſt on their heads, and cryed, weeping and wailing, ſaying, Alas, alas, that great city wherein were made rich all that had [64] ſhips in the ſea, [65] by reaſon of her coſtlineſs! for in one hour is ſhe made deſolate.

21 And a [71] mighty angel [72] took up a ſtone like a great milſtone, and caſt it into the ſea, ſaying, Thus with violence ſhall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and ſhall be found no more at all.

[71] Noting, the power of thoſe inſtruments that ſhall effect this. ¶ [72] Jer. 51. 63, 64. By this ſign the downfal, and utter deſtruction of this Idolatrous Hierarchy is confirmed.

22 And the [73] voice of harpers, and muſicians, and of pipers, and trumpeters, ſhall be heard no more at all in thee; and no [74] craftſman, of whatſoever craft he be, ſhall be found any more in thee: and the [75] ſound of a milſtone ſhall be heard no more at all in thee;

CHAP. XIX.

1 God is praiſed for judging the whore, and avenging the blood of his ſaints. 7 The marriage of the Lamb.

AND after [1] theſe things I heard [2] a great voice of much [3] people in heaven, ſaying, [4] Alleluia: [5] ſalvation, and [5] glory, and [5] honour, and [5] power unto the Lord our God:

[1] Viz. The deſtruction of the Church of Rome, by the fifth Vial: after which, this Chapter follows in order of ſtory, and contains a fuller account of the ſixth Vial, in the event of the Battel of Armageddon, (the preparation to which was only mention'd afore, ch. 16. 13, 14, 16.) For Antichriſt being reduc'd to a tatter'd condition (by the fifth Vial) probably, has recourſe to the Turk for aid, and muſters up all the force he can make: who are totally routed all together, in the Battel of Armageddon; Whereupon follows a glorious ſtate of the Church by Chriſt's taking full poſſeſſion of his Kingdom on Earth. This Chapter contains (1.) a thankſgiving for the deſtruction of Babylon, v. 1—10. (2.) The final overthrow of the Beaſt, and falſe Prophet, v. 11, &c. ¶ [2] Noting, great affection, and deſire to ſtir up others thereto. ¶ [3] Members of the true Church. ¶ [4] This word being Hebrew, and uſed four times upon this occaſion, may imply, that the Jews joyn now with the true Church of the Gentiles, in praiſing God for the fall of Babylon. The Converſion of the Jews, and of ſo many of the Gentiles as are yet to be called, (See v. 22.) ſeems by theſe paſſages, and by v. 7. to precede the Armageddon-battel: whereas, ch. 16. 12. ſeems to place it after, as a conſequent thereof. Which therefore may be thus reconciled, and adjuſted. The Jews in theſe Weſtern parts, ſeeing the calamity that befel Antichriſt, by the fifth Vial, do thereupon embrace the faith of Christ. But the Conversion of those in the Eastern parts (where they are most numerous) is not effected till after the overthrow of the Turks, in the Armageddon-battel under the sixth Vial; and then they also (being the main Body of the Nation) come to own Christ: and so, perhaps, they may joyn altogether, and go take possession of their own countrey again; the Turks that now are Lords of it, being subdued. ¶ [5] Ch. 5. 12. & 7. 10, 12. & 12. 10. These attributes are now made manifest.

2 For [6] true and [6] righteous are his [6] judgments; for he hath [7] judged the [8] great whore, which did [9] corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath [10] avenged the blood of his servants at her hand.

3 And [11] again they said, [4] Alleluia. And her [12] smoke rose up for ever and ever.

[11] This repetition implies their earnestness, heartiness, and continuance of praise. ¶ [12] Ch. 14. 11. & 18. 18. Isa. 34. 10. She is irrecoverably ruin'd.

4 And the [13] four and twenty elders and the [14] four beasts fell down, and [15] worshipped God that sat on the throne, saying, Amen, [4] Alleluia.

[13] Ch. 4. 4, 6. The Multitude of the Church, both Jews, and Gentiles. ¶ [14] The Pastors and Ministers. ¶ [15] Praised (publickly.)

5 And a voice came [16] out of the throne, saying, Praise our God, all ye his servants, and ye that fear him, both small and great.

[16] Noting, Ministers pressing their People to this duty; or, a special impulse of Spirit in the Jews, to joyn with the Christian Gentiles in this Work.

6 And I heard as it were the voice of a [17] great multitude, and [18] as the voice of many waters, and [19] as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, [4] Alleluia; for the Lord God omnipotent [20] reigneth.

7 Let us be glad and rejoyce, and give honour to him: for *the [21] marriage of the Lamb is come, and his [22] wife hath made her self [23] ready.

[21] Christ's receiving the Jews to be his People, and spouse again, (upon their conversion.) ¶ [22] The Jews, (who were formerly in covenant with him) and the rest of the Gentiles, who are yet to be called, viz. the Posterity of Japhet, (for the blessing of being engrafted into the Church is intailed upon them, (Gen. 8. 26.) and the Posterity of Cham are totally excluded, Gen. 8. 24.) ¶ [23] Put on the Wedding-garments of Faith, and Holiness, and so become fit for communion with Christ, and his Church.

8 And *to her was granted, that she should be [24] arayed in fine linnen, clean and ‖white: for the fine linnen is the [25] righteousnes of saints.

9 And [26] he saith unto me, [27] Write, *[28] Blessed are they which [29] are called unto the [30] marriage-supper of the Lamb. And he saith unto me, *[31] These are the true sayings of God.

(This being a weighty and certain truth.) ¶ [28] Matt. 22. 2. ¶ [29] Do see those times, and partake of the privileges thereof. ¶ [30] Union with, and participation of Christ, now at the latter end of the World. ¶ [31] This is a certain and considerable truth.

10 And *I fell at his feet to worship him: And he said unto me, [32] See thou do it not: I am thy [33] fellow-servant, and of thy brethren *that [34] have the testimony of Jesus: worship God: for the [35] testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.

11 And I saw [36] heaven opened, and behold, [37] a white-horse; and [38] he that sat upon him was called [39] faithful and true, and in righteousnes he doth judge and make war.

2 Satan bound for a thouſand years. 6 The firſt reſurrection. 7 Satan let looſe again, 10 is caſt into the lake. 12 The laſt and general reſurrection.

[1] AND I ſaw an [2] angel [3] come down from heaven, having the [4] key of the bottomleſs-pit, and a [5] great chain in his hand.

[1] The glorious ſtate of the Church, and the Reign of Chriſt on Earth, having been hinted at in ſeveral places formerly, (viz. ch. 5.–10. & 7. 15–17. & 11. 15, 17, 18. & 12. 10. & 15.–4. & 19. 6, 7, 15.) here in this Chapter he begins to open theſe things more largely, ſhewing the Churches Happineſs in regard of her freedom from the deſigns of her grand enemy for a long while together (v. 1–3.) till at laſt he make ſome attempt upon her, but to no purpoſe; for he ſhall be utterly deſtroy'd, with all his accomplices, (v. 7–10.) and then comes the end of all, in the laſt Judgment, v. 11, &c. ¶ [2] Chriſt, and thoſe inſtruments he makes uſe of, chiefly Miniſters. ¶ [3] With Commiſſion from God. ¶ [4] Ch. 1.–18. Power to open, and ſhut it. ¶ [5] Severe Laws for the curbing of all open Impiety; eſpecially Perſecution.

* Chap. 12. 9. See 2 Pet. 2. 4.

2 And he [6] laid hold on * the [7] dragon that old ſerpent, which is the devil and Satan, and [8] bound him a [9] thouſand years,

[6] Viz. By the execution of thoſe Laws. ¶ [7] Heathen Powers acted by the Devil, and acting under him, (called therefore by his name (as Matt. 16. 23. John 6.–76. Rev. 2. 10.) As God's Rulers, acting by his authority, are called Gods.) ¶ [8] So kept under thoſe Powers, and reſtrain'd all wicked men, the Devil's inſtruments, that they ſhould perſecute the Saints no more, nor dare to be openly profane. Having utterly aboliſht all Antichriſtian Powers afore, (ch. 19. 20.) the Pagan Powers are now ſubdued too; and ſo the Church enjoys peace, and reſt. ¶ [9] For a long time; and probably, much longer than any of the other Periods mention'd in this Book.

* Chap. 16. 14, 16. v. 8.

3 And [10] caſt him into the bottomleſs pit, and [10] ſhut him up, and ſet [10] a ſeal upon him, * that he ſhould [11] deceive the nations [12] no more, till the thouſand years ſhould be fulfilled: and after that, he muſt be looſed a [13] little ſeaſon.

[10] Made him abſolutely uncapable of doing any conſiderable miſchief to the Church. ¶ [11] Draw them to heatheniſh, or antichriſtian idolatry, and perſwade them to perſecute. ¶ [12] Not with that ſucceſs, and extent, as formerly. ¶ [13] Viz. In compariſon of his former looſings, and this preſent reſtraint.

* Matt. 19. 28. Luke 22. 30. * 1 Cor. 6. 2, 3. * Chap. 13. 12.

4 And [14] I ſaw * [15] thrones, and [16] they [17] ſat upon them; and * [18] Judgment was given unto them: and I ſaw the [19] ſouls of them that were [20] beheaded for the [21] witneſs of Jeſus, and for the [21] word of God, and * [22] which had not [23] worſhipped the beaſt, neither [24] his image, neither had [25] received his mark upon their [25] foreheads, or in their [25] hands; and [26] they [27] lived and [28] reigned [29] with Chriſt [30] a thouſand years.

[14] The good condition of the Church was now made viſible. ¶ [15] Power, and authority belonging to the Church, as a Body, and Society. ¶ [16] Some, i. e. the Souls of the beheaded. 5 But the [31] reſt of the [32] dead [33] lived not again, [34] until the thouſand years were finiſhed. [35] This is the [36] firſt [37] reſurrection.

[31] [32] Or [the reſt being dead] i. e. the Antichriſtian party: They that during Antichriſt's reign had all power, and rule in their hands, but now are deprived of it, and ſo brought into ſuch a ſtate of political, civil death, as the witneſſes were in afore. ¶ [33] Regain'd not their former power of Perſecution. ¶ [34] (And then they were to have liberty to perſecute again, for a while, v. 8, 9.) ¶ [35] This living again of the Saints, (in the manner forementioned.) ¶ [36] To diſtinguiſh it from that at the laſt day. ¶ [37] Ch. 11. 11. He is in a fair way to eſcape eternal death; and ſhall certainly do it, if he improve his priviledges: And alſo, this Body of Perſons ſhall never be brought into ſuch a ſtate of civil death again, as they were in afore, (for though an attempt be made againſt them, yet it proves ſucceſleſs, v. 8, 9.) ¶ [43] Ch. 1. 6. & 5. 10. Iſa. 61. 6. Admitted to a free, and publick worſhip of God, (without any ſuch Mediators as they us'd under Antichriſt.)

7 And when the thouſand years are expired, [44] Satan ſhall be looſed out of his priſon,

[44] The ancient zeal of the Philadelphian ſtate, and ſtrictneſs of Diſcipline will be abated, and wickedneſs will get head again, (in the Laodicean ſucceſſion,) ſo that Satan, and his inſtruments ſhall have ſome liberty to moleſt the Church again.

8 And ſhall go out to deceive the [45] nations, which are in the four quarters of the earth, [46] Gog and

The Church is not only a [City] but a [Camp] and therefore though ſhe was trodden upon, (ch. 11. 2.) and kept under the hatches then, yet ſhe can't be ſo now, but only beſieged, and ſtraitened a little. ¶ [50] Some terrible, and unexpected overthrow ſhall befall them, wherein God's hand appears remarkably, (perhaps the fire of the laſt day.)

CHAP. XXI.

1 A new heaven and a new earth. 10 The heavenly Jeruſalem. 23 She needeth no ſun. 24 The kings of the earth bring their riches to her.

[1] AND I ſaw a [2] new heaven, and a [2] new earth: for the [3] firſt heaven and the [3] firſt earth were paſſed away; and there was no more [4] ſea.

[The moſt judicious Interpreters are divided in their opinions concerning the ſcope of this Chapter, and the beginning of the next, whether it relates to the ſtate of the Church on Earth, or in Heaven: And the truth is, there are ſome expreſſions, that will ſeem harſh either way, if taken ſingly: as v. 2,-10, 24. & ch. 22.-2. if underſtood of the Church in Heaven: and v.-7, 8, 22, 23, 25, 27. and ch. 22. 4, 5. if underſtood of the Church on Earth, and therefore I ſhall joyn them together, and take in both. And probably, as our Saviour Chriſt, when he deſcribes the deſtruction of the Temple, and Jewiſh Commonwealth, uſes ſuch expreſſions as relate to the deſtruction of the World at the laſt day, and thereby makes it an emblem, or copy and pattern thereof, ſo here, if this be to be underſtood of the Church on Earth, yet it is with an eye to what ſhall be in Heaven, after the day of Judgment, when all theſe things ſhall be accompliſht in the higheſt ſenſe.] Chap. 21. 4093.

[1] The wicked Powers of the whole World, whether Heathen, or Antichriſtian, being aboliſht by Chriſt, (ch. 19. 20. & 20. 10.) and all Authority, and Sovereignty being veſted in the Saints, this their proſperous condition is more particularly ſet out in this Chapter; with an eye alſo (as was ſaid) at the ſtate of the Saints in Heaven. ¶ [2] Iſa. 65. 17. & 66. 22. Acts 3.-21. 2 Pet. 3. 13. A Poeti-

A Poetical Meditation

Pſal. 18. 30. & 119. 89, 140, 160, 103.

THOU, Lord, to me thy Word haſt giv'n,
Precious and Pure,
Sweet, Holy, Sure,
To guide me through the World to Heav'n.

Mic. 2. 7.

1. In all wants and neceſſities
Thy Word's my ſtore
Heap'd, running o're
With plenty of moſt rich ſupplies.

Mat. 4. 3, 4, &c. Pſal. 119. 92. & 18. 32, &c.

2. Temptations, Terrours, Dangers, Fears
(Thoſe petty Hells)
Thy Word diſpels,
And all the way before me clears.

Pſal. 18. 30. Eph. 6. 17.

3. When Satan flings his Darts at me
Then, Lord, thy Word
Is Shield and Sword,
To ſave me, and to make him flee.

Pſal. 119. 14, 72, 96. Phil. 3. 7, 8.

4. The World preſents its objects rare;
But yet thy Word
Doth that afford
Which ſeems to me far coſtlier ware.

Pſal. 119. 47, 70. & 16. 11. & 36. 8. Heb. 11. 25. 2 Pet. 3. 18.

5. Then Luſt invites me to its pleaſure:
But to Delights
Thy Word invites
Which far ſurpaſs in weight and meaſure.

Pſ. 119. 30, 102, 104, 118, 128. Eſa. 30. 21.

6. Then Errors their gumm'd wares diſplay;
But Scripture ſaies,
Shun Errors waies:
Walk by my Rule: This is the way.

Pſ. 19. 11. & 119. 11.

7. Thus when I'm tempted unto Sin,
By thy Word's art
Hid in my heart
Both Battel and Reward I win.

Pſal. 119. 9. Joh. 15. 3. Eph. 5. 26.

8. Yet though Sins have defil'd my Soul,
Thy Word can cleanſe
Thoſe noiſom dens
Of Luſt, and Sin's beſt ſtrength controul.

Rom. 10. 17.

9. Have I an unbelieving heart?
Thy Word, Lord, hath
Pow'r to work Faith
By thy moſt Holy Spirit's art.

10. Have I an hard and ſtony heart?

Ezek. 36. 26.

Thy Word thus deals,
Firſt breaks, then heals:
That ſtone is cured by this ſmart.

Ezek. 16. 30, 66, 63. & 36. 26, 31.

11. Will not my frozen heart comply?
Thy Word, thy Law
That Heart can thaw,
And change it for a weeping Eye.

Act. 24. 25. Rom. 12. 3, 16. Phil. 3. 4, &c. 13.

12. Do tow'ring Thoughts poſſeſs my breaſt?
Thy Word brings low
The proudeſt foe,
And laies him level with the beaſt.

Pſal. 38. 13, 14. & 39. 9. Jam. 5. 10, 11.

13. Do mutt'ring Thoughts riſe and repine?
Thy Rod and Word
Teach patience, Lord,
And ſtill thoſe barking thoughts of mine.

Hoſ. 14. 2. Rom. 8. 26. Mat. 6. 9, &c.

14. Am I Tongue-tied and cannot pray?
Thy Word inſpires
Praying deſires:
Dumb lips unſeals; tells what to ſay.

Pſal. 119. 105. Eſa. 50. 10.

15. When I'm in darkneſs, err and ſtray,
Thy Word's a Light
Moſt clear and bright,
And leads me back into the way.

Pſal. 19. 7, 8. & 119. 104, 130. Gal. 3. 24.

16. I'm fooliſh, ſimple and want Eyes:
Thy Word's Light, Rule,
Maſter and School,
Which makes the comers to it wiſe.

Pſal. 19. 10. Prov. 8. 10, 11.

17. I ſee my ſelf undone and poor.
Thy Words infold
A Mine of Gold,
A Pearl of price; all riches ſtore.

Pſal. 19. 8. Jam. 1. 18.

18. With God by nature I'm at odds.
Thy Word my Soul
Converteth whole,
From Satan's ſervice unto God's.

Pſ. 119. 28, 50, 143, 165.

19. Do outward troubles, inward grief
My Soul torment?
Thy Word is ſent
With comfort for my Soul's relief.

Act. 16. 29-32.

20. Am I perplex'd with Doubts and Fears?
Thy Word of Grace
Reſolves the caſe
And ſo my clouded judgment clears.

21. Or do deſpairing Thoughts me take?
Thy Word doth give Me hopes to live,
For Chriſt my deareſt Saviour's ſake.

Pſal. 119. 81. & 130. 5.

22. Do multitudes of thoughts me preſs?
I call to mind
Thy Word and find
Such Comforts as my Soul refreſh.

Pſal. 94. 19. & 19. 8.

23. Can't I through weakneſs walk alone?
Thy Word, Lord, is Strength to my Knees,
And Staff to ſtay my hand upon.

Pſal. 119. 28, 49.

24. Thus though I thirſt, faint, hunger, pine,
Thy Word me feeds
In theſe my needs:
Thy Word it ſelf is Bread, Milk, Wine.

Matt. 4. 4. 1 Pet. 2. 2. Eſa. 55. 1.

25. Thus tho' poor, ſcorn'd, forſaken, pain'd,
Thy Word alone
Hath all in one;
Health, Wealth, Friends, Honors; all contain'd.

Pſal. 119. 51, 141. Prov. 4. 20, 22.

26. Thus though Soul-ſick and wounded ſore
With grievous ſin
Which doth begin
To feſter, rankling more and more;

1 Joh. 2. 1, 2.

27. Thy Word ſhews whence help may be had,
And doth me guide
To Chriſt's pierc'd ſide,
Whence flows the Balm of Gilead.

Joh. 5. 37. Jer. 8. 22.

28. Yea, tho' in me no life remain,
Thy Word is good
And living food
Which fetcheth me to life again.

1 Pet. 1. 23. Pſal. 119. 93, 116. Phil 2. 16. Jam. 1. 18.

29. Would I prolong this life for ever?
The Scripture ſhows
Whence water flows,
Pure ſtreams, which who ſo drinks, dies never.

Pſal. 36. 9. Eſa. 55. 1. Joh. 4. 10, 14.

30. The Lord be bleſt who thus provides,
And filleth full
My empty Soul
With food which evermore abides.

MATTH. III. 1-12.

IN those dayes came John the Baptist, Preaching in the wilderness of Judea,

2 And saying, Repent ye: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

3 For this is he that was spoken of by the prophet Esaias, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

4 And the same John had his raiment of camels hair, and a leathern girdle about his loyns and his meat was locusts and wild honey,

5 Then went out to him Jerusalem, and all Judea, and all the region round about Jordan,

6 And were baptized of him in Jordan, confessing their sins.

7 ¶ But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadduces come to his baptism, he said unto them, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

8 Bring forth therefore fruits meet for repentance?

9 And think not to say within your selves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham.

10 And now also the ax is laid unto the root of the tree; therefore every tree which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

MARK I. 1-8.

THE beginning of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, the son of God,

2 As it is written in the prophets, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

4 John did baptize in the wilderness and preach the baptism of repentance, for the remission of sins.

5 And there went out unto him all the land of Judea, and they of Jerusalem, and were all baptized of him in the river of Jordan, confessing their sins.

6 And John was cloathed with camels hair, and with a girdle of a skin about his loyns: and he did eat locusts and wild honey:

7 And preached, saying, There cometh one mightier then I after me, the latchet of whose shooes I am not worthy to stoop down and unloose.

8 I indeed have baptized you with water: but he shall baptize you with the holy Ghost.

LUKE III. 1-18.

NOW in the fifteen year of the reign of Tiberius Cæsar, Pontius Pilate being governour of Judea, and Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip tetrarch of Iturea and of the region of Trachonitis, and Lysanias the tetrarch of Abilene.

2 Annas and Caiaphas being the high priests, the word of God came unto John the son of Zacharias in the wilderness.

3 And he came into all the countrey about Jordan, preaching the baptism of repentance, for the remission of sins,

4 As it is written in the book of the words of Esaias the prophet, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

5 Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be brought low; and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough ways shall be made smooth;

6 And all flesh shall see the salvation of God.

7 Then said he to the multitude that came forth to be baptized of him, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

8 Bring forth therefore fruits worthy of repentance, and begin not to say within your selves, we have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham.

9 And now also the ax is laid unto the root of the trees: every tree therefore which bringeth not forth good fruit, is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

10 And the people asked him, saying, What shall we do then?

11 He answereth and saith unto them, He that hath two coats, let him impart to him that hath none; and he that hath meat, let him do likewise.

12 Then came also publicans to be baptized, and said unto him, Master, what shall we do?

JOHN I. 6-8.

6 ¶ THere was a man sent from God, whose name was John.

7 The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the light, that all men through him might believe.

8 He was not that light, but was sent to bear witness of that light.

MATTH. III. 11-12.

11 I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance; but he that cometh after me, is mightier then I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: he shall baptize you with the holy Ghost, and with fire.

12 Whose fan is in his hand, and he will throughly purge his floor, and gather his wheat into the garner: but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.

LUKE III. 13-18.

13 And he said unto them, Exact no more then that which is appointed you.

14 And the souldiers likewise demanded of him, saying, And what shall we do? And he said unto them, Do violence to no man, neither accuse any falsly, and be content with your wages.

15 And as the people were in expectation, and all men mused in their hearts of John, whether he were the Christ or not?

16 John answered, saying unto them all, I indeed baptize you with water; but one mightier then I cometh, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to unloose: he shall baptize you with the holy Ghost, and with fire.

17 Whose fan is in his hand, and he will throughly purge his floor, and will gather the wheat into his garner; but the chaff he will burn with fire unquenchable.

18 And many other things in his exhortation preached he unto the people.

MATTH. III. 13-17.

13 ¶ Then cometh Jesus from Galilee to Jordan unto John, to be baptized of him.

14 But John forbad him, saying, I have need to be baptized of thee, and comest thou to me?

15 And Jesus answering, said unto him, Suffer it to be so now: for thus it becometh us to fulfil all Righteousness. Then he suffered him.

16 And Jesus when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water: and lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and lighting upon him.

17 And lo, a voice from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

MARK I. 9-11.

9 And it came to pass in those dayes, that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized of John in Jordan.

10 And straightway coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens opened, and the Spirit like a dove descending upon him.

21 Now when all the People were baptized, it came to pass, that Jesus also being baptized, and praying, the heaven was opened:

22 And the holy Ghost descended in a bodily shape like a dove upon him, and a voice came from heaven, which said, Thou art my beloved Son, in thee I am well pleased.

23 And Jesus himself began to be about thirty years of age.

JOHN I. 15-18.

15 ¶ John bare witness of him, and cried, saying, This was he of whom I spake, He that cometh after me, is preferred before me; for he was before me.

16 And of his fulness have all we received, and grace for grace.

17 For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ.

13 And leaving Nazareth, he came and dwelt in Capernaum, which is upon the sea-coast, in the borders of Zabulon and Nepthalim:

14 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying,

15 The land of Zabulon, and the land of Nepthalim, by the way of the Sea, beyond Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles:

16 The people which sat in darkness, saw great light: and to them which sat in the region and shadow of death, light is sprung up.

Chap. VIII.

2 And behold, there came a leper and worshipped him, saying, Lord if thou wilt thou canst make me clean.

3 And Jesus put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will, be thou clean. And immediately his leprosie was cleansed.

4 And Jesus saith unto him, See thou tell no man but go thy way, shew thy self to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

14 ¶ And when Jesus was come into Peters house, he saw his wives mother laid, and sick of a fever.

15 And he touched her hand, and the fever left her: and she arose and ministred unto them.

16 ¶ When the even was come, they brought unto him many that wer possessed with devils: & he cast out the spirits with his word, and healed all that were sick:

17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying, himself took our infirmities, and bare our sicknesses.

MARK I. 21-45.

21 And they went into Capernaum, and straightway on the sabbath-day he entred into the synagogue, and taught.

22 And they were astonished at his doctrine; for he taught them as one that had authority, and not as the scribes.

23 And there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit, and he cried out.

24 Saying, Let us alone, what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, the holy One of God.

25 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him.

26 And when the unclean spirit had torn him, and cried with a loud voice, he came out of him.

27 And they were all amazed, insomuch that they questioned among themselves, saying, What thing is this? what new Doctrine is this? for with authority commandeth he even the unclean spirits, and they do obey him.

28 And immediately his fame spread abroad throughout all the region round about Galilee.

29 And forthwith, when they were come out of the synagogue, they entred into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John.

30 But Simons wives mother lay sick of a fever, and anon they tell him of her.

31 And he came and took her by the hand, and lift her up; and immediately the fever left her, and she ministred unto them.

32 And at even, when the sun did set, they brought unto him all that were diseased, and them that were possessed with devils.

34 And he healed many that were sick of divers diseases, and cast out many devils, and suffered not the devils to speak, because they knew him.

35 And in the morning, rising up a great while before day, he went out, and departed into a solitary place and there prayed.

36 And Simon, and they that were with him, followed after him.

37 And when they had found him, they said unto him, All men seek for thee.

38 And he said unto them, Let us go into the next towns, that I may preach there also: for therefore came I forth.

39 And he preached in their synagogues throughout all Galilee, and cast out devils.

40 And there came a leper to him, beseeching him, and kneeling down to him, and saying unto him, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

41 And Jesus moved with compassion put forth his hand, and touched him, and saith unto him, I will, be thou clean.

42 And as soon as he had spoken immediately the leprosie departed from him, and he was cleansed.

43 And he straightly charged him, and forthwith sent him away;

44 And saith unto him, See thou say nothing to any man; but go thy way, shew thy self to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing those things, which Moses commanded for a testimony unto them.

32 And they were astonished at his doctrine; for his word was with power.

33 ¶ And in the synagogue there was a man, which had a spirit of an unclean devil, and cried out with a loud voice,

34 Saying, let us alone; what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art; the holy one of God.

35 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace and come out of him. And when the devil had thrown him in the midst, he came out of him, and hurt him not.

36 And they were all amazed, and spake among themselves, saying, What a word is this? for with authority and power he commandeth the unclean spirits, and they come out.

37 And the fame of him went out into every place of the countrey round about.

38 ¶ And he arose out of the synagogue, and entred into Simons house, and Simons wives mother was taken with a great fever; and they besought him for her.

39 And he stood over her, and rebuked the fever, and it left her. And immediately she arose. nd ministred unto them.

40 ¶ Now when the sun was setting, all they that had any sick with divers diseases, brought them unto him: and he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them.

41 And devils also came out of many, crying out, and saying, Thou art Christ the Son of God. And he rebuking them, suffered them not to speak: for they knew that he was Christ.

42 And when it was day, he departed, and went into a desert place: and the people sought him, and came unto him, and stayed him, that he would not depart from them.

43 And he said unto them, I must preach the kingdom of God to other cities also: for therefore am I sent.

44 And he preached in the synagogues of Galilee.

12 ¶ And it came to pass, when he was in a certain city, behold, a man full of leprosie: who seeing Jesus, fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

13 And he put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be thou clean. And immediately the leprosie departed from him.

14 And he charged him to tell no man: but go, and shew thy self to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing, according as Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

15 But so much the more went there a fame abroad of him: and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by him of their infirmities.

16 And he withdrew himself into the wilderness, and prayed.

AT that time Jesus went on the Sabbath-day through the corn, and his disciples were an hungred, and began to pluck the ears of corn, and to eat.

2 But when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto him, Behold, thy disciples do that which is not lawful to do upon the Sabbath-day.

CHAP. XXVI. CHRIST heals many, Matth. XII. 9-- 16. Mark III. 1-- 12. Luke VI. 6-- 11.

MATTH. XII. 9-- 16.

9 And when he was departed thence, he went into their ſyna- gogue.

10 ¶ And behold there was a man which had his hand withered: and they asked him, ſaying, Is it lawful to heal on the ſabbath-days? that they might accuſe him.

11 And he ſaid unto them, What man ſhall there be among you, that ſhall have one ſheep, and if it fall into a pit on the ſabbath-day, will he not lay hold on it, and lift it out?

12 How much then is a man better than a ſheep? wherefore it is lawful to do well on the ſabbath-days?

13 Then ſaith he to the man, Stretch forth thine hand: and he ſtretched it forth; and it was reſto- red whole, like as the other.

14 ¶ Then the Phariſees went out, and held a counſel againſt him, how they might deſtroy him.

15 But when Jeſus knew it, he withdrew himſelf from thence: and great multitudes followed him, and he healed them all.

16 And charged them that they ſhould not make him known:

MARK III. 1-- 12.

AND he entred again into the ſynagogue, and there was a man there which had a withered hand.

2 And they watched him, whether he would heal him on the ſabbath-day, that they might accuſe him.

3 And he ſaith unto the man which had the withered hand, ſtand forth.

4 And he ſaith unto them, Is it lawful to do good on the ſabbath-days, or to do evil? to ſave life, or to kill? but they held their peace.

5 And when he had looked round about on them with anger, being grieved for the hardneſs of their hearts, he ſaith unto the man, ſtretch forth thine hand. And he ſtretched it out: and his hand was reſtored whole as the other.

6 And the Phariſees went forth, and ſtraightway took counſel with the Herodians againſt him, how they might de- ſtroy him.

7 But Jeſus withdrew himſelf with his diſciples to the ſea: and a great multitude from Galilee followed him, and from Judea,

8 And from Jeruſalem, and from Idumea, and from be- yond Jordan, and they about Tyre and Sidon, a great mul- titude, when they had heard what great things he did, came unto him.

9 And he ſpake to his diſciples, that a ſmall ſhip ſhould wait on him, becauſe of the multitude, leſt they ſhould throng him.

10 For he had healed many, inſomuch that they preſſed upon him for to touch him, as many as had plagues.

11 And unclean ſpirits, when they ſaw him, fell down before him, and cried, ſaying, Thou art the Son of God.

12 And he ſtraitly charged them, that they ſhould not make him known.

LUKE VI. 6-- 11.

6 And it came to paſs alſo on another ſabbath, that he entred into the ſynagogue and taught: and there was a man whoſe right hand was withered.

7 And the ſcribes and Pha- riſees watched him, whether he would heal on the ſab- bath day: that they might find an accuſation againſt him.

8 But he knew their thoughts, and ſaid to the man which had the withered hand, Riſe up, and ſtand forth in the midſt. And he aroſe, and ſtood forth.

9 Then ſaid Jeſus unto them, I will ask you one thing, Is it lawful on the ſabbath-days to do good, or to do evil? to ſave life, or to deſtroy it?

10 And looking round a- bout upon them all, he ſaid unto the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he did ſo: and his hand was reſtored whole as the other.

11 And they were filled with madneſs; and communed one with another, what they might do to Jeſus.

MATTH. V. 1-- 12.

AND ſeeing the multitudes, he went up into a mountain; and when he was ſet, his diſciples came unto him.
2 And he opened his mouth, and taught them, ſaying,
3 Bleſſed are the poor in ſpirit; for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
4 Bleſſed are they that mourn; for they ſhall be comforted.
5 Bleſſed are the meek; for they ſhall inherit the earth.

9 Bleſſed are the peace-makers: for they ſhall be called the children of God.
10 Bleſſed are they which are perſecuted for righteouſneſs ſake; for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
11 Bleſſed are ye when men ſhall revile you, and perſecute you, and ſhall ſay all manner of evil againſt you falſly for my ſake.
12 Rejoyce, and be exceeding glad; for great is your reward in heaven; for ſo perſecuted they the prophets which were before you.

LUKE VI. 20-- 23.

20 ¶ And he lift up his eyes on his diſciples, and ſaid, bleſſed be ye poor; for yours is the kingdom of God.
21 Bleſſed are ye that hunger now; for ye ſhall be filled. Bleſſed are ye that weep now; for ye ſhall laugh.
22 Bleſſed are ye when men ſhall hate you, and when they ſhall ſeparate you from their company, and ſhall reproach you, and caſt out your name as evil, for the Son of mans ſake.
23 Rejoyce ye in that day; and leap for joy; for behold, your reward is great in heaven; for in the like manner did their fathers unto the prophets.

JUdge not, that ye be not judged.

2 For with what judgment ye judge, ye ſhall be judged: and with what meaſure ye mete, it ſhall be meaſured to you again.

3 And why beholdeſt thou the mote that is in thy brothers eye, but conſidereſt not the beam that is in thine own eye?

37 Judge not, and ye ſhall not be judged: condemn not, and ye ſhall not be condemned: forgive, and ye ſhall be forgiven:

38 Give, and it ſhall be given unto you; good meaſure, preſſed down, and ſhaken together, and running over, ſhall men give into your boſom. For with the ſame meaſure that ye mete withal, it ſhall be meaſured to you again.

39 And he ſpake a parable unto them, Can the blind lead the blind? ſhall they not both fall into the ditch?

6 ¶ Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither caſt ye your pearls before ſwine, leſt they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rent you.

7 ¶ Ask, and it ſhall be given you; ſeek, and ye ſhall find: knock, and it ſhall be opened unto you.

8 For every one that asketh, receiveth: and he that ſeeketh, findeth: and to him that knocketh, it ſhall be opened.

9 Or what man is there of you, whom if his ſon ask bread, will he give him a ſtone?

10 Or if he ask a fiſh, will he give him a ſerpent?

11 If ye then being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more ſhall your father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask him?

12 Therefore all things whatſoever ye would that men ſhould do to you, do ye even ſo to them; for this is the law and the prophets.

CHAP. XXXI. The Centurion's Servant healed, Matth. VIII. 1-- 5-- 13. Luke VII. 1-- 10.

MATTH. VIII. 1-- 5--13.

WHen he was come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him.
5 ¶ And when Jeſus was entered into Capernaum, there came to him a centurion, beſeeching him,
6 And ſaying, Lord, my ſervant lieth at home ſick of the palſie grievouſly tormented.
7 And Jeſus ſaith unto him, I will come and heal him.
8 The centurion anſwered and ſaid, Lord, I am not worthy that thou ſhouldeſt come under my roof: but ſpeak the word only, and my ſervant ſhall be healed.
9 For I am a man under authority, having ſouldiers under me: and I ſay to this man, Go, and he goeth: and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my ſervant, do this, and he doth it.
10 When Jeſus heard it, he marvelled, and ſaid to them that followed, Verily I ſay unto you, I have not found ſo great faith, no not in Iſrael.
11 And I ſay unto you, that many ſhall come from the eaſt, and weſt, and ſhall ſit down with Abraham, and Iſaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven.
12 But the children of the kingdom ſhall be caſt out into outer darkneſs: there ſhall be weeping and gnaſhing of teeth.
13 And Jeſus ſaid unto the centurion, go thy way, and as thou haſt beleived, ſo be it done unto thee, And his ſervant was healed in the ſelf-ſame hour.

LUKE VII. 1-- 10.

NOW when he had ended all his ſayings in the audience of the people, he entred into Capernaum.
2 And a certain centurions ſervant, who was dear unto him, was ſick, and ready to die.
3 And when he heard of Jeſus, he ſent unto him the elders of the Jews, beſeeching him that he would come and heal his ſervant.
4 And when they came to Jeſus, they beſought him inſtantly, ſaying, That he was worthy for whom he ſhould do this.
5 For he loveth our nation, and he hath built us a ſynagogue.
6 Then Jeſus went with them. And when he was now not far from the houſe, the centurion ſent friends to him, ſaying unto him, Lord, trouble not thy ſelf, for I am not worthy that thou ſhouldeſt enter under my roof.
7 Wherefore neither thought I my ſelf worthy to come unto thee; but ſay in a word, and my ſervant ſhall be healed.
8 For I alſo am a man ſet under authority, having under me ſouldiers, and I ſay unto one, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my ſervant, Do this, and he doeth it.
9 When Jeſus heard theſe things, he marvelled at him, and turned him about, and ſaid unto the people that followed him, I ſay unto you, I have not found ſo great faith, no, not in Iſrael.
10 And they that were ſent, returning to the houſe found the ſervant whole that had been ſick.

CHAP. XXXIII. John's Message to CHRIST, Matth. XI. 2-- 19. Luke VII. 18-- 35.

MATTH. XI. 2-- 19.

2 Now when John had heard in the prison the works of Christ, he sent two of his disciples,

3 And said unto him, art thou he that should come, or do we look for another?

4 Jesus answered and said unto them, Go and shew John again those things which ye do hear and see:

5 The blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have the Gospel preached to them.

6 And blessed is he whosoever shall not be offended in me.

7 ¶ And as they departed, Jesus began to say unto the multitudes concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken with the wind?

8 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? behold, they that wear soft clothing, are in kings houses.

9 But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? yea, I say unto you, and more then a prophet.

10 For this is he of whom it is written, behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

11 Verily I say unto you, among them that are born of of women, there hath not risen a greater then John the baptist: notwithstanding, he that is least in the kingdom of heaven, is greater then he.

12 And from the days of John the baptist, until now, the kingdom of heaven suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force.

13 For all the prophets, and the law prophesied until John.

14 And if ye will receive it, this is Elias which was for to come.

15 He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

16 ¶ But whereunto shall I liken this generation? It is like unto children sitting in the markets, and calling unto their fellows,

17 And saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced: we have mourned unto you, and ye have not lamented.

18 For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, he hath a devil.

19 The Son of man came eating and drinking, and they say, behold, a man gluttonous, and a wine-bibber, a friend of Publicans and sinners: but wisdom is justified of her children.

LUKE VII. 18-- 35.

18 And the disciples of John shewed him of all these things.

19 ¶ And John calling unto him two of his disciples, sent them unto Jesus, saying, art thou he that should come, or look we for another?

20 When the men were come unto him, they say, John Baptist hath sent us unto thee, saying, art thou he that should come, or look we for another?

21 And in that same hour he cured many of their infirmities, and plagues, and of evil spirits, and unto many that were blind he gave sight.

22 Then Jesus answering, said unto them, go your way, and tell John what things ye have seen and heard, how that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, to the poor the gospel is preached.

23 And blessed is he whosoever shall not be offended in me.

24 ¶ And when the messengers of John were departed, he began to speak unto the people concerning John, What went ye out into the Wilderness for to see? A reed shaken with the wind?

25 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they which are gorgeously apparelled, and live delicately, are in kings courts.

26 But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? Yea, I say unto you, and much more than a prophet.

27 This is he of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

29 And all the people that heard him, and the publicanes justified God, being baptized with the baptism of John.

30 But the Pharisees and lawyers rejected the counsel of God against themselves, being not baptized of him.

31 ¶ And the Lord said, Whereunto then shall I liken the men of this generation? and to what are they like?

CHAP. XXXVIII. The Parable of the Sower, &c. Matth. XIII. 1-- 53. Mark IV. 1-- 34 Luke VIII. 4-- 18. and XIII. 18 - 21.

MATTH. XIII. 1-- 53.

THE ſame day went Jeſus out of the houſe, and ſat by the ſea-ſide.

2 And great multitudes were gathered together unto him, ſo that he went into a ſhip, and ſat, and the whole multitude ſtood on the ſhore.

3 And he ſpake many things unto them in parables, ſaying, behold, a ſower went forth to ſow.

4 And when he ſowed, ſome ſeeds fell by the way ſide, and the fowls came and devoured them up.

5 Some fell upon ſtony places, where they had not much earth: and forthwith they ſprung up, becauſe they had no deepneſs of earth.

6 And when the ſun was up, they were ſcorched, and becauſe they had not root, they withered away.

7 And ſome fell among thorns: and the thorns ſprung up and choked them.

8 But other fell into good ground, and brought forth fruit, ſome an hundred-fold, ſome ſixty-fold, ſome thirty-fold.

9 Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

10 And the diſciples came, and ſaid unto him, Why ſpeakeſt thou unto them in parables?

11 He anſwered and ſaid unto them, becauſe it is given unto you to know the myſteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given.

12 For whoſoever hath, to him ſhall be given, and he ſhall have more abundance: but whoſoever hath not, from him ſhall be taken away, even that he hath.

13 Therefore ſpeak I to them in parables, becauſe they ſeeing, ſee not, and hearing they hear not neither do they underſtand.

MARK. IV. 1-- 34.

AND he began again to teach by the ſea-ſide: and there was gathered unto him a great multitude, ſo that he entred into a ſhip, and ſat in the ſea, and the whole multitude was by the ſea, on the land.

2 And he taught them many things by parables, and ſaid unto them in his doctrine.

3 Hearken, behold, there went out a ſower to ſow:

4 And it came to paſs as he ſowed, ſome fell by the way-ſide, and the fowls of the air came and devoured it up.

5 And ſome fell on ſtony ground, where it had not much earth, and immediately it ſprang up, becauſe it had no depth of earth.

6 But when the ſun was up, it was ſcorched, and becauſe it had no root, it withered away.

7 And ſome fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit.

8 And other fell on good ground, and did yield fruit that ſprang up and increaſed, and brought forth ſome thirty, and ſome ſixty, and ſome an hundred.

9 And he ſaid unto them, he that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

10 And when he was alone, they that were about him with the twelve, asked of him the parable.

11 And he ſaid unto them, Unto you it is given to know the myſtery of the kingdom of God: but unto them that are without, all theſe things are done in parables:

12 That ſeeing they may ſee, and not perceive, and hearing they may hear, and not underſtand; leſt at any time they ſhould be converted, and their ſins ſhould be forgiven them.

LUKE VIII. 4-- 18.

4 ¶ And when much people were gathered together, and were come to him out of every city, he ſpake by a parable:

5 A ſower went out to ſow his ſeed: and as he ſowed, ſome fell by the ways ſide, and it was troden down, and the fowls of the air devoured it.

6 And ſome fell upon a rock, and aſſoon as it was ſprung up, it withered away, becauſe it lacked moiſture.

7 And ſome fell among thorns, and the thorns ſprang up with it, and choked it.

8 And other fell on good ground, and ſprang up, and bare fruit an hundred-fold. And when he had ſaid theſe things, he cried, he that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

9 And his diſciples asked him, ſaying, What might this parable be?

10 And he ſaid, Unto you it is given to know the myſteries of the kingdom of God: but to others in parables; that ſeeing they might not ſee, and hearing they might not underſtand.

11 Now the parable is this: The ſeed is the word of God.

14 And

MATTH. XIII.

14 And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Eſaias, which ſaith, By hearing ye ſhall hear, and ſhall not underſtand: and ſeeing ye ſhall ſee, and ſhall not perceive.

15 For this peoples heart is waxed groſs, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have cloſed; leſt at any time they ſhould ſee with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and ſhould underſtand with their heart, and ſhould be converted, and I ſhould heal them.

16 But bleſſed are your eyes, for they ſee; and your ears, for they hear.

17 For verily I ſay unto you, that many prophets and righteous men have deſired to ſee thoſe things which they ſee, and have not ſeen them: and to hear thoſe things which ye hear, and have not heard them.

18 ¶ Hear ye therefore the parable of the ſower.

19 When any one heareth the word of the kingdom, and underſtandeth it not, then cometh the wicked one, and catcheth away that which was ſown in his heart: this is he which received ſeed by the way-ſide.

20 But he that received the ſeed into ſtony places, the ſame is he that heareth the word, and anon with joy receiveth it:

21 Yet hath he not root in himſelf, but dureth for a while: for when tribulation or perſecution ariſeth becauſe of the word, by and by he is offended.

22 He alſo that received ſeed among the thorns, is he that heareth the word: and the care of this world, and the deceitfulneſs of riches choke the word, and he becometh unfruitful.

23 But he that received ſeed into the good ground, is he that heareth the word, and underſtandeth it, which alſo beareth fruit, and bringeth forth ſome an hundred-fold, ſome ſixty, ſome thirty.

MARK. IV.

13 And he ſaid unto them, Know ye not this parable? and how then will you know all parables?

14 ¶ The ſower ſoweth the word.

15 And theſe are they by the way-ſide, where the word is ſown, but when they have heard, Satan cometh immediately, and taketh away the word that was ſown in their hearts.

16 And theſe are they likewiſe which are ſown on ſtony ground, who when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with gladneſs:

17 And have no root in themſelves, and ſo endure but for a time: afterward when affliction or perſecution ariſeth for the words ſake, immediately they are offended.

18 And theſe are they which are ſown among thorns: ſuch as hear the word,

19 And the cares of this world, and the deceitfulneſs of riches, and the luſts of other things entring in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful.

20 And theſe are they which are ſown on good ground, ſuch as hear the word, and receive it, and bring forth fruit, ſome thirty-fold, ſome ſixty, and ſome an hundred.

21 ¶ And he ſaid unto them, Is a candle brought to be put under a buſhel, or under a bed? and not to be ſet on a candleſtick?

22 For there is nothing hid which ſhall not be manifeſted; neither was any thing kept ſecret, but that it ſhould come abroad.

23 If any man have ears to hear, let him hear.

24 And he ſaid unto them, Take heed what you hear: with what meaſure ye mete, it ſhall be meaſured to you; and unto you that hear, ſhall more be given.

25 For he that hath, to him ſhall be given; and he that hath not, from him ſhall be taken even that which he hath.

LUKE. VIII.

12 Thoſe by the way-ſide, are they that hear; then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, leſt they ſhould believe and be ſaved.

13 They on the rock, are they, which when they hear, receive the word with joy; and theſe have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away.

14 And that which fell among thorns, are they, which when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares, and riches, and pleaſures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection.

15 But that on the good ground, are they, which in an honeſt and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience.

16 ¶ No man when he hath lighted a candle, covereth it with a veſſel, or putteth it under a bed; but ſetteth it on a candleſtick, that they which enter in, may ſee the light.

17 For nothing is ſecret that ſhall not be made manifeſt; neither any thing hid, that ſhall not be known, and come abroad.

18 Take heed therefore how ye hear; for whoſoever hath, to him ſhall be given; and whoſoever hath not, from him ſhall be taken even that which he ſeemeth to have.

‘ The ſame day went Jeſus out of the houſe, and ſat by the ‘ Sea-ſide. And he began again to teach, by the Sea-ſide. And great ‘ multitudes were gathered together unto him, ſo that he went ‘ into a ſhip, and ſate in the ſea, and the whole multitude ſtood ‘ on the ſhore, and was by the ſea on the land. And when much ‘ people was gathered together, and were come to him out of ‘ every City, he ſpake many things unto them in parables, and ‘ taught them many things by parables, and ſaid unto them in his ‘ doctrine by a parable, Hearken, Behold a ſower went forth ‘ [out] to ſow his ſeed: and it came to paſs when as he ſowed, ‘ ſome ſeeds fell by the way ſide; and it was trodden down, and ‘ the fowls of the air came, and devoured it up. And ſome fell ‘ upon a rock, that is, upon ſtony ground [places] where it had ‘ not much earth; and forthwith [immediately] they [it] ſprang ‘ up, becauſe they [it] had no deepneſs of earth; and as ſoon ‘ as it was ſprung up, and when the ſun was up, it was ſcorcht, ‘ and wither'd away, becauſe it had no root, and becauſe it lacked ‘ moiſture. And ſome fell among thorns, and the thorns ſprang, ‘ and grew up with it, and chok't it, and it yielded no fruit. But ‘ others fell on good ground, and did yield fruit that ſprang up, ‘ and increaſed, and brought forth fruit; ſome an hundred-fold, ‘ ſome ſixty-fold, and ſome thirty-fold. And when he had ſaid ‘ theſe things, he cried, and ſaid unto them, He that has ears to ‘ hear let him hear. And when he was alone, his diſciples came, ‘ and ſaid unto him, Why ſpeakeſt thou unto them in parables? ‘ And his diſciples, they that were about him with the twelve, ‘ ask't of him the Parable, ſaying, What might this parable be? ‘ And he anſwer'd, and ſaid unto them, Becauſe unto you it is ‘ given to know the myſteries of the kingdom of heaven, [God,] ‘ but to them that are without [others] it is not given, but all ‘ theſe things are done in parables, that ſeeing they may ſee and ‘ not perceive, and hearing they may hear and not underſtand; ‘ leſt at any time they ſhould be converted, and their ſins ſhould ‘ be forgiven them. For whoſoever hath, to him ſhall be given, ‘ and he ſhall have more abundance; but whoſoever has not, ‘ from him ſhall be taken away even that he has. Therefore ſpeak ‘ I to them in parables, becauſe they ſeeing ſee not, and hear- ‘ ing they hear not, neither do they underſtand, and in them is ‘ fulfilled the propheſie of Eſay, which ſaith, By hearing ye ſhall ‘ hear, and ſhall not underſtand; and ſeeing ye ſhall ſee, and ‘ ſhall not perceive; for this peoples heart is waxed groſs, and ‘ their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have cloſed, ‘ leſt at any time they ſhould ſee with their eyes, and hear with ‘ their ears; and ſhould underſtand with their heart, and ſhould ‘ be converted, and I ſhould heal them, [and their ſins ſhould be ‘ forgiven them.] But bleſſed are your eyes, for they ſee, and ‘ your ears for they hear. For, verily I ſay unto you, that ma- ‘ ny prophets, and righteous men have deſired to ſee thoſe things ‘ which you ſee, and have not ſeen them, and to hear thoſe things ‘ which you hear, and have not heard them. And he ſaid unto ‘ them, Know you not this Parable? And how then will you know ‘ all parables? Hear ye therefore the parable of the ſower. Now ‘ the parable is this, the ſower ſows the ſeed of the word; thoſe ‘ by the way-ſide, where the word is ſown, are they that hear; ‘ but when any one hears the word of the kingdom, and under- ‘ ſtands it not, then comes the wicked one [Satan] [the devil] ‘ immediately, and catches [takes] away the word, [that which ‘ was ſown in his heart,] out of their hearts, leſt they ſhould be- ‘ lieve, and be ſaved; This is he, that received ſeed by the way- ‘ ſide. But he that received the ſeed into ſtony-places. [And ‘ theſe are they likewiſe which are ſown on ſtony ground] they ‘ on the rock are they [the ſame is he] that hear the word, and ‘ when they have heard it, anon [immediately] with joy, [glad- ‘ neſs] receive it; and theſe have no [yet has he not] root in ‘ themſelves, and ſo indure but for a time [while;] which for a ‘ while believe, and in time of temptation fall away; for after- ‘ wards, when tribulation, affliction, or perſecution ariſe, becauſe ‘ of the word [for the words ſake] by and by [immediately] ‘ they are offended. And theſe are they that are ſown, and re- ‘ ceived the ſeed among thorns, [that which fell among thorns ‘ are they] that hear the word; and when they have heard, ‘ go forth, and are choak't with cares, and riches, and pleaſures ‘ of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection; for the cares of this ‘ world, and the deceitfulneſs of riches, and the luſts of other ‘ things entring in choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful. ‘ And theſe are they which are ſown on good ground, and re- ‘ ceived ſeed into good ground, ſuch as hear the word, and re- ‘ ceive it; which in an honeſt and good heart, having heard the ‘ word, keep it, and underſtand it; which alſo bring forth, and ‘ bear fruit with patience: ſome an hundred-fold, ſome ſixty, ‘ ſome thirty. And he ſaid unto them, Is a candle brought to ‘ be put under a buſhel, or under a bed, and not to be ſet on a ‘ candleſtick? No man, when he has lighted a candle covers it ‘ with a veſſel, or puts it under a bed, but ſets it on a candleſtick, ‘ that they which enter in may ſee the light. For there is nothing ‘ hid which ſhall not be manifeſted, neither was any thing kept ‘ ſecret, but that it ſhould come abroad, and that ſhall not be ‘ made known. If any man have ears to hear, let him hear. ‘ And he ſaid unto them, Take heed therefore, What [How] ‘ you hear. With what meaſure you mete, it ſhall be meaſured ‘ to you; and unto you that hear, ſhall more be given. For, ‘ whoſoever hath, to him ſhall be given; and whoſoever hath ‘ not, from him ſhall be taken away that which he hath [ſeemed ‘ to have,] Mat. 24--30, Luke 4. 26--29.

MATTH. XIII.

31 ¶ Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is like to a grain of mustard-seed, which a man took and sowed in his field,

32 Which indeed is the least of all seeds: but when it is grown, it is the greatest among herbs, and becometh a tree: so that the birds of the air come and lodge in the branches thereof.

MARK IV.

30 ¶ And he said, Whereunto shall we liken the kingdom of God? or with what comparison shall we compare it?

31 It is like a grain of mustard seed, which when it is sown in the earth, is less than all the seeds that be in the earth.

32 But when it is sown, it groweth up, and becometh greater than all herbs, and shooteth out great branches, so that the fowls of the air may lodge under the shadow of it.

LUKE XIII.

18 ¶ Then said he, Unto what is the kingdom of God like? and whereunto shall I resemble it.

19 It is like a grain of mustard-seed, which a man took, and cast into his garden, and it grew, and waxed a great tree: and the fowls of the air lodged in the branches of it.

MATT. XIII.

33 ¶ Another parable spake he unto them, The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

34 All these things spake Jesus unto the multitude in parables, and without a parable spake he not unto them:

35 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, I will open my mouth in parables, I will utter things which have been kept secret from the foundation of the world.

MARK IV.

33 And with many such parables spake he the word unto them, as they were able to hear it.

34 But without a parable spake he not unto them: and when they were alone, he expounded all things to his disciples.

24 And behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, insomuch that the ship was covered with the waves: but he was asleep.

25 And his disciples came to him, and awoke him, saying, Lord, save us: we perish.

26 And he saith unto them, Why are ye fearful, O ye of little faith? Then he arose and rebuked the winds, and the sea, and there was a great calm.

27 But the men marvelled, saying, What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him?

MARK IV.

36 And when they had sent away the multitude, they took him even as he was in the ship, and there were also with him other little ships.

37 And there arose a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the ship, so that it was now full.

MAT. VIII.

28 ¶ And when he was come to the other ſide, into the countrey of the Gergeſenes, there met him two poſſeſſed with devils, coming out of the tombs, exceeding fierce, ſo that no man might paſs by that way.

29 And behold, they cried out, ſaying, What have we to do with thee, Jeſus thou ſon of God? art thou come hither to torment us before the time?

30 And there was a good way off from them an herd of many ſwine, feeding.

31 So the devils beſought him, ſaying, If thou caſt us out, ſuffer us to go away into the herd of ſwine.

32 And he ſaid unto them, Go. And when they were come out, they went into the herd of ſwine: and behold, the whole herd of ſwine ran violently down a ſteep place into the ſea, and periſhed in the waters.

33 And they that kept them fled, and went their ways into the City, and told every thing, and what was befallen to the poſſeſſed of the devils.

34 And behold, the whole city came out to meet Jeſus, and when they ſaw him, they beſought him that he would depart out of their coaſts.

MARK. V.

AND they came over unto the other ſide of the ſea, into the countrey of the Gadarenes.

2 And when he was come out of the ſhip, immediately there met him out of the tombs, a man with an unclean ſpirit;

3 Who had his dwelling among the tombs, and no man could bind him, no not with chains:

4 Becauſe that he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been plucked aſunder by him, and the fetters broken in pieces: neither could any man tame him.

5 And always night and day, he was in the mountains, and in the tombs, crying, and cutting himſelf with ſtones.

6 But when he ſaw Jeſus afar off, he ran & worſhipped him.

7 And cried with a loud voice, and ſaid, What have I to do with thee, Jeſus, thou Son of the moſt high God? I adjure thee by God, that thou torment me not.

8 (For he ſaid unto him, come out of the man, thou unclean ſpirit.)

9 And he asked him, What is thy name? And he anſwered, ſaying, My name is Legion: for we are many.

10 And he beſought him much, that he would not ſend them away out of the countrey.

11 Now there was there nigh unto the mountains, a great herd of ſwine feeding.

12 And all the devils beſought him, ſaying, ſend us into the ſwine, that we may enter into them.

13 And forthwith Jeſus gave them leave. And the unclean ſpirits went out, and entred into the ſwine, and the herd ran violently down a ſteep place into the ſea, (they were about two thouſand) and were choaked in the ſea.

14 And they that fed the ſwine fled, and told it in the city, and in the countrey. And they went out to ſee what it was that was done.

15 And they come to Jeſus, and ſee him that was poſſeſſed with the devil, and had the legion, ſitting, and clothed, and in his right mind, and they were afraid.

16 And they that ſaw it, told them how it befel to him that was poſſeſſed with the devil, and alſo concerning the ſwine.

17 And they began to pray him to depart out of their coaſts.

18 And when he was come into the ſhip, he that had been poſſeſſed with the devil, prayed him that he might be with him.

19 Howbeit, Jeſus ſuffered him not, but ſaith unto him, Go home to thy friends, and tell them how great things the Lord hath done for thee, and hath had compaſſion on thee.

20 And he departed, and began to publiſh in Decapolis, how great things Jeſus had done for him: and all men did marvel.

LUKE VIII.

26 And they arrived at the countrey of the Gadarens, which is over againſt Galilee.

27 And when he went forth to land, there met him out of the city, a certain man which had devils long time, and ware no clothes, neither abode in any houſe, but in the tombs.

28 When he ſaw Jeſus, he cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice ſaid, what have I to do with thee, Jeſus, thou Son of God moſt high? I beſeech thee torment me not.

29 (For he had commanded the unclean ſpirit to come out of the man. For oftentimes it had caught him: and he was kept bound with chains, & in fetters; and he brake the bands, & was driven of the devil into the wilderneſs.)

30 And Jeſus asked him, ſaying, What is thy name? And he ſaid, Legion: becauſe many devils were entred into him.

31 And they beſought him that he would not command them to go out into the deep.

32 And there was there an herd of many ſwine feeding on the mountain: and they beſought him that he would ſuffer them to enter into them. And he ſuffered them.

33 Then went the devils out of the man, and entred into the ſwine: & the herd ran violently down a ſteep place into the lake, & were choked.

34 When they that fed them ſaw what was done, they fled, and went and told it in the city and in the countrey.

35 Then they went out to ſee what was done; and came to Jeſus, and found the man out of whom the devils were departed, ſitting at the feet of Jeſus, clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid.

36 They alſo which ſaw it, told them by what means he that was poſſeſſed of the devils, was healed:

37 ¶ Then the whole multitude of the countrey of the Gadarenes round about, beſought him to depart from them, for they were taken with great fear: and he went up into the ſhip, and returned back again.

38 Now the man out of whom the devils were departed, beſought him that he might be with him: but Jeſus ſent him away, ſaying;

39 Return to thine own houſe, and ſhew how great things God hath done unto thee. And he went his way, and publiſhed throughout the whole City, how great things Jeſus had done unto him.

42 For he had one only daughter, about twelve years of age, and ſhe lay a dying. But as he went, the people thronged him.

43 ¶ And a woman having an iſſue of blood twelve years, which had ſpent all her living upon phyſicians, neither could be healed of any.

45 And Jeſus ſaid, Who touched me? When all denied, Peter, and they that were with him, ſaid, Maſter, the multitude throng thee, and preſs thee, and ſayeſt thou, Who touched me?

46 And Jeſus ſaid, Some body hath touched me: for I perceive that vertue is gone out of me.

47 And when the woman ſaw that ſhe was not hid, ſhe came trembling and falling down before him, ſhe declared unto him before all the people, for what cauſe ſhe had touched him, and how ſhe was healed immediately.

48 And he ſaid unto her, Daughter, be of good comfort: thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace.

3 Philip, and Bartholomew, Thomas, and Matthew the publicane, James the son of Alpheus, and Lebbeus, whose surname was Thaddeus,

MATTH. XIV.

13 ¶ When Jesus heard of it, he departed thence by ship into a desert place, apart: and when the people had heard thereof, they followed him on foot out of the cities.

14 And Jesus went forth, and saw a great multitude, and was moved with compassion toward them, and he healed their sick.

15 ¶ And when it was evening, his disciples came to him, saying, This is a desert place, and the time is now past, send the multitude away, that they may go into the villages, and buy themselves victuals.

16 But Jesus said unto them, They need not depart, give ye them to eat.

17 And they say unto him, We have here but five loaves, and two fishes.

18 He said, bring them hither to me.

19 And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the grass, and took the five loaves, and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed and brake, and gave the loaves to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

20 And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the fragments that remained, twelve baskets full.

21 And they that had eaten were about five thousand men, beside women and children.

MARK VI.

30 And the apostles gathered themselves together unto Jesus, and told him all things, both what they had done, and what they taught.

31 And he said unto them, come ye your selves apart into a desert place, and rest a while: for there were many coming and going, and they had no leisure so much as to eat.

32 And they departed into a desert place by ship privately.

33 And the people saw them departing, and many knew him, and ran afoot thither out of all cities, and outwent them, and came together unto him.

34 And Jesus, when he came out, saw much people, and was moved with compassion toward them, because they were as sheep not having a shepherd: and he began to teach them many things.

35 And when the day was now far spent, his disciples came unto him, and said, This is a desert place, and now the time is far passed:

36 Send them away, that they may go into the countrey round about, & into the villages, and buy themselves bread: for they have nothing to eat.

37 He answered and said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they say unto him, shall we go and buy two hundred penyworth of bread: and give them to eat?

38 He saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? go and see. And when they knew, they say, five and two fishes.

39 And he commanded them to make all sit down by companies upon the green grass.

40 And they sat down in ranks by hundreds, and by fifties.

41 And when he had taken the five loaves, and the two fishes, he looked up to heaven, and blessed, and brake the loaves, and gave them to his disciples to set before them; and the two fishes divided he among them all.

42 And they did all eat, and were filled.

43 And they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments, and of the fishes.

44 And they that did eat of the loaves, were about five thousand men.

LUKE IX.

10 ¶ And the apostles when they were returned, told him all that they had done. And he took them, and went aside privately into a desert place, belonging to the city called Bethsaida.

11 And the people when they knew it, followed him: and he received them, & spake unto them of the kingdom of God, and healed them that had need of healing.

12 And when the day began to wear away, then came the twelve & said unto him, send the multitude away, that they may go into the towns and countrey round about, & lodge, & get victuals: for we are here in a desert place.

13 But he said unto them give ye them to eat. And they said, we have no more but five loaves and two fishes; except we should go and buy meat for all this people.

14 For they were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples, make them sit down by fifties in a company.

15 And they did so, & made them all sit down.

16 Then he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed them, & brake, & gave to the disciples to set before the multitude.

17 And they did eat, & were all filled: & there was taken up of the fragments that remained to them, twelve baskets.

JOHN VI.

2 And a great multitude followed him, because they saw his miracles which he did on them that were diseased.

3 And Jesus went up into a mountain, and there he sat with his disciples.

4 And the passover, a feast of the Jews, was nigh.

5 ¶ When Jesus then lift up his eyes, and saw a great company come unto him, he saith unto Philip, whence shall we buy bread that these may eat?

6 (And this he said to prove him: for he himself knew what he would do.)

7 Philip answered him, two hundred peny-worth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may take a little.

9 There is a lad here, which hath five barly-loaves, and two small fishes: but what are they among so many?

10 And Jesus said, make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand.

11 And Jesus took the loaves, & when he had given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, & the disciples to them that were set down; and likewise of the fishes, as much as they would.

12 When they were filled, he said unto his disciples, Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost.

13 Therefore they gathered them, together, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley-loaves, which remained over and above, unto them that had eaten.

'And the Apostles, when they were returned, gather'd them'selves together unto Jesus, and told him all things, both what 'they had done, and what they had taught. When Jesus heard 'of it, he said unto them, come ye your selves apart into a de'sert place, and rest a while: for there were many coming and 'going, and they had no leisure, so much as to eat. And after 'these things, Jesus took them, and departed thence, and went 'aside by Ship over the Sea of Galilee, which is the Sea of Ti'berias, privately into a desert place belonging to the city called 'Bethsaida: And the people saw them departing, and many 'knew him: And when the people had heard thereof, and knew 'it, they followed him: And great multitudes followed him, 'because they saw his miracles which he did on them that were 'diseased, and ran afoot thither, out of all cities, and outwent

'them, and came together unto him. And Jesus when he came 'out, saw much people, [a great multitude,] and was moved 'with compassion towards them, because they were as sheep not 'having a shepherd. And Jesus went up into a mountain, and 'there he sate with his Disciples. And the Passeover, a feast of 'the Jews, was nigh. And he received them, and spake unto 'them of the kingdom of God. And he began to teach them 'many things: and he healed their sick, [them that had need of 'healing.] And when the day began to wear away, [was now 'far spent] and when it was evening, his Disciples [the twelve] 'came to him, and said unto him, this is a desert place, and the 'time is now far past, send the multitude away, that they may 'go into the Towns, and Countrey round about, and lodge, and 'buy themselves bread, [victuals] and get victuals, for they 'have nothing to eat, for we are here in a desert place. But Je-'sus answered, and said unto them; They need not depart: 'Give ye them to eat. And they said unto him, shall we go and 'buy two hundred peny-worth of bread, and give them to 'eat? When Jesus then lift up his eyes, and saw a great 'company come unto him, he saith unto Philip, Whence shall 'we buy bread that these may eat? (and this he said to prove 'him; for he himself knew what he would do.) Philip 'answer'd him, two hundred peny-worth of bread is not suffici-'ent for them, that every one might take a little. He saith unto 'them, how many loaves have you? go, and see, And when 'they knew, one of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's bro-'ther saith unto him, there is a lad here, which has five barly 'loaves, and two small fishes: but what are they among so many; 'they say unto him, we have here no more but five loaves, and 'two fishes; except we should go, and buy meat for all this people: 'for they were about five thousand men. He said, bring them 'hither to me. And he commanded to make all sit down, by 'companies upon the green grass. And Jesus said unto his Disci-'ples, make the men sit down by fifties in a company, and they 'did so. Now there was much grass in the place, and he com-'manded the multitude to sit down on the grass. And they 'made them all sit down; and they sate down in ranks, by hun-'dreds, and by fifties, in number about five thousand. And he 'took the five loaves, and two fishes, and looking up to heaven, 'he blessed them. And when he had given thanks, he brake 'the loaves, and gave them to his Disciples, to set afore 'the multitude, that were set down; and likewise of the fishes, 'as much as they would: and the two fishes divided he among 'them all. And did all eat, and were all filled. When 'they were filled he said unto his Disciples, gather up the frag-'ments that remain, that nothing be lost. Therefore they gather-'ed them together, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments 'of the five barly loaves, which remained over and above, unto 'them that had eaten, [and they took up of the fragments that 'remained to them, twelve baskets full;] and of the fishes. And 'they that had eaten were about five thousand men, besides wo-'men, and children.

MATTH. XIV.

22 ¶ And straightway Jesus constrained his disciples to get into a ship, and to go before him unto the other side, while he sent the multitudes away.

23 And when he had sent the multitudes away, he went up into a mountain apart to pray: and when the evening was come, he was there alone.

24 But the ship was now in the midst of the sea, tossed with waves, for the wind was contrary.

25 And in the fourth watch of the night, Jesus went unto them walking on the sea.

26 And when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, it is a spirit; and they cried out for fear.

27 But straightway Jesus spake unto them, saying, be of good cheer, it is I, be not afraid.

28 And Peter answered him and said, Lord, if it be thou, bid me come unto thee on the water.

29 And he said, Come. And when Peter was come down out of the ship, he walked on the water to go to Jesus.

30 But when he saw the wind boistrous, he was afraid: and beginning to sink, he cried, saying, Lord, save me.

31 And immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, and caught him, and said unto him, O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt?

32 And when they were come into the ship, the wind ceased.

33 Then they that were in the ship, came and worshipped him, saying, Of a truth thou art the Son of God.

34 ¶ And when they were gone over, they came into the land of Gennesaret.

35 And when the men of that place had knowledge of him, they sent out into all that countrey round about, and brought unto him all that were diseased.

36 And besought him, that they might only touch the hem of his garment: and as many as touched, were made perfectly whole.

MARK VI.

45 And straightway he constrained his disciples to get into the ship, and to go to the other side before unto Bethsaida, while he sent away the people.

46 And when he had sent them away, he departed into a mountain to pray.

47 And when even was come, the ship was in the midst of the sea, and he alone on the land.

48 And he saw them toiling in rowing: (for the wind was contrary unto them) and about the fourth watch of the night he cometh unto them, walking upon the sea, and would have passed by them.

49 But when they saw him walking upon the sea, they supposed it had been a spirit, and cried out.

50 (For they all saw him, and were troubled) and immediately he talked with them, and saith unto them, be of good cheer; it is I; be not afraid.

51 And he went up unto them into the ship, and the wind ceased: and they were sore amazed in themselves beyond measure, and wondred.

52 For they considered not the miracle of the loaves, for their heart was hardened.

53 And when they had passed over, they came into the land of Gennesaret, and drew to the shore.

54 And when they were come out of the ship, straightway they knew him,

55 And ran through that whole region round about, and began to carry about in beds those that were sick, where they heard he was.

56 And whithersoever he entred, into villages, or cities, or countrey, they laid the sick in the streets, and besought him that they might touch, if it were but the border of his garment: and as many as touched him, were made whole.

JOHN VI.

14 Then those men, when they had seen the miracle that Jesus did, said, this is of a truth that prophet that should come into the world.

15 ¶ When Jesus therefore perceived that they would come and take him by force, to make him a king, he departed again into the mountain himself alone.

16 And when even was now come, his disciples went down unto the sea,

17 And entred into a ship, and went over the sea towards Capernaum; and it was now dark, and Jesus was not come to them.

18 And the sea arose, by reason of a great wind that blew.

19 So when they had rowed about five and twenty, or thirty furlongs they see Jesus walking on the sea, and drawing nigh unto the ship: and they were afraid.

20 But he saith unto them, It is I, be not afraid.

21 Then they willingly received him into the ship: and immediately the ship was at the land whither they went.

MATTH. XV.

THen came to Jesus Scribes and Pharisees, which were of Jerusalem, saying,

2 Why do thy disciples transgress the tradition of the elders? for they wash not their hands when they eat bread.

3 But he answered and said unto them, why do you also transgress the commandment of God by your tradition?

4 For God commanded, saying, Honour thy father and mother: and, He that curseth father or mother, let him die the death.

5 But ye say, whosoever shall say to his father or his mother, It is a gift by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me,

6 And honour not his father or his mother, he shall be free. Thus have ye made the commandment of God of none effect by your tradition.

7 Ye hypocrites, well did Esaias prophesie of you, saying,

8 This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lip: but their heart is far from me.

9 But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.

10 ¶ And he called the multitude, and said unto them, Hear and understand.

11 Not that which goeth into the mouth, defileth a man: but that which cometh out of the mouth, this defileth a man.

12 Then came his disciples, and said unto him, knowest thou that the Pharisees were offended after they heard this saying,

13 But he answered and said, Every plant which my heavenly father hath not planted, shall be rooted up.

14 Let them alone: they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch.

15 Then answered Peter, and said unto him, declare unto us this parable.

16 And Jesus said, Are ye also yet without understanding?

17 Do not ye yet understand, that whatsoever entreth in at the mouth goeth into the belly, and is cast out into the draught.

18 But those things which proceed out of the mouth come from the heart, and they defile the man.

MARK VII.

THen came together unto him the Pharisees, and certain of the Scribes, which came from Jerusalem.

2 And when they saw some of his disciples eat bread with defiled (that is to say, with unwashen) hands, they found fault.

3 For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, except they wash their hands oft, eat not, holding the tradition of the elders.

4 And when they come from the market, except they wash, they eat not: And many other things there be, which they have received to hold, as the washing of cups, and pots, brasen vessels, and of tables.

5 Then the Pharisees and Scribes asked him, why walk not thy disciples according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashen hands,

6 He answered and said unto them, well hath Esaias prophesied of you hypocrites, as it is written, This people honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is far from me.

7 Howbeit, in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.

8 For laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups: and many other such like things ye do.

9 And he said unto them, Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition.

10 For Moses said, Honour thy father and thy mother: and, whoso curseth father or mother, let him dye the death.

11 But ye say, If a man shall say to his father or mother, It is Corban, that is to say, a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me: he shall be free.

12 And ye suffer him no more to do ought for his father or his mother,

13 Making the word of God of none effect through your tradition, which ye have delivered: and many such like things do ye.

14 ¶ And when he had called all the people unto him, he said unto them, Hearken unto me every one of you and understand.

15 There is nothing from without a man that entring into him can defile him: but the things which come out of him, those are they that defile the man.

16 If any man have ears to hear, let him hear.

17 And when he was entred into the house from the people, his disciples asked him concerning the parable.

18 And he saith unto them, Are ye so without understanding also? Do ye not perceive, that whatsoever thing from without entreth into the man, it cannot defile him,

19 Because it entreth not into his heart, but into the belly, and goeth out into the draught, purging all meats;

20 And he said, That which cometh out of the man, that defileth the man.

21 For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders,

23 All these evil things come from within, and defile the man.

MATTH. XVII.

24. ¶ And when they were come to Capernaum, they that received tribute-money, came to Peter, and said, Doth not your master pay tribute?

25. He saith, Yes. And when he was come into the house, Jesus prevented him, saying, What thinkest thou, Simon? of whom do the kings of the earth take custom or tribute? of their own children, or of strangers?

26. Peter saith unto him, Of strangers. Jesus saith unto him, Then are the children free.

27. Notwithstanding, lest we should offend them, go thou to the sea, and cast an hook, and take up the fish that first cometh up; and when thou hast opened his mouth, thou shalt find a piece of money: that take, and give unto them for me and thee.

MATTH. XVIII.

10 Take heed that you despise not one of these little ones; For I say unto you, that in heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father which is in heaven.

11 For the Son of man is come to save that which was lost.

12 How think ye; if a man have an hundred sheep, and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and goeth into the mountains, and seeketh that which is gone astray?

13 And if so be that he find it, verily I say unto you, he rejoyceth more of that sheep, then of the ninety and nine which went not astray.

14 Even so it is not the will of your Father which is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish.

15 ¶ Moreover, if thy brother shall trespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone: if he shall hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother.

16 But if he will not hear thee, then take with thee one or two more, that in the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established.

17 And if he shall neglect to hear them, tell it unto the church, but if he neglect to hear the church, let him be unto thee as a heathen man and a publicane.

18 Verily I say unto you, whatsoever ye shall bind on earth, shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth, shall be loosed in heaven.

19 Again I say unto you, that if two of you shall agree on earth as touching any thing, that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven.

20 For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.

21 ¶ Then came Peter to him, and said, Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him; till seven times?

22 Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, until seven times, but, until seventy times seven.

23 ¶ Therefore is the kingdom of heaven likened unto a certain king which would take account of his servants;

24 And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him, which ought him ten thousand talents.

25 But forasmuch as he had not to pay, his lord commanded him to be sold, and his wife and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made.

26 The servant therefore fell down, and worshipped him, saying, Lord have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

27 Then the lord of that servant was moved with compassion, and loosed him, and forgave him the debt.

28 But the same servant went out, and found one of his fellow servants, which ought him an hundred pence: and he laid hands on him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay me that thou owest.

29 And his fellow servant fell down at his feet, and besought him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

30 And he would not: but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay the debt.

31 So when his fellow servants saw what was done, they were very sorry, and came and told unto their lord all that was done.

32 Then his lord, after that he had called him, said unto him, O thou wicked servant, I forgave thee all that debt, because thou desiredst me:

33 Shouldst not thou also have had compassion on thy fellow-servant, even as I had pity on thee?

34 And his lord was wroth, and delivered him to the tormentors, till he should pay all that was due unto him.

35 So likewise shall my heavenly Father do also unto you, if ye from your hearts forgive not every one his brother their trespasses.

MATTH. XX.

17 ¶ And Jesus going up to Jerusalem, took the twelve disciples apart in the way, and said unto them.

18. Behold we go up to Jerusalem, and the Son of man shall be betrayed unto the chief priests, and unto the scribes, and they shall condemn him to death.

19 And shall deliver him to the Gentiles to mock, and to scourge, and to crucifie him: and the third day he shall rise again.

MARK X.

32 ¶ And they were in the way going up to Jerusalem: and Jesus went before them; and they were amazed, and as they followed, they were afraid. And he took again the twelve, and began to tell them what things should happen unto him,

33 Saying, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and the Son of man shall be delivered unto the chief priests, and unto the Scribes: and they shall condemn him to death, and shall deliver him to the Gentiles;

34 And they shall mock him, and shall scourge him, and shall spit upon him, and shall kill him: and the third day he shall rise again.

LUKE XVIII.

31 ¶ Then he took unto him the twelve, and said unto them, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and all things that are written by the prophets concerning the Son of man shall be accomplished.

32 For he shall be delivered unto the Gentiles, and shall be mocked, and spitefully entreated and spitted on:

33 And they shall scourge him, and put him to death, and the third day he shall rise again.

34 And they understood none of these things: and this saying was hid from them, neither knew they the things which were spoken.

MATTH. XXI.

23 ¶ And when he was come into the temple, the chief prieſts and the elders of the people came unto him as he was teaching, and ſaid, By what authority doeſt thou theſe things? and who gave thee this authority?

24 And Jeſus anſwered and ſaid unto them, I alſo will ask you one thing, which if ye tell me, I in likewiſe will tell you by what authority I do theſe things.

25 The baptiſm of John, whence was it? from heaven, or of men? And they reaſoned with themſelves, ſaying, If we ſhall ſay, From heaven; he will ſay unto us, Why did ye not then believe him?

26 But if we ſhall ſay, Of men; we fear the people; for all hold John as a prophet.

27 And they anſwered Jeſus, and ſaid, We cannot tell. And he ſaid unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do theſe things.

MARK XI.

27 ¶ And they come again to Jeruſalem: and as he was walking in the temple, there come to him the cheif prieſts, and the ſcribes, and the elders,

28 And ſay unto him, By what authority doeſt thou theſe things? and who gave thee this authority to do theſe things?

29 And Jeſus anſwered and ſaid unto them, I will alſo ask of you one queſtion, and anſwer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do theſe things.

30 The baptiſm of John, was it from heaven, or of men? anſwer me.

31 And they reaſoned with themſelves, ſaying, If we ſhall ſay, From heaven, he will ſay, Why then did ye not beleive him?

32 But if we ſhall ſay, Of men, they feared the people: for all men counted John, that he was a prophet indeed.

33 And they anſwered and ſaid unto Jeſus, We cannot tell. And Jeſus anſwering, ſaith unto them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do theſe things.

LUKE XX.

AND it came to paſs, that on one of thoſe dayes, as he taught the people in the temple, and preached the goſpel, the chief prieſts and the ſcribes came upon him, with the elders,

6 But and if we ſay, of men; all the people will ſtone us: for they be perſwaded that John was a prophet.

CHAP. XCIII. The Vineyard let out, Matth. XXI. 33-- 46. Mark XII. 1-- 12. Luke XX. 9 -19.

MATTH. XXI.

33 ¶ Hear another parable: There was a certain houſholder which planted a vineyard, and hedged it round about, and digged a wine preſſe in it, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far countrey,

34 And when the time of the fruit drew near, he ſent his ſervants to the husbandmen, that they might receive the fruits of it,

35 And the husbandmen took his ſervants, and beat one and killed another, and ſtoned another.

36 Again, he ſent other ſervants more then the firſt: and they did unto them likewiſe.

37 But laſt of all, he ſent unto them his ſon, ſaying, They will reverence my ſon.

38 But when the husbandmen ſaw the ſon, they ſaid among themſelves, This is the heir, come let us kill him, and let us ſeiſe on his inheritance.

39 And they caught him, and caſt him out of the vineyard, and ſlew him.

40 When the Lord therefore of the vineyard cometh, what will he do unto thoſe husbandmen?

41 They ſay unto him, He will miſerably deſtroy thoſe wicked men, and will let out his vineyard unto other husbandmen, which ſhall render him the fruits in their ſeaſons.

42 Jeſus ſaith unto them, Did ye never read in the ſcriptures, The ſtone which the builders rejected, the ſame is become the head of the corner: this is the Lords doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes?

43 Therefore I ſay unto you, The kingdom of God ſhall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof.

44 And whoſoever ſhall fall on this ſtone, ſhall be broken: but on whomſoever it ſhall fall, it will grind him to powder.

45 And when the chief prieſts and Phariſees had heard his parables, they perceived that he ſpake of them.

46 But when they ſought to lay hands on him, they feared the multitude, becauſe they took him for a prophet.

MARK XII.

A Certain man planted a vineyard, and ſet an hedge about it, and digged a place for the wine fat, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far countrey.

2 And at the ſeaſon, he ſent to the husbandmen a ſervant that he might receive from the husbandmen of the fruit of the vineyard.

3 And they caught him, and beat him, and ſent him away empty.

4 And again he ſent unto them another ſervant, and at him they caſt ſtones, and wounded him in the head, and ſent him away ſhamefully handled.

5 And again, he ſent another; and him they killed: and many others, beating ſome, and killing ſome.

6 Having yet therefore one ſon, his well beloved, he ſent him alſo laſt unto them, ſaying, They will reverence my ſon.

7 But thoſe husbandmen, ſaid amongſt themſelves, This is the heir? come, let us kill him, and the inheritance ſhall be ours.

8 And they took him, and killed him, and caſt him out of the vineyard.

9 What ſhall therefore the Lord of the vineyard do? He will come and deſtroy the husbandmen, and will give the vineyard unto others.

10 And have ye not read this ſcripture? The ſtone which the builders rejected is become the head of the corner.

11 This was the Lords doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes.

12 And they ſought to lay hold on him, but feared the People; for they knew that he had ſpoken the parable againſt them: and they left him, and went their way.

LUKE XX.

9 Then began he to ſpeak to the people this parable: A certain man planted a vineyard, and let it forth to husbandmen, & went into a far country for a long time.

10 And at the ſeaſon, he ſent a ſervant to the husbandmen, that they ſhould give him of the fruit of the vineyard: but the husbandmen beat him, and ſent him away empty.

11 And again he ſent another ſervant; and they beat him alſo, and entreated him ſhamefully, and ſent him away empty.

12 And again he ſent the third; and they wounded him alſo, and caſt him out.

13 Then ſaid the lord of the vineyard, what ſhall I do? I will ſend my beloved ſon: it may be they will reverence him when they ſee him.

14 But when the husbandmen ſaw him, they reaſoned among themſelves, ſaying, This is the heir: come, let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours,

15 So they caſt him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What therefor ſhall the lord of the vineyard do unto them?

16 He ſhall come and deſtroy theſe husbandmen, and ſhall give the vineyard to others. And when they heard it, they ſaid, God forbid.

17 And he beheld them, and ſaid, What is this then that is written, The ſtone which the builders rejected, the ſame is become the head of the corner?

18 Whoſoever ſhall fall upon that ſtone, ſhall be broken: but on whomſoever it ſhall fall, it will grind him to powder.

19 ¶ And the chief prieſts, and the ſcribes the ſame hour ſought to lay hands on him; and they feared the people: for they perceived that he had ſpoken this parable againſt them.

CHAP. XCV. About paying Tribute. CHRIST confutes the Sadducees, and poſes the Scribes, Matth. XXII. 15--46. Mark XII. 13--37. Luke XX. 20--44.

MATTH. XXII.

15 ¶ Then went the Phariſees, and took counſel how they might intangle him in his talk.

16 And they ſent out unto him their diſciples, with the Herodians, ſaying, Maſter, we know that thou art true, and teacheſt the way of God in truth, neither careſt thou for any man: for thou regardeſt not the perſon of men.

17 Tell us therefore, What thinkeſt thou? Is it lawful to give tribute unto Ceſar, or not?

18 But Jeſus perceived their wickedneſs, and ſaid, Why tempt ye me, ye hypocrites?

19 Shew me the tribute-money. And they brought unto him a peny.

21 They ſay unto him, Ceſars. Then ſaith he unto them, Render therefore unto Ceſar, the things which are Ceſars; and unto God, the things that are Gods.

22 When they had heard theſe words, they marvelled, and left him, and went their way.

23 ¶ The ſame day came to him the Sadducees, which ſay that there is no reſurrection, and asked him,

25 Now there were with us ſeven brethren, and the firſt when he had married a wife, deceaſed, and having no iſſue, left his wife unto his brother.

26 Likewiſe the ſecond alſo, and the third unto the ſeventh.

27 And laſt of all the woman died alſo.

28 Therefore in the reſurrection, whoſe wife ſhall ſhe be of the ſeven? for they all had her.

29 Jeſus anſwered and ſaid unto them, Ye do err, not knowing the ſcriptures, nor the power of God.

30 For in the reſurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage; but are as the angels of God in heaven.

31 But as touching the reſurrection of the dead, have ye not read that which was ſpoken unto you by God, ſaying, 32 I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Iſaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living.

33 And when the multitude heard this they were aſtoniſhed at his doctrine.

34 ¶ But when the Phariſees had heard that he had put the Sadducees to ſilence, they were gathered together.

35 Then one of them which was a lawyer, asked him a queſtion, tempting him, and ſaying,

36 Maſter, which is the great commandment in the law?

37 Jeſus ſaid unto him, Thou ſhalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy ſoul, and with all thy mind.

38 This is the firſt and great commandment.

39 And the ſecond is like unto it, Thou ſhalt love thy neighbour as thy ſelf.

40 On theſe two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

41 ¶ While the Phariſees were gathered together, Jeſus asked them,

42 Saying, what think ye of Chriſt? whoſe ſon is he? They ſay unto him, The ſon of David.

43 He ſaith unto them, How then doth David in ſpirit call him Lord, ſaying, 44 The Lord ſaid unto my lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footſtool?

MARK XII.

13 ¶ And they ſend unto him certain of the Phariſees, and of the Herodians, to catch him in his words.

14 And when they were come, they ſay unto him, Maſter, we know that thou art true, and careſt for no man: for thou regardeſt not the perſon of men, but teacheſt the way of God in truth: Is it lawful to give tribute to Ceſar, or not?

15 Shall we give, or ſhall we not give? But he knowing their hypocriſie, ſaid unto them, Why tempt ye me? bring me a peny, that I may ſee it.

16 And they brought it: and he ſaith unto them, Whoſe is this image and perſcription? And they ſaid unto him, Ceſars.

17 And Jeſus anſwering ſaid unto them, Render to Ceſar the things that are Ceſars, and to God the things that are Gods. And they marvelled at him.

18 ¶ Then come unto him the Sadducees, which ſay there is no reſurrection; and they asked him, ſaying,

19 Maſter, Moſes wrote unto us, If a mans brother die, and leave his wife behind him, and leave no children, that his brother ſhould take his wife, and raiſe up ſeed unto his brother.

21 And the ſecond took her, and died, neither left he any ſeed: and the third likewiſe.

23 In the reſurrection therefore, when they ſhall riſe, whoſe wife ſhall ſhe be of them? for the ſeven had her to wife.

24 And Jeſus anſwering ſaid unto them, Do ye not therefore err, becauſe ye know not the ſcriptures, neither the power of God?

25 For when they ſhall riſe from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage: but are as the angels which are in heaven.

26 And as touching the dead, that they riſe, have ye not read in the book of Moſes, how in the buſh God ſpake unto him, ſaying, I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Iſaac, and the God of Jacob?

27 He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living: ye therefore do greatly err.

28 ¶ And one of the ſcribes came, and having heard them reaſoning together, and perceiving that he had anſwered them well, asked him, which is the firſt commandment of all?

29 And Jeſus anſwered him, The firſt of all the commandments is, Hear, O Iſrael, the Lord our God is one Lord;

30 And thou ſhalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart and with all thy ſoul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy ſtrength: this is the firſt commandment.

31 And the ſecond is like, namely this, thou ſhalt love thy neighbour as thy ſelf: there is none other commandment greater than theſe.

32 And the Scribe ſaid unto him, Well, Maſter, thou haſt ſaid the truth: for there is one God, and there is none other but he.

33 And to love him with all the heart, and with all the underſtanding, and with all the ſoul, and with all the ſtrength, and to love his neighbour as himſelf, is more then all whole burnt-offerings and ſacrifices.

34 And when Jeſus ſaw that he anſwered diſcreetly, he ſaid unto him, Thou art not far from the kingdom of God. And no man after that durſt ask him any queſtion.

35 ¶ And Jeſus anſwered and ſaid, while he taught in the temple, How ſay the Scribes that Chriſt is the ſon of David?

22 Is it lawful for us to give tribute unto Ceſar, or no?

23 But he perceived their craftineſs, and ſaid unto them, Why tempt ye me?

24 Shew me a peny: whoſe image and ſuperſcription hath it? They anſwered and ſaid, Ceſars.

25 And he ſaid unto them, Render therefore unto Ceſar the things which be Ceſars, and unto God the things which be Gods.

26 And they could not take hold of his words before the people: and they marvelled at his anſwer, and held their peace.

27 ¶ Then came to him certain of the Sadducees (which deny that there is any reſurrection) and they asked him,

28 Saying, Maſter, Moſes wrote unto us, if any mans brother dye, having a wife, and he dye without children, that his brother ſhould take his wife, and raiſe up ſeed unto his brother.

29 There were therefore ſeven brethren: and the firſt took a wife, and dyed without children.

30 And the ſecond took her to wife, and he died childleſs.

31 And the third took her; and in like manner the ſeven alſo. And they left no children, and died.

MATTH. XXIV.

AND Jeſus went out and departed from the temple; and his diſciples came to him for to ſhew him the buildings of the temple.

2 And Jeſus ſaid unto them, See ye not all theſe things? Verily I ſay unto you, there ſhall not be left here one ſtone upon another, that ſhall not be thrown down.

3 And as he ſat upon the mount of Olives, the diſciples came unto him privately, ſaying, Tell us, when ſhall theſe things be? and what ſhall be the ſign of thy coming, and of the end of the world?

4 And Jeſus anſwered, and ſaid unto them, Take heed that no man deceive you.

5 For many ſhall come in my name, ſaying, I am Chriſt: and ſhall deceive many.

6 And ye ſhall hear of wars, and rumours of wars: ſee that ye be not troubled: for all theſe things muſt come to paſs, but the end is not yet.

7 For nation ſhall riſe againſt nation, and kingdom againſt kingdom: and there ſhall be famines, and peſtilences, and earthquakes in divers places.

8 All theſe are the beginning of ſorrows.

9 Then ſhall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and ſhall kill you: and ye ſhall be hated of all nations for my names ſake.

10 And then ſhall many be offended, and ſhall betray one another, and ſhall hate one another.

11 And many falſe prophets ſhall riſe, and ſhall deceive many.

13 But he that ſhall endure unto the end, the ſame ſhall be ſaved.

14 And this goſpel of the kingdom ſhall be preached in all the world, for a witneſs unto all nations, and then ſhall the end come.

15 When ye therefore ſhall ſee the abomination of deſolation, ſpoken of by Daniel the prophet, ſtand in the holy place, (whoſo readeth, let him underſtand).

16 Then let them which be in Judea, flee into the mountains.

17 Let him which is on the houſe-top, not come down to take any thing out of his houſe:

19 And wo unto them that are with child, and to them that give ſuck in thoſe days.

20 But pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, neither on the ſabbath-day.

21 For then ſhall be great tribulation, ſuch as was not ſince the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever ſhall be.

22 And except thoſe days ſhould be ſhortened, there ſhould no fleſh be ſaved: but for the elects ſake thoſe days ſhall be ſhortned.

27 For as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even unto the west: so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

28 For wheresoever the carcase is, there will the eagles be gathered together.

29 ¶ Immediately after the tribulation of those days, shall the sun be darkned, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken.

30 And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven, with power and great glory.

31 And he shall send his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

32 Now learn a parable of the fig-tree: When his branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is nigh:

33 So likewise ye, when ye shall see all these things, know that it is near, even at the doors.

34 Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass, till all these things be fulfilled.

35 Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away.

36 ¶ But of that day and hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels of heaven, but my Father only.

37 But as the days of Noe were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

38 For as in the days that were before the flood, they were eating and drinking, marrying, and giving in marriage, until the day that Noe entred into the ark,

39 And knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

40 Then shall two be in the field, the one shall be taken, and the other left.

43 But know this, that if the good man of the house had known in what watch the thief would come, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be broken up.

44 Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an hour as you think not, the Son of man cometh.

45 Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his Lord hath made ruler over his houshold, to give them meat in due season?

46 Blessed is that servant, whom his Lord when he cometh, shall find so doing.

47 Verily I say unto you, that he shall make him ruler over all his goods.

48 But and if that evil servant shall say in his heart, My Lord delayeth his coming,

49 And shall begin to smite his fellow-servants, and to eat and drink with the drunken:

50 The Lord of that servant shall come in a day when he looketh not for him, and in an hour that he is not ware of;

51 And shall cut him asunder, and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites? there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

MARK XIII.

17 But wo to them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days.

18 And pray ye that your flight be not in the winter.

19 For in those days shall be affliction, such as was not from the beginning of the creation which God created, unto this time, neither shall be.

20 And except that the Lord had shortned those days, no flesh should be saved: but for the elects sake whom he hath chosen, he hath shortned the days.

21 And then, if any man shall say to you, Lo, here is Christ, or lo, he is there: believe him not.

22 For false Christs, and false prophets shall rise, and shall shew signs and wonders, to seduce, if it were possible, even the elect.

23 But take ye heed: behold I have foretold you all things.

24 ¶ But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light:

25 And the stars of heaven shall fall, and the powers that are in heaven shall be shaken.

26 And then they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds, with great power and glory.

27 And then he shall send his angels, and shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from the uttermost part of the earth to the uttermost part of heaven.

28 Now learn a parable of the fig-tree: When her branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is near:

33 Take ye heed, watch and pray: for ye know not when the time is.

34 For the Son of man is as a man taking a far journey, who left his house, and gave authority to his servants, and to every man his work, and commanded the porter to watch.

35 Watch ye therefore, (for ye know not when the master of the house cometh; at even, or at mid-night, or at the cock-crowing, or in the morning) midst of it, depart out; and let not them that are in the countreys, enter thereinto.

22 For these be the days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled.

23 But woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those dayes: for there shall be great distress in the land, and wrath upon this people.

24 And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations: and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled.

25 ¶ And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity, the sea and the waves roaring;

26 Mens hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be shaken.

27 And then shall they see the Son of man coming in a cloud, with power and great glory.

28 And when these things begin to come to pass then look up, and lift up your heads, for your redemption draweth nigh.

29 And he spake to them a parable, Behold the fig-tree, and all the trees;

30 When they now shoot forth, ye see and know of your own selves, that summer is now nigh at hand.

31 So likewise ye, when ye see these things come to pass, know ye that the kingdom of God is nigh at hand.

32 Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass away, till all be fulfilled.

33 Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away.

34 ¶ And take heed to your selves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares.

35 For as a snare shall it come on all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth.

36 Watch ye therefore, and pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of man.

WEDNESDAY. ‘ Now the Feaſt of unleavened bread drew ‘ nigh, which is called, the Paſſeover. And it ‘ came to paſs, when Jeſus had finiſhed all ‘ theſe ſayings, he ſaid unto his Diſciples, Ye know that after two ‘ dayes is the Feaſt of the Paſſover of unleavened bread, and the ‘ Son of man ſhall be betrayed to be crucified. Then aſſembled ‘ together the chief Prieſts, and the Scribes, and the Elders of ‘ the people, unto the Palace of the High Prieſt, who was called ‘ Caiaphas, and conſulted [ſought how] that they might take Jeſus ‘ by ſubtilty [craft,] and put him to death. But they ſaid, Not on ‘ the Feaſt day, leaſt there be an uproar among the people: for ‘ they feared the people. Then entred Satan into Judas, ſur- ‘ named Iſcariot, being of the number [one] of the Twelve: ‘ and he went his way unto the Chief Prieſts to betray him unto ‘ them; and communed with the chief Prieſts, and Captains, ‘ how he might betray him unto them: and he ſaid unto them, ‘ what will ye give me, and I will deliver him to you? And ‘ when they heard of it, they were glad, and promiſed to give ‘ him mony: and they covenanted with him for thirty pieces of ‘ ſilver: and he promiſed, and from that time ſought opportunity ‘ how he might conveniently betray him unto them, in the ab- ‘ ſence of the multitude.

‘ Then came the day of the unleavened ‘ bread, when the paſſover muſt be killed: THURSDAY. ‘ and now the firſt day of the Feaſt of unlea- ‘ vened bread, when they killed the Paſſover, the Diſciples ‘ came to Jeſus, ſaying unto him, Where wilt thou that we go ‘ and prepare for thee, that thou maiſt eat the Paſſover? And ‘ he ſends forth two of his Diſciples, Peter and John, and ſaith ‘ unto them, Go ye into the City, and prepare us the Paſſover, ‘ that we may eat. And they ſaid unto him, Where wilt thou ‘ that we prepare. 54 And Peter followed him afar off, even into the palace of the high prieſt: and he ſat with the ſervants, and warmed himſelf at the fire.

55 And the chief prieſts, and all the councel ſought for witneſs againſt Jeſus to put him to death; and found none.

56 For many bare falſe witneſs againſt him, but their witneſs agreed not together.

57 And there aroſe certain, and bare falſe witneſs againſt him, ſaying,

58 We heard him ſay, I will deſtroy this temple that is made with hands, and within three dayes I will build another made without hands.

59 But neither ſo did their witneſs agree together.

60 And the high prieſt ſtood up in the midſt, and asked Jeſus, ſaying, Anſwereſt thou nothing? what is it which theſe witneſs againſt thee?

61 But he held his peace and anſwered nothing. Again the high prieſt asked him, and ſaid unto him, Art thou the Chriſt, the Son of the bleſſed?

62 And Jeſus ſaid, I am: and ye ſhall ſee the Son of man ſitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.

63 Then the high prieſt rent his cloths, and ſaith, What need we any further witneſſes?

64 Ye have heard the blaſphemy: what think ye? And they all condemned him to be guilty of death.

65 And ſome began to ſpit on him, and to cover his face, and to buffet him, and to ſay unto him, Propheſie: and the ſervants did ſtrike him with the palms of their hands.

LUKE XXII.

54 ¶ Then took they him, and led him, and brought him into the high prieſts houſe. And Peter followed afar off.

63 ¶ And the men that held Jeſus, mocked him and ſmote him.

64 And when they had blind-folded him, they ſtroke him on the face, and asked him, ſaying, Propheſie who it is that ſmote thee.

JOHN XVIII.

12 Then the band, and the captain, and officers of the Jews took Jeſus, and bound him,

13 And led him away to Annas firſt (for he was father in law to Caiphas, which was the high prieſt that ſame year.)

14 Now Caiaphas was he which gave counſel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man ſhould die for the people.

15 ¶ And Simon Peter followed Jeſus, and ſo did another diſciple. That diſciple was known unto the high prieſt, and went in with Jeſus into the palace of the high prieſt.

16 But Peter ſtood at the door without. Then went out that other diſciple which was known unto the high prieſt, and ſpake unto her that kept the door, and brought in Peter.

19 ¶ The high prieſt then asked Jeſus of his diſciples, and of his doctrine.

20 Jeſus anſwered him, I ſpake openly to the world; I ever taught in the ſynagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always reſort, and in ſecret have I ſaid nothing.

21 Why askeſt thou me? ask them which heard me, what I have ſaid unto them: behold, they know what I ſaid.

22 And when he had thus ſpoken, one of the officers which ſtood by, ſtroke Jeſus with the palm of his hand, ſaying, Anſwereſt thou the high prieſt ſo?

23 Jeſus anſwered him, If I have ſpoken evil, bear witneſs of the evil: but if well, why ſmiteſt thou me?

24 (Now Annas had ſent him bound unto Caiaphas the high prieſt.)

MAT. XXVII.

WHEN the morning was come, all the chief priests and elders of the people, took counsel against Jesus to put him to death.

2 And when they had bound him: they led him away, and delivered him to Pontius Pilate the governour,

* * * *

11 And Jesus stood before the governour; and the governour asked him saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And Jesus said unto him, Thou sayest.

12 And when he was accused of the chief priests and elders, he answered nothing.

13 Then saith Pilate unto him, Heareſt thou not how many things they witness against thee?

14 And he answered him to never a word, insomuch that the governour marvelled greatly.

MAR. XV.

AND straitway in the morning the chief Priests held a consultation with the elders and scribes, and the whole councel, and bound Jesus, and carried him away, and delivered him to Pilate.

2 And Pilate asked him, Art thou the king of the Jews? and he answering said unto him, Thou sayest it.

3 And the chief priests accused him of many things, but he answered nothing.

4 and Pilate asked him again, saying, Answereſt thou nothing? behold how many things they witness against thee.

5 But Jesus yet answered nothing; so that Pilate marvelled.

LUKE XXII.

66 ¶ And assoon as it was day the elders of the people and the chief priests, and the scribes came together, and led him into their councel,

67 Saying, Art thou the Christ tell us. And he said unto them, If I tell you, you will not believe.

68 And If I also ask you you will not answer me, nor let me go.

69 Hereafter shall the Son of man sit on the right hand of the power of God.

70 Then said they all, Art thou then the Son of God? And he said unto them, Ye say that I am.

71 And they said, What need we any further witness? for we our selves have heard of his own mouth.

CHAP. XXIII.

AND the whole multitude of them arose, and led him unto Pilate.

2 And they began to accuse him, saying We found this fellow perverting the nation, and forbiding to give tribute to Cesar, saying, That he himself is Christ a king.

3 And Pilate asked him, saying, Art thou the king of the Jews and he answered him, and said, Thou sayest it.

4 Then said Pilate to the chief priests, and to the people, I find no fault in this man.

JOHN XVIII.

28 ¶ Then led they Jesus from Caiaphas unto the hall of Judgment: and it was early, and they themselves went not into the judgment-hall, lest they should be defiled; but that they might eat the passover.

29 Pilate then went out unto them, and said, What accusation bring you against this man?

30 They answered and said unto him, If he were not a malefactor, we would not have delivered him up unto thee.

31 Then said Pilate unto them, take ye him, and judge ye him accordiug to your law. The Jews therefore said unto him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death:

32 That the saying of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spake, signifying what death he should die.

33 Then Pilate entred into the judgment-hall again, and called Jesus, and said unto him, Art thou the king of the Jews?

34 Jesus answered, him, Sayest thou this thing of thy self, or did others tell it thee of me?

35 Pilate answered? Am I a Jew? Thine own nation, and the chief Priests have delivered thee unto me: What hast thou done?

36 Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence.

37 Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice.

38 Pilate saith unto him, What is truth? And when he had said this, he went out against the Jews, and saith unto them, I find in him no fault at all.

5 And they were the more fierce, saying, He stirreth up the people, teaching throughout all Jewry, beginning from Galilee to this place.

6 When Pilate heard of Galilee, he asked whether the man were a Galilean.

7 And assoon as he knew that he belonged unto Herods jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who himself was also at Jerusalem at that time.

8 ¶ And when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceeding glad: for he was desirous to see him of a long season, because he had heard many things of him; and he hoped to have seen some miracle done by him.

9 Then he questioned with him in many words; but he answered him nothing.

10 And the chief priests and scribes stood and vehemently accused him.

11 And Herod with his men of war set him at nought, and mocked him, and arrayed him in a gorgeous robe, and sent him again to Pilate.

15 Now at that feaſt the governour was wont to releaſe unto the people a priſoner, whom they would.

16 And they had then a notable priſoner, called Barabbas.

17 Therefore when they were gathered together, Pilate ſaid unto them, Whom will ye that I releaſe unto you? Barabbas, or Jeſus which is called Chriſt?

18 For he knew that for envy they had delivered him.

19 ¶ When he was ſet down on the judgment-ſeat, his wife ſent unto him, ſaying, Have thou nothing to do with that juſt man: for I have ſuffered many things this day in a dream, becauſe of him.

20 But the chief prieſts and elders perſwaded the multitude that they ſhould ask Barabbas, and deſtroy Jeſus.

21 The governour anſwered and ſaid unto them, Whether of the twain will ye that I releaſe unto you? They ſaid, Barabbas.

22 Pilate ſaith unto them, What ſhall I do then with Jeſus, which is called Chriſt? They all ſay unto him, Let him be crucified.

23 And the governour ſaid, Why, what evil hath he done? But they cried out the more, ſaying, Let him be crucified.

* * * * * *

26 ¶ Then releaſed he Barabbas unto them, and when he had ſcourged Jeſus, he delivered him to be crucified.

27 Then the ſoldiers of the governour took Jeſus into the common hall, and gathered unto him the whole band of ſoldiers.

28 And they ſtripped him, and put on him a ſcarlet robe.

29 ¶ And when they had platted a crown of thorns, they put it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand: and they bowed the knee before him, and mocked him, ſaying, Hail king of the Jews.

30 And they ſpit upon him, and took the reed, and ſmote him on the head.

MARK. XV.

6 Now at that feaſt he releaſed unto them the priſoner, whomſoever they deſired.

7 And there was one named Barabbas, which lay bound with them that had made inſurrection with him, who had committed murther in the inſurrection.

8 And the multitude crying aloud, began to deſire him to do as he had ever done unto them.

9 But Pilate anſwered them, ſaying, Will ye that I releaſe unto you the king of the Jews?

10 (For he knew that the chief prieſts had delivered him for envy)

11 But the chief prieſts moved the people, that he ſhould rather releaſe Barabbas unto them.

12 And Pilate anſwered and ſaid again unto them, What will ye then that I ſhall do unto him whom ye call the king of the Jews?

13 And they cried out again, Crucifie him.

14 Then Pilate ſaid unto them, Why, what evil hath he done? And they cryed out the more exceedingly, Crucifie him.

15 ¶ And ſo Pilate willing to content the people, releaſed Barabbas unto them: and delivered Jeſus, when he had ſcourged him, to be crucified.

20 Pilate therefore willing to releaſe Jeſus, ſpake again to them.

21 But they cryed, ſaying, Crucifie him, crucifie him.

22 And he ſaid unto them the third time, Why, what evil hath he done? I have found no cauſe of death in him: I will therefore chaſtiſe him, and let him go.

23 And they were inſtant with loud voices, requiring that he might be crucified: and the voices of them, and of the chief prieſts prevailed.

24 And Pilate gave ſentence that it ſhould be as they required.

25 And he releaſed unto them, him that for ſedition and murder was caſt into priſon whom they had deſired; but he delivered Jeſus to their will.

‘ him, and cryed out again, Crucifie him; Crucifie him; Let ‘ him be Crucified: Crucifie him. Then cryed they all again, ‘ ſaying, Not this man, but Barabbas. (Now Barabbas was a ‘ robber.) And they were inſtant with loud voices, requiring ‘ that he might be crucified. And the voices of them, and of ‘ the chief prieſts prevailed. Then Pilate therefore took Jeſus,
‘ and ſcourged him. Then the Soldiers of the Governour took ‘ Jeſus, and led him away into the Common-Hall, called Preto-
‘ rium, and they call together, and gather unto him the whole
‘ Band of Souldiers, and they ſtripped him, and put on him a ‘ ſcarlet [purple] Robe, [clothed him with purple.] And the ‘ Souldiers, when they had platted a crown of thorns, they put
‘ it upon [about] his head; and a reed in his right hand; and

‘ ſmote him with their hands; and they ſpare upon him, and

JOHN XIX.

4 Pilate therefore went forth again, and ſaith unto them, Behold, I bring him forth to you, that ye may know that I find no fault in him.

5 Then came Jeſus forth, wearing the crown of thorns, and the purple robe. And Pilate ſaith unto them, Behold the man.

6 When the chief prieſts therefore and officers ſaw him, they cryed out, ſaying, Crucifie him, crucifie him. Pilate ſaith unto them, Take ye him, and crucifie him : for I find no fault in him.

7 The Jews anſwered him, We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, becauſe he made himſelf the Son of God.

8 ¶ When Pilate therefore heard that ſaying, he was the more afraid ;

9 And went again into the judgment-hall, and ſaith unto Jeſus, Whence art thou ? But Jeſus gave him no anſwer.

10 Then ſaith Pilate unto him, Speakeſt thou not unto me ? knoweſt thou not, that I have power to crucifie thee, and have power to releaſe thee ?

11 Jeſus anſwered, Thou couldeſt have no power at all againſt me, except it were given thee from above : therefore he that delivered me unto thee hath the greater ſin.

12 And from thenceforth Pilate ſought to releaſe him : but the Jews cryed out, ſaying, If thou let this man go, thou art not Ceſars friend : whoſoever maketh himſelf a king, ſpeaketh againſt Ceſar.

13 ¶ When Pilate therefore heard that ſaying, he brought Jeſus forth, and ſat down in the judgment-ſeat, in a place that is called the Pavement, but in the Hebrew, Gabbatha.

14 And it was the preparation of the paſſover, and about the ſixth hour : and he ſaith unto the Jews : Behold your king.

15 But they cryed out, Away with him, away with him, crucifie him. Pilate ſaith unto them, Shall I crucifie your king ? The chief prieſts anſwered, We have no king but Ceſar.

MATTH. XXVII.

24 ¶ When Pilate ſaw that he could prevail nothing, but that rather a tumult was made, he took water, and waſhed his hands before the multitude, ſaying, I am innocent of the blood of this juſt perſon : ſee ye to it.

25 Then anſwered all the people, and ſaid, His blood be on us, and on our children.

‘ Then Pilate, willing to content the people, gave Sentence ‘ that it ſhould be as they required. And he releaſed unto them ‘ Barabbas, him that for ſedition and murder was caſt into priſon ; whom they deſired ; and when he had ſcourged Jeſus, ‘ he delivered him unto them [to their will] to be crucified.

MATTH. XXVII.

31 And after that they had mocked him, they took the robe off from him, and put his own raiment on him, and led him away to crucifie him.

32 And as they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name : him they compelled to bear his croſs.

33 And when they were come into a place called Golgotha, that is to ſay, A place of a ſcull, 34 ¶ They gave him vineger to drink, mingled with gall : and when he had taſted thereof, he would not drink.

35 And they crucified him, and parted his garments, caſting lots : that it might be fulfilled which was ſpoken by the prophet, They parted my garments among them, and upon my veſture did they caſt lots.

36 And ſitting down they watched him there :

37 And ſet up over his head, his accuſation written, THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

38 Then were there two thieves crucified with him : one on the right hand, and another on the left.

39 ¶ And they that paſſed by, reviled him, wagging their heads,

40 And ſaying, Thou that deſtroyeſt the temple, and buildeſt it in three days, ſave thy ſelf : if thou be the Son of God, come down from the croſs.

41 Likewiſe alſo the chief prieſts mocking him, with the ſcribes and elders, ſaid,

42 He ſaved others, himſelf he cannot ſave : if he be the king of Iſrael, let him now come down from the croſs, and we will believe him.

43 He truſted in God ; let him deliver him now if he will have him : for he ſaid, he was the Son of God.

44 The theives alſo which were crucified with him, caſt the ſame in his teeth.

45 Now from the ſixth hour there was darkneſs over all the land unto the ninth hour.

46 And about the ninth hour Jeſus cryed with a loud voice, ſaying, Eli, Eli, lama ſabachthani, that is to ſay, My God, my God, why haſt thou forſaken me ?

47 Some of them that ſtood there, when they heard that, ſaid, This man calleth for Elias.

MARK XV.

20 And when they had mocked him, they took off the purple from him, and put his own clothes on him, and led him out to crucifie him.

21 And they compel one Simon a Cyrenian, who paſſed by, coming out of the countrey, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to bear his croſs.

22 And they bring him unto the place Golgotha, which is, being interpreted, the place of a ſcull.

23 And they gave him to drink wine mingled with myrrh: but he received it not.

24 And when they had crucified him, they parted his garments, caſting lots upon them, what every man ſhould take.

25 And it was the third hour, and they crucified him.

26 And the ſuperſcription of his accuſation was written over, THE KING OF THE JEWS.

28 And the ſcripture was fulfilled, which ſaith, And he was numbred with the tranſgreſſors.

31 Likewiſe alſo the chief prieſts mocking, ſaid among themſelves with the ſcribes, He ſaved others, himſelf he cannot ſave.

33 And when the ſixth hour was come, there was darkneſs over the whole land, until the ninth hour.

34 And at the ninth hour Jeſus cryed with a loud voice, ſaying, Eloi, Eloi, lama ſabachthani, which is, being interpreted, my God, my God, why haſt thou forſaken me ?

35 And ſome of the byſtanders, when they heard it, ſaid, Behold, he calleth Elias.

64 Command therefore that the ſepulchre be made ſure, until the third day, leſt his diſciples come by night, and ſteal him away, and ſay unto the people, He is riſen from the dead: ſo the laſt error ſhall be worſe then the firſt.

66 So they went and made the ſepulchre ſure, ſealing the ſtone, and ſetting a watch.

MATTH. XXVIII.

IN the end of the ſabbath, as it began to dawn towards the firſt day of the week, came Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary, to ſee the ſepulchre.

2 And behold, there was a great earth-quake; for the angel of the Lord deſcended from heaven, and came and rolled back the ſtone from the door, and ſat upon it.

4 And for fear of him the keepers did ſhake, and became as dead men.

5 And the angel anſwered and ſaid unto the women. Fear not ye: for I know that ye ſeek Jeſus, which was crucified.

6 He is not here; for he is riſen, as he ſaid: come, ſee the place where the Lord lay.

7 And go quickly, and tell his diſciples that he is riſen from the dead; and behold, he goeth before you into Galilee, there ſhall ye ſee him, lo, I have told you.

8 And they departed quickly from the ſepulchre, with fear & great joy, and did run to bring his diſciples word.

MARK XVI.

AND when the ſabbath was paſt, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, had bought ſweet ſpices, that they might come and anoint him.

2 And very early in the morning, the firſt day of the week, they came unto the ſepulchre at the riſing of the ſun.

3 And they ſaid among themſelves, Who ſhall roll us away the ſtone from the door of the ſepulchre?

4 (And when they looked, they ſaw that the ſtone was rolled away) for it was very great.

5 And entring into the ſepulchre, they ſaw a young man ſitting on the right ſide, clothed in a long white garment; and they were affrighted.

6 And he ſaith unto them, Be not affrighted: ye ſeek Jeſus of Nazareth, which was crucified: he is riſen: he is not here: behold the place where they laid him.

7 But go your way, tell his diſciples & Peter, that he goeth before you into Galilee: there ſhall ye ſee him, as he ſaid unto you.

8 And they went out quickly, and fled from the ſepulchre; for they trembled, & were amazed: neither ſaid they any thing to any man; for they were afraid

LUKE XXIV.

NOw upon the firſt day of the week, very early in the morning, they came unto the ſepulchre, bringing the ſpices which they had prepared, and certain others with them.

3 And they entred in, and found not the body of the Lord Jeſus.

4 And it came to paſs, as they were much perplexed thereabout, behold two men ſtood by them in ſhining garments.

5 And as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they ſaid unto them, why ſeek ye the living among the dead?

6 He is not here, but is riſen: remember how he ſpake unto you when he was yet in Galilee,

7 Saying, The Son of man muſt be delivered into the hands of ſinful men, and be crucified, and the third day riſe again.

8 And they remembred his words,

9 And returned from the ſepulchre and told all theſe things unto the eleven, and to all the reſt.

10 It was Mary Magdalene, & Joanna, and Mary the mother of James, and other women that were with them, which told theſe things unto the apoſtles.

11 And their words ſeemed unto them as idle tales, & they beleived them not.

12 Then aroſe Peter, & ran unto the ſepulchre, & ſtooping down, he beheld the linen clothes laid by themſelves, and departed, wondring in himſelf at that which was come to paſs.

JOHN XX.

THE firſt day of the week cometh Mary Magdalene early when it was yet dark unto the ſepulchre.

2 Then ſhe runneth, and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the other diſciple whom Jeſus loved, and ſaith unto them. They have taken away the Lord out of the ſepulchre, and we know not where they have laid him.

3 Peter therefore went forth, and that other diſciple, and came to the ſepulchre.

4 So they ran both together? and the other diſciple did out-run Peter, and came firſt to the ſepulchre,

5 And he ſtooping down, and looking in, ſaw the linen clothes lying, yet went he not in.

6 Then cometh Simon Peter following him, and went into the ſepulchre, and ſeeth the linen clothes lie;

7 And the napkin that was about his head, not lying with the linen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by it ſelf.

8 Then went in alſo that other diſciple, which came firſt to the ſepulchre, and he ſaw and believed.

9 For as yet they knew not the ſcripture, that he muſt riſe again from the dead.

10 Then the diſciples went away again unto their own home.

MARK XVI.

10 And she went and told them that had been with him, as they mourned and wept.

11 And they, when they heard that he was alive, and had been seen of her, believed not.

* * * *

13 And they went and told it unto the residue: neither believed they them.

14 ¶ Afterward he appeared unto the eleven, as they sat at meat, and upbraided them with their unbelief, and hardness of heart, because they believed not them which had seen him after he was risen.

LUKE XXIV.

33 And they rose up the same hour, and returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together, and them that were with them,

34 Saying, The Lord is risen indeed, and hath appeared to Simon.

35 And they told what things were done in the way, and how he was known of them in breaking of bread.

36 ¶ And as they thus spake, Jesus himself stood in the midst of them, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you.

37 But they were terrified and affrighted, and supposed that they had seen a spirit.

38 And he said unto them, why are ye troubled, and why do thoughts arise in your hearts;

39 Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I my self: handle me, and see, for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have.

40 And when he had thus spoken, he shewed them his hands and his feet.

41 And while they yet believed not for joy, and wondred, he said unto them, Have ye here any meat?

42 And they gave him a piece of broiled fish and of an honey-comb

JOHN XX.

18 Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples, that she had seen the Lord, and that he had spoken these things unto her.

19 ¶ Then the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut, where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews, came Jesus and stood in the midst, and saith unto them Peace be unto you.

20 And when he had so said, he shewed unto them his hands and his side. Then were the disciples glad when they saw the Lord.

MARK XVI.

9 ¶ Now when Jesus was risen early, the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had cast seven devils.

JOHN XX.

11 ¶ But Mary stood without at the sepulchre weeping: and as she wept, she stooped down, and looked into the sepulchre.

12 And seeth two angels in white, sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain:

13 And they say unto her, woman, why weepest thou? She saith unto them, Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him.

14 And when she had thus said, she turned her self back, and saw Jesus standing, and knew not that it was Jesus.

15 Jesus saith unto her, woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? she supposing him to be the gardener, saith unto him, Sir, If thou have born him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away.

16 Jesus saith unto her, Mary. She turned her self, and saith unto him, Rabboni, which is to say, Master.

17 Jesus saith unto her, Touch me not: for I am not yet ascended to my Father: but go to my brethren, and say unto them, I ascend unto my Father and your Father, and to my God and your God.

MATTH. XXVIII.

9 ¶ And as they went to tell his Disciples, behold, Jesus met them, saying, All hail. And they came, and held him by the feet, and worshipped him.

10 Then said Jesus unto them, be not afraid: go tell my brethren that they go into Galilee, and there shall they see me.

11 ¶ Now when they were going, behold, some of the watch came into the city, and shewed unto the chief Priests all the things that were done.

12 And when they were assembled with the elders, and had taken councel, they gave large money unto the souldiers.

13 Saying, Say ye, His Disciples came by night, and stole him away while we slept.

14 And If this come to the governours ears, we will perswade him, and secure you.

15 So they took the money, and did as they were taught: and this saying is commonly reported among the Jews until this day.

MARK XVI.

12 ¶ After that, he appeared in another form unto two of them, as they walked, and went into the countrey.

LUKE XXIV.

13 ¶ And behold, two of them went that same day to a village called Emmaus, which was from Jerusalem, about threescore furlongs.

14 And they talked together of all these things which had happened.

15 And it came to pass, that while they communed together, and reasoned, Jesus himself drew near: and went with them.

16 But their eyes were holden, that they should not know him.

17 And he said unto them, What manner of communications are these that ye have one to another, as ye walk, and are sad?

18 And the one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answering, said unto him, Art thou only a stranger in Jerusalem, and hast not known the things which are come to pass there in these dayes?

19 And he said unto them, What things? And they said unto him, Concerning Jesus of Nazareth, which was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God, and all the people.

20 And how the chief priests and our rulers delivered him to be condemned to death, and have crucified him.

21 But we trusted that it had been he which should have redeemed Israel, and beside all this; to day is the third day since these things were done.

22 Yea, and certain women also of our company made us astonished, which were early at the sepulchre:

23 And when they found not his body, they came, saying, that they had also seen a vision of angels, which said that he was alive.

24 And certain of them which were with us, went to the sepulchre, and found it even so as the women had said; but him they saw not.

25 Then he said unto them, O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken.

26 Ought not Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter into his Glory?

27 And beginning at Moses, and all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the scripture, the things concerning himself.

28 And they drew nigh unto the village, whither they went; and he made as though he would have gone further.

29 But they constrained him, saying, Abide with us, for it is towards evening and the day is far spent. And he went in to tarry with them.

30 And it came to pass, as he sat at meat with them, he took bread and blessed it, and brake, and gave to them.

31 And their eyes were opened, and they knew him; and he vanished out of their sight.

32 And they said one to another, Did not our heart burn within us, while he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the scriptures?

26 ¶ And after eight days, again his diſciples were within, and Thomas with them: then came Jeſus, the doors being ſhut, and ſtood in the midſt, and ſaid, Peace be unto you.

27 Then ſaith he to Thomas, Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands; and reach hither thy hand, and thruſt it into my ſide: and be not faithleſs, but believing.

29 Jeſus ſaith unto him, Thomas, becauſe thou haſt ſeen me, thou haſt believed: bleſſed are they that have not ſeen, and yet have believed.

The Reduction of the Jewiſh Weights, Coins and Meaſures, to our Engliſh Standards.

§ 1. ALthough I have, in the ſeveral places of Scripture where any of the Jewiſh Weights, Coins or Meaſures are mention'd reduced them, in my Notes, to the Proportion of our Engliſh Standards, yet, for the fuller ſatisfaction of the inquiſitive Reader, who is deſirous to underſtand what Grounds I go upon, I ſhall treat of them particularly in this Diſcourſe.

§ 2. I begin with the Weights; which were principally two, the Shekel, and the Talent: concerning which I ſhall endeavour to ſhew, (1.) The true Weight of the Shekel. (2.) Thence gather its Value, both in Gold and Silver. (3.) Prove that there was but one ſort of Shekel. (4.) From the Shekel deduce both the Weight and Value of a Talent, both in Gold and Silver. (5.) Conſider thoſe prodigious Quantities of Gold and Silver provided by David for the Temple. (6.) Make it appear that all Talents mention'd in Scripture are of an equal Weight. (7.) Set down the value of all other Coins mention'd in Scripture.

And then proceed to the Conſideration of the Meaſures, both for Extent and Capacity, both for liquid and dry things: and at laſt add a Table of the whole.

§ 3. Firſt, Concerning the Shekel, I obſerve, (1.) That it's the firſt Meaſure of the Weight and Value of things we find mention'd in Scripture. (2.) That there's no mention at all of it in the New Teſtament, probably becauſe Judea was then a Roman Province, and ſo they made uſe of the Roman Money, Matt. 17. 26. (and therefore thoſe Shekels extant, if genuine, muſt be coin'd before their Subjection to the Romans.) (3.) In the Old Teſtament it's mention'd both as a Weight and as a Coin. (1.) As a Weight, whereby the Weight of Gold, Silver, Braſs, Iron, Spices and other Commodities was computed: as Gen. 24. 22. Ex. 30. 23, 24. & 38. 24, 29. Num. 7. 13, &c. & 31. 52. Jud. 8. 26. 1 Sam. 17. 5, 7. 2 Sam. 14. 26. & 21. 16. 1 Kin. 10. 16. 2 Chron. 3. 9. Ezek. 4. 16. (2.) As a Coin, whereby the Value of things was meaſur'd or reckon'd, (and even in this capacity it was commonly paid by Weight, as many places expreſs, Jer. 32. 9. Zech. 11. 12. Am. 8. 5. 1 Chron. 22. 25. Eſt. 3. 9. pay, Hebr. weigh:) as Gen. 23. 15, 16. & 24. 22. Ex. 21. 32. Lev. 5. 15. & 23. 7. Num. 3. 47, 50. & 18. 16. Deut. 22. 19, 29. Jud. 17. 10. 2 Sam. 24. 24. 1 Kin. 10. 29. 2 Kin. 7. 1, 18. And this Obſervation leads me to conſider it in both Capacities.

I. § 4. I begin with it as a Weight; which muſt firſt be truly ſtated and fix'd, as a foundation to all that follows. And here for this purpoſe I might produce the Teſtimonies of ſeveral of the Ancients, Joſephus, Philo, Heſychius, Jerom and others, who compare it with the Coins of other Nations, and equal it to the Attic Tetradrachm: and accordingly the Half-ſhekel, that was to be paid to the Sanctuary (Ex. 30. 13.) is called in the N. T. δίδραχμα, Matt. 17. 24. And the LXX. frequently render the word שקל by δίδραχμον, viz. the Alexandrian (the Weight of the Countrey where they abode when they tranſlated the Scripture) which was double to the Attic; and therefore equal to the Attic Tetradrachm; ſo that from hence we might give a pretty near gueſs at the Weight of it. But becauſe theſe are not ſo exact and certain a Guide in this point as I would deſire, therefore I paſs them over, and ſhall inſiſt onely upon the tried Weight of ſuch Shekels as are ſtill extant: and of theſe Villalpand mentions ſeveral weigh'd by him that were juſt a Roman half-ounce. (And yet if there had been ſome ſmall difference of two or three Grains, that were not to be wondred at, conſidering that I have found upon trial, even in our mill'd Money (which yet I ſuppoſe is the moſt exact that ever was coin'd) two or three Grains difference in Pieces of all ſorts, not onely of Silver, but in Guinies themſelves too,) I ſhall therefore take it for granted upon this ground, (which is the moſt certain and demonſtrable that the Subject admits of) That the Standard-weight of a Shekel is the ſame with a Roman half-ounce. Now the Roman ounce (as Mr. Greaves has adjuſted it from the Standard, Greaves of the Roman Denarius, p. 120.) contains four hundred thirty eight Grains: And this alſo is the exact number of Grains in the Ounce Avoirdupois, (as Dr. Chamberlain aſſures us, Angliæ Notit. part 1. p. 14. Edit. 1671.) the half whereof is two hundred and nineteen: So that the Jewiſh Shekel, according to its original Weight (ſo far as we can gather) agrees exactly with our Half-ounce Avoird. This therefore I fix upon as the true Weight of the Jewiſh Shekel, viz. two hundred and nineteen Grains, which is the firſt thing to be conſidered.

II. § 5. The ſecond is, to find out the Value of it as a Coin: for which I proceed thus: The Ounce Troy (which is that ſort of Weight that is uſed in our Nation to meaſure the Weight and Value of Gold and Silver by) I reckon at juſt five Shillings in Silver. For though, according to the Rules of the Mint, it be coin'd into ſixty two pence, or five ſhillings two pence, and proportionably the Pound Troy into three pounds two ſhillings, yet the odd two pence in the Ounce, and two ſhillings in the Pound is allowed for Mintage (as Dr. Chamberlain informs us, p. 14.) Now this Ounce contains four hundred and eighty Grains: which being divided by ſixty (the Number of pence in an Ounce) gives Eight, ſo that there are eight Grains to a penny: and therefore a Shekel, weighing two hundred and nineteen Grains (as has been proved) at the rate of eight Grains to a penny, comes to two ſhillings three pence farthing half farthing. This then is the value of a Shekel in Silver.

Then for the Value of a Shekel in Gold, to find out that, we muſt conſider the Proportion between Gold and Silver. Among the Jews this is commonly reckoned to be ten fold: and ſo much may probably be gathered from the Gold and Silver that David provided for the Temple, which was ten times as much Silver as Gold, 1 Chron 22. 14. and from 2 Kin. 18. 14. Among the Greeks and Romans alſo it was commonly ten fold, as appears by ſeveral paſſages in Pollux, Livy, Polybius, Heſychius and others (quoted by Mr. Greaves, of the Denar. p. 68.) Yet there was no ſtanding Rule in this caſe; but it varied according as the one or the other Metal was more plentifull: ſometimes it was ten fold, ſometimes twelve fold, ſometimes fourteen fold (as the Learned Breerwood ſhews out of ſeveral ancient Authors, De Ponder. c. 20.) With us at preſent it is ſixteen fold: for as an Ounce Troy of Silver is worth five ſhillings, ſo an Ounce of Gold of the Mint alloy is valued by the Goldſmiths at four pounds, (though I have ſeen a Medal of Gold of King Charles the Second's weighing above ſix Ounces, for which a Goldſmith gave four pounds ſix ſhillings the Ounce, in regard of its extraordinary fineneſs.) And therefore in reducing the Value of Gold to our Money, I muſt compute it accordingly: and ſo an Ounce Troy of Gold being valued at four pounds, that comes juſt to two pence a Grain; and there being two hundred and nineteen Grains in a Shekel, that comes to one pound, ſixteen ſhillings and ſix pence. In this Computation I take it for granted that their common Gold was much what of the ſame fineneſs with our currant Gold; which one may reaſonably doe, becauſe ours is of a middling fineneſs, viz. to eleven parts of pure Gold almoſt a twelfth of Alloy. And therefore ſome of the Gold prepared for the Temple being finer than ordinary, 1 Chron. 28. 18. and 29. 4.) there muſt be a proportionable advance in the computation of the value of it; though the weight be ſtill the ſame; which is the main thing conſiderable. And thus we have ſtated both the Weight and Value of a Shekel both in Gold and Silver.

III. § 6. There remains one thing more to be ſpoken unto about the Shekel, and that is, to conſider thoſe words of Deſcription, or Limitation, that are ſometimes uſed concerning it (which ſeem to imply a difference between Shekels) which are theſe two, [After the Shekel of the Sanctuary] and [After the King's Weight.] The phraſe, [after the Shekel of the Sanctuary] is uſed in ſpeaking of the Ranſome paid by every one at their Numbring, (Exod. 30. 13.) of the Weight of the Spices for the holy Oil, (v. 24.) of the Gold that was uſed about the Tabernacle, (Ex. 38. 24.) of the Poll-money, (v. 25, 26.) Treſpaſs-money, (Lev. 5. 15.) the Eſtimation of Perſons, and Value of Things, (Lev. 27. 3, 25.) the Redemption-money for the Firſt-born, (Num. 3. 47, 50.) the Offerings of the Princes, (Num. 7. 13, &c.) the Price of thoſe that were to be redeem'd, (Num. 18. 16.) And from this Expreſſion ſome modern Authors have coin'd a Diſtinction of a two-fold Shekel, Sacred and Civil; the former double in proportion to the latter. But I ſhall (1.) diſprove that Diſtinction, by proving that there was but one ſort of Shekel: and then (2.) aſſign what I apprehend to be the true Reaſons of that Denomination.

For the firſt, I had thought upon ſeveral Arguments for the Diſproof of that Diſtinction, taken from the Novelty of it; there being a deep ſilence in all ancient Authors of any other Shekel but one: from the Inſcription of thoſe Shekels that are extant, and alſo from their Impreſſion. But I have lately hit upon one which I think will doe the buſineſs ſufficiently it ſelf, being both moſt evident and alſo moſt cogent; and therefore I ſhall lay aſide the others, and inſiſt onely upon that. It is taken from two places of Scripture compared together; the firſt is, Ex. 30. 13. where God ſpeaks expreſly of the Shekel of the Sanctuary, and defines it to be twenty Gerahs: the other is, Ezek. 45. 9--12. where God beſpeaks the Princes and Civil Governours to execute Judgment and Juſtice, and to ſee that there be juſt Weights and Meaſures (whereby it's evident that he ſpeaks of civil commerce one with another) and in order hereunto, here alſo he defines the Shekel (for this civil commerce) to be twenty Gerahs, v. 12. This Argument alone, I think, may put an end to this diſpute.

§ 7. Then ſecondly, for the Reaſons of the denomination, or addition, [of the Sanctuary,] it was ſo called for one or both of theſe Reaſons; (1.) Becauſe the Standard thereof (as of all other Weights and Meaſures) was kept in the Sanctuary; as is manifeſt from 1 Chron. 23. 29. (as it was afterwards practis'd both by Heathens and Chriſtians.) (2.) Becauſe thoſe things to which that phraſe is applied were of Sacred concern; as appears by thoſe places forequoted. Theſe I conceive were the Reaſons of that denomination [The Shekel of the Sanctuary.]

§ 8. Beſides which there is alſo another Note of Limitation, which is uſed once, and but once, and that is [after the King's Weight,] 2 Sam. 14. 26. where it's ſpoken of the weight of Abſalom's hair. Now as there were two reaſons given of that expreſſion [The Shekel of the Sanctuary] ſo proportionably we may aſſign two more for this, correſponding to the former; as (1.) It's ſo expreſt, becauſe, as there was a Standard kept for Weights in the Sanctuary, ſo doubtleſs there was alſo another in or about the King's Court; (as with us one Standard is kept in the Exchequer) ſo that when it's ſaid, He weighed the Hair of his Head at two hundred Shekels after the King's Weight, it's no more than if it had been ſaid, It weighed two hundred Shekels, after the moſt exact weight: as if we ſhould ſay, it weigh'd ſo much according to the Standard in the Exchequer. (2.) It may be for this Reaſon alſo, becauſe that which is here mention'd to be weigh'd did not in the leaſt relate to the Sanctuary; nor was of any Sacred concern: and therefore the Shekels wherewith it was weighed are ſaid to be after the King's weight, i. e. ſuch wherewith they weighed all manner of commodities for civil uſes: whereas the Expreſſion [Shekel of the Sanctuary] is never uſed but of things relating to the Sanctuary, (as I ſaid.) To which I may add in the third place, (3.) It may ſignifie no more than, That it weigh'd ſo much, being weigh'd by ſome Weights that they had there at hand about the Court.

IV. § 9. Having found out and fix'd the Weight and Value of a Shekel, it's eaſie from thence to gather what a Talent amounts unto. In a Talent there were three thouſand Shekels: as may be plainly inferr'd from, Ex. 38. 25, 26. where ſix hundred thouſand, three thouſand five hundred and fifty men paying each of them half a Shekel, they are reckon'd to amount unto a hundred Talents, and a thouſand ſeven hundred ſeventy five Shekels: for ſix hundred thouſand Half-ſhekels make three hundred thouſand Shekels; there's the hundred Talents; and then three thouſand five hundred and fifty Half-ſhekels make one thouſand ſeven hundred ſeventy five Shekels, and ſo many they are reckon'd to be above the hundred Talents. Now every Shekel being half an Ounce Avoird. and there being ſixteen Ounces in every Pound Avoird. the three thouſand Shekels weigh ninety three Pounds, twelve Ounces: And then the Value of a Shekel in Silver being two ſhillings three pence farthing half-farthing, the Talent after that rate amounts unto three hundred forty two pounds, three ſhillings and nine pence; and in Gold it is ſixteen times as much, viz. five thouſand four hundred ſeventy five pounds, from whence,

V. § 10. I proceed to the conſideration of thoſe vaſt quantities of Gold and Silver prepar'd by David for the Temple, which it were eaſie (according to the foregoing account) to caſt up into Thouſands and Millions. But I ſhall go another way to work, and that is, to compute them by Tuns, or Cart-loads. A Tun is twenty hundred weight, reckoning five ſcore and twelve pounds Avoird. to the hundred; which amounts in the whole to two thouſand two hundred and forty pounds weight. Now a Talent being ninety three pounds three quarters (as was ſaid) to make a Tun there goes twenty four Talents; which amount unto two thouſand two hundred and fifty pounds; which is ten pound more than a Tun; and accordingly, a hundred Talents are four Tun and four hundred and fifteen pounds over: and a Thouſand Talents are forty two Tun wanting three hundred and thirty pounds: and Ten Thouſand Talents are four hundred and eighteen Tun and a half and ſixty pounds over: and a hundred thouſand Talents are four thouſand one hundred eighty five Tun and ſix hundred pounds over: and ſo much there was in Gold. And a thouſand thouſand Talents are forty one thouſand eight hundred fifty two Tun and a half and four hundred pound over: and ſo much there was in Silver, (1 Chron. 22. 14.) The whole amounts unto forty ſix thouſand thirty eight Tun, or Cart-loads, wanting but about a hundred weight.

And this, I think, is a much more intelligible way of reckoning to ordinary capacities for ſuch a vaſt Sum, and gives one more familiar and eaſie thoughts of it than by Millions heapt one upon another: which yet if any one be deſirous to be ſatisfied in, it ſtands thus: The hundred thouſand Talents of Gold amount unto five hundred forty ſeven Millions and a half: The thouſand thouſand Talents of Silver amount unto three hundred forty two Millions, one hundred eighty five thouſand, ſeven hundred and fifty pounds. In all, eight hundred eighty nine Millions, ſix hundred eighty five thouſand, ſeven hundred and fifty pounds Sterling.

The Immenſity of which Treaſure has ſeem'd to ſome ſo incredible, that they have fancied, or at leaſt been inclinable to ſuſpect there might be ſome difference between the Talents in Moſes's and David's time, and that the latter was much leſs than the former. To countenance which, a paſſage is quoted out of Homer, to ſhew that a Talent was of no great Value. This therefore I come to conſider in the next place. And here,

VI. § 11. That all Talents mention'd in Scripture were of an equal weight, I prove,

1. By this Negative Argument; Becauſe there's not the leaſt ground imaginable in Scripture for any difference among them. In the mention of Shekels indeed there are ſometimes ſome words of diſtinction us'd, which might lead into that opinion of a difference of Shekels, but here from firſt to laſt there's never any word or ſyllable of diſtinction of Talents: and therefore we muſt take it for granted that whereſoever the word [Talent] is us'd, it ſignifies the ſame weight. For I know not why that Rule, Non eſt diſtinguendum, &c. ſhould not hold good in this caſe as well as others.

2. By theſe Poſitive Arguments: (1.) By the weight of thoſe Talents beſtowed by Naaman upon Gehazi (which was long after David's time, viz. about ſeven ſcore years) which was ſo great that he was feign to have two men to carry his two Talents, 2 Kin. 5. 23. So that a Talent was a man's burthen then; and ſo may well amount unto what I have aſſign'd it to be in Moſes's time, viz. ninety three pounds and three quarters. (2.) By that paſſage, 2 Chron. 25. 6. where it's ſaid, that Amaziah hired a hundred thouſand men for a hundred Talents, that is, A thouſand men for a Talent: which being in Moſes's time three thouſand Shekels (as I have ſhewed) comes to three Shekels, that is, ſix ſhillings ten pence a man: and ſurely one can't imagin they ſhould be hir'd for leſs; which yet they muſt be, if a Talent were leſs in thoſe days than it was in Moſes's. (3.) Becauſe we find that a Shekel was exactly the ſame after the Captivity as it was in Moſes's time; as appears by comparing Ex. 30. 13. with Ezek. 45. 12. in both which places the ſame number of Gerahs is aſſign'd to it; whence one may probably gather, that as the Shekel was the ſame, ſo was the Talent too, becauſe they depended one upon another.

And therefore as to thoſe grounds of ſcruple or ſtumbling which ſome have taken in this matter, either from the incredible Prodigiouſneſs of thoſe Sums according to the common account of Talents; or from that paſſage in Homer; I anſwer, and firſt to the former, I have theſe two things to offer: (1.) That we reade once (though but once) in humane Story of a greater Treaſure, viz. that of Sardanapalus; which by the account that is given of it by the Learned Brerewood did amount unto in Gold five thouſand ſix hundred twenty five Millions: in Silver four thouſand ſix hundred eighty ſeven Millions, and five hundred thouſand pounds, and therefore this need not derogate from the credibility of it. But becauſe there may be much of uncertainty either in the Relation, or the Account, therefore I add farther, That ſuppoſe we had never read of the like, yet, (2.) Methinks it's very reaſonable and becoming, that he who was the Creator and Lord of all the Gold and Silver in the World, ſhould (for once at leaſt) have the greateſt quantity thereof imploy'd about his Service, and about that

Houſe

House which was so sacred and mystically significant a Structure, and the most magnificent that ever the World saw, say some.

Then, for that passage of Homer, I answer, That the Talents of several Nations differed so much (as might easily be proved, but that it is sufficiently known to all those that know any thing of this nature) that no argument at all can be fetch'd from thence.

And thus I have gon over and dispatch'd the several particulars relating to the Shekel and Talent.

VII. § 12. Lastly, For the other Coins mention'd in Scripture, with their Value, they are as follows.

1. Maneh; (rendred a Pound,) which in mere weight, without respect to Coinage, contain'd a hundred Shekels: as appears by comparing 1 Kin. 10. 17. with 2 Chron. 9. 16. where, in the former place it's said, Three Manehs of Gold went to one Shield: in the latter, three hundred Shekels went to a Shield. But in Coin it contains but sixty Shekels; as appears by Ezek. 45. 12. which is six pounds sixteen shillings and ten pence half-penny.

2. Darchmon, or Adarcon; rendred a Dram, 1 Chron 29.7. Ezr. 2. 69. Neh. 7. 70, 71. It was a Persian Coin, in value about two and twenty shillings.

3. Stater, rendred a piece of Money, Matth. 17. 27. equal to a Shekel: for it serv'd to pay the Tribute to the Temple due for two of them, which was half a Shekel a piece: and accordingly St. Jerom makes Stater and Siclus all one. Siclus, saith he, i. e. Stater quatuor habet Drachmas Atticas, in Ezek. 3 and so was in value two shillings and three pence farthing half-farthing.

4. Denarius, rendred a Penny; and often mention'd in the N. T. It weigh'd about sixty Grains, that is, seven pence half-penny.

5. Assarius, rendred a Farthing, Matth. 10. 29. Luk. 12. 6. in value a Farthing and half.

6. Quadrans, rendred also a Farthing, Matt. 5. 26. but was in value but half the Assarius, viz. three quarters of a Farthing.

7. Lepton, rendred a Mite, Mar. 12. 42. in value half the Quadrans.

Thus I have with sufficient exactness, I think, adjusted the Weight and Value of the Jewish Coins, and the rest mention'd in Scripture, both in Gold and Silver, and reduc'd them to our currant Money. Proceed we now to their Measures.

The Reduction of the Jewish Measures.

§ 13. And here we must content our selves with less certainty and exactness (at least as to some of them) than in the former point; because we have no Pole-star to steer our course by, no solid foundation to build upon; there being none of them extant, as there is of the Shekel, (and as there is of the Roman Congius in the Palace of Farnese at Rome, from whence Mr. Greaves deduces all their Measures.)

Measures are of two sorts; of Extent; as of Length, Breadth, and Height: or of Content and Capacity; And these also are of two sorts, either for Liquid, or Dry things. Of these Measures of Capacity we reade of several in Scripture. The Cor or Homer, the Ephah and Bath, the Seah, the Hin, the Omer, the Kab, and the Log.

1. The Cor, Corus or Homer; which was a Measure both for Dry and Liquid things: for it's made the Standard whereby to adjust both the Bath and Ephah, Ezek. 45. 14. and accordingly it's used both concerning Wheat and Oil, 1 Kin. 5. 11. In all other places it's applied onely to Dry things; as to Flower and Meal, 1 Kin. 4. 22. to Wheat and Barley, 2 Chron. 2. 10. & 27. 5. to Wheat, Ezr. 7. 22. This contains ten Ephahs or Baths, Ezek. 45. 11, 14.

2. The Ephah, which is applied onely to dry things, as to fine Flower, Lev. 5. 11. & 28. 5. to Barley Meal (Soheth) Jud. 6. 19. 1 Sam. 1. 24. to Barley, Ruth 2. 17. to parch'd Corn, 1 Sam. 17. 17. to Wheat, Ezek. 45. 13.

3. The Bath, which is applied onely to Liquids; as the Capacity of the Brasen Sea is computed thereby, 1 Kin. 7. 26. and of the Laver, v. 38. to Wine and Oil, 2 Chron. 2. 10. Ezr. 7. 22.

4. The Seah, rendred a Measure; always applied to dry things; as fine Flower, Gen. 18. 6. fine Flower and Barley, 2 Kin. 7. 1, 16. parch'd Corn, 1 Sam. 25. 18.

5. The Hin, always applied to Liquids; as to Oil and Wine frequently; and once to Water, Ezek. 4. 11.

6. An Omer, applied to the proportion of Manna allow'd to every man for his daily provision, Ex. 16. 16. and was the quantity of the First-fruits they were to bring of their Harvest, Lev. 23. 10. rendred there, A Sheaf, Marg. Handfull, i. e. they were to bring such a Sheaf, or Handfull, as contain'd an Omer in it. And thus it signifies most commonly in speaking of the First-fruits. It was the tenth part of an Ephah, Ex. 16. 36.

7. A Kab, mention'd onely 2 Kin. 6. 25.

8. A Log, mention'd onely Lev. 14. 10, 12, 15, 21. where it's spoken of a quantity of Oil.

We reade also frequently in the business of Sacrifices of

9. A Tenth Deal, or Tenth Part, viz. of an Ephah; as appears plainly by comparing Ex. 29. 40. with Num. 28. 5. where, that which is called in Exodus a Tenth Deal (עשרון, Gnissaron) is called in Numbers the Tenth part of an Ephah. Now the Tenth part of an Ephah, upon other occasions, is called an Omer, Ex. 16. 36. and why that word is not made use of upon this occasion also, Non liquet.

This is all the Account we have in Scripture of their Measures; whereby it appears that there are three of them, and no more, that have a dependence upon, and are proportioned to, one another, viz. the Homer or Cor, that it contains ten Ephahs; and the Ephah that it contains ten Omers: but how much any one of them was, we are to seek.

§ 14. The Rabbinical Account of them by Egg-shels gives a very uncertain sound; yet such as it is I have here transcrib'd.

A Quadrant, or Quarter, is an Egg and a half. A Log is four Quadrants, or six Eggs. A Kab is four Logs, or twenty four Eggs. A Hin is twelve Logs, or seventy two Eggs. A Seah is six Kabs, twenty four Logs, two Hins, or a hundred forty four Eggs. An Ephah is three Seahs, eighteen Kabs, six Hins, seventy two Logs, or four hundred thirty two Eggs. R. Alphes, in Treat. of Pass. c. 5. as quoted by Mr. Ainsw. on Ex. 30. 24.

But for all these we have onely their bare words; which of what value they are, I leave others to judge.

And therefore we are much beholding to Dr. Cumberland who in his late ingenious and learned Essay for the Recovery of the Jewish Weights and Measures, has, with the greatest clearness and satisfaction of any that I have met with, adjusted these Measures; which therefore I shall briefly state and compute according to his grounds. And the Measures for Dry things I shall reduce to our Corn-measure, which is that we measure all Dry things by: but those for Liquids I shall reduce to our Wine-measure, as being most proper for them.

§ 15. The Measures for Dry things are,

1. The Cor, or Homer, which contains eight Bushels and almost a half of Winchester measure.
2. The Ephah, which is six Gallons, or three Pecks, and three Pints, and something more.
3. The Seah, which is one Peck and a Pint.
4. The Omer, five Pints and a little more.
5. The Kab, almost three Pints.

Then for Liquids.

1. The Homer, or Cor, contains seventy five Wine-gallons, five Pints, and a little more.
2. The Bath, seven Gallons, two Quarts, and half a Pint.
3. The Hin, one Gallon and a Quart, or five Quarts.
4. The Log, about three quarters of a Pint.

This Computation comes very near Mr. Lee's, in his Learned Discourse of the Temple of Solomon, ch. 5. which renders it the more probable, when there is a Concurrence between learned judicious Persons in the foot of the Account, though they go different ways to work.

§ 16. There remains onely the Measure of Extent, the Cubit, to be considered.

And for this, Dr. Cumberland gathers the length of it by comparing it with the Egyptian Cubit, which has continued the same from the most ancient times till this present, as appears by the Cubits on the Nilometrion, which was first erected by Joseph, as divers Arabian Writers affirm. And he proves that the Jewish Cubit was equal to this of Egypt by these Arguments. (1) Because in all probability, both the Jews, Egyptians, and other Eastern Nations, all received it from their respective Ancestors, the Sons of Noah, and was the same that he made use of in building the Ark. (2.) Because the Jews lived in Egypt for about two hundred years, and therefore most certainly used the same measures then that they did; and so doubtless continued to doe after their Removal from thence; since no reason can be assign'd why they should make any alteration. (3.) Because Moses, upon what occasion soever he speaks of Cubits, makes no distinction, but still speaks of them all as equal and the same. (4.) Because Abulfeda, an Arabian King, who was exceeding curious and diligent in the Doctrine of Measures in the East, affirms that the Jewish Legal Cubit was equal to the Egyptian.

These things, with many other particulars depending thereon, he discourses at large through almost one half of his Essay; whither therefore I refer the inquisitive Reader for fuller satisfaction; it being sufficient for my design, to have given these hints of his Proofs.

Taking it then for granted, that the Jewish and Egyptian Cubit are equal, the next thing is, to enquire into the Length of the Egyptian Cubit: and this is stated by Mr. Greaves, in his Table of the English Foot, compar'd with the Standards of divers Nations, to contain 1824 such parts as the English Foot contains a thousand: that is, twenty two Inches wanting onely a tenth part. And with this Account I shall rest satisfied, and frame my Table accordingly; which is the last step of my designed journey, after which I shall dismiss the Reader from any farther attendance.

Measures for Dry things.

1. Cor or Homer, 8 bushels and almost a half of Winchester measure.
2. Ephah, 6 gallons, or 3 pecks, and 3 pints and a little more.
3. Seah, 1 peck and a pint.

For Liquids.

1. Cor or Homer, 75 Wine gallons, 5 pints and a little more, which is almost a Hogshead and half.
2. Bath, 7 gal. 2 quarts, and half a pint.
3. Hin, 5 quarts. Its half is 5 pints, its third part is 3 pints, and the third part of a pint, its fourth part is a quart and almost half a pint.

* Because every Cubit wants the tenth part of an Inch of what I have set down, therefore in every ten Cubits I deduct an Inch from the former measure: and so there remains as is expresst in the Table.
